A "special agent" for the Lincoln Post has been "doing" the citizens of Murray, according to reports from that place. He recently visited that place and in order to induce the business men of the village to take a write-up in that paper, gave out the impression that for one dollar he would give them the write-up and ten weeks subscription to the paper. Instead of receiving the paper for ten weeks they got ten copies of the paper with the write-up, and that's all. There seems to be considerable dissatisfaction in that little burg.

For Sale or Trade!

The Lone Star State.

Down in Texas, at Youakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is at the head. Mr. Haller on one of his trips east to buy goods said to a friend that was with him in the palace car, "Here take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning feeling good." For the "dark brown" taste, headache and that logy feeling DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the best pills to use. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Consumption

Salt pork is a famous old-fashioned remedy for consumption. "Eat plenty of pork," was the advice to the consumptive 50 and 100 years ago.

Salt pork is good if a man can stomach it. The idea behind it is that fat is the food the consumptive needs most.

Scott's Emulsion is the modern method of feeding fat to the consumptive. Pork is too rough for sensitive stomachs. Scott's Emulsion is the most refined of fats, especially prepared for easy digestion.

Feeding him fat in this way, which is often the only way, is half the battle, but Scott's Emulsion does more than that. There is something about the combination of cod liver oil and hypophosphites in Scott's Emulsion that puts new life into the weak parts and has a special action on the diseased lungs.

A sample will be sent free upon request.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.
