LOCAL BREVITIES.

"Gut Heil," the favorite cigar.

Read Hayden Bro's ad in this paper.

Dr. Marshall, dentist, Fitzgerald block.

C. M. Andrus, of Manly was a county seat visitor Saturday.

Don't fail to come to Plattsmouth on the Glorious Fourth.

Judge Paul Jessen attended the funeral of Jamie Windham Sunday.

Judge Chapman was in Lincoln Tuesday on business in the supreme court.

Charles H. Boedecker of near Murray was a Plattsmouth visitor Saturday.

Hon. William Deiles Denier was over from Elmwood Saturday on business.

Take a day off from your farm work and come to Plattsmouth next Monday.

Oliver Edmunds and son visited with friends in Columbus, Neb., this week.

Mrs. E. S. Barstow was down from Lincoln visiting a few days the past week.

The family of Frank Hewett, who have been residing at Osceola, Iowa, have returned to Plattsmouth.

Rev Jackson, pastor of the M. E. church at Murray, passed through this city Monday, enroute for Bethany, Neb.

Miss Gertrude Fassbender was the guest of Miss Rena Stowell in Nebraska City last week during the street carnival

Mr. and Mrs W. L. Pickett returned Sunday from their visit to Evansville, Indiana, and the St. Louis exposition Monday.

Chas. A. Boeck and family of Redland, California, came in Saturday evening to pay a visit to his Uncle, Henry Boeck and wife.

Mrs. McVicker was called to Malvern, Iowa, Thursday evening to attend the funeral of her cousin, Walter Boles, whose death occured Wednesday.

H. Spangler, one of Cass county's most industrious farmers, was in Saturday to renew for another year. Mr. Spangler reports corn prospects exceedingly bright.

Theo Starksjohn, one of our enterprising farmers, called Saturday and had another credit mark placed opposite his name on the Journal's subscription list.

John Koop, one of the Journal readers at Louisville, was in the city Saturday, and of course being a good democrat and a great friend of this paper, called for a short time.

When ordering your Fourth of July beverages, be sure to include a good supply of Gund's celebrated Peerless Beer. Order from your local dealer, or John Gund Brewing Co., LaCrasse, Wisconsin.

J. I. Sanders departed for O'Neil, Neb., yesterday, where he expects to enter 160 acres in the district mentioned in the Kinkade bill. There seems to be quite a rush to that section, and the best lands will be grabbed up in a jiffy

Chas. Murphy, of near Manley, was in the city Saturday, and while here called at the Journal headquarters to renew for another year. Mr. Murphy also had his name transferred from the Manley list to that of Weeping Water, from which point he gets the advantages of R. F. D. No. 9.

Mrs. George Hay departed yesterday for Elmood, Neb., in response to a telegram informing her of the serious illness of her mother. She was accompanied by her neice, Eva Hay, who will remain with her parents in Nebraska.—Central City (S. D.) Register.

Wm. Stadleman of Birmingham, Ala., arrived in Plattsmouth Tuesday evening, and has since been greeting old friends. Mr. Stadleman was for many years a resident of this city, and is well known as "Billy" Stadleman. He was a resident here from 1863 to 1878. He is now engaged in the hotel business at Birmingham.

Ed C. Guthman and wife of Grand Island, Neb., arrived in Plattsmouth Monday evening for a short visit with H. H. Goos and family. The bride was formerly Miss Stella E. McDonald of Grand Island, at which point the groom is in the employ of the Union Pacific railroad. The marriage occurred on Wednesday, June 22, 1904, in the city mentioned.

"I have been troubled for some time with indigestion and sour stomach," says Mrs. Sarah W. Curtis of Lee, Mass., "and have been taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which have helped me very much, so that now I can eat many things that before I could not." If you have any trouble with your stomach why not take these tablets

Fred Gorder came over from Weeping Water Tuesday, accompanied by Misses Minnie Baier and Lora Domingo, who desired to attend the institute a few days. Mr. Gorder gave the Journal a pleasant call Friday, renewing his own subscription for another year, and also that of J. I. Corley. Mr. Gorder is one of those excellent gentleman that it is always a pleasure to meet.

The best soda water in the world at Gering & Co.'s.

Mrs. C. H. Parmele has returned from her visit to Lincoln.

Dr. Frank L. Cummins, dentist. Office with Dr. E. D. Cummins.

Miss Anna Heisel went to South Omaha Tuesday for a visit with friends.

That real, smooth, tasteful ice cream soda costs only 5c, at Gering & Co.'s.

Will Guthman and wife of Walnut, Ia., are visiting relatives in Plattsmouth.

Goes further, looks better and lasts longer. Patton's Sun Proof Paint. Gering & Co. agents.

After a brief visit with relatives in Plattsmouth, Mrs. E. K. Fogerty returned to her home in Havelock Monday

Sunday's Illustrated Bee will contain illustrations of the Elks lodge rooms in Plattsmouth, with a brief write-up of the society.

Mrs. A. E. Oliver, who has been visiting the family of Fred Ramge for some time, returned to her home in Rock Springs, Wyo., Monday.

Mr. William T. Fox and Miss Agnes M. Royal, both of Omaha, were united in the holy bonds of wedlock in this city Saturday evening, June 25, Judge Travis officiating.

Adam Meisinger, one of the Journal's stanch friends who receives the paper at the Cedar Creek postoffice, called Saturday and renewed his allegiance for another year.

Into each life some rains must fall. Wise people don't sit down and bawl: Only fools suicide or take to flight. Smart people take Rocky Mountain Tea at night.—Gering & Co.

Our good German friend, Peter Spader, dropped in Saturday, and while the time for which he had paid for the Journal had not yet expired, he renewed for another year, just the same.

John Scheel living 2½ miles north of Murdock, was here Saturday attending a meeting of the directors of the Cass County Insurance company, and paid his respects to the Journal office.

Shelby (Neb.) Sun: Miss Edith Gray of Plattsmouth is visiting the family of E. Petteys this week.... Miss Bertha Carmack of Plattsmouth is visiting James Lockard and family for a few days.

Now is the time to take a spring tonic to purify the blood, cleanse the liver and kidneys of all impurities. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will do the business. 35 cents. Tea or tablets. Gering & Co.

Stops more pain, relieves more suffering, prevents more heart aches and diseases than any other remedy. That is what Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will do. 35 cents in tea or tablet form. Gering & Co.

G. G. Meisinger, of Cedar Creek, was a caller Saturday for the purpose of renewing his subscription to the Journal. He is one of those patrons who always pays in advance, and knows to a dot when his time expires.

George Stander dropped in Monday morning to renew his mother's subscription at Louisville. He spent Sunday with her and says she is in a very fair way to recovery unless something of a more serious nature should attack her. She had been threated with pneumonia, but that has passed away.

The Nebraska City News says that since the departure of the carnival company, which was there all last week, some people have began to kick. That's always the way. We had 'em here, and some few kicked out of the traces so far that they wouldn't even pay what they subscribed to the company.

Red lemonade will flow, bushels of peanuts will be eaten, ice-cream will be sold at 10 cents a dish, with "spoons" for two, patriotic airs will be sent fortn from the town band, the Star-Spangled banner in triumph will wave, and a good time generally is guaranteed to all who come to Plattsmouth next Monday, the glorious 4th.

W. Paul Fitzgerald of Lincoln and Arthur J. Stratton of Wahoo, members of the Sig Chi fraternity, were in the city Sunday to attend the funeral of their fraternity brother, James P. Windham. Quite a number of his fraternity brothers intended to come, but could not get here on account of the noon train over the Burlington not running on Sunday.

The Journal is pleased to learn that Mrs. Stander, who fell from a step-ladder a short time since at her home in Louisville, and fractured one of her lower limbs, and who had the same amputated, is getting along remarkably well, and her ultimate recovery is now expected. The amputation of the limb at her age, was quite an ordeal for Mrs. Stander to pass through.

R. M. Dungan and wife arrived in this city Tuesday morning for a short visit with friends. Mr. Dungan came in from Hamilton, Montana, where he has been located since leaving this city. He was pastor of the Christian church here for three years, and is enroute for his old home in Canton, Mo., for which point Mr. and Mrs. Dungan will leave tomorrow. The Rev. gentleman gave the Journal a pleasant call Tuesday, and we find him to be a most pleasant gentleman.

Dr. Marshall, Dentist, guaranteed work.

G. N. LaRue, of Union was here on business Friday.

Smoke the Wurl Bros.' celebrated "Gut Heil" cigars.

John Tighe of Manley was a county seat visitor Tuesday.

C. G. Mayfield, Louisville's postmaster, was here Tuesday.

C. H. Taylor of Cubel was a Plattsmouth visitor Monday.

C. A. Richey, was down from Louisville on business Friday.

J. C. Peterson was in Council Bluffs, Iowa, Friday on business.

Miss Ethel Clark, of Lincoln is the guest of Miss Helen Travis.

Crushed fruit of all kinds with ice cream soda, only 5c at Gering & Co.'s.

Dr. W. A. Alton, of Elmwood, was the guest of County Clerk Tyson Friday.

Preaching at Kenosha church Sunday, July 10, at 3 o'clock. You are welcome. S. W. JACKSON.

Not how cheap but how good. Patton's Sun Proof Paint. Sold only by Gering & Co.

W. H. Pool, the live real estate man of Weeping Water, was over on business Monday.

If you are a judge of a good smoke, try the "Acorns" 5 cent cigar and you will smoke no other.

D. J. Pittman, one of Cass county's noblemen, of Murray, was a Plattsmouth visitor Tuesday.

It costs a little more but is by far the best. Patton's Sun Proof Paint. Gering & Co., sole agents.

George Pearson and family are now occuping the Levings property in the northwest part of the city.

Rev. W. F. Bradley departed yesterday for York, Neb., to attend the dedication of a Catholic church.

Charley Patterson came in from Arapahoe, Neb., to attend the funeral of his nephew, Jamie Windham.

W. C. Hamilton returned from Wymore Saturday, where he had been visiting relatives for several days.

The Misses Alice and Ruth Davis, daughters of Mrs. S. A. Davis of Lincoln are in the city visiting friends.

Miss Ida Weidman was the guest of friends in Nebraska City during the street carnival in that city last week.

Mrs. F. W. Lehnhoff went to Newton, Iowa, Saturday morning to visit for some time—at least until after the 4th.

Misses Blanche, Alice and Gladys Sullivan returned from their visit to their aunt in Wichita, Kansas, yesterday.

John Thompson and family departed Tuesday for Washington, with the intention of making that state their future home.

Everybody is coming to Plattsmouth on the Fourth and this is the reason we anticipate the largest crowd ever in the city.

Mr. Harry J. Guthrie and Miss Teresa R. Montgomery, both of Greenwood, were united in Marriage in Lincoln Tuesday, June 28, 1904.

Miss Pearl Wilkinson of Weeping Water, who was here attending the institute, remained over Sunday as the guest of Miss Helen Travis.

W. H. Heil and wife of Eight Mile Grove were in the city Saturday, and while here Mr. Heil dropped in to see how the Journal was getting along.

Farmers, go to Dawson county, Neb. Cheap lands. Make more money. Free alfalfa pamphlet. Write J. M. McColl, Lexington, Neb., or the Putnan Co., Omaha, Neb.

Our old friend Conrad Schlater, was down to the court house a few moments Saturday, and those who saw him say that he is looking better than he has been for some time.

Guy Applegate, a young man living near Union, was brought here yesterday and lodged in jail on a charge of daylight burglary. He will have a preliminary examination this afternoon.

Mrs. Louis Ernest, Evansville, Ind. —"Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is splendid. Makes sick people well. Cured me after others failed." Tea or tablet form. 35 cents. Gering & Co.

J. G. McHugh, former superintendent of the Plattsmouth schools, will arrive in the city today from Winnipeg, Manitoba, and will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Dovey during his visit in this city.

Constipation causes two-thirds of all sickness in the world. Why suffer when Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will make you well and keep you well? 35 cents. Tea or tablet form. Gering & Co.

Do you need more blood, and more flesh, do you need more strength this spring? Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will bring them all. If it fails your money back. 35 cents. Tea or tablet form. Gering & Co.

J. P. Falter is local agent for the Old Reliable Equitable Insurance company of New York. If you desire insurance and will simply examine into the good qualities and merits of the Equitable, you will grasp at the opportunity to place your insurance with this company. Prompt in paying losses is one of their principal features.

"Sam" Hoffman Dead.

The sad news of the death of her son, Charles S., was received by Mrs. Amelia Hoffman on Saturday last. His death, it seems occurred on the 9th day of May, at Relief hospital in San Francisco, California. All the particulars surrounding the case were contained in a newspaper clipping, which was enclosed in a letter to Mrs. Hoffman, in reply to a letter of inquiry about her son. The item stated that every effort had been made to locate his relatives at the time of his heath. "Sam", by which appellation he was generally known here, was a printer by trade, and well known in this city. He was a member of the Typographical Union and of late years had traveled considerably over the country. He was a member of the order of the A. O. U. W., and held a policy for 2,000 made payable to his mother. Everyone deeply sympathises with the bereaved mother.

Sends Greeting to His Friends.

James Stander was down from Louisville yesterday and called to shake hands with the Journal force. We are pleased to see Mr. Stander looking well, also to learn that he was delighted with his trip through the old countries. While absent he visited the Monastery at Birmingham, England, where he had the pleasure of visiting Father Neugent, who is well known in Cass county, where he spent several years. Mr. Stander received a most cordial greeting from Father Neugent, who made diligent inquiry about all his old friends in Cass county And particularly was his inquiry regarding his steadfast friend, Conrad Schlater. He conveyed, through Mr. Stander, his kindest regards to all his friends in the vicinity of College Hill, in particular.

Startling Evidence.

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumpsumption Coughs and Colds to be unequalled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland, Bentonville, Va., serves as example. He writes: "I had bronchitis for three years and doctored all the time without being benefitted. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and a few bottles wholly cured me." Equally effective in curing all lung and throat troubles, consumption, pneumonia and grip. Guaranteed by F. G. Fricke & Co., druggists. Trial bottles free, regular sizes 50c. and $1.00.

Thrown From a Wagon.

Mr. George K. Babcock was thrown from his wagon and severely bruised. He applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely and says it is the best liniment he ever used. Mr. Babcock is a well known citizen of North Plain, Conn. There is nothing equal to Pain Balm for sprains and bruises. It will effect a cure in one-third the time required by any other treatment. For sale by all druggists.

Smoking In a Powder Magazine.

Is courting death more suddenly but not more surely than neglecting kidney disorders. Foley's Kidney Cure will cure a slight disorder in a few days and its continued use will cure the most obstinate cases. It has cured many people of Bright's disease and diabetes who were thought to be incurable. If you have kidney or bladder trouble, commence taking Foley's Kidney Cure today, before it is too late. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Death of An Old Citizen.

The remains of G. W. Adams, for many years a resident of Cass county, arrived in the city this morning, from Traer, Kansas. From here they were conveyed to the Ottoben church, from which the funeral occurred, the services being conducted by Rev. Serface. The deceasad had resided in Cass county, near Murray, a great number of years before going to Kansas, four years ago, and many of his former neighbors and friends attended the last sad rites. Interment was made in the old Mt. Pleasant cemetery.

The remains were accompanied by Mrs. Adams, her daughter and other relatives. The widow and three children survive him.

Asthma Sufferers Should Know This.

Foley's Honey and Tar has cured many cases of asthma that were considered hopeless. Mrs. Adolph Buesing, 701 West Third street, Davenport, Ia., writes: "A severe cold contracted twelve years ago was neglected until it finally grew into asthma. The best medical skill available could not give me more than temporary relief. Foley's Honey and Tar was recommended and one fifty cent bottle entirely cured me of asthma, which had been growing on me for twelve years, and if I had taken it at the start I would have been saved years of suffering." For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Worst of All Experiences.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute may be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newson, Decatur, Ala. "For three years," she writes, "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I'm completely recovered." For liver, kidney, stomach and bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. It's guaranteed by F. G. Fricke & Co., druggists.

Worthily Bestowed.

The class of '94 of the Plattsmouth High school have presented to Miss Ethel Dovey as a highly appreciated token of the esteem in which she is held by the members thereof, a "loving cup," beautifully designed and with her name handsomely engraved thereon. This was a manifestation of their appreciation of her masterly efforts in preparing and presenting "The Silver Shield," which was so magnificently rendered at the close of the school. It is a valuable token, and one which Miss Dovey can look upon with considerable pride in future years.

Dr Marshall, Dentist, Coats' Block.

Feel Impending Doom.

The feeling of impending doom in the minds of many victims of Bright's disease and diabetes has been changed to thankfulness by the benefit derived from taking Foley's Kidney Cure. It will cure incipient Bright's disease and diabetes, and even in the worst cases gives comfort and relief. Slight disorders are cured in a few days. "I had diabetes in its worst form," writes Marion Lee of Dunreath, Ind. "I tried eight physicians without relief. Only three bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure made me a well man." For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.