

Weeping Water

From the Republican.

Mrs. Lacey started today for San Francisco, where she will spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Lowe.

Born—June 23, to Mr. and Mrs. Omer A. Coon of Manley, a boy of the regulation weight.

Miss Ola Barrett of South Omaha is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Charles Philpot, north of town.

Albert Barry is home from Washington for the summer. He is looking well and says he is in love with the west.

Dr. William Thomas reports three cases of scarlet fever at the home of Dan Rockwell, near Manley. The patients are all doing well.

J. R. Josephson was a business visitor Saturday. His corn and wheat are fine and fruit in abundance. Potatoes the best and heaviest crop ever seen in Cass county.

Pool & Colbert report the sale of the Wabash hotel and six lots to H. E. Hinds of Schuyler, Neb. Hinds is a hotel man, and with his family will take possession at Wabash immediately after July 4.

Mr. McCoy of Wabash is here having Dr. Rickard look after his leg, which was injured several weeks ago by being caught in some machinery and badly torn. It has failed to heal and he is compelled to go on crutches.

L. C. Todd was in town Saturday. His finger joint, which was penetrated by the barb of a fence wire some time ago, is improving. The swelling has gone down considerably and the pain is not so severe, but he fears the joint will be stiff.

Prof. Fitch of Yankton (S. D.) college and Prof. Maynard of Washburn college, Topeka, have been elected to take the places of Prof. Thompson and Prof. King, respectively, in the Academy next year. These gentlemen are highly recommended.

Alex Hitchman returned from Tampico, Mexico, where he has been for several months with a corps of engineers. They were called back and Alex came home to spend the summer and may possibly not return with them, but remain at home. His health was good there and he enjoyed his stay very much.

From the Herald.

Albert Barry came in from Everett, Wash., Monday evening, and is visiting his mother and sisters. Albert is looking as natural as of yore.

We have interviewed a number of our teachers in attendance at the county institute last week, and find they all speak well of the week's work.

Mesdames Wessel and Schlichtener of Nehawka were in attendance at the graduating exercises, to see their sister, Miss Baier, carry off the honors of the class.

Among those lucky farmers who have disposed of their wheat to our millers at 80 cents per bushel are J. H. Behrens, 500 bushels; William Hayes, 300 bushels; Fritz Rhuge of Murdock, 300 bushels.

C. A. Vermillion, division superintendent of the Missouri Pacific, while in town one day last week stated that as soon as another time card was issued, which he thought would not be very long, the Nebraska City (Atwell) train would make connection with the north passenger to Plattsburgh and Omaha in the morning, which will mean better service for those having business at the county seat.

Tom Cromwell was in town Saturday on his way to Union to cry a sale. Tom says he is feeding 130 head of cattle and over 300 hogs; besides he recently shipped nine car loads of stock.

Phil Davis went to Omaha Monday to consult a doctor, and perhaps will remain two or three weeks taking treatment. The rheumatism, while not so bad, has left his limbs quite stiff.

During the thunder storm last Thursday night lightning struck and killed two young mare colts belonging to Judd and Festus Reed, and a mule owned by William Dunn, that were in John Colbert's pasture.

Read Hayden Bro's ad in this paper.

Fifty Years the Standard

Dr. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

Improves the flavor and adds to the healthfulness of the food.

PRICE BAKING POWDER CO. CHICAGO

Has stood the test for over 60 years.

MEXICAN Mustang Liniment FOR MAN OR BEAST.

Cures sprains, bruises, burns, cuts, sores, lameness, piles, rheumatism, stiff joints lame back, etc.

Elmwood

From the Leader-Echo.

Ira Burgett left for Cameron, Mo., Friday, to spend the summer.

W. E. Rosencrans and son Clate returned from Duluth, Minn., Friday evening.

Si Mairs' little child has been very sick the past two weeks with typhoid fever.

Archie Mueller left Friday for Waterloo, Ia., where he has secured a good position.

H. Dettman was taken quite sick the latter part of last week with an attack of appendicitis, but is able to be about again.

Anyone wishing to borrow money might do well to call on Miss Pearl Woodard. During her father's absence at Lincoln one day last week Miss Pearl sold several thousand tobacco tags which her father had been saving up for a premium buggy, receiving therefor a check for $45. Jim says he won't be compelled to buy a horse now.

Peter Eveland and wife boarded the Missouri Pacific flyer Monday evening for St. Louis, where they will visit friends and attend the exposition.

Miss Sadie Rivett was picking cherries out at Mrs. Weisheit's place Tuesday, when she had the misfortune to fall from the tree, striking her arm and shoulder on a barrel, severely injuring the shoulder joint.

James Perry and wife of near Olympia, Wash., are visiting old friends in the community, the guests of the former's sister, Mrs. Charles Brann of Wabash. Mr. and Mrs. Perry were old settlers in Elmwood precinct, leaving Cass county in 1875.

Greenwood

From the Enterprise.

The local telephone exchange now has over 100 subscribers.

Henry Cutler of Waurika, Okla., is here visiting with friends for a few days. Mr. Cutler was a former Greenwood citizen.

Mr. Oney Marshall, an old time settler in Greenwood, but now a resident of Ohio, is here visiting with his son T. J. He expects to remain a few weeks.

As a matter of correction of a former error in these columns, we wish to state that Judge Jessen did not decide against Peter A. Smith in the Greenwood saloon case. The saloon is now open for business.

The front of almost every business house in town has been newly painted this summer. D. A. Fulmer, H. H. Flood and John Buck are the last to paint, having finished this week. Who will be the next?

Addison Stone died Thursday evening of tuberculosis at the home of his son, W. M. Stone. The remains were taken to Central City this morning and will be interred tomorrow afternoon. Mr. Stone was born in Olean, N. Y., and died at the age of sixty-three years and ten months. The family have the sympathy of the entire community in their sorrow.

Mrs. J. T. Baird and two children of Cleveland, O., are here for a three month's visit with Mrs. Baird's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Cline. Mrs. Baird spent her childhood days in Greenwood. This is her visit home in twelve years.

The death of William Maston occurred about 12 o'clock Wednesday night of last week. As he was conducting some ladies from the train to his hotel he was struck by a switch engine and died in a short time from his injuries. Deceased was 59 years of age and a former resident of Greenwood, having homesteaded a part of the land North Greenwood now stands on.

F. G. Fricke & Co.

Ask the readers of this paper who are suffering with indigestion or dyspepsia to call on them at once and get a bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. If you know the value of this remedy as we know it, you would not suffer another day. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a thorough digestant and tissue-building tonic as well. It is endorsed personally by hundreds of people whom it has cured of indigestion, dyspepsia, palpitation of the heart and stomach troubles generally. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. It is pleasant, palatable and strengthening.

Union

From the Ledger.

J. G. Stroble of Nebraska City was here Monday making a little investigation as to saloon prospects.

Mrs. Edward Pittman and little son returned Tuesday to their home in Plattsmouth, after visiting with relatives in this vicinity.

Mrs. A. J. Kiepser departed yesterday for the Pacific coast, intending to make several weeks visit in Washington and Oregon.

Chris Bell and sons Fred and Joe were down from east Rock Bluffs precinct Wednesday morning, delivering a fine lot of hogs to our energetic dealer, A. L. Becker.

Mrs. Frank Hoisington, who has been visiting her parents and other relatives in this vicinity, departed Tuesday morning for her home at Julietta, Idaho.

Miss Tina Barrett, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. P. Todd, departed Monday evening for her home at Burlington, Kansas. She will return to this county in time to begin her fall term of school.

A peculiar accident happened at the home of Jesse Dysart southwest of town Tuesday afternoon. While Mrs. Dysart was down cellar the two little children were playing at the top, when the cellar door fell shut and struck the younger child, one year old, inflicting some very painful cuts and bruises about the child's face. The attendance of a physician was necessary to dress the wounds and relieve the intense pain.

Mrs. W. A. Folden, who has been visiting a few weeks with her sister Mrs. Dan Lynn, and other relatives, departed on Wednesday for her home at Lead, S. D.

Geo. W. Saxon and his son Ruby were the first visitors from this village to the St. Louis Exposition, going last Sunday evening and returning Wednesday. Mr. Saxon is not claiming that he took in all the sights, but he saw enough to convince him that it is a great show.

The Original.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered as no other preparation will give the same satisfaction. It is mildly laxative. It contains no opiates and is safest for children and delicate persons. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Louisville

From the Courier.

Martin Jung came home Thursday from Milwaukee, Wis., where he has been attending college.

Miss Mary McGrew left Monday for Red Wing, Minn., for a six weeks' visit with relatives.

H. E. Pankonin and wife and James Terryberry and wife went to St. Louis Monday to visit the world's fair.

Died—At the residence of her son, E. A. Holyoke, Louisville, Marie H. Bartlett, wife of Dr. O. F. Bartlett, aged 71 years, 11 months and 12 days.

Prof. N. W. Gaines, who will be principal of our schools the ensuing year, was in town this week taking a preliminary view of the work and getting acquainted with our people.

At the annual school meeting held Monday afternoon John Group and John Koop were elected members of the school board for a term of three years, E. Palmer and Dr. Worthman's term of office having expired. A levy of fifteen mills for teachers' fund and five mills for general fund was voted. This is a reduction of five mills of the amount levied at the last annual school meeting.

Paint Bargains—Special.

Linseed oil, raw, 45c per gallon. Linseed oil, boiled, 45c per gallon. Carter's white lead, 86.95 per 100 lbs. Southern white lead, 86.95 per 100 lbs. Patton's Sun Proof paint, $1.75 per gallon; 5 gallons or more, $1.60 per gal. Turpentine, 75c per gallon. GERING & Co., Druggists.

Nehawka

From the Register.

Born—Wednesday, June 20, 1904, to Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Beck, a daughter.

F. H. McCarthy of Union was a visitor in the village Wednesday, and in the evening he rode the "ghoat" in the Masonic first degree.

Paul Kirkpatrick is visiting his parents this week. Paul is commercial agent for the M. K. & T. railway, at Waco, Tex., to which place he returned Thursday.

The only thing we can say this week in regard to the mill is that several loads of machinery have been hauled in and workmen are pulling down the old milling property at Factoryville.

C. B. Cook and daughter, Beatrice, of Detroit, Mich., were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Pollard's the first part of the week. Miss Lottie Pollard accompanied them to Lincoln Tuesday, to be in attendance at the Cook-Jones wedding.

A social gathering of young folks invaded the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Newman, living two miles from town, last Sunday evening, and enjoyed an ice cream and strawberry festival, in honor of George Pittman and Miss Della Newman.

At the home of Mr. Stephen Copenhaver, last Sunday, were gathered together about twenty guests, mostly originally from Virginia, in a friendly and sociable reunion. A fine spread was the order of the day. Conversation and a pleasant time were enjoyed by all.

A pleasant feature of the last communication of Nehawka Masonic lodge was enacted by the retiring master, V. P. Sheldon. Just before he laid down the gavel for the last time he opened a box of cigars, and said to the members: "Smoke to the new boy at my house." The air was soon filled with the blue incense of good fellowship, and the young gentleman was voted in unanimously as an associate member.

At the last regular meeting of Nehawka lodge, A. F. & A. M., the following officers were installed for the ensuing Masonic year by Past Master E. A. Kirkpatrick: H. M. Pollard, worshipful master; A. F. Sturm, senior warden; W. W. Wolfe, junior warden; J. M. Stone, treasurer; J. A. Pollard, secretary; L. E. Stone, senior deacon; John Wunderlich, junior deacon. The lodge is in fine condition with plenty of work ahead.

Working Night And Day.

The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. These pills change weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, brain-fag into mental power. They're wonderful in building up the health. Only 25c per box. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

This remedy is certain to be needed in every home before the summer is over. It can always be depended upon even in the most severe and dangerous cases. It is especially valuable for summer disorders in children. It is pleasant to take and never fails to give prompt relief. Why not buy it now? It may save life. For sale by all druggists.

Eagle

From the Beacon.

A boy baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. Grant Stanley, June 27.

L. G. Sack's family are just recovering from a siege of the measles. Mrs. Sack and three of the children were down with them, but they have all fully recovered.

J. M. Gardener, director of this school district, has finished taking the annual census of children of schoolage in the district, and reports there are sixty-seven females and sixty-two males making a total of 129.

Miss D. Ella Venner of Plattsmouth is visiting the family of G. W. Venner. On Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Cobe Venner, Grover and Miss Ella Venner attended a wedding of a cousin of theirs in Lincoln.

While leading his horses from the barn last Friday one of them kicked Gottlieb Rockenbach, breaking the radius of his right arm. Dr. Dihel was called to dress the arm, and reports him getting along nicely.

Joseph G. Sack, who lately returned from the Philippine Islands, where he served three years in company H, 28th Infantry U. S. army, left Monday evening on the flyer for St. Louis, where he has secured a position as a guard.

A very hard rain, accompanied by hail and wind, visited this section of the country Tuesday afternoon. At this place the hail was not so heavy as to do much damage, but from the county line two miles west of here the wheat was knocked down and badly damaged.

The prospects for the corn crop in this part of the country is very good. While the corn is not as far advanced as it should be at this time of year, yet it is much better than last year and a far better stand in most fields. There is promise of a large yield of small grain also, and wheat will probably be cut next week.

Safeguard the Children.

Notwithstanding all that is done by boards of health and charitably inclined persons, the death rate among small children is very high during the summer months in the large cities. There is not probably one case of bowel complaint in a hundred, however, that could not be cured by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by all druggists.