

THE CITY.

PLATTSMOUTH AND VICINITY.

"Gut Hell," the favorite cigar Dr. Marshall, Dentist, Coats' Block, Read Hayden Bro's ad in this paper, Mauzy & Murphy, books and stationery.

Mauzy & Murphy, fine china and cut glass.

Dr. Marshall, Dentist, guaranteed work.

The best soda water in the world at Gering & Co.'s.

Wade Windham was a Saturday visitor in Lincoln.

Victor Anderson spent Sunday with Havelock friends.

Smoke the Wurl Bros.' celebrated "Gut Hell" cigars.

William Linds returned Saturday from his Idaho trip.

A. H. Austin, of Union, was in the city on business Monday.

Miss Emma Edwards is visiting friends in Nebraska City.

S. H. Atwood came down from Lincoln Tuesday on business.

Miss Kittle Cummins is visiting friends in St. Joseph, Mo.

Attend the Old Settlers' Re-union at Union August 19 and 20.

Several nights the past week were almost cool enough for frost.

Miss Clara Coleman is visiting Mrs. O. A. Brown at Kansas City.

Charley Johnson, of Louisville, was a county seat visitor Tuesday.

Miss Caroline and Estelle Baird are visiting friends in Lyons, Neb.

J. H. Isely, of Glenwood, Iowa, was a Plattsmouth visitor Tuesday.

George Grebe, sr., returned Saturday from his Washington trip.

Sperry Ruffner was down from Omaha Tuesday to visit home folks.

Dr. Frank L. Cummins, dentist, Office with Dr. E. D. Cummins.

Mrs. John Campbell, of Rock Bluffs, was a county seat visitor Friday.

Miss Inez Reese departed Saturday to spend a week at Lake Manawa.

Miss Hermia Windham is visiting the Spurlock family in York, Neb.

D. W. Van Dorsen, of Greenwood, was a county seat visitor Monday.

Mrs. A. E. Smith, of Rock Bluffs, was a county seat visitor Tuesday.

That real, smooth, tasteful ice cream soda costs only 5c, at Gering & Co.'s.

Miss Nellie Whalen went to St. Joseph, Mo., Saturday to visit friends.

C. L. Herger and daughter, Miss Ella, visited friends in Lincoln this week.

Crushed fruit of all kinds with ice cream soda, only 5c at Gering & Co.'s.

Glen Smith came down from Lincoln to spend Sunday with the home folks.

Mrs. Elmer McManus of Omaha was the guest of Miss Ella Ruffner last week.

Mrs. O. C. Howell of Havelock was visiting with relatives here the past week.

Mauzy & Murphy are agents for Spaulding's athletic goods, the best on earth.

L. S. P. Weeks, a Burlington civil engineer, was in the city on business yesterday.

Mrs. Martin Hauk was visiting with friends in Nebraska City during the past week.

The rain Monday night seems to have been pretty general throughout the county.

Not how cheap but how good. Patton's Sun Proof Paint. Sold only by Gering & Co.

The name that means quality is Patton's Sun Proof Paint. Sold only by Gering & Co.

Mauzy & Murphy for graphophones and supplies. Largest line of records in the county.

John S. Taggart, the new district court reporter, was up from Nebraska City Saturday.

Father Hennessey of Manley was in the city Monday night, returning home Tuesday.

Miss Belle Martin is visiting with her friend, Miss Emma Leach, in Germantown, Neb.

Mrs. Phil Sauter departed this morning for Butte, Neb., to spend a few days with friends.

Henry Tartach, who has been here several days on business, returned to McCook Saturday.

Mayor Gering and John Albert went to Creighton, Neb., Friday to look after business matters.

Goes further, looks better and lasts longer. Patton's Sun Proof Paint, Gering & Co. agents.

Mrs. John Schiappacasse and daughter were visiting with relatives in Red Oak, Iowa, the past week.

It costs a little more but is by far the best. Patton's Sun Proof Paint, Gering & Co., sole agents.

Miss Ethel Norval, who has been visiting Miss Claire Dovey, returned to her home in Seward, Neb.

Dr. Elster, Dentist, Waterman Block.

Will Ramsey went to Lincoln Saturday to visit a few days and take in the democratic state convention.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Stoutenborough returned from their visit to Salt Lake and Denver Tuesday morning.

Miss Louise Cagney, who was visiting friends in this city returned to her home in the capital city Sunday.

Mrs. J. G. Richey and son returned from their trip to Denver and other western points Tuesday morning.

Judge W. H. Newell went to Seward, Neb., Monday on a business trip. He was accompanied by Mrs. Newell.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Schooley are rejoicing over the advent of new baby girl at their home, arriving last week.

Paul Groetcheil was down from Omaha to spend Sunday. He has been employed in that city for some time.

Mrs. Anna Goos, living two miles south of Plattsmouth, called Monday and renewed for the Journal another year.

A. A. Jackman of Louisville stopped off here yesterday enroute home from the prohibition state convention at Lincoln.

Rev. Alfred Myers, who was here visiting Rev. H. Barkman and family, returned to his home in Bellevue, Ill., Tuesday.

Andrew McMaken and wife came up from Atchison, Kas., yesterday for a visit with H. C. McMaken and other relatives.

George A. Felix returned to his home in Jennings, Kan., Friday, after visiting relatives in Plattsmouth for some time.

Numerous loads of peaches were on the streets Saturday, including several from the Iowa side of the river. All nice fruit.

Judge H. D. Travis, Mayor Gering and County Treasurer Wheeler went to Lincoln yesterday to attend the state convention.

Hans Tams came down from Lincoln and spent Sunday with his family. Hans is connected with the Burlington bridge gang.

George Aylesworth returned to his home in Kansas City Wednesday after a visit here with his grandmother, Mrs. Kate Oliver.

Sugar has taken a jump. You now pay $1.00 for 18 pounds, when you paid the same for 20 pounds two weeks ago. Fruit time, you know.

T. H. Pollock, manager of the Plattsmouth Telephone company, was in South Omaha Friday on business in the interests of the company.

Mrs. M. E. Morgan and son returned to their home in Little Rock, Ark., Friday, after a visit of several weeks with the Morgans in this city.

Will Rummel and family departed yesterday for Pierce county, where they will spend some time visiting Mr. Rummel's brothers and families.

Thom. Walling and Jerry McHugh returned from their Kansas trip Tuesday morning. Thom. brought the Kansas hay fever back with him.

A marriage license was issued Monday by Judge Travis to Thos. E. Barger, of North Platte, aged 24, and Miss Margaret Tighe, aged 25, of Manley.

Mrs. Emma Deibach returned to her home in Nebraska City last week, after a visit of several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Jno. M. Leyda and family.

Mrs. J. W. Newell and Mrs. Wm. Atwood returned Sunday evening from a visit of two months among old neighbors and friends at their old home in Illinois.

Now is the time to make your arrangements for a furnace. Remember that John Bauer guarantees the old reliable Twentieth Century Furnace as the best.

Dan Smith, foreman of the B. & M. paint shop, was conveyed to the sanitarium in Lincoln, Monday morning, to be treated for a serious attack of rheumatism.

Mrs. M. A. Bates went to Van Wert, Iowa, this morning, to meet her daughter, Luella, who is returning from a visit to friends at her old home, Memphis, Mo.

Miss Minnie Osterberg, who visited here several weeks with her uncle and aunt, County Superintendent Wortman and wife, has returned to her home in Mead, Neb.

Albert Wetenkamp and Mrs. Louis Falhaber, nephew and niece of the late Wm. Wetenkamp, who were here attending the funeral, returned to their home in Lincoln Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fight and daughter returned from Akron, Colo., this morning, where they had been visiting their son, Will, whose little daughter, Grace, accompanied them home to visit a while.

Mrs. J. L. Corley, Mrs. J. K. Klethley and Miss Baker came over from Weeping Water yesterday in the big automobile recently purchased by Mr. Dunn, the liveryman of that place. It was engineered by H. D. Reed.

County Commissioner Banning passed through the city Monday morning enroute home from the west part of the county where he spent several days last week on county business.

George W. Rhoden and wife of near Murray were in the city Saturday, accompanied by Mrs. Lizzie Barrett, of Oklahoma. They took the train, for Omaha, where they spent the day.

Neb. City Tribune: Miss Clara Karsens entertained her young lady friends Thursday afternoon at her home on South Eighth street in honor of her guest, Miss Martin of Plattsmouth.

E. M. Slattery, county attorney of Dawes county, enroute for Omaha on business before the United States district court, was the guest of Judge B. S. Ramsey and family over Sunday night.

John H. Becker has moved his family to town and is occupying the property he recently purchased on the corner of Pearl and Tenth streets, formerly occupied by Prof. Rouse and family.

A. E. Kirkpatrick, of Nehawka, was in the city over Sunday night, the guest of Mrs. P. E. Ruffner and family. Mr. Kirkpatrick departed Monday for St. Louis, going by the way of Lincoln.

You need clean healthy bowels just as much as pure, wholesome food; without either, you cannot keep well. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea eliminates all impurities. Tea or tablets. Gering & Co.

Several farmers from various sections of the county called on the Journal Saturday and all reported the corn looking good, and say that a reasonable amount of moisture will make a bumper crop.

Z. W. Shrader, wife and daughter, Mrs. R. H. Chrisweiser were in the city Tuesday. Mr. Shrader had business in Omaha and the ladies were the guests of Mrs. Bennett Chrisweiser during the day.

Mrs. C. H. Jennings, Boston—"Our babies (twins) were sickly. Had several doctors, but no results. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea made them strong and robust." 35 cents. Tea or tablets. Gering & Co.

Miss Mabel Hayes returned from Sheridan, Wyo., Tuesday, where she has been visiting for some time with her brother, Dr. Paul Hayes. Miss Mabel has the appearance of being greatly benefited by her trip.

If the highest instead of the lowest number would have gotten a man any thing at the Rosebud drawing, Phil Sauter of this city would have been "right in it," his number being 16,630. Phil says he don't want any land, anyway.

Mrs. E. A. Kirkpatrick of Nehawka was the guest of her sister, Mrs. P. E. Ruffner, last week. Mrs. Kirkpatrick had just returned from a visit to the St. Louis exposition, and also her son, who is located there in the railway service.

A five-months-old child of James Privett, the man who was so badly injured by a threshing machine two weeks ago, died last Tuesday of whooping cough, and we understand the other three are afflicted with the same disease.

Our old friend Norman Slocum of near Murray was in the city Saturday and found time to call at Journal headquarters a few moments. Mr. Slocum says the corn prospects are good for a great deal bigger and better crop than last year.

Those attending the funeral of William Wetenkamp from abroad last week were Albert, Henry and Conrad Wetenkamp, Eagle; A. L. Howard, Omaha; Mrs. J. S. Howard, Benedict, Neb.; Mr. Davis, Syracuse, Neb.; and A. Howard, of Nantasket, Neb.

An immense crowd of farmers, accompanied by their wives and daughters, were in the city Saturday. In the afternoon the main street resembled a Fourth of July celebration, and the merchants who advertise reaped the benefit.

Miss Eunice Hill and Messrs. Harry Campbell and Warren Deming, of South Bend, were Plattsmouth visitors Sunday. On their return they were accompanied by Miss Margaret Wells, who will visit with old (young) friends at the Bend for a week or two.

On September 5 the Burlington will sell tickets to Hot Springs, S. D., and return at the rate of $10 for the round trip. On the same date to Deadwood and Lead, S. D., for $13 for the round trip. Tickets good to return leaving those points not later than September 20.

Our old friend, Peter Madsen, as is his custom annually about this time of year, called Saturday and renewed his faith in the Journal another year. Mr. Madsen is one of those patrons who never forget the date when his time expires, and is right on time to the day to renew.

The explosion of a coal oil lamp at the home of Jessie Scott in the Second ward Tuesday night caused quite a commotion among the fire department. The alarm was turned in, the bell rang out its doleful notes, but by the time the fire boys reached the scene the fire had been extinguished without serious damage.

E. G. DOVEY & SON

SPECIAL OFFERING IN Bed Spreads @ Towels

We have made a very special purchase in these lines and offer them at the following low prices. In view of the fact that linens and cottons have advanced, these prices are unusually attractive:

Bed Spreads—69c, 99c, $1.18, $1.29, $1.39, $1.59, $1.78 and $1.89

Towels—11c, 15c, 18c, 19c and 20c

Defender Muslin Underwear

Just Received A NEW LINE

We have the extra sizes in these garments which are usually so hard to obtain.

E. G. DOVEY @ SON

Summer Dress Goods

Our sale is still on. Entire Stock of Wash Fabrics From 5c to 19c.

DON'T FORGET

Queen Quality Shoes

The best $3.00 shoe made. See display in east window.

Special Prices This Month on Parasols and Umbrellas. A Special Reduction on this Season's Shirt Waists. Our Lines are Complete in all the Departments.

"Tis said a bottle and a glass Will make a person mellow, But Rocky Mountain Tea's the drink That livens up a fellow. Gering & Co.

NOTICE

We have moved our stock of Books, Stationery, etc. to the Leonard Building, formerly occupied by Lehnhoff Bros., where we will be pleased to serve you in the future.

Respectfully,

Mauzy & Murphy

POSITION for middle aged lady in this County to act as our representative. One with some knowledge of medicine preferred. Apply with references to the Medical Research Co., Paxton Block, Omaha, Nebraska.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of Wm. D. Mitchell

Andrew Kroehler

—DEALER IN—

HARDWARE

TINWARE CUTLERY, ETC.

Cor. Sixth and Pearl Sts.

Hall's Old Stand.

If you are going to build give me a chance to furnish your hardware. If you want tin roofing or spouting come and see me. Work promptly done at reasonable prices.

Rich's Patent JULIA MARLOWE SHOES

$2.25 and $2.50

If You Want Tans We Have Them at $2.00 Up.

LIGHT WEIGHT OXFORDS

in smooth, fine Dongola, Military Heel, Blucher Cut, a well dresser's choice, for $2.50.

SHERWOOD & SON

Under New Management

E. S. TUTT wants all his friends to know that he has purchased the Grocer Store of L. D. Bennett, and that he will continue to do business at the old stand and by keeping the

Choicest Goods On The Market

is prepared to meet all competition. He desire all who want good, fresh things in the line of staple and fancy groceries, to see him at

Bennett's Old Stand

E. S. TUTT, Prop.

Ayer's

Feed your hair; nourish it; give it something to live on. Then it will stop falling, and will grow long and heavy. Ayer's Hair Vigor is the only hair food you can buy. For 60 years it has been doing just what we claim it will do. It will not disappoint you.

Hair Vigor

"My hair used to be very short. But after using Ayer's Hair Vigor a short time it began to grow, and now it is fourteen inches long. This seems a splendid result to me after being almost without any hair."

Short Hair

Prepared by J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.