A. Cohen, who has for several months conducted a milliner business here, took his departure last week quite suddenly. Nothing has been heard of Cohen since his disappearance, and his whereabouts is unknown. He is so well known in Plattsmouth from past business ventures, that it is very doubtful if he got into any of our people for even a penny. His past career was very chequered.

Neighbors Extend Congratulations.

A Lincoln special under date of August 12, says: "Regardless of party, several hundred citizens of Lincoln tonight laid aside partisanship and tendered a reception to George W. Berge, fusion candidate for governor. He was at Omaha today and when he returned his friends began calling at his residence. The matter was wholly informal and ladies and gentlemen attended. There was no partisan oratory. The visitors tendered Mr. Berge their congratulations. Mr. Berge declared that the unexpected demonstration by his townsmen, many of them political opponents, was deeply appreciated by him."

Still Lying.

It took the democrats quite a while to find one of their number who would make the race for lieutenant governor. The man finally named was absent, but his friends assured the convention that he would accept all right. Some delegate jumped up to inquire who he was, and the reply came—"He's a horse doctor."—Plattsmouth News.

Lightning's Pranks.

A special from Elmwood under date of August 16, says: "A splendid rain visited this section last night after several days of excessive heat. Nothing but an early frost can hinder a fine crop of corn in this portion of Cass county. During the storm lightning was unusually severe. C. D. Kunz, living three miles southwest of town, had a 175-foot stack of hay, containing 100 tons, struck by lightning and consumed. The stack was located but a little way from the barn and sheds, but by tearing down connecting fences the fire was confined to the stack. Loss was covered by a policy in the Farmers' Mutual Insurance company of Nebraska. John Groff, living several miles east of Elmwood, lost four stacks of oats from lightning. Mr. Waldron, two miles north, was in his milk house when it was struck, but he was not hurt, nor was the building ignited."

Well, Here it Is.

A reader of the Journal wants us to explain what the editorial "we" signifies. Well its meaning varies to suit the circumstances. For instance, when you read that "we expect our wife home today," we refer to the editor-in-chief; when it is "we are a little late this week," it includes the whole office force, even the devil and the towel. If "we are having a boom," the town is meant; "we received over 700,000 emigrants last year," means the nation, but "we have the hog cholera in our midst," only refers to the illness of the man who takes the paper five or six years and then refuses to pay for it.

Indications of a Late Fall.

The doves are hatching out a second brood. The robins are hatching out a third brood; the barn swallows are building to hatch out a second brood. This is unusual. What does it mean? If the birds could not raise their young so that they would be strong enough to fly south before cold weather they would not go on with their house-keeping. It means a long, hot, dry spell and a late fall. The weather department doesn't know it, but the birds do, and they never go wrong. Even the sparrows are building now out in the open.

A Summer Cold.

A summer cold is not only annoying but if not relieved pneumonia will be the probable result by fall. One Minute Cough Cure clears the phlegm, draws out the inflammation, heats and soothes and strengthens the lungs and bronchial tubes. One Minute Cough Cure is an ideal remedy for the children. It is pleasant to the taste and perfectly harmless. A certain cure for croup, cough and cold. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co.
