

10 - STORES! - 10

A great many people ask us how we can sell the quality of goods we sell for so little money.

Man after man comes into our store and says, "I have not bought any clothing in Plattsmouth for ten years." However, he invariably leaves our store with a suit and well satisfied. See what will do here for men. We pay no traveling men's expenses—buy direct of the manufacturer, and buying in the enormous quantities we do for cash, can and will, considering quality, save you from 15 to 20 percent on your purchase.

$8.00, $10.00, $12.00 TO $15.00

If we cannot save you money we do not ask your business. Your money lasts if you invest it here.

SENTENCE SUSPENDED BY TELEGRAM.

Judge W. A. Crites Temporarily Free for Contempt of Court.

The supreme court of Nebraska has adopted the plan of suspending sentence by telegram. This was done last Saturday night but no publicity was given till reporters began to inquire about the new practice. In the old days it was customary for the parties applying to hire a special engine and come to Lincoln but Judge A. W. Crites of Chadron got a suspension by wire about midnight Saturday. Judge Crites, an attorney and former district judge, was fined $10 for contempt of court by Judge Harrington of the district court. The alleged contempt consisted in examining a witness over the objection of the court. Judge Crites was committed to jail Friday and immediately sent an application and bond to Chief Justice Holcomb who immediately wired a suspension.

A. W. Crites was fined for contempt of court, stay of execution and bail denied, and ordered imprisoned for a time in the jail of Dawes county. A stay of execution has since been allowed by Chief Justice Holcomb. The occurrence was while B. P. Pitman was being examined as a witness in a civil case. It is reported by the official reporter as follows:

Q. "Did you advise Slattery at that time that you would hold his firm responsible for the price of the deed, which was the sum of $100?"

A. "Plaintiff objects as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, leading and suggestive."

The court: "That is sustained. Counsel will not insist upon any further examination of this witness as to any bargain, claimed bargain or any delivery, or claimed delivery of the deed referred to in the evidence; that this witness, if incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, leading and suggestive, will be confined solely to his defense according to his pleadings and as to the value of the service claimed to have been rendered the plaintiff by Reynolds & Slattery."

To this ruling the defendant, Pitman, excepts.

To this ruling the defendants, Reynolds & Slattery, except.

Judge Crites: "Mr. Reporter, that I may not transgress, I wish that you would read that admonition the court gave me." (The same is read.)

Judge Crites: "Mr. Pitman have you ever received back your deed?"

Plaintiff objects as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

The court: "Sustained. And counsel will not insist upon any further examination in regard to this matter."

Judge Crites: "I have one more question that I desire to ask which I do not think is in violation of the order of the court."

The court: "Very well."

Judge Crites: "Have you ever been paid for this deed?"

The court: "Judge Crites you are in contempt of court, and I fine you $10, and you shall pay the fine or be committed to jail."

Judge Crites: "I will ask time to prepare a statement in defense and for a stay of proceedings."

The court: "Overruled."

Judge Crites: "And to have the records straight, I will state that I have no intention of committing any contempt of court; that my purpose was simply to protect the interest of my clients, both of them, as I had a right to do, and this question was not in relation to any delivery of the deed, or of any bargain for it, and therefore was not in the direction of the court."

—State Journal.

The above fully explains the cause for which Judge Crites was sent to jail at Chadron by Judge Harrington. The Journal reproduces the article and in all candor asks the bar in general, whether every lawyer in the state might not be fined for contempt of court based upon such a record? The court's refusal to stay proceedings, six of the leading and wealthiest citizens of Chadron promptly went upon Judge Crites' bond for suspension of sentence, pushing a hearing in supreme court.

Orange Blossoms.

A very pretty wedding occurred at the residence of A. C. Reinhardt in this city at 9 o'clock Sunday afternoon, May 14, 1905, when Mr. George E. Stamm of Havelock and Miss Olive Long of Lincoln were united in holy wedlock. The ceremony was performed by Canon H. B. Burgess of St. Luke's church. The groom is well known in this city, having been and returned here and learned the trade of boiler-maker at the local shops. For the last few years he has been employed at the Havelock shops. The bride is very a handsome and accomplished young lady, and is very popular in social circles in her home city. Mr. and Mrs. Stamm departed Monday morning for Sterling, Colo., on a wedding trip. Several out-of-town guests were present.

A "Cheeky" Trick.

We note up Main Street in front of a well-known business house a large painted steamer "Piano Sale!" A Hospe & Co., the reliable music dealer of Omaha, sent representatives here last week, and besides furnishing the papers with a large advertisement of their special sale of pianos, they also flooded the country with circulars. Now, in comes a party to try to reap the benefits of judicious advertising. We don't want any of the readers of the Journal to confound the upper house with that of A. Hospe & Co., at Mrs. Street's millinery store. Hospe & Co. are the people to deal with, and you will do well to bear this in mind.

A Scientific Discovery.

SPECIAL FACTORY PIANO SALE!

Never Have Good Pianos Been Sold so Low and on Such Easy Terms.

Fully Half-Price Can Be Saved on Some, and One-Third on Others, on What is Generally Termed Special Figures.

This Sale Will Close Saturday, May 20th, at 9 O'Clock, P. M.

TERRIFIC CUT IN PRICES!

This is not a sale of cheap pianos, but strictly standard high-grade makes at prices and terms that appeal to the shrewdest and most skeptical piano expert. Among them are such well-known makes as the Knabe, Kimball, Sweetland, Hallet & Davis, Wessler Bros., Cable-Nelson, Hospe, Cramer and others, in the latest designed cases, all of the finest veneers.

This Means to You

a great deal more than you fully realize. The A. Hospe Co., in buying in large quantities for spot cash, coupled with over 30 years experience in judging values, are in a position to sell pianos at dealers' prices. In addition to this, during this advertising sale, the factories make special allowances on each piano sold, and you get the benefit of all this.

A Saving of $100 or More should be an incentive for you to take advantage of this grand opportunity even though you had no intentions of getting a piano for months to come.

You Take No Chances.

The pianos we represent have stood the test and are now used by the greatest artists as well as in the finest colleges and conservatories in both this country and Europe. Many have been on the market most three-quarters of a century. A factory guarantee, as well as our own, goes with every instrument. We give this in writing.

Our Easy Terms

place you in position to enjoy the use of an instrument as well as furnish your family an opportunity for a musical education while paying a little each month. It also means a safe investment to those who might not otherwise accumulate a sufficient amount to purchase outright. It accommodates the more fortunate who deny themselves this comfort on account of not wishing to disturb their present investments. Our very existence is sustained daily by the necessities of life in a manner that might be termed an installment plan.

School Closes

in a few weeks, giving your children an opportunity during vacation to study music and accomplish, perhaps, more in a few months than otherwise in years.

Can Not Make a Mistake

as it means a saving of from 33 1/3 to 50 per cent on your purchase. Pianos that are sold all over the world at prices ranging from $250 to $500 so under this sale at $147 to $327. These makes being so well and favorably known it does not require an expert to make the selection. A nice stool and scarf with every instrument.

Piano Players, Also.

We are offering during this sale a fine piano player which is sold regularly by all dealers at $250 for $148. This unprecedented cut in prices is for the purpose of introducing these goods more thoroughly in this vicinity, and not for future consideration. Come early while we have a large variety of instruments. This sale is conducted by the oldest, largest and most reliable piano house in this state, and only lasts until Saturday, May 20th, 9:00 o'clock p. m.

PASSING OF HENRY J. DAVIS

One of the Earlier Pioneer Settlers in Southeast Nebraska.

Henry James Davis was born December 21, 1828, in Monongalia county, West Virginia. Died on Tuesday, May 9, 1905, at his home, two miles southeast of Union, Cass county, Nebraska.

After many months of patient suffering another of our worthy citizens and pioneer settlers bowed to the will of his Maker, and that kind and benevolent old gentleman Henry J. Davis has been summoned from the ranks of Nebraska's pioneers and his name recorded in a register that is kept and guarded by the Divine Recorder. The news of Mr. Davis' death was not at all unexpected, for his condition the past few weeks was such that made the family and friends realize that death must soon come, yet this knowledge did not diminish the deep sorrow when the end came. Mr. Davis had been an unusually strong and healthy man during his younger days, in fact, until his 76th birthday, Dec. 21st last year, that day being the beginning of his illness. From that date he gradually lost strength, and four weeks ago he lost hope of recovery and calmly awaited the summons for which he had no fear or regret save for the sad parting with his family, for whom he had greatest affection.

The funeral services were held at the residence at 11 o'clock a. m., yesterday, Rev. M. S. Foutch being the officiating minister. Long before the appointed hour the friends had congregated to pay their last tributes of respect to the beloved neighbor whom they had known so many years, and when the funeral cortege started on the sad journey from the home the remains were accompanied by an unusually large number of people from various parts of Cass and Otoe counties. At the cemetery just west of this village a beautiful and impressive burial service took place, rendered by the Masonic Lodge No. 2 of Nebraska City, deceased having been a member of that lodge for many years, and there were also present about fifty others of the Masonic Order. The honorary pall bearers were D. W. Foster, J. W. Pittman, M. H. Shoemaker, G. N. Lathue, Reuter Foster and B. P. Davis. The active pall bearers were Charles Reed, A. L. Becker, Larsh Gillman, William Wolfe, J. A. Nicholson and W. A. Taylor.

Henry J. Davis had been a resident of this vicinity since August 13, 1857, having crossed the river at Nebraska City on that date and pre-empted a quarter-section near what was then Old Wyoming town southeast of here, and later he sold it and in 1872 purchased the fine farm on which he ever since made his home. He was first married to Miss Elizabeth Hughes who died in 1859, there being no surviving children of this marriage. May 28, 1861, he was married at Nebraska City to Miss Irene Jardhill, who survives him, and of this marriage the children living are Mrs. Elsie Ruhmann of Dallas, Texas, Mrs. Docia Conrad of Union, and Miss Ina Davis who remains at home. As a husband, a father and citizen, Mr. Davis possessed the excellent qualities of kindness, generosity and loyalty, a man in whom everybody had full confidence and a man whose honor and integrity never were tainted with even the breath of suspicion. The entire community mourns the death of this kind and noble man, and all unite in extending the most sincere sympathy to the bereaved relatives.—Union Ledger.

The Murdock "Squabble."

The Journal received a communication from Murdock last week giving an account of the trouble between Dr. I. D. Jones and the Leis brothers. In the first place the article was not signed, and in the second place we do not care to engage in any controversy regarding the matter, for the simple reason that reports regarding the same are somewhat conflicting. But it was wrong for us to state that the whole disturbance was the outgrowth of the saloon question, when it was another matter altogether. After district court, which meets next Monday, we can tell more about it, as the case will come up during that term.

Congressional Convention.

Democrats of the First Congressional district will meet in delegate convention in Lincoln, Nebraska, on Thursday, June 15th, 1905, for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for the office of Congressman to be voted upon in the special election to be held in the First Congressional District on the 18th day of July.

Representation in said convention will be based upon the vote cast for the Hon. Hugh LaMaster in the general election of 1904.

Each county will be entitled to one delegate for each 100 votes or fraction thereof cast in said election. The various counties are entitled to the following number of delegates:

Cass 19
Johnson 11
Lancaster 32
Nemaha 14
Otoe 18
Pawnee 8
Richardson 20

It is recommended that proxies be allowed. J. B. DOTGLAS, Chairman.

Democratic Mass Convention.

The democrats of Cass county are requested to meet at the court house in Plattsmouth, on SATURDAY, JUNE 3, 1905, at the hour of 2 o'clock, p. m., for the purpose of selecting 19 delegates to represent Cass county in the Congressional convention, to be held in Lincoln, on Thursday, June 15th, 1905. A full representation from each precinct is urgently requested.

M. A. BATES,
Chairman Dem. County Com.

Simply a Request.

I will take it as a favor if those passing the poor farm coming to Plattsmouth will refuse to carry any of the inmates without a written permit from me. By so doing they will save me considerable trouble, annoyance and anxiety. A. ROTZ, Supt.
