HORSE THIEF CAPTURED

A Much Wanted Man Found After a Long Search.

A young man some 26 years of age, who is credited by the officers with being one of the most expert horse thieves in this portion of the country, is now enjoying the cool air in the county jail, where he will remain until Sheriff Page, of Filmore county, starts for the west with him. The man at present is traveling under the name of George Baker. From Sheriff McBride, of Cass county, who has been on his trail since Saturday morning, we learn that Baker was first accused of stealing an outfit in Kansas some eighteen months ago, which he disposed of in Gage county. Then he has a horse and buggy attributed to him in Gage county, and then he next is registered from Filmore county, where he has three horses to his credit, two of which he disposed of at Lincoln and had third one and a buggy in his possession when captured.

Sheriff McBride started out Saturday morning and followed the trail without stopping to hardly feed or water. He traced him as far as Graham's mill, where he was lost, but this morning his track was again found. Sheriff Schrader was notified, and he soon found the man on the farm of Thomas Hanks, southeast of the city, where he was trying to secure work and have the horse run loose in the pasture. The man was brought here and placed in jail and will be taken there this evening.

John McBride says he is one of the most adroit and skillful horse thieves that he has ever gone in search of, and is of the opinion that Baker will get a long term in the penitentiary.—Nebraska City News.

DIED FROM HIS INJURIES

Henry Snyder Departs This Life Early This Morning at the Home of His Daughter.

UNCONSCIOUS TO THE LAST

For Many Years a Resident of Cass County and a Highly Respected Citizen.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR FUNERAL SERVICES

The Journal regrets to chronicle the final ending of this life of Mr. Henry Snyder, the old gentleman injured Saturday by falling down the stairway in Union block, on the corner of Main and Sixth streets. The unfortunate man died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Alice White, this morning about 7 o'clock, having never regained consciousness from the moment he was picked up after falling. The circumstances surrounding the dreadful accident appeared in yesterday's Journal, therefore we do not deem it necessary to recount the sad affair.

Mr. Snyder being an old citizen of Cass county, in fact one of the early pioneers, and a most respected one at that, makes his sudden death, and the manner in which it occurred, much more deplorable, not only by his children, but also by those who knew him. Having lived to a ripe old age, and always pursuing an honorable, upright life, he was esteemed by all.

The deceased was born in Highland county, Virginia, June 6, 1827, making him 78 years of age last June. Previous to coming to Cass county he was engaged in merchandising for a number of years. Was united in marriage with Miss Nancy Beverage in 1859, and removed to Cass county the same year, where he engaged in farming. Since the death of Mrs. Snyder the old gentleman has been making his home with his son-in-law, Mr. Conrad Vallery, five miles west of Plattsmouth. His children are as follows: Mrs. C. F. Vallery, Mrs. Alice White, Mrs. Andy Morrow of Rock county, Neb., Andrew J. Snyder and Mrs. James Gilmore of Ullyses, Neb.

It is not fully determined yet as to whether the funeral will take place tomorrow or not, as the relatives are waiting on word from relatives in other parts of the state. The remains will be interred in the Horning cemetery, two miles south of Plattsmouth, and will be laid to rest beside his wife, who died on the 4th of March last.

REDICK HOLDS LAW VOID

Says Commissioners Must Be Elected This Fall.

WHAT WILL BE THE FINAL RESULT?

Will All Counties Nominate Candidates on the Strength of this Decision?

According to the decision of Judge Redick in Omaha yesterday there will be an election of county commissioner this fall. The decision allowed the writ of mandamus issued by W. G. Ure, Emmett G. Solem and W. J. Hunter to compel the county treasurer and county clerk of Douglas county to accept their filing fee and nomination papers as candidates for commissioner. The provision relating to county commissioners was held invalid because it must be considered as a part of the biennial election law, and as this is abolished the provision must fall also. In the second place if the provision is viewed as an amendment to the general election law it is unconstitutional because it does not refer to the section amended as it should do to comply with the constitution.

The county attorney endeavored to obtain a supersedeas, but this was not allowed by the court for the reason that it would hold up the writ of mandamus until the supreme court would pass on the question, and that would be too late for the primaries.

County Attorney Slabaugh says that one of two methods will be employed to bring the matter before the supreme court. One is to advance the present case in that court, and have a decision rendered before the election, and the other way to wait until the commissioners elected at the fall election, attempt to take their seats and then have them apply for a writ of ouster against the commissioners who are endeavoring to hold over. He thinks the former method would be the most satisfactory.

James Fisher and E. C. Coleman were passengers to Lincoln Tuesday. D. W. Ream was in the capital between trains Tuesday evening.

Every Niece and Nephew of Uncle Sam should be deeply interested in what he has said about soda crackers, because they are the one food with which all of them are familiar. Uncle Sam has given out figures showing that soda crackers are richer in nutriment and body-building elements, properly proportioned, than any food made from flour. This is saying much for common soda crackers, and much more for Uneeda Biscuit, because they are soda crackers of the best quality. They are baked better—more scientifically. They are packed better—more cleanly. The damp, dust and odor proof package retains all the goodness and nutriment of the wheat, all the freshness of the best baking, all the purity of the cleanest bakeries. Your Uncle Sam has shown what food he thinks best for his people. His people have shown that they think Uneeda Biscuit the best of that food, nearly 400,000,000 packages having already been consumed. This Is Indeed a Corn Year.

A big corn year in Nebraska means much to the world. This is indeed a corn year. One of our good-natured, jovial farmer friends was in town yesterday afternoon and relates an incident of the yield, showing the size of the ears in the southwest part of Cass county. An enterprising neighbor, wishing to utilize every foot of available space, planted corn on the roadbed of the railroad passing through his farm. A few nights ago a high wind blew a stock across the track. The farsighted engineer on the through train approaching discovered what he thought was a huge rock in the way, and halted his train at a distance of several hundred feet. The obstacle proved to be an ear of corn, which, according to our informant, required all the trainmen to remove.

Our good friend is perhaps painting the incident in favorable colors, but it is relatively true, and true not only in the southwest portion of Cass county but in its application to all of the phenomenal producing sections of Cass county. Nebraska's corn beats the world in size, quality and strength. In Cass county especially it beats "Jack's Beanstalk" in a year like this. It beats all other counties. Profane enthusiasts have remarked that it beats—Helena, Montana. It has a stalk like a mules leg and the strength of his heel, the substance which is of the body of a fat steer and a flavor which is as the breath of the wind after passing over the garden of choicest flowers. Let all other counties in Nebraska not be envious of Cass county's corn and the chroniclers.

Former Judgment In Force.

The case of Mrs. M. Inhelder vs. E. O. Jarman, a forcible entry and detainer action was set for trial at Louisville, before Justice Wood, for possession of hotel property in Cedar Creek. This action has been tried on the 17th and judgment rendered in favor of Mrs. Inhelder. Matthew Gering, attorney for Jarman filed a motion to have the judgment set aside, which was done. On yesterday when the case came on for trial H. D. Travis, attorney for Mrs. Inhelder, objected to the jurisdiction of the court to try the case on the ground that the justice had no power to set the judgment aside. Justice Wood sustained the objection and the case ended summarily leaving the former judgment in force. Mr. Gering at once ordered a transcript to be filed in the district court and will file a petition in error and the case will probably be heard by the district court on the first day of September.
