

THOUSANDS OF FAIR WOMEN HERALD PRAISES OF PE-RU-NA.

Catarrh and Catarrhal Diseases Make Invalids of More Women Than All Other Ailments Combined.

Suffered Long With Catarrh.
Miss Clara Case, 715 9th street, N. W., Washington, D. C., writes:
"I can think of no event in my life that fills me with more gratitude and at the same time a sense of future security, as a cure after long suffering from catarrh, brought about by using Peruna as directed. It has completely cured me."—Clara Case.
Entire System Toned by Pe-ru-na.
Miss Mary Bennett, 1619 Addison Ave., Chicago, Ill., writes:
"A few months ago I contracted a cold by getting my feet wet, and although I used the usual remedies I could not shake it off.
"I finally took Peruna. In a week I was better. After several weeks I succeeded in ridding myself of any trace of a cold, and besides the medicine had toned up my system so that I felt splendid."—Mary Bennett.

Physicians Had Given Up the Case—Now Entirely Well.
Miss Gertrude Linford, Vice President Parkside Whist Club and teacher of Whist, 221 Niagara street, Buffalo, N. Y., writes:
"Peruna has effectually cured me after physicians had practically given up my case.
"For a long time I suffered with catarrh of the kidneys, had a weakness and pain in the back, lost flesh rapidly, my feet were swollen, my face was puffed under the eyes and I had a waxy sallowness of the skin.
"I took Peruna for some time and am entirely well. I cannot endorse Peruna too strongly."—Gertrude Linford.
If you suffer from catarrh in any form, do not delay. Take Peruna at once. Delays are dangerous.

Miss Nalley's Story—Short, But Interesting to Every Woman.
Miss Addie Nalley, 137 D street, S. E., Washington, D. C., writes:
"A cough, the grip, catarrh of the meanness kind—all sorts of remedies, home, patent and prescribed by doctors, and no relief,—that tells my story, a story of suffering and distress that lasted four years.
"Then—three bottles of Peruna—catarrh gone, appetite and strength returned—a happy woman, and none more grateful for the blessing of health—that is what Peruna has done for me."—Addie Nalley.
A reward of $10,000 has been deposited in the Market Exchange Bank, Columbus, Ohio, as a guarantee that the above testimonials are genuine; that we hold in our possession, authentic letters certifying to the same. During many years' advertising we have never used a single spurious testimonial.

Union
From the Ledger.
D. W. Foster arrived home Monday from Minneapolis, where he spent several days visiting and attending to business affairs.
James Dysart, who was thrown down and dragged by a horse last week, is reported to be getting along very well. The dislocation of his shoulder caused him much pain for awhile, but he will probably soon be as well as ever.
Jeff D. and Will R. Cross left Tuesday morning for Akron, Col., to visit their mother and other relatives and to look after some business matters. They will also visit Pueblo, Denver and other parts of the state.
Crede Harris, northeast of town, reports an unusually large yield of oats on his farm this year, and the Cass county farmer who can beat it will have no reason to complain of short crops. Mr. Harris had one field of 11 acres on which the yield averaged 53 bushels per acre; also 23 acres that averaged 43 bushels per acre; machine measures in both cases.
Mrs. W. F. McCarroll, Henry Chilcott and wife and Moss McCarroll, who have been visiting and sight seeing on the Pacific coast, arrived home last Friday evening. They say the Portland exposition is not such a magnificent affair as they expected to see, but the trip was a pleasant one and well worth the time and expense.
A party of several soldiers, their wives, and others, started from here yesterday for Denver, to attend the National G. A. R. encampment and to visit in other parts of Colorado. The party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. William Chalfant, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. N. LaRue, Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Kendall, Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Taylor, Mrs. W. A. Taylor and daughter Leona, and Will Niday. This evening M. H. Shoc makes and wife go to Omaha and from there to Denver tomorrow.

Elmwood
From the Leader-Echo.
Ed Pittman has been taking care of a bone lesion on his thumb, but it is better at present writing.
Miss Mabel Davis, of Weeping Water, spent Sunday visiting at the home of George C. Cook, near Airo.
Mrs. Frank Hay returned Monday evening from her Plattsmouth visit.
Miss Pearl Walker, who has been the guest of her cousin, Miss Grace Tolhurst, for several weeks, left for her home at Earlville, Illinois, Saturday evening.

G. P. Nickel, one of the old settlers of Cass county, died at his home near Elmwood Tuesday, and was buried Wednesday.
Mrs. J. C. Hayes and E. E. Hayes and family left Wednesday for Pasadena, California, where they will make their future home.
A force of men are at work this week putting in nearly a block of cement sidewalk, eight feet wide, commencing at Green's drug store and running south to the hotel.
A bunch of cattle, fattened on the farm of Ollie Kimmell, a few miles south of Elmwood, were driven into market Monday evening. Three of the steers became overheated, two of which died.
Nehawka
From the Register.
Chas. Banning has been on the sick list for some time. He was down town Wednesday for the first time in several days.
David Wiseman and daughter, Mrs. B. F. Moore, and her children left Sunday for an extended visit with relatives in Indiana.
J. L. Smith went to Greenwood, Wednesday, from which place he will go to the state fair. He will be gone about a week.
During the electric storm of last Thursday night A. L. Griffith lost four head of cattle by being struck by lightning. They were insured and he will be reimbursed.
Ed Kirkpatrick and wife went over to Avoca Tuesday to assist Uncle Amos Tefft in celebrating his 90th birthday. The old gentleman was in excellent health and a very enjoyable day was spent with the large crowd of old friends who went there to greet him.
Last Monday a deal was made whereby W. G. Davidson, of Lebanon, Oregon, became the owner of our barber shop. He purchased of Messrs. West and Palmer the lot and building, including all barber chair and fixtures formerly in the possession, and ownership of Ed Pittman.
Several of our boys may soon have to face very serious charges. Of late many depredations have been committed, such as destroying melon patches, strawberry patches, entering private gardens and taking valubles in the absence of guardians, and many other such nefarious doings. Their names are known and will be printed in this paper when the proper time comes. These things must stop, boys.

Eagle
C. B. Branson, dentist, will remove his practice to Lincoln about October 1st.
H. R. Lessel expects to move his family to Nehawka the first of next week.
The little child of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ossenkop was quite sick, but is reported to be better.
Frank Ax of Sterling, and Mrs. Mollie King of Havelock, were here the forepart of the week to see their mother, Mrs. Ax, who is very sick.
Mrs. Lucinda Ax has been very sick at the home of her son, John Ax, for the past two weeks. Thursday morning she was reported to be a little better than she had been and her recovery is almost despaired of. Mrs. Ax is past 73 years of age.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beach and little daughter came down from Lincoln Saturday. Mrs. Beach is just recovering from a surgical operation and her many friends here are glad to learn of her recovery. She will remain here with her parents for a couple of weeks.
The opening of the Eagle schools has been postponed for one week as the new addition to the building could not be finished in time to begin the first week in September. Monday, September 11th school will open. By that date the new part of the building will be completed and ready for use.

Louisville
From the Courier.
Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gerlach, August 25, a girl.
Margret Holyoke, of Plattsmouth, is visiting with Miss Dorothea Keiser.
There are a few knockers in town who can see no good in anything that is done that they are not allowed to engineer.
C. C. McPherson of Greeley Center, arrived Friday morning and will visit a few days at College Hill at the Lehnhoff home.
The truant school law was ridiculously ignored in Louisville last year, but the school board want it understood that they propose to enforce the law during the coming school year.
Mrs. H. Gerbling and two children, of Elmwood, are visiting with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ferguson. Mr. Gerbling is expecting to move his family to Weeping Water where he will engage in the creamery business.
Prof. Gaines is able to release his arm from the sling in which he has been carrying it for the past three weeks. The professor got in a dispute with a mule out at Kennard and did not know her name was Maud until she drove him up against the side of the barn and he discovered his wing was broken.
Miss Lenora Tangeman chaperoned a carriage load of little boys and girls last Tuesday afternoon out to the Lehnhoff farm where they had been invited to help celebrate the ninth birthday of Elinor Frampton. The occasion was a very merry one and Miss Elenor and her guests will long remember their good time.
No Unpleasant Effects.
If you ever took DeWitt's Little Risers for biliousness or constipation you know what pill pleasure is. These famous little pills cleanse the liver and rid the system of all bile without producing unpleasant effects. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. and Gering & Co.
Weeping Water
From the Republican.
Born—to Mr. and Mrs. Grant Wartman on Saturday, August 26, a boy. Reported by Dr. Greene.
About sixty tickets were sold here on last Thursday for the excursion to the Woodmen picnic at Plattsmouth. Besides these some went on the regular trains and others drove.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Spangler and Mrs. Elizabeth Wiles and Miss Isabel Wiles started Tuesday morning for an extended trip through Oregon, Washington and California. They expect to be gone several weeks.
Mrs. C. C. Hadsall and Mrs. Edwards, who have been the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Shannon for a week, went to Lincoln Friday evening. From there they will go to their home at Leipsic, Ohio.
Dr. Greene took the e-even-year-old son of Robert O'Brien to Omaha Saturday where he will be operated on at St. Joseph's hospital for appendicitis. Mr. O'Brien and daughter Eliza accompanied the little boy and will remain until the operation is over.
H. E. Paine, of Scranton, Pa., has been here for the past few days visiting his sisters, Miss C. M. Paine and Mesdames Butler and Beach. This is Mr. Paine's first visit to Nebraska for thirteen years and he finds conditions somewhat changed from what they were at that time. From here he will go to Denver for a visit before returning home.
Mr. Eaton, one of the oldest settlers of Cass county, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. S. P. Parrish, near Elmwood, the latter part of the week and the body was brought here for burial last Saturday. Mr. Eaton was a man of advanced age and was quite prominently identified with the early settlement and development of this county.
On Tuesday morning as George Woods, who lives south of town, was starting for town with several cans of milk, the team he was driving started to run, with the result that the wagon to which they were hitched was badly torn up and Mr. Woods was quite seriously injured. His daughter, Miss Nettie, who was also coming to town in a buggy, drove in and immediately returned with Dr. Hunsate who reported that Mr. Woods was badly bruised and had a broken rib and would probably be confined to the house for some weeks.
