DEATH OF HENRY STOHLMAN FREE TRAINING OF NURSES MORE DASTARDLY

spected by All Who Knew Him.

In loving remembrance of our beloved son, brother and friend, HENRY E. STOHLMAN, who's death occurred at St. Elizabeth's hospital, Lincoln, Neb., Thursday, Sept. 14, 1905, at 1:20 a. m., of typhoid fever and hemorrhage of the bowels.

On the third day of January, 1905, Henry C. Stohlman rented his land to diploma of the school and the order of his brother, August, and left for the the Red Cross will be conferred, qua'i-Grand Island Business College, at fying for practice in any state or coun-Grand Island, Neb., where he had try; the railroad fare will then be paid taken up a one year's course in book- back home. keeping and stenography as his main studies. At the end of six months' the benefits of this fund will be given study the professor of the school grant- two years' training with a rich experied him a position, through vacation. at the Ellsworth green house at Grand city under skilled leaders. The term Island. From there he was on his way may be shortened to eighteen months home for a visit with his mother, sisters and brothers, stopping over a few days at Havelock, where he was taken suddenly ill with typhoid fever. He men to quickly qualify themselves for sent a message at once to his mother that he was sick and was coming home. In a few hours later a message wassent by his doctor that his temperature was serve their own health; how to recog-105, and that he had taken Henry to nize, avoid and destroy contagion; how the hospital and was not able to be to establish and maintain perfect santaken home. So his mother and sis- itary conditions about the home: they ter, Amelia, and brother August, were are prepared for positions as office soon at his bedside. After consulting nurse and physician's assistant; they with Dr. Williams of Havelock, Dr. get a practical knowledge of City Mis-Stevens and Dr. Everett of Lincoln, sion movements, deaconess training, little hopes of his recovery was given. His mother and his sister stayed by ed for special positions of trust in inhis bedside. The last week of his illness, and on the 10th of September, as Henry telt that he was not getting any dorsed by physicians, leading educabetter, he had a message sent to his tors and prominent men throughout minister, Rev. G. Jung, that he had a the country. longing for the holy communion and to prepare himself to meet God, which FATHER MULCONRY IS DEAD was granted him by his pastor. At the age of fourteen years Henry took his contirmation of Rev. G. Jung as a He Dies From Bright's Disease at St. member of the Evangelical Lutheran church of Louisville, Neb., which he kept until death, and in the last few hours of his life his head was bowed A GOOD MAN GONE TO HIS LONG REST in prayers to his God for a home in heaven. Henry C. Stohlman was the youngest of the family of Frederick P. Stohlman, deceased, one of the earliest setall who knew him. September 16, at 2 o'clock p. m., at the probably averted for the time solely by 1894. old home place which Henry loved so the skill of the Drs. Livingstone, who well. From there his body was con- were immediately called in. veyed to the church, the funeral probeing played by George Jung, after but these proved fallacious and he which the pastor preached the funeral sermon and the remains were conveyed to their last resting place. The casket ciety of Jesus, of which he was for was heaped with beautiful flowers, wreaths, acorns, crosses and boquets. cause of religion throughout the coun-The pallbearers consisted of the fol- try. lowing gentlemen, all of whom were life long friends of the deceased: Ernest Pankonin, George Bloom, Rich- morning in St. John's church, Father Croft. Dearest Henry, thou hast left us. And our loss we deeply feel. But 'tis God that has bereft us-He can all our sorrows heal Yet again we hope to meet thee. When the day of life is fled, When in heaven, with joy to greet thee. Where no farewell tear is shed.

A Young Man Who Was Loved and Re- Young Women of Small Towns and Country Districts to be Favored.

By the terms of a fund to be administered in connection with the Philadelphia School for Nurses, Wither-Some time Saturday night or Sunspoon building, Philadelphia, a number of young women from every county glass in Fanger's store or rather the will receive free training in nursing. glass was already cracked, and who-It is planned to ultimately reach and ever the depredators were finished help in this way every village and the job by pushing it in. By this township. means they made a hole large enough

The young women will be provided to poke one's hand and arm through. with room, board, nurse uniforms and There are several missing articles that all the refinements of a well-appointed were in the window, including a coat, christian home. At graduation the pair of pants and a number of pairs of socks. There seems to be no clue yet as to who did the deed. Some time between the hours of 10 o'clock Saturday night and this morning, the collar show case in front of Those applying and chosen to receive Wescott & Son's store was removed and taken away. No one knows just when, as it was not missed until openence in nursing the sick poor of the ing-up time this morning. The case was fastened to the casing of the windows with screws and contained a by taking a preliminary course of six number of sample collars. It is very months' reading and study at home. A strange that a person would attempt special short course enables young wosuch a deed for a few collars. It has the appearance of a case of pure cussedself support and a substantial income. ness and nothing more.

In addition to regular nursing, the young women are taught how to prenumerous here of late and some movement will have to be inaugurated to college settlement work, and are train-stitutions. The school is ten years old and is en-

Joseph's Hospital in Chicago.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET that needs no praise from the Journal.

mon remark by those who are interested in the public schools of the county, ALL REPRESENTATIVE MEN OF CASS the office in such an efficient and faith-instance.

delight to his friends, and his liberal, It can be truthfully said that in the broad-minded nature appeals to all the nomination of caudidates for the varbest there is in every man and woman. ious county offices by the democrats of Cass county, that in every instance ticle possessed by but few teachers in but one the office has sought the man. the entire state. His ability is un-There were no schemes or slates prequestioned, as his record in office fully pared, nor wire pulling after the mantestifies. The people of Cass county ner of crafty and designing politicians, and all nominations were made in a elect Prof. Wortman, in order to conspirit of absolute harmony. The pertinue in maintaining the efficiency and sonal fitness of each nominee was conprogress of the present excellent syssidered and discussed, and the result tems of our public schools. has been a ticket of qualified and good men for each position and a personnel of strength. It is a ticket of winning ers of the county will, in the exercise of that independence which has in way qualified for the office, and if ernor Mickey. years past characterized their judg- elected will fill the office to the entire mention of each candidate:

The present incumbent of the county treasurer's office is too well known to the people of Cass county to require any encomium on the part of the Jour-QUESTION nal in his behalf, nor urgency of the rectness of electing him to succeed which goes without saying that in Cass county, at least, where an officer has In the case of Chapman vs. Chap- conducted his office for one term in a nominee of the democrats for coroner. ago, as his support in the city of Platts-W. E. Rosencrans.

The Deceased Made Many Friends During and a decree of separate maintenance among political opponents, to be a that he has discharged the duties of From Weeping Water He Made His Escape Across the River Into Iowa.

VERY BOLD, BAD BOY

He holds a life state certificate, an ar- Takes Desperate Chances in Escaping From the Train.

should regard it as a strict duty to re- HE JUMPS THROUGH A CAR WINDOW

Clyde Wright, the bold, bad boy whom Sheriff McBride has wanted who was nominated at Elmwood for since his escape from Constable Mcregister of deeds, is a young German Nurlin, has again been captured and citizen, born and reared in Cass couuty. is now in the hands of Iowa officers Mr. Schewe is a young man in every awaiting requisition papers from Gov-

Wright has quite a record estabment, make no mistake in the electing satisfaction of all who have business to lished for one so young. He was sent to of the entire ticket. Following is brief transact. He was reared on the farm the reform school from Lancaster counof his father near Murdock, where he in the first place. After remaining at received a common school education. the reformatory a short time he While his father is a full-fledged Ger- effected his escape and returned to man, the young man speaks both Ger- Lincoln. Superintendent Hayward of man and English fluently. He is one the reformatory, being informed of of the nicest young men in the county, his whereabouts went after him and and if a register of deeds is to be elect- got him. In taking him back to ed in November, which is a question Kearney, and while on the train, in the minds of many, he will make an Wright seized upon an opportunity and jumped through the car window. He made his way to Weeping Water Two years ago Mr. Craig was the where he claimed to have an uncle living, but this the superintendent but was defeated. His vote at home knew nothing about. He secured a showed in what esteem he is held by detective and he in some way found those who know him best. He carried out the facts in the case and went to Salt Creek, the precinct in which Weeping Water after the boy. At the Greenwood is situated, almost unani- latter place the first inquiry he made mously. Mr. Craig is one of the best was at a livery barn where Wright held that the separate estate cannot taxpayers of the county during his first citizens in Cass county, and his qualifi- was employed and of Wright himself. cations for the office are unquestioned. Wright told him the boy he wanted He stands a much better show of suc- was not there but he could find the to the suit are both well known, so- further honor. Billy Wheeler is wor- cess this year than he did two years object of his search at Elmwood, and volunteered to take him there" in a mouth will be much greater, where we buggy. At Elmwood the kid dropped the detective and returned to Weeping

Water. Superintendent Hayward ap-

stop them before something more serious is committed. THE ALIMUNY

Supreme Court Holds That Woman Seeking himself for another term. It is a truth Separate Maintenance Can't Have It.

Such depredations are becoming too

Such Work.

man from Cedar county, says the Lin- creditable and efficient manner that coln News, the supreme court has held he should be returned, and the Jourthat a woman seeking separate main- nal ventures no prophecy in saying tenance cannot have a divorce for a that the people will show their good lump sum, but must content herself judgment in re-electing him. Mr. with a regular allowance according to Wheeler has, by his strict devotion to the condition of the nusband. It is the best interests of the voters and be created out of the husband's prop- term, earned their friendship to that erty without his consent. The parties extent that they will unite to do him cially, in northern Nebraska. Chap- thy of it.

man is alleged to be wealthy. The wife secured an allowance of $10,000, For county clerk it is admitted, even had a home candidate before.

DEPREDATIONS The Journal Points With Pride to the Men Who Compose It. Some Means Must be Adopted to Stop day morning parties broke a front If the Voters Are Looking for Qualifica- ful manner as to win the approval of tions They Will Find It in Every candidates, and the voters and taxpay-

William D. Wheeler. people as to the advisability and cor-excellent county official.

The Great "Want-Ad." Paper.

If you want to sell your farm, horses or business, or buy something, or you want help of any kind, put a want-ad in the Omaha World-Herald.

This paper is known as the great "want-ad" paper of Nebraska, publishing almost as many paid"want-ads" as any three other Nebraska papers combined. The World-Herald gives splendid returns to its "want-ads" and its rates are low.

For one day only the charge is 11c a word, for two or more consecutive days a cent a word per day. For one month $1.50 a line of 6 words. All "want-ads" cash in advance. Have your answers come to the World-Herald if you like: no extra charge. The World-Herald's net circulation is 35,500

Will Move to Plattsmouth.

John McNurlin, of Mt. Pleasant precinct, was in the city today looking for a residence with a view of coming to this city to reside. Mr. McNurlin has leased his farm and will move here right away, if he is lucky enough in finding a suitable house. He proposes to rent for about six months and will then buy if he concludes to make his permanent residence in Plattsmouth.

The "Havana Tag," the best 5c cigar on the market. Try one today and His Brief Stay in Plattsmouth.

Father Mulconry, the Jesuit priest, tlers of Cass county. Henry was born who, in conjunction with Father Liv- was made by the husband to plead a Rosencrans resides at Elmwood, where him he will fill the position, and fill it January 29, 1884, and died September ingstone, opened the mission recently North Dakota divorce against the he has resided for many years, and to the satisfaction of all. He has done starting McNurlin telephoned the 14, 1905. Henry was of a lively, good in St. John's church, died in St. Jos- wife's suit. The Nebraska court avoids where every man, woman and child is a great deal of surveying, in fact he is morning last, of Bright's disease. The fact that the judgment record of Cass acquainted with the voters of Cass Smith is one of our best citizens, and Henry leaves an aged mother, five zealous priest, although even then in county, N. D., where the decree was county, having made the race for com- if he would go out and ask for the supbrothers who were at his bedside while the grip of his last fatal illness, opened granted, was not properly authenticat- missioner one year ago, and the people port of the people, the gentleman who he was sick, George, William, Freder- the mission with all his usual vigor ed. This left the alleged prior divorce who met him in that campaign were has occupied that position so long ick, Andrew and August, and two sis- and earnestness, and up to Sunday out of question. The wife, in the dis- highly impressed with his general de- would have to take a back seat after ters, Mrs. H. Kupke and Miss Amelia evening by what must have been an trict court, has questioned the valid- portment, and especially his genial, January, 1906. A. Stohlman, and a number of little almost superhuman effort, bore his ity of the North Dakota divorce on good natured qualities, and wherever nieces and nephews, to mourn the share in the labors of the undertaking. the ground that it had been secured he went he made many friends. But of Liberty precinct, who was nomin- to worry the editor of the Weeping death of our loved one-the one we On Sunday evening he was taken sud- without her notice or appearance in beyond this fact, he is well qualified ated for county commissioner, is one Water Herald so greatly. loved so dearly. The funeral was held denly and seriously iil and the end was the case. This decree was granted in in every way to perform the duties of non-support.

ing such cases as follows:

On Wednesday he left for St. Joscession being over a mile in length. At eph's hospital, Chicago, in company of husband and wife, it is incumbent more genial and courteous nature is the church the altar was draped in Dr. T. P. Livingstone, and some slight upon the spouse first repudiating the rarely to be met with, and it is just candidate for the position resides black and white, the funeral march hopes of his recovery were entertained, marital obligations to establish free- this kind of a man the people desire to dom from fault and justification or do business with. "Rosy" is just the excuse for such conduct." passed away on Friday morning.

His death is a great loss to the So-With reference to the creation of a many years an ornament, and to the estate without his consent and such in Cass county for many years. His act would have a tendency to dis- record for the past two years in official A solemn high mass of requiem was sung for the repose of his soul this courage the resumption of marital re- life is the best recommendation that lations which it is in the interest of can be written in his favor. His adard Croft, Frank Salsbury and William Hennessy of Manley being celebrant good morals and public policy to pro- ministration is marked by ability and > Father Bradley of St. John's church mote." deacon, and Father Feeney of Auburn sub-deacon. The mass was well attended by members of the congregations of St. John's and the Holy Rosary they apply soon and pass a proper physical examination they will not select from.

Sixth Street Plattsmouth,

on the ground of abandonment and strong nomination, and his general of this city was nominated for surveyor

This is a case in which an attempt their belief in this direction. Mr. an office seeker, but if the people elect clerk with credit to himself and the "In case of the separation of the people of the county in general. A man for county clerk.

Hon. Harvey D. Travis, separate estate for the wife out of the the democratic nominee for county property of the husband, the court judge, needs but very little attention says that it "cannot create a separate through the Journal. He has resided > utmost fairness. His painstaking care in probate matters is an essential part of his record that he should be proud of. It is unhesitatingly assumed by Plattsmouth and four miles east of those who have had business in his personality is sufficient to carry out against his protest. Mr. Smith is not hearted disposition, and was loved by eph's hospital, Chicago, on Friday any ruling on the subject, from the his friend. He is already fairly well a practical man in that business. Mr.

A. Baxter Smith

and was educated in the schools of his county and state. His qualifications for the office can best be determined by his record in office. It is the com-

all. He has unquestionably made the best official in this particular position that Cass county has ever possessed.

W. O. Schewe,

E. B. Cralg.

His life has been clean, four-square, a

John P. Thacker

of the best men in Cass county. He the office. He is a successful business comes from a section of the district The court lays down the rule govern- man, and will fill the office of county that should by all means be represented on the board. One of the present members of the board comes from Weeping Water, while the republican within three miles of the present commissioner-making in case of his election-two commissioners within a distance of three miles of each other. For this reason alone Mr. Thacker should be elected. Besides Mr. Thacker is a gentleman, a scholar, and knows the desires of the taxpayers of the county as well as any man within its limits. There are no better men than John P. Thacker. Please remember this as you go along.

Don't Be a Kicker.

There are more faultfinders around every community than hairs on a dog's back, and more garbagers than shingles prised Sheriff McBride of Wright's whereabouts and the sheriff telephoned McNurlin to arrest him and he would come over after him. But before sheriff that his prisoner had "flew the coop" and made good his escape.

Sheriff McBride has never relinquished his search for Wright and now has the satisfaction of locating him at Hamburg, Ia., and is now awaiting the necessary papers to bring him to the institution from which he escaped. This was all done without the aid of those bloodhounds which seem Marriage Licenses.

County Judge Travis issued three marriage licenses today:

Chester W. Baylor of Omaha, aged 23 years, and Miss Inez L. Reese of Plattsmouth, aged 20 years:

Sherman O. Bishop of Atlantic, Ia., aged 37 years, and Miss Eliza H. Woche of Cedar Creek, aged 24 years.

William L. Renner of Plattsmouth, aged 26 years, and Miss Minnie Herren of Murray, aged 18 years.

The last named couple were united in marriage this forenoon at the home of Mrs. Burrows, where the girl was living, by Rev. C. M. Kelley of the Church of Christ. Later the father of the girl visited the police judge and they went to the office of the county judge to try and prevent the marriage claiming that the girl was not of age.

For Sale.

A 102 acre farm seven miles south of

