PREPARED IN THE INTERESTS OF THE PEOPLE OF MURRAY AND VICINITY ESPECIALLY FOR THE JOURNAL READERS.

[If any of the readers of the Journal know of a social event or an item of interest in this vicinity and will mail same to this office it will appear under this heading. We want all items of interest.—Editor Journal.]

Dr. McLeod, Union.
John Stone and Gold Rice were in Omaha Tuesday.
W. R. Davis, of Nehawka, was in Murray last Saturday.
Jim Wheeler has been on the sick list for the past few days.
John Purdue has a very sick child at his home east of town.
Colonel Seabolt and wife were in Omaha Wednesday evening.
J. Ash was attending to some business matters in Omaha Tuesday.
Dr. B. F. Brendel made a professional trip to Lincoln last Friday.
Dr. G. H. Gilmore made a professional trip to Omaha Tuesday night.
Mr. and Mrs. Steve Copenbaver have a very sick child at their home south town.
Miss Mae Vallery is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Brendel this week.
G. W. Conrad, of near Nehawka, sold and delivered to Fate Davis a car of cattle.
Read the advertisement of the Murray State Bank in this issue of the Journal.
The little girl of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Hatchett has been quite sick for the past few days.
Mrs. J. W. Berger and Mrs. Charles Carroll were Plattsmouth visitors last Tuesday afternoon.
Miss Daisy Buck and Miss Mae Vallery were visiting at the home of Dr. Brendel and family, Sunday.
Four children of Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Schlieske, east of town, are confined to their beds with scarlet fever.
J. W. Connelly came in from Oregon last week and will spend a few weeks with his daughter, Mrs. J. P. Brisbin.
Mrs. A. L. Baker and daughter, Opha, who have been on the sick list for the past week, are up and around.
Glen Boedecker has returned home from the Cotner university at Lincoln where he has just completed a business course.
Jim Terryberry, of Louisville, was over Wednesday shaking hands with his many friends and looking after his farm interests near here.
C. S. and Bruce Stone returned home from their Oklahoma trip the latter part of last week. The boys report a fine trip and they seem to think a great deal of that part of the country.
Mrs. J. W. Edmunds and nephew, Charles Ferguson, went to Wyoming, Neb., Saturday morning to spend a few days with her brother, Robert Ferguson.
Who says business at the Murray State bank is not on the increase? Another assistant has been pressed into service, in the shape of a new single piece cash delivery.
T. J. Rhoden, wife and daughter, Uia, returned Saturday from Greenwood, where they have been visiting with Mrs. Rhoden's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Laughlin, for a few days.
Cal Rhoden and Bob Shrader will give a mask ball at the Manners & Loughbridge hall on Wednesday evening, February 14. The boys expect a grand good time and you will miss a treat if you fail to attend.
William F. Copeland came in Friday from the western part of the state. He left the next day for Nebraska City, where we understand he has accepted a position in one of the large hotels as night clerk.
The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Ford, seven miles southwest of Murray, died Tuesday, and the little one was laid to rest Wednesday afternoon. The parents have the sympathy of the entire community.

Rev. Richle returned home from his visit last Friday.
B. G. Watkins, of Nehawka, was a Murray visitor Wednesday.
Ed Parriott, of Peru, is another new addition to the Journal this week.
Mrs. H. L. Oldham and daughter, Miss Fay, were in Plattsmouth Friday afternoon.
Miss Clara Carstens, of Avoca, is visiting at the home of Miss Daisy Buck this week.
Miss Daisy Buck was visiting a few days this week at the home of G. M. Minford and wife.
Mrs. J. W. Holmes and Mrs. L. B. Underwood were in Plattsmouth Saturday afternoon.
Mrs. A. L. Baker, who has been quite sick for the past week is able to be up and around the house.
Mr. M. C. Baker, of Nodaway, Michigan, arrived in Murray last Saturday evening, for a few weeks visit with his son, A. L. Baker, and wife.
W. F. Moore hands us a big iron dollar this week with instructions to send a copy of the Journal to his father-in-law, L. W. Patterson, in Narka, Kansas, for one year.
Ed Seagrave, who met with quite an accident a short time ago, while attending R. C. Bailey's horse, is getting along as well as could be expected, and has returned to work in his blacksmith shop southwest of Murray.
F. H. Nix orders a copy of the Journal sent to his father, C. W. Nix, in Dunning, Neb., for one year. If your friends or relatives want the news of Cass county, it will pay you to send them a copy of the Journal. Just notice how they are rolling in.
In making mention of those who attended the "Ben Hur" play in Omaha last week we failed to give the names of A. L. Baker and wife, who were in attendance on Tuesday evening. This was an error on the part of the newspaper man and nothing more.
Ed Parriott, the hustling A. O. U. W. deputy, has been in this locality for the past few days, rounding up a few new members for that old reliable order. The new members will be taken in Saturday evening, and they expect to have about ten of them lined up. If they have less than that number it will be pretty hard on the candidates, as the Murray lodge goat is in the habit of handling all the way from ten to fifty, and he will make life pretty dangerous for anything under ten in number.
Church Chimes.
Rev. Waggoner, who has been giving lectures and showing missionary pictures in the Christian church, closed up his work on Sabbath evening.
A missionary sermon was delivered at the Presbyterian church on last Sabbath morning. After the sermon a missionary offering was received amounting to $9.25.
Vice President Fairbanks: "The Sunday school is a powerful influence for good. It uplifts young men and young women, and as a mighty agency for good deserves universal encouragement and support."
Governor Herrick of Ohio: "The value of the Sunday school can scarcely be estimated, certainly it cannot be overestimated. All the knowledge of the Bible possessed by many men and women is what they learned during early years in the Sunday school."
People complain that the church is always begging. If the world would pay up the back taxes which it owes the church for making this old world fit to live in, we could run all the church's activities from now till the millennium without asking again for a single dollar.

Not electricity, but the preaching of the gospel is the power that is revolutionizing the world.
Several of our children have missed Sabbath school on account of severe colds and sore throats.
You are cordially invited to attend the prayer meeting service held at the Presbyterian church each Wednesday evening at 7:30.
The man who has money might rest if he would; And the man who has none, he might rest if he could; But never, till manhood has gone out of style, Will the man who's a man want to rest all the while.
Misses Bertha and Etta Nickels have returned home from their visit in Omaha.
An Old Time Gathering.
Another genuine old-fashioned carpet bee was given at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Z. W. Shrader, a few days ago. A genuine good time, just such a time as was most pleasantly celebrated at the Chriswiser home on Thursday of last week. Following were those present: Ad. Boedecker and wife, Chas. Cole, wife and children, Henry Long, wife and daughter, Gertrude, John Murdock, wife and son, Paul, John Lloyd, wife and daughter, Dick Chriswiser and wife, Robert Shrader, wife and son, Chester, Galen Rhoden and wife, Tom Perdue, Roy Shrader, Mrs. A. Mast, Mrs. Lewis Young, Mrs. Jessie Lowther and son, Harold, Mrs. George Lloyd and son Andrew, Mrs. Dave Lloyd, Mrs. Mrs. Clint Totten, Mrs. George Ingwerson, Mrs. Frank Massie, Mrs. Louis Todd, Mrs. Lizzie Gregg and son, Harve, and granddaughter, Mrs. Jim Rice and son, Marvin. Prizes were given to the one who sewed the most pounds and Mrs. Ad. Boedecker carried away first prize, Mrs. George Ingwerson second and Miss Gertrude Long third prize. Everyone enjoyed themselves most wonderfully. It's sixteen to one that Mr. Shrader kept the women busy trying to keep up with him. And now, I'll tell you, if you don't want to be kept busy don't ever sew against Mr. Shrader. At the regular hour Mrs. Shrader prepared an elegant dinner.
A Pleasant Time.
At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Galen Rhoden, on Saturday evening, Jan. 27, 1906, a party was given in honor of their friend, Miss Rena Gregory, of Weeping Water. The evening was spent very pleasantly, and a splendid supper added to a general good time enjoyed. Music by Ray Chriswiser's phonograph.
Those present were: Herman Gansmer and Eva Messera, John Durman and Minnie Tilson, Glen Rhoden and Rena Gregory, Jennie Philpot and Charlie Dill, Ray Dill and Eveline Philpot, Mr. Nottingham and Dora Will, Henry Rice and Ida Boedecker, Kell Rhoden and Maggie Connor, Grover Will and Gertrude Long, Leslie Gregory and Fannie Will, Troy Shrader and Sophia Kraeger, Jake and Mary Kraeger, Homer Shrader and wife, Jim Tilson and Grace Rice, Bob Shrader and wife, Dick Chriswiser and wife and sons, Roy and Johnnie, Roy Shrader, Harve Gregg, Roy Gregg, Gold Rice, Minnie Lopp and Jim Lopp of Nehawka, John Hable, Henry Kraeger.

JACKS and STALLIONS
I have the winners of all the Spanish medals and the Grand Sweepstakes Championships in Spain in the past two seasons, Picado Sombrio, Opreor, Silencioso, Lucido, Listado, Mimado, Pulido, Astuto, Picador, Audaz, Moreno, Reacto, Saipicador, Montador.
These greatest of all show-ring-winners were imported by me in the three importations in January, March and April, and are now acclimated and ready for sale.
My great army of American and home-grown jacks, headed by the exhibition jacks and prize winners, Tiger's Eye, Crown, Connoisseur, King Brilliant, Quick returns, Gold Sire, Boudaux, Perrine, Lofly Lad, Upper Ten, Galston, Cock-of-the-Walk, Game, Fast Mail, Anchor, Boy-in-Blue, Iowa Boy, Praas, King Lear, Aristocrat, Black Knight, American Pride, Gold Stamp, Paradox, Quality, Fondus, Jolly Rover, Kamura, None Better, Best-of-All, Diamond Cutter, Frazant, Rockefeller, Accomplishment, Bar None, all first prize and championship winners, and a host of younger ones, are without exception the largest and finest collection of jacks in the world, and the 16 1/2 hand three-year-old soborito, which I imported from the Island of Malta in the Mediterranean Sea last April is the largest specimen of the Maltese breed ever raised on that Island. My collection of jacks is worth going hundreds of miles to see.
I am the most extensive importer and breeder of jacks in the United States, and I am prepared to furnish you more quality at conservative values than you can find in America or Europe. First-class males four months old are selling nearly everywhere at $100 each. I am contracting to buy all males sired by my jacks from ordinary mares at $50 each at 4 months old, and I furnish printed contracts to each purchaser, which enables him to stand the jack at $15.00.
I have preserved the best blood lines of the best families that have ever been bred, and have in my barn the best bred jacks now living, and they are the best male producers that can be had. Remember that it requires blood to show results. I have foreign purchasers from Russia, Argentine, Jamaica, Hawaii, Mexico and Canada, who come to Cedar Rapids, the greatest Jack center in the world, to buy jacks.
Purchasers from Kansas, Oklahoma, and the southwest take evening train in Kansas City on Milwaukee Road, arriving in Cedar Rapids next morning, no change of cars. All customers from east of Chicago and west of Omaha should take Northwestern main line from those cities; from north of Minneapolis, take Rock Island Route from Minneapolis.
Do not let the boys leave the farm. Bialac more horses and mules. It pays better than anything you can do. A Jack will pay for himself in a season, and the stallions I am offering will do the same. It will take 2,000 mules per year for 15 years to build the Panama canal.
Among my Stallions
I have fourteen that won first premiums in Belgium, six sweepstakes and four gold medal winners. These stallions are as good as have been imported, and I will sell them at $1200 to $1500 each. My Percherons and German Coaches were all imported at two-year-olds, are now three-year-olds and "as fine as silk," and no one can show a better string. Percherons, $1000 to $1400; German Coaches, $1000 to $1500.
I also have a full line of American bred, registered, Percheron stallions weighing from 1500 pounds to 2,000 pounds, you can have your choice for good. The time for paying fabulous prices for stallions has passed. I am positive that I am offering greater bargains than ever before offered to parties wanting stallions. My Belgian stallions are the high-spirited, stylish, active, high-going type, with short, straight, powerful backs, wide and deep in chest and stifle, an abundance of clean, flat bone, and the best foot of any horse.
Write for catalogue and descriptions and come and see before you buy.
Jack owners! Register your jacks in the American Jack Register. Write for blanks.

...Stock Food...
All stock raisers admit that the feeding of a reliable brand of stock food is a paying proposition, especially at this time of the year. The stock food should be of the best, in order to get best results. Above all things it ought to contain a tonic for digestion and a laxative to regulate the bowels, especially when the stock is on dry feed. We carry on hand the following brands, which contain the above valuable properties, and we think they are the three best foods on the market:
Pratt's Stock Food
International Stock Food, 3 feeds 1 cent
Hess's Scientific Compound, 5c a lb in 100-lb lots
Hess's Poultry Panacea, a guaranteed egg-producer
