Victory After Defeat.

History teaches us that a defeat is the best school for a general, showing him errors which could have been avoided, and in many instances several defeats preceded a decisive victory. It is the same in ordinary life. By relying too much on our strength and luck we are defeated by a sickness, but should not allow it to crush us entirely. Using Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine at the approach of the first signs of a sickness, we have the best weapon of defense, because it quickly restores the strength and endurance of the digestive system. In any malady of the stomach, the intestines and the blood, it always helps. The first symptoms of such maladies are usually loss of appetite, irregular stool, change in the complexion. By using Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine as soon as possible you will always gain a victory over the encroaching disease. At drug stores, Jos. Triner, 799 So. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill.

DURING FEBRUARY

Pursuant to the change in our firm which is now C. E. Wescott's Sons, we desire to make the following bona fide offer:

During the month of February we will give to every cash customer a liberal discount from our regular marked prices, on everything in the house except overalls, linen collars, cotton flannel gloves, and mitts and certain lines of hosiery. Understand, we are not closing our doors to change the marks on a single thing, or to set aside the best things, but every article in the store is marked in plain American figures, and whatever you get off from these, is real discount.

We cannot make a stated per cent of discount to apply to everything alike, as some things, such as odds and ends, will stand more than others, but everybody will receive exactly the same reduction on any stated article.

Now permit us to state here, that this is not a "slaughter sale," a "closing out sale" or a fake sale of any kind. We have never resorted to such and never intend to

This is simply in the nature of a remembrance we are willing to give you on this, the occasion of our first month's business as a new firm. If you need anything in our line, especially anything in winter wear, claim this special February discount, and you'll buy good goods cheaper than you ever did before.

Yours for a square deal and no monkey business.
