

STURDY FARMERS KEEP OFF ALL CATARRHAL ILLS BY TAKING PE-RU-NA.

Pe-ru-na, the Most Reliable Remedy For All Climatic Ailments.

MR. GEO. H. THOMPSON

At Work On the Farm and Feeling Well All the Time.

Geo. H. Thompson, Raleigh, Miss., writes:

"I have been cured of catarrh by your medicines, Peruna and Manalin. I had been affected with catarrh of the stomach about all my life, and was taken bad every Spring and Summer.

"I used several kinds of patent medicines, but they did me no good. I then took a treatment under an M. D., which did me but little good. By this time I had come to where I could eat nothing but a little soup. I had severe pains, had lost in weight and could not do anything. I began taking your medicines, Peruna and Manalin. I then weighed 120 pounds, but after taking several bottles of Peruna and one bottle of Manalin, I weighed 160 pounds.

"I am now at work on the farm and feel well all of the time. I eat all I want to and my friends say that I look better than ever before. I will ever praise Peruna for its healing power."

Pe-ru-na is a Systemic Remedy. If Peruna proves efficient for catarrh in one place, it will be equally potent in any other place, because it is a systemic remedy.

The people generally are very much misinformed as to the nature of catarrh. Catarrh is usually believed to be confined to the head, nose and throat. Later we sometimes hear of catarrh of the stomach and catarrh of the bowels. Seldom, if ever, do we hear of catarrh of any other organs.

It is not because these organs are not subject to catarrh, nor that catarrh of these organs is not a very common disease, but simply because it is not generally known that affections of these organs may be due to catarrh.

MR. GUSTAV SCHMIDT

Chronic Catarrh of Head and Throat Lasted Thirty Years.

A Letter Praising Pe-ru-na.

Mr. Gustav Schmidt, Spring Valley, Ill., writes: "I had catarrh of the head and throat for over thirty years. It became worse every year. About three months ago I commenced to take Peruna and Manalin, and now I am entirely cured of that troublesome sickness. Your medicine is surely a blessing to mankind. You can truly say that you have not lived in vain, Doctor, and I thank you for the good you have done me. May you enjoy a long life to help suffering humanity."

A TALK TO FARMERS.

THE farmer is the salt of the earth. Without the farmer, the industrial world with all its flurry and immense wealth could not exist for a day.

It is upon the soil that we all depend for our living.

No matter how far one may be removed from tilling the soil, or how little he may know about the farmer's vocation, he is vitally dependent upon the things which grow in the soil.

Farming is the basis of all wealth and is the bulwark of all civilization.

The farming class is rapidly becoming intelligent and shrewd in business management.

The reuben and the country bumpkin have disappeared and in their stead a practical well-trained business man, capable of the highest form of commercial activity, has arisen.

Peruna is a very popular medicine among the farming class.

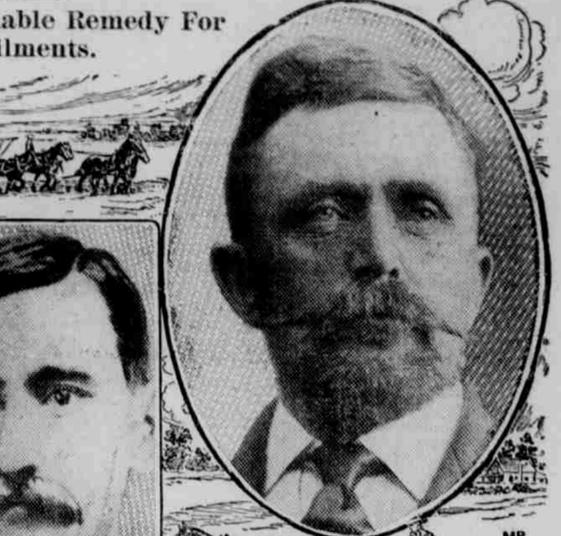

Many a family depends largely upon Peruna as a family medicine and the family physician.

Some farmers are far removed from physicians, and in any case they are far more self-reliant and more liable to depend upon a household remedy than people who live in the cities.

Dr. Hartman, who for many years was a farmer himself, and who still owns and manages one of the best farms in the State of Ohio, is a friend of the farmer, and it is with the farmer that the immense bulk of his correspondence is conducted.

The millions of booklets published and distributed by Dr. Hartman every year circulate chiefly among the farming class.

A large number of unsolicited testimonials concerning Peruna come from the farmers every year.

MR. HENRY SCHROEDER

Pe-ru-na, a Household Friend.

Mr. Henry Schroeder, Route 2, Napoleon, Ohio, writes:

"I suffered for almost ten years with catarrh of the stomach and all doctoring was of no avail. I took nine bottles of Peruna and two of Manalin and am now entirely cured.

"I recommend the medicine to all who are afflicted with this disease. It is my household friend."

One of Dr. Hartman's Grateful Correspondents.

Mr. W. R. Callahan, proprietor of Big Hill Farm, and prominent fruit grower and stock raiser, Glenvar, Va., writes: "I write to express my kindness toward you and your good medicine, Peruna."

"I had a very bad spell of sickness and could not eat anything at all. My head, stomach, in fact, my whole body ached, and it looked as though nothing would do me any good. I had almost given up.

"I decided to try a bottle of your Peruna and before I had taken half the bottle my appetite came to me and my head became all right. In fact, I was all right all over. Peruna cured me."

While Peruna is not confined to any one class of people, yet it is probably true that the farming class more than any other, rely upon Peruna for the prevention and cure of all climatic diseases.

Louisville

From the Courier.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Keiser left Tuesday evening for Colorado.

C. J. Gaebel went to Valley and Waterloo to attend a hog sale, the forepart of the week.

Mrs. S. W. Davis and daughter, Gladys, of Scotts Bluffs, were here visiting friends over Sunday.

The German class recently organized by Professor Gaines now has eleven members. They met with Miss Leda Ross on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. P. C. Stander gave a quilting party last Wednesday afternoon which was rather a family affair very few outside the family being invited. The Stander family is well represented in this community and needless to say the house was filled to overflowing. Those present were: Mesdames E. A. Stander, Henry Stander, Peter Spangler, William Stander, Louis Stander, Lester Stander, William Cleghorn, W.

Deal, Jno. Group, Chas. Noyes and Misses Edith Shryock, and Olive and Alice Stander. The festivities began with a sumptuous dinner served at noon. The fifteen healthy, happy youngsters present would surely gladden the heart of President Roosevelt and convince him that race suicide was not to be feared in Louisville.

George Schoeman and Will Wendt purchased a new Sandwich corn sheller this week. It is the largest sheller ever brought to this part of the county and the boys expect to be doing business in a short time.

Union

From the Ledger.

Mrs. A. M. Bay arrived Wednesday evening from Kansas, being called here by the serious illness of her father, James Dysart.

John P. Todd and wife returned Sunday from Burlington, Kan., where they spent several weeks visiting relatives and friends. Of course they had a delightful visit, but are glad to be back among the many friends they have here.

A couple of revenue officers were here Wednesday trying to "smell out" some illegal liquor traffic, but we are not informed as to the result of their investigations, they having no information to give us.

Mrs. N. D. Foster's health has not been good this winter, and Monday night an attack of heart trouble seemed to endanger her life for a few hours, but she rallied from the attack and is reported to be getting along as well as can be expected.

James Lewis arrived here Wednesday morning from Missouri to make his home here again. When he left here a few weeks ago we made a good guess that he would be with us again, and his many friends are glad to have him return.

G. E. Mills, who has resided near here several years, departed Wednesday from Imogene, Ia., where he has leased a farm. His children went some time ago, and that will be their permanent home. Mr. Mills had the confidence and good will of all during his residence here, and many friends wish him well in his new location.

A report sent to the Ledger states that Mrs. Araminta (Wiley) Baldwin, well known here, but now of Ottawa, Kan., submitted to an operation in University hospital, in Kansas City, for removal of a tumor, the operation being successfully performed by Dr. Perkins, and the patient is recovering nicely. A cystic tumor weighing fifty pounds was removed.

Miss Pearl Wilkinson, student at Lincoln, was a visitor with Prof. Rouse's family at Plattsmouth a couple of days, and came home to spend Sunday.

The meetings at the M. E. church have resulted in many additions to the church and a goodly number will yet unite. At present twenty-nine have been taken in. While the series of nightly meetings have closed, yet the work continues and two nights in the week are devoted in a special awakening of interest.

County Clerk Rosencrans and wife came over from Plattsmouth Saturday evening, changing here for Elmwood. Mr. Rosencrans wanted to assist the Masons in showing Candidate J. W. Gamble how to stick on the goat.

Frank Anderson, foreman at the quarries, has been on the grip list for several days. Frank says Mr. Yates of Omaha, while here last week, spoke encouragingly of their business for 1906, and is looking ahead to a repetition for 1906. The quarry shipped to the Ames beet sugar factory last year 700 cars of stone, besides filling all their other orders. Mr. Yates leaves this month for an extended trip to Europe.

Elmwood

From the Leader-Echo.

Wm. D. Skeen arrived the latter part of last week, and has taken charge of the south side harness shop. Hiram Miller is building an addition to the residence on the farm occupied by his son, George.

Mrs. Kirchoff, of Plainview, Neb., who was visiting relatives in this vicinity returned home Monday evening.

Louis Jensen is building a new barn, 24x30, on his farm a mile west of town. Charley Peck is doing the work.

Peter Nickel was able to come to town yesterday. He was quite sick for several days with "grip" and tonsillitis.

The family of Ed Mapes, four and a half miles northwest of Elmwood, was placed under quarantine Saturday. Rhoda Thornton, who is visiting there has the smallpox.

Elger J. H. Bicknell left Wednesday for St. Paul, Minn., to enter upon his new duties. Mrs. Bicknell will visit here two or three months before joining her husband.

Mrs. John Gyger, one of the pioneers of Nebraska, died last Friday evening, February 4th, of cancer of the stomach, and was buried beside her husband in the Elmwood cemetery on Saturday, February 6th, aged 72 years, 5 months and 22 days.
