Conditions Approach The Ideal

in the business world when everyone with an income has a bank account and pays his bills by check.

Ninety percent of the business is done by check. Why? Because it is safe. Because it is more convenient than handling the money. Because the chances of error are less.

You do not have to do an extensive business in order to have a checking account. Small accounts are as welcome as large ones, and will receive the same careful attention.

The defendant paid the claim and both parties paid the costs. The defendant was present to fight the matter, but better judgment prevailed and the boys settled their difficulties out of court.

The public sale of R. B. Stone Monday was very largely attended, everything bringing a good price. Bruce and family expect to leave for Nehawka by March 1st, where they will stay until about the first of June, when they will go to Oklahoma to make their future home, where Mr. Stone has half a section of fine land. Mr. and Mrs. Stone have gained many friends while in our community, who regret very much to have them leave our midst, but wish them success in their new home.

James Loughridge and Albert Lillie have the cave on the D. J. Pitman lots here in town rented, and therein they stored last fall sufficient eatables to last them all winter, and from time to time visited the cave as they desired a portion of its contents. As usual one of the boys had occasion to visit their store house Wednesday morning, and you bet he was pretty angry when he found that several bushels of potatoes and a lot of their can fruit had been stolen. The boys are pretty good guessers and have their eyes on the guilty party, and of course have hopes of "nailing" him.

Surprise Party.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Rhoden planned and carried out a most pleasant surprise party, at their beautiful new home, northwest of town, last Friday evening, in honor of their son Glenn's 20th birthday anniversary. The young man had not the slightest idea of what was going on until the merry visitors began to gather in, the first of whom was John Durman, who was sent as a sort of an advance agent to see if the coast was clear, and to announce his intention of simply calling to spend the evening, and the balance of the crowd following soon thereafter, making the occasion a genuine surprise in every particular. The evening was spent in numerous parlor games, and at the regular hour Mrs. Rhoden invited the guests to partake of one of those most excellent suppers which has made her a favorite among the entertainers of this section. The occasion was certainly a most pleasant one, and at the customary hour all departed for home wishing their young friend many happy returns. Following were those present: Chas. Stone, Leslie Hall, Jeff Brendel, Will Seybolt, Miss Bessie Brendel, Lena Gregory, Miss Tilson, James and Tom Tilson, John Durman, Roy Gregory, Roy Shrader, Troy Shrader, Kelly Rhoden, Misses Gordon, Trudie Long, May, Grace, Louise and Florence Valley, Glen and J. Sterling Valley, Mr. and Mrs. Galen Rhoden, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Shrader, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Rhoden and Mrs. Don Rhoden.

Royal Highlanders.

The Royal Highlanders are certainly climbing to the top in this part of the world, now having between fifty and sixty members. Mr. Lattimer Bailey, special deputy, has been here for the past two weeks in the interest of the order, and has added about fifteen new members to the order, eight of whom were initiated last Saturday evening, and the balance will be taken in the very near future. The Highlanders is a good order and has experienced a wonderful growth during the past few years. The Murray Castle has been heretofore meeting around the neighborhood at the homes of the members, but they have now reached the number that they can feel able to rent a hall, and in the future will meet in the Woodmen hall every two weeks.

Church Chimes.

Goodness outshines genius. In soul winning, wishing is not fishing.

Milton exclaims: "A good man is the ripe fruit our earth holds up to God."

Hugh Robb attended divine service at the Presbyterian church on Sabbath evening.

Hear the evening sermon on next Lord's day—the third in the series of soul-winning.

The mid-week prayermeeting is provided by the church that people may be followers of Christ in respect to prayer.

The wedding of Mr. Wm. A. Clineburg and Miss Grace Allison was a pleasant surprise to the church circles of our community.

With the return of mild weather all parents should bring their children and come to Sabbath school. This is the Lord's opportunity for all classes of people to show their love for Christ by obeying his words: "Search the scripture."

The German Kaiser is a strict observer of the Sabbath, discountenancing any form of sport upon that day and declaring that he allows nothing to interfere with his church attendance. This is good religion and pure Biblical truth.

Like Ephesus in days of old the city of Chicago is in an uproar. Women have been murdered on the streets in daylight and the populace is terror-stricken. Crime is at flood-tide and the police are powerless to stop it. The verdict of the city is that crime is "saloon-bred."

Further Particulars of the Sad Affair Which Occurred at Manley.

In yesterday's issue of the Evening Journal a brief account of the attempted suicide of D. O. Hostetter, which was sent us by the father of the young man appeared, but the following from the Weeping Water Herald gives more light upon the attempt of the young man to take his own life:

"Last Sunday night D. O. Hostetter, a young man about twenty years old, living near Murray, came over to Manley and attended church. He is a nephew of Mrs. Jim Breckenridge, and went from the church to Breckenridge's house to spend the night. In the night he got up and went out to the barn. Mrs. Breckenridge awakened and got up after a while, wondering why the boy didn't return. She found a note on the table written by Hostetter, saying his body would be found in the barn. She awakened her husband, and he, fearing the boy had hanged himself, went over to his neighbor, Mr. Rockwell, and not being able to arouse him, traveled over to Mr. Newman's, a mile and a half, and told him of the circumstance. Together they returned, got Mr. Rockwell and went into the barn, where they found Hostetter lying on his face, stiff and cold. By the side of the body was a two-ounce bottle containing carbolic acid, and half of the contents had been taken. Dr. Greene, of Manley, was called, and worked with the boy all day and night, and finally succeeded in eliminating the poison, and the would-be suicide may possibly recover.

"The cause of the attempt is said to be on account of trouble at home. The boy is also a relative of Mrs. Tom Akeson. Dr. Green says he is terribly burned internally but he hopes to save him."

JACKS and STALLIONS

I have the winners of all the Spanish medals and the Grand Sweepstakes Championships in Spain in the past two seasons. Picado Sombrio, Oprezor, Silencioso, Lucidos, Listado, Minado, Pulido, Astuto, Picador, Audaz, Moreno, Reacio, Saipicado, Montador.

These greatest of all show-ring-winners were imported by me in the three importations in January, March and April, and are now acclimated and ready for sale.

My great army of American and home-grown jacks, headed by the exhibition jacks and prize winners, Tiger's Eye, Crown, Connaisseur, King Brilliant, Quick returns, Gold Sire, Roadaux, Perrine, Lofly Lad, Upper Ten, Galestone, Cock-of-the-Walk, Game, Fast Mall, Anchor, Boy-in-Blue, Iowa Boy, Praxas, King Lear, Aristocrat, Black Knight, American Pride, Gold Stamp, Paradox, Quality, Fondus, Jolly Rover, Kamura, None Better, Best-of-All, Diamond Cutter, Frazant, Kockefeller, Accomplishment, Bar None, all first prize and championship winners, and a host of younger ones, are without exception the largest and finest collection of jacks in the world, and the big hand three-year-old Soberbia which I imported from the Island of Malta in the Mediterranean sea last April is the largest specimen of the Maltese breed ever raised on this island. My collection of jacks is worth going hundreds of miles to see.

I am the most extensive importer and breeder of jacks in the United States, and I am prepared to furnish you more quality at conservative values than you can find in America or Europe. First-class mules four months old are selling nearly every where at $100 each. I am contracting to buy all mules sired by my jacks from ordinary mares at $25 each at 4 months old, and I furnish printed contracts to each purchaser, which enables him to stand the jack at $15.00.

I have preserved the best blood lines of the best families that have ever been bred, and have in my barn the best bred jacks now living, and they are the best mule producers that can be had. Remember that it requires blood to show results. I have foreign purchasers from Russia, Argentine, Jamaica, Hawaii, Mexico and Canada, who come to Cedar Rapids, the greatest jack center in the world, to buy jacks.

Purchasers from Kansas, Oklahoma, and the southwest take evening train in Kansas City on Milwaukee Road, arriving in Cedar Rapids for breakfast next morning, no change of cars. All customers from east of Chicago and west of Omaha should take Northwestern main line from those cities; from north of Minneapolis, take Rock Island Route from Minneapolis.

Do not let the boys leave the farm. Raise more horses and mules, it pays better than anything you can do. A jack will pay for himself in a season, and the stallions I am offering will do the same. It will take 2,000 miles per year for 15 years to build the Panama canal.

Among my Stallions I have fourteen that won first premiums in Belgium, six sweepstakes and four gold medal winners. These stallions are as good as have been imported, and I will sell them at $200 to $500 each. My Percheron and German Coaches were all imported at two-year-olds, are now three-year-olds and "as fine as silk," and no one can show a better string. Percherons, $1000 to $1400; German Coaches, $1000 to $1500.

I also have a full line of American bred, registered, Percheron stallions weighing from 1500 pounds to 2,000 pounds, you can have your choice for $600. The time for paying fabulous prices for stallions has passed. I am positive that I am offering greater bargains than ever before offered to parties wanting stallions. My Belgian stallions are the high-spirited, stylish, active, high-going type, with short, straight, powerful backs, wide and deep in chest and still, an abundance of clean flat bone, and the best foot of any horse.
