Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour risings, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol cures indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does not only cure indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy cures all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

Mr. S. S. Ball, of Ravenswood, W. Va., says: "I was troubled with sour stomach for twenty years. Kodol cured me and we are now using it in milk for baby."

Nehawka Boy's Hard Luck.

A special from Council Bluffs, Iowa, under date of June 21, says: "Howard Johnson of Nehawka, Neb., and Miss Vera E. Rockwell of Manley, applied here for a marriage license and were refused credentials. The prospective groom gave his age as twenty-one and the bride to be admitted to twenty-five years, but the clerk's deputy, who is an expert, placed the age of the young man at seventeen or under and refused to comply with the pleadings of the couple."

The couple it seems did not give up the chase for the necessary credentials to make them one, as the following from the Nebraska City Tribune of last evening would indicate: "Howard W. Johnson and Miss Vera E. Rockwell, both of Nehawka, were united in marriage this afternoon at the Methodist parsonage. Rev. C. A. Mastin performed the ceremony."

Fourth at Cedar Creek.

A movement is on foot for an excursion from Plattsmouth to Cedar Creek on the Fourth of July, the train to leave here early in the morning and return in the evening. This will give the family of those who desire to spend the day in fishing and other amusements that they may desire to pursue an opportunity to do so. We hope the arrangements will be completed as many here in town would no doubt take advantage of this arrangement for a day's outing.

How to Break Up a Cold.

It may be a surprise to many to learn that a severe cold can be completely broken up in one or two days' time. The first symptoms of a cold are a dry, loud cough, a profuse watery discharge from the nose, and a thin, white coating on the tongue. When Chamberlain's cough remedy is taken every hour on the first appearance of these symptoms, it counteracts the effect of the cold and restores the system to a healthy condition within a day or two. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co. and A. T. Fried.

Just received a car of the American fencing. If in need of any please give us a call before buying.

Judges Going to Europe.

A Lincoln special to the Omaha Bee contains the following: Chief Justice Sedgwick and former Chief Justice John J. Sullivan will leave the first part of the week for a visit to England and Ireland and some other places across the water. They will be accompanied by Mrs. Sedgwick and Mrs. Sullivan. It is understood the trip was inspired by reason of the fear on the part of Judge Sullivan that the democrats would draft him to run for governor."

WHY SHOULD THEY TRADE HERE IN PLATTSMOUTH?

How the Newspapers Educate the Buyers From the Rural Districts.

The following timely thoughts upon a question that interests not only the country merchant but also the buyer of merchandise, is taken from the Fremont Herald and as it suits this locality as well as it does Fremont, we take the liberty of substituting the name of Plattsmouth instead of Fremont, that it may possibly have a better effect upon the reader:

"One of the most notable facts connected with the country daily newspaper of today is the large increase in the amount of advertising of local business houses. The change has taken place gradually, and has been marked especially during the past year or two. It is highly significant, and an inquiry as to the cause of it is of great profit, not only to those engaged in the newspaper business, but to every business man and citizen of our town as well. The change, in brief, means that local merchants have found it necessary to call attention to their goods because of the immense competition they face, the most deadly element of which is that from the stores in the larger cities. These big establishments advertise their wares extensively, and the metropolitan newspapers which contain their advertisements are scattered far and wide, some one paper of which enters nearly every home. The result is that these establishments have built up a great mail trade. The country newspapers have sought by every means to educate the country buyer the fallacy of buying away from home, and the newspaper men will keep up this educational process. People are gradually learning that 'oil is not gold' that glitters in the advertisements of the large stores. They find from time to time that they are imposed upon. In Plattsmouth and in most of the towns hereabouts, there is little occasion for this out-of-town buying. The duty of the citizen is plain, and where other things are equal support should be given to the local dealers. Our merchants have invested their capital, have erected buildings, and have established concerns which are most metropolitan in character. They have built us our little city, and it is only a fair return that they have the city's trade. A better reason for the trading at home is that you are always guaranteed satisfaction, or your money is refunded. No business man in the city can afford to give his customers anything else but satisfaction, and the city store doesn't miss the customer who kicks and quits—there are plenty of other 'suckers' for their bait. But the Plattsmouth and Cass county citizen owes it to himself to trade at home. To turn his trade otherwise, even in the line of small purchases which are great in the aggregate, is to invite the decline of property values in our vicinity, and that means loss not only to the business men but to the customer. When you think of buying in Omaha or Lincoln, think twice and you will spend the money at home."

Establish Recruiting Station.

Dr. E. D. Cummins has been notified that a recruiting station for the United States Marine Corps has been established in this city. He received his official appointment as the medical examining officer of candidates for this branch of Uncle Sam's service last Wednesday. This department is one of the best paid of the military and naval forces of the government and the age for enlistment ranges from 18 to 35. Anyone interested in this service may secure more extended information in regard to the remuneration, rank, etc., by consulting Dr. Cummins.

Gets Hand Crushed by Hammer.

While making pipe clamps Friday morning about nine o'clock, Ed. Roman, a blacksmith apprentice, had the misfortune to get his left hand caught under the steam hammer, operated by Geo. Hall. The unfortunate young man was at once taken to the company physician's office, where it was found necessary to amputate the forefinger between the first and second joints, and to dress the other fingers and thumb, which were badly mashed. The accident will necessitate a several weeks' layoff.

Re-locates in Union.

A deal was made some time ago in which Dr. A. E. Walker bought the office and practice of Dr. F. L. McLeod in this village, but we had no permission to publish the fact at that time. The change is to be made next Friday, at which time Dr. Walker again steps in as "boss" of the office he sold just three years ago. He has not been forgotten in those three years, hence he needs no introduction to Union people, who are glad to welcome him back. Dr. McLeod intends going to New York City about July 15 to take a year's post-graduate work in one of the best medical colleges.—Union Ledger.

What is a Lady?

Lippencott's Magazine gives the following description of a lady: "Socially a lady is an illuminating exception to the 'Crowd.' She has old-fashioned notions that puzzle the majority and delight the few. She has no longings for a career or for suffrage. She detests snobbery, but refuses to know any save the 'best people'—for her to know. Those who paint pictures, bew marble, and write books or give to the world the worthy products of their talents are among her 'best people.' Not that she looks upon great wealth as a bar sinister to social eligibility. What has money to do with ladyhood? But she knows the need of money is the root of much evil; therefore, among her friends are women whose millions are but golden addenda to their thrice-charming selves—indeed, she often is born to the purple, or acquires it by marriage. Many are called upon, but few are chosen as a lady's intimates. To all she is careful to be polite, and so escape the snare of petty broils and spiteful 'roastings.' Friendships that are born in a night, and die in a fortnight, she rejects. She confides in none. If unconsciously she invites, she never invites, confidence, but when trusted is loyalty's synonyme."

A Peculiar Divorce Case.

In the case of McDonald vs. McDonald, a demurrer was filed to the answer of defendant, which was overruled. The grounds for the demurrer were based upon the question of whether or not the probate court of Oklahoma in 1894 had jurisdiction to grant a divorce; and, second, whether or not the case Haddock vs. Haddock, recently decided in the supreme court of the United States, would be followed in the state of Nebraska. The court in that case held that a divorce granted in one state where the defendant resided in another state, and service was had by publication, that the decree entered therein is void. The case of McDonald vs. McDonald will be tried at the September term and will be, probably, the first case in Nebraska, where this question is raised. No doubt the case will go to the supreme court of Nebraska. H. D. Travis is attorney for the plaintiff and S. M. Chapman and and Wm. Deles Dernier for defendant.

District Court Notes.

Jas. J. Johnson vs. village of South Bend, et. al.; motion of the defendants to require plaintiff to file new petition, called up by the defendant, but passed by court on account of absence of attorney for plaintiff.

Sylvia F. Wren vs. Edgar L. Wren, defendant asks and is given three days to file additional affidavits in support of motion to dissolve temporary injunction. Plaintiff asks and is given three days thereafter to file counter affidavits. Cause to be heard on said motion at Nebraska City on date to be agreed upon by both parties.

Deles Dernier, et. al. vs. Carrie Carroll, motion to make petition more definite and certain, overruled.

Cory vs. Quinton, on motion of defendant, the real party in interest, Jas. M. Craig, is substituted for the defendant herein.

Palmer vs. Lane, et. al., motion to modify decree overruled; motion to grant stay of order of sale, sustained.

A suit to recover judgment in the sum of $900 was filed in the district clerk's office today by John Larson vs. Martha J. Peterson.

District court adjourned Thursday "sine die," and Judge Jensen departed for his home in Nebraska City.

Orange Blossoms.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick, in Alvo, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday evening, June 13, 1906, when their daughter, Bessie, was united in marriage to Mr. William H. Rhoden. At sunset Miss Kirkpatrick and Mr. Rhoden, accompanied by Miss Gillham and Mr. Sterling Rhoden and three little flower girls marched, while Lohnegrin's wedding march was played, to the spacious front porch where Rev. Mr. White performed the ceremony.

The parlor and porch had been tastefully decorated in pink and white with a profusion of green leaves and smilax. The bride wore a handsome gown of white embroidery and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. After the ceremony an elegant two-course luncheon was served to more than one hundred guests. The young couple will go immediately to housekeeping in the home which the groom has provided.

The Louisville Bridge.

A special from Papillon says: "The commissioners of Cass county applied to the commissioners of Sarpy county to join them in repairing the bridge across the Platte river at Louisville, which was refused. Now Cass county will make the repairs and appeal to the court to compel Sarpy to pay its share of the expenses."

Fine Winter Wheat.

Previous to the rains that fell the forepart of the week many were ready to declare that not only the small grain crop was ruined, but the corn crop also. There was no question as to small grain being in a serious condition, but that fear has all passed, and now to convince those who have been saying that Cass county would have scarcely any wheat this year, we invite them to call at the Journal office and gaze upon a sample of wheat that J. R. Vallery sent in yesterday evening. The stock stands about three feet high, and the heads are well filled. After examining the sample you will be just like others who have examined it, and say that it is exceedingly fine wheat, considering the fact that nearly every wheat raiser in the county was ready to declare the crop a failure two weeks ago.

Guy Bestor Married.

The following account of the marriage of Guy Bestor is taken from the Cozad (Neb.) Tribune of June 22:

"Miss Inas L. Atkinson and Guy H. Bestor were married at the home of Mrs. M. E. Atkinson, mother of the bride, Wednesday evening, June 20th, at eight o'clock. Only relatives being present. The marriage ceremony was pronounced by Rev. R. A. Ploetz of the Presbyterian church.

"The bride is the oldest daughter of Mrs. M. E. Atkinson and has lived nearly all her life in this community. The groom has been a resident of Cozad more than two years and during this time has been in the employ of the Cozad Mutual Telephone Company, having recently been elected secretary and manager. They will reside in Cozad. We extend heartiest congratulations."

"The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Bestor, living six miles west of Plattsmouth, and was born and reared in Cass county. The Journal joins the friends of the groom in extending congratulations."
