A BANK ACCOUNT

With a Check System is One of the Greatest Developments of the Modern Business World

An account at the bank is a sign that you are methodical in business; it handles your business in a systematic manner, and gives you a peculiar business education not gained elsewhere.

Checks are more convenient than money. The checks answer the purpose of receipts and can be kept on file for reference. Only those who have tried it know the advantage of a checking account at the bank. Your balance does not need to be large, but just sufficient to meet the demands.

Instead of paying your bills by cash the next time, deposit the money in the bank, and check against a bank account. We are equipped with the best safe deposit vaults, and represent the best fire insurance companies.

Special Sale at Holmes & Smith's all Next Week.

A special sale will be held at the store of Holmes & Smith in Murray all next week. Every article in the store will be sold at a reduced price in order to make room for the large holiday stock on the road. The store is well filled with bright new merchandise, but we must have room for the exceptionally large holiday line that will be placed on sale in a few days. Bear in mind that this is not a sale of cheap shoddy goods, but every article is staple and will bear the closest inspection.

The prices that we are going to make will surely move the goods, so call early in the week and let us show you what we are doing. This sale will last one week only. We offer you 19 pounds of best granulated sugar for $1.00.

A new girl baby arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clint Clineburg in Tecumseh on last Monday morning.

Mrs. Chas. Perry and baby were quite seriously poisoned last Saturday from eating canned salmon. Mr. Perry did not partake of a sufficient amount of the tainted food to injure him, but Mrs. Perry and the baby experienced quite a serious time, and it required prompt medical attention to rescue them.

If any one does not think that night services are a good thing at the depot, just let them stand around our depot for seven hours some morning or until you are discharged from the railroad premises for vagrancy. Our stockman, Dave Amick, stood in the chilly blasts one morning and watched steam trains going south when he wanted to go north, and as a result of his waiting he has almost been down with the whooping cough.

There has been numerous reports of corn husking records this fall, but none can excel the record of Misses Anna and Mattie Pils, the daughters of Mr. Wm. Pils, living three miles west of Murray. They have averaged 80 bushels per day during all weather that would permit husking. After finishing at home they shucked for two different brothers, making their $2.40 per day at the rate of three cents per bushel. By those who have been over the county it is thought that at least ten per cent of the corn shuckers this winter have been ladies. The scarcity of men has compelled many to help in the fields and women that have the grit to hustle this way are to be admired.

Dentists.

Drs. Newell & Tracy will be in Murray on Tuesday of each week. Office with Dr. Gilmore.

Clearing Out Sale

to prepare for spring stock commencing October 12. Prices reduced on all buggies and surreys I have on hand until sold. J. H. Cook.

Chicken Thieves at Mynard.

A special to the Journal from Mynard conveys the information that sneak thieves broke into Charles L. Jean's chicken house last night and as a result of this visit Mr. Jean is mourning the loss of several dozen fine chickens. Only four chickens were left, and these were unable to tell the tale, as their necks had been broken by the marauders.

A Year of Blood.

The year 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tackett of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood; which flowed so copiously from Mr. Tackett's lungs that death seemed very near. He writes: "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me to death's door, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, with the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored and as time has proven permanently cured." Guaranteed for Sore Lungs, Coughs and Colds, at F. G. Fricke & Co.'s drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Funeral of Infant.

The funeral of the four-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Wallingren, occurred at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the family residence on Wintersteen Hill. This is the second time within two months that the angel of death has visited their home, the first of the twin boys, being taken from the home at that time, and the other of twins being removed from their midst Monday evening, after a brief illness.

In every climate colors are unfaded. Its fame has spread from sea to sea. Be not surprised if in the other world, You hear of Rocky Mountain Tea. Gering & Co., druggists.

Wicked "Richness."

"An idle brain is the devil's work shop;" but still worse. The idle brain of the idle rich is the crimson inferno itself. Mrs. Herbert N. Parsons, the wife of a millionaire of New York, has written "The Family," with "The Time and Trial Marriage," as the central idea. It is this kind of putridity that is sweet to the plutocratic tribe. A dog rolls in carrion rot, and comes home thinking that he is perfumed about right, and no doubt is envied by his dog friends; like the gilded beast with his millions, rolls in immoral filth, and is tolerated by animals only of his kind.

The "plutocratess" refused to care for her offspring, and turned her attention to the poodle dog; then, becoming tired of this, she then turned to the diseased, degenerated nobility of the old country, and here found something even more rank than herself and turned away with the air of the "injured innocent." Now comes the climax for their perverted appetites in "The Time and Trial Marriage." A woman writing under the name of "Rose Marie" brought out a small book six years ago, "The Morgue Marriage Law, Amended by a Trial Expiration Clause," with the same idea. These moral monstrosities mean to tell us that a clause be attached to the marriage contract so that if there is any dissatisfaction arises, this appended clause be signed by both parties, the contract becomes null and void, each have another chance at the matrimonial lottery, and thus save the divorce nuisance. "The Family" and all of its ilk illegally practice just what they preach.

Stop at a plain house in the country—it is "Home," and father and mother live there as also brother and sister. Love reigns supreme, and their kindness and hospitality knows no bound. There you have law and order, and a fear of the Creator of the universe. In that family you have the essence; the very foundation of good government. It has been through the most strenuous efforts on the part of honest officers of our government to prevent the wrecking of our republic by the plunderer plutocracy, and not being satisfied, in this they now strike at the very foundation of our government—the home.

But why waste a gray cell on them as their influence does not extend beyond their own miasmatic atmosphere and to try and lift them to a level of good men and women, and good citizenship is fruitless, "As a dog returneth to his vomit, so does a fool to his folly."

What surprises one most is when one of these plutocratic perverts have run the entire category of crime, by the aid of the devil they spring something new; and poor old Satan has surely made a mistake by running with the idle, adle-brained, crime-seeking rich, for when he takes them home, they will run his "shebang" and will set such a hot pace that they will make his place very unpleasant for him.

Sells More of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Than of All Others Put Together.

Mr. Thos. George, a merchant at Mt. Elgin, Ontario, says: "I have had the local agency for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy ever since it was introduced into Canada, and I sell as much of it as I do of all other lines I have on my shelves put together. Of the many dozens sold under guarantee I have not had one bottle returned. I can personally recommend this medicine as I have used it myself and given it to my children and always with the best results." For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co. and D'Ment's drug stores.

Death at Avoca.

Fred Konekak, of Avoca, died Sunday night after a lingering illness of several weeks with consumption. The deceased was born in Germany in 1876, and came to this country when but a small boy. He is survived by his wife and three children. The funeral was held there this afternoon. The deceased was well known here and for several years worked for Theile & Fastenau.—Nebraska City News.

Ashland vs. Plattsmouth.

In the football game tomorrow between the Ashland high school and the Independent football team of this city the following is the lineup of the latter team:

Ayer's Pills keep the bowels regular. All vegetable and gently laxative.

[The following items intended for our weekly edition were dropped in the Plattsmouth postoffice, as the stamped envelope shows, at one o'clock Thursday afternoon, and did not reach the Journal's postoffice box until ten o'clock this (Friday) morning. This will account for their non-appearance in the Murray department of last week's issue.—Editor Journal.]

Theo. Amick's children are on the sick list this week.

The old time traveling drug man, Reed, was in Murray, Monday.

Mrs. Charles Dill has been quite sick for the past week, but is able to get about again.

Col. J. B. Seybolt went to South Omaha Thursday to look after the horse market.

Mrs. Wm. Brown, sr., has been under the weather for the past week at her home here in Murray.

Dr. A. E. Walker was up from Union Sunday to spend the day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Walker.

Chas. Philpot brought in two cars of feeding cattle the last of last week. He got them in the South Omaha market.

Wm. Lewis is wearing a smile that won't come off. He has a ten pound girl at his house. Mother and young lady are doing nicely.

Mr. Ezra Murphy and family moved to Otoe county last week. He has rented a farm of 240 acres and will lay down the hammer and saw for agriculture pursuits for a year.

Less Hall drove out to Mr. Charles Philpot's place Tuesday to see his friend, Bert, who had his arm crushed Sunday in a corn sheller. At last reports Bert was resting comfortably.

People should not forget the Jubilee Singers that will appear at the Presbyterian church on the night of December 7th. This will be one of the finest entertainments of the season.

Our station agent, Jas. Martin, was transacting business in Omaha Wednesday. W. H. McDaniels, an old time operator, was attending to Jim's duties at the depot during his absence.

Robt. A. Young and John L. Young went to South Omaha Tuesday evening to buy feeders. There is going to be more cattle fed around Murray this year than there has been for many years prior.

A movement is on foot whereby we have a positive guarantee of night services at the Missouri Pacific depot. A petition has been presented to General Passenger Agent Townsend at St. Louis, who will take action at once.

Mack Churchill and Billie Brown took advantage of the snow, laid aside their business duties, and went out for a rabbit hunt Wednesday afternoon. They returned late in the evening much worn out without any evidence of any game. Billie said it was the fault of the gun on his part, and Mack said that he shot four or five dozen, but they were all blown to pieces, and he couldn't find enough to bring home. (H. G.)

Always After a "Snap."

Some time ago two ladies of this city, who are old enough to have known better, bit at a snap of getting something for nothing, and ordered some handkerchiefs from a New York firm, paying ten cents for each handkerchief, and they were to sell so many handkerchiefs to pay for them. Judge Goff this morning received notice from New York that the handkerchiefs had not been paid for and wanted him to bring suit against the parties, but he wrote back and informed the firm that he was not that kind of a collecting agent. The woman could have saved money by buying the articles at home.—Nebraska City News.

"Doan's Ointment cured me of eczema that had annoyed me for a long time. The cure was permanent." Hon. S. W. Matthews, Commissioner Labor Statistics, Augusta, Me.

BURLINGTON WILL PAY CASH

Will Be Liberal Patrons of Newspapers Located in Cities on Its Line.

The Burlington has just announced its attitude toward the interstate commerce commission's rulings, and the law relating to newspaper advertising, in a circular to publishers now being mailed, and bearing the signatures of Passenger Traffic Manager Eustis and General Passenger Agents Francis, Wakeley and Lalor:

"The interstate commerce act, as well as other laws, seems to make difficult, if not prevent the issue of passes and free tickets to newspapers, and as it is businesslike that the railroad should pay cash and the newspaper publisher should receive cash for his advertising space, we have decided to follow that plan. Commencing January 1, 1907, we will pay cash for all advertising and issue no pass or free tickets whatever to newspapers.

"As heretofore we expect to be liberal patrons of the newspapers, especially those in cities and towns located on our road; and as quickly as details can be arranged we will present for consideration a cash advertising contract for the year 1907. With this in view we request prompt return of enclosed slip naming your rates.

"All of our agents have been instructed under no circumstances to place orders with any of the newspapers for advertising in any form to be carried for account of this company after December 31, except pursuant to terms of new contracts.

"You are therefore respectfully notified not to carry any advertising for account with this company after December 31, except in accordance with terms of our written contracts. The contract we shall propose will be for a definite amount of display space or reading notices, or both, to be paid for in cash."

THE FARMERS' INSTITUTE

Preparations Being Made to Entertain a Large Number.

The dates for the coming Farmers' Institute to be held in Plattsmouth on Friday and Saturday, December 7 and 8, should not be forgotten, and lest the farmers should forget, Mayor Gering has sent out 1,500 invitations to the yeomanry, giving the program of each day's proceedings.

This is an occasion that every farmer who desires to be advanced in his noble calling should take pride in encouraging by his attendance, and also do all in his power to have his neighboring farmers to come also. The able speakers that will be here at the institute will have many subjects to discuss that will be instructive to all who attend. The Journal believes that if the farmers take more interest in such affairs that it would give encouragement to their sons and daughters who expect to do the farming long after they have passed away.

There are tillers of the soil, no doubt, who think it is not worth while to come to these meetings because they have already done their share of this work, but they should honor the gentlemen who come here, free of charge, especially in the interest of the farming class. So lay aside your cares for these two days and come to the county seat on Friday and Saturday, December 7 and 8, and vie with your neighbors in matters pertaining to your occupation. And by all means don't fail to bring your wife and the boys and girls.

The best treatment for indigestion and troubles of the stomach is to rest the stomach. It can be rested by starvation or by the use of a good digestant which will digest the food eaten, thus taking the work of the stomach. At the proper temperature, a single teaspoonful of Kodol will wholly digest 3,000 grains of food. It alleviates the present annoyance, puts the stomach in shape to satisfactorily perform its functions. Good for indigestion, sour stomach, flatulence, palpitation of the heart and dyspepsia. Kodol is made in strict conformity with the National Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. and Gering & Co.

Thanksgiving Rates.

The Burlington announces a Thanksgiving rate of a fare and one third (minimum rate 25c) to all destinations on their lines west of the Missouri river. Tickets on sale November 28 and 29, return limit November 30 and December 1. For further information see the agent, W. L. Pickett.

A sour stomach, a bad breath, a pasty complexion and other consequences of a disordered digestion are quickly removed by the use of Ring's Dyspepsia Tablets. Two days' treatment free. Sold by Gering & Co's drug store.
