

THE CITY.

PLATTSMOUTH AND VICINITY.

From Friday's Daily.
Julius Reinke of South Bend was transacting business in Plattsburgh today.

Martin Houk came in from Omaha last evening for a short visit with friends in this city.

Mrs. H. J. Miller, who has been visiting with the family of J. H. Becker, returned last evening to her home in Avoca, Neb.

A marriage license was issued today to Ralph Hays, aged 29, of Saunders county, and Etta E. Cramer, aged 23, of Cass county, Nebraska.

Mrs. B. E. Snellbacher, who has been enjoying a visit with relatives in this city the guest of Mrs. Fred Morgan, departed this afternoon for her home in Milford, Neb.

County Clerk W. E. Rosencrans went to Elmwood this afternoon to help out with the Saturday work in the barber shop, one of the boys being sick with pneumonia.

Mrs. J. N. Wise and daughter, Mrs. J. L. Root, were among the passengers to Lincoln this morning, where they will spend the day visiting the capitol building and the legislature.

At 2 o'clock this morning, Zeta Margaret, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Taylor, died from membranous croup, at the age of eleven months and five days. The funeral will be held from the home at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

From Saturday's Daily.
Henry Kell of Cedar Creek was in town today.

Will Wegener was in the city from Louisville today.

G. E. Berger of Mynard, was in town today on business.

R. A. Young of Murray was a business visitor in town today.

Joseph Mauk of near Nehawka, was a visitor in the county seat today.

W. H. Stokes of Mynard, was looking after business in the county seat today.

Emil Sturzenegger of South Bend, was looking after business in the county seat today.

Miss Kittie Tucker of Sterling, Col. is in this county for a visit with her uncle, L. B. Brown, near Kenosha.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Kell and their daughter, Mrs. A. F. Seybert, of Culom, were Plattsburgh visitors today.

A marriage license was issued today to Otto F. Lau, aged 30, of Elmwood, and Miss Ethel Gorder, aged 22, of Weeping Water.

Joe Adams and wife and W. F. Gillespie and wife of Mynard, and Mrs. J. W. Johnson went to Pacific Junction this morning to attend the funeral of William E. Henton.

Mrs. John A. Davies and two children, departed yesterday for their home in Butte, Neb., after a short visit with friends in this city, the guest of her father, R. W. Hyers.

In the county court this afternoon Martin Ruby was appointed guardian of his three minor children, by his deceased wife, Mrs. Martin Frye Ruby.

Reports from Weeping Water are to the effect that the Missouri Pacific had a small wreck near that place last night. Seven cars were thrown in the ditch but no one injured.

Theo. Amick and Ray Holmes of Murray, were in the city last evening enroute for the Platte river on a hunting expedition. They fully expect to return home tonight or tomorrow loaded down with ducks.

The case of Isbell vs Marsh, which was filed in justice court some time ago, was settled today. The action is a replevin suit for the possession of a horse, and the defendant agreed to pay $40 and the plaintiff to settle for the costs.

Henry Thierolf of Cedar Creek, returned yesterday from a visit of six weeks with his uncle, Henry Thierolf, sr., and family at Star, Holt county, Neb. While in the city Mr. Thierolf renewed the subscription of his father, John Thierolf at Cedar Creek.

The members of the girls basket ball game returned this morning from Nebraska City, where they suffered defeat yesterday afternoon by a score of 10 to 11. Although defeated in the contest they report an excellent time at the hands of the Nebraska City girls.

A rather mean trial was played upon Cecil and Clare Thomas last night while they were visiting in Mynard. After spending a few hours with friends, they went to untie their team, only to find some one had beat them to the post, and the team and buggy were missing. After a fruitless search of that vicinity, they walked to their home near this city, where they found the team with lines tied up, standing hitched to the buggy, just as they had returned home after being turned loose.

From Monday's Daily.
Lee Allison of near Murray, was a county seat visitor today.

Mayor Fred Gorder, of Weeping Water, was here to spend Sunday with his mother.

Boyd Porter and Hermie Thomas, of Mynard, were visiting in the county seat last evening.

Wm. Sheean from the vicinity of Manley was transacting business in county seat today.

Wm. Delles Deneir came in from Elmwood this morning to look after matter in district court.

W. E. Niday came in from Union last evening to serve on the jury in district court which re-convened this morning.

Misses Kable, Kiser and Cox, who are attending school in the county seat, were in Mynard to spend Sunday with home folks.

Misses Villa Gapen and Bessie Brendel, who are attending school in this city, were in Murray to spend Sunday with home folks.

Mrs. P. E. Ruffner, who has been ill so long, was taken to Omaha Saturday on the Missouri Pacific, where she will remain with her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Roy Dodge, for treatment. Mr. Ruffner accompanied her, returning home Sunday.

The Journal is informed that Joseph Graham, a well known citizen of this county, engaged in the hardware business in Avoca, passed away last evening from a complication of lagrippe and heart trouble. The deceased leaves a wife and six children, and was about fifty-five years of age.

C. L. Asemissen and wife arrived Saturday evening from Hartley, Iowa, to take up their residence in this city, the former having entered into the hardware business with his father and brother. The new comers have been unable to secure a house as yet, and will make their home with his parents for the present.

Reports from Tabor, Iowa, are to the effect that H. H. Rist, formerly of this locality is still on the move. He failed to settle on the fine $115 per acre farm that he bought near Hillsdale, but purchased a residence property in Glenwood and now has sold it at a good profit. The occupant preferred to buy it rather than to move out.

From Tuesday's Daily

Mrs. John Fight went to Mynard yesterday where she will spend a week with her daughter, Mrs. Philip Horn.

M. Spangler returned this morning from a trip through Iowa, and stopped off for a short visit in this city, before returning to his home in western Nebraska.

Chas. Lovell, residing west of Mynard, and one of Cass county's industrious farmers, was in the city today and called and renewed for the Old Reliable.

Miss Viva Barton of Lincoln, who has been visiting in this city, went to Murray yesterday, where she will spend a few days with friends, the guest of Miss Maude Rusterholtz.

Harry Bridges, who has been enjoying a visit with the family of J. W. Jonsson, departed this afternoon for his home in Moberly, Missouri. Mr. and Mrs. Bridges, who were also visiting the city, returned home yesterday.

Herman Kupke, of near Murdock, was a Plattsburgh business visitor today, and while here called and renewed for the "Old Reliable" another year, and also that of his brother, Charles. These gentlemen are among Cass county's prominent German farmers.

Fred Bumgart went to Omaha this afternoon to visit with his wife, who underwent an operation at the St. Joseph hospital a few weeks ago. The patient continues to improve and hopes are entertained for an early recovery and return home.

The Journal is pleased to note that a force of men and teams is at work grading several inches off of main and Sixth streets. These thoroughfares have been in very bad shape the past few weeks, on account of the mud which has accumulated to a depth of three and four inches.

From Wednesday's daily.
Mont Robb was in town from Murray today on business.

Herman Reike of Union, was in the city today on business.

George Harshman of Avoca, was a Plattsburgh visitor today.

J. M. Hoover of Louisville, was in the county seat today on business.

Ben Tucker and Henry Kropp of Nehawka, was here today on business.

Mrs. G. E. Fouts was a passenger to the metropolis on the fast mail today.

Mrs. C. H. Vallery went to Greenwood this afternoon for a visit with relatives.

A. F. Seybert of Cedar Creek, was in town today. He reports the roads almost impassible.

J. T. Porter and Chas. Chrisweisser of near Murry, were county seat business visitors today.

Sam H. Shumaker and W. G. Meisinger were among the business passengers to the metropolis on the morning train.

Adam Hild and son Jake departed this morning for Hedrick, Ia., where they will attend the funeral of the former's sister-in-law.

Andy Campbell departed this morning for Hordsville, Neb., a new station on the Union Pacific line recently built from Central City to Stromsburg.

C. E. Heim, of Louisville, was in the city today and found time to give the Journal a call. And while here renewed for the Old Reliable another year.

Adam Meisinger, of Cedar Creek, was in the city yesterday on business and called to pay his father's (Antone Meisinger) subscription to the Old Reliable for another year.

Miles Standish came in from Murray today to appear as a witness for the defendant in the case of Missouri Pacific railroad vs Cass county, which is set for trial in district court.

W. B. Banning came in from Union this morning to appear as a witness in the case of Missouri Pacific R. R. Co. vs Cass county, which is being tried in the district court today.

N. Krough was visiting in Omaha this morning.

Rev. W. F. Bradley was an Omaha visitor today.

Noel Manners, of Mynard, was in Plattsburgh today.

J. M. Calkin of Baird, Neb., was in Plattsburgh today on business.

Paul Wolforth went to Lincoln this afternoon for a visit with friends.

Geo. E. Dovey was a business visitor in the metropolis this afternoon.

Roy Royd was a passenger to the metropolis on the fast mail today.

W. J. Hartwick was a passenger to Omaha on business this afternoon.

A. W. White was a business passenger to the metropolis on No. 7 today.

E. C. Coleman of Greenwood was a business visitor in the county seat today.

Fred Bumgart was a passenger to Omaha on the Missouri Pacific this morning.

When you wish a cigar that is worth the money, call for the "Acorn." All dealers.

Carl Kunsman made a business trip to the metropolis on the afternoon train today.

Fred Linderman and John Clويد went to Lincoln on No. 19 this morning to spend the day visiting with friends.

Geo. A. Kaffenberger accomanied a car load of hogs and cattle to South Omaha this morning where he placed them on the market.

Wm. Davis departed last evening for his home in Watson, Mo., after a short visit with the families of Wm. Gravitt and J. C. York.

Geo. McDaniel and wife were among the passengers to the metropolis on the morning train today, where they will spend the day visiting friends.

William Puls and son, W. H. Puls, were in the city today to witness the ceremony which united their son and brother, Otto, to Miss Anna West.

M. Fanger went to Omaha this afternoon to assist Misses Laura and Rose Schall with their spring millinery opening which occurs tomorrow.

Miss Emma Cummins, who was operated upon last Sunday for appendicitis, continues to improve, and conditions are favorable for an early recovery.

John P. Tritsch, one of our prosperous young German farmers living near this city, called yesterday afternoon and renewed his faith in the Old Reliable for another year.

Ask Your Own Doctor

If he tells you to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for your severe cough or bronchial trouble, then take it. If he has anything better, then take that. We have great confidence in this medicine. So will you, when you once know it.

The best kind of a testimonial—
"Sold for over sixty years."

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.
Also manufacturers of
Ayer's
SARSAPARILLA
PILLS.
HAIR YIGOR.

We have no secrets! We publish the formulae of all our medicines.

Keep the bowels open with one of Ayer's Pills at bedtime; just one.

EXCEPTIONAL EMBROIDERY OFFERINGS!

The unprecedented demand for Embroideries of the better grade would have quickly exhausted our supply, bringing serious disappointment to many of our customers, if we had not been fortunate in securing an unusually large consignment through one of the largest New York importers.

These embroideries are of the choicest product of the leading St. Gall, Switzerland, makers—skilled artists and artisans, whose designs and deft handiwork have made them famous. The designs for this season are even more exclusive and beautiful than ever before, and in accordance with their custom, they have given us the exclusive sale of them in this city.

We are therefore able to offer our customers their choice from the most attractive designs that will appear this season.

Of course those who select early will have the best opportunity to indulge personal taste and fancy—for although our line is large and representative, we are sure that the demand will soon greatly reduce the variety.

Shadow and Elegant Embroideries

just arrived in many different styles and patterns. [the latest craze] We have them in a lot of patterns.

Corset Cover Patterns,

Dressing Sacques Patterns,

Shirtwaists Patterns,

Collar Patterns.

These Patterns are Stamped on a Sheer Cotton Material.

E. G. DOVEY & SON.

Do You Want

A FARM HOME?

Now is the time to get it. It will pay you to investigate Trrege county Kansas land. I have some good bargains in improved and unimproved farms. You can buy a farm, make a small cash payment and get long time and easy terms on balance. With proper cultivation wheat will yield 20 to 40 bushels per acre, corn 35 to 50 bushels per acre, and crops are reasonably sure.

For Full Information, Write or Call on

J. W. PHARES, Wakeeney, Kansas

SPRING OPENING!

I wish to announce that the annual Spring Opening will take place

March 15th and 16th

It will be my pleasure to show you the very latest of Trimmed Hats and the most correct styles in

EASTERN PATTERNS

At this time I will be pleased to greet all former patrons of this store and their friends and will show them every courtesy and attention.

Florence Anderson