

THE CITY.

PLATTSMOUTH AND VICINITY.

From Friday's Daily.

A. Culbertson of Murray was in town today on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Gruber of Union were Plattsmouth visitors today.

J. J. Wooster and wife went to Lincoln this morning for a visit with relatives.

Miss Mae Vallery was a passenger to the metropolis on the fast mail today.

A. M. Holmes came in from Murray this morning to look after some business matters.

Henry Wolfe of Union was in the county seat today on business connected with the estate of his father.

Henry Stander, of near South Bend, was in the city today on business, and gave the Journal a pleasant call.

Misses Gertrude Hartman and Edith Jean went to Glenwood, Iowa, this morning for a visit with friends.

N. H. Wilkinson, L. W. Teegarden and C. E. Tefft, of Weeping Water, were in the city on business today.

R. H. Frans, administrator of the estate of Henry Wolfe, deceased, was in county court today looking after the affairs of the estate.

Miss Mamie Fitzgerald went to Lincoln this morning for a visit with relatives and to attend the ball given by the high school students.

H. R. Gering was a passenger to Omaha this afternoon to attend the Sarner's festivities this evening, when they will initiate a class of fifty.

Rae Patterson and wife and George Falter and Miss Margaret Dovey went to Omaha this afternoon to attend the "Lion and the Mouse" at the Boyd theater.

Mrs. O. Guthman departed this afternoon for Cheyenne, Wyo., where she will visit with relatives. Her daughter, Mrs. Gus Olson, accompanied her as far as Omaha.

Robt. Windham, who has been employed by the Western Electric company in Little Rock, Ark., for the past several months, came in this morning for a visit with home folks.

M. H. Shoemaker, of near Union, was in the city today on business, but found time to call on the Journal to renew for another year. Mr. Shoemaker is one of the wealthy and energetic farmers of Cass county.

L. H. Peterson was a caller at these headquarters this morning for the purpose of renewing his faith in the Journal for another year, and also ordered a copy of the Old Reliable sent to his new son-in-law, J. L. Mayfield, Pleasantdale, Neb.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to Luther Johnson, aged 21, of Nebraska City, and Miss Minnie Brinkman of this city. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brinkman, and the ceremony will be performed at their home next Sunday.

From Saturday's Daily.

Wm. Rice of Murray was in town on business today.

Reuben Foster of Union was in the city today on business.

Conrad Sent of Louisville, was in the city today on business.

Mrs. Jas. Allison of Murray was visiting in the county seat today.

J. P. Thacker of Union, was looking after business in the city today.

Carter Albin of Union was in town today to look after some business.

Geo. N. LaRue of Union was a business visitor in Plattsmouth today.

Chas. Reihart made a business trip to Omaha on the afternoon train today.

Roy Wagner came in from Havelock this morning for a visit with relatives in this city.

A. S. Will departed this afternoon on a business trip to his ranch near Akron, Col.

A. M. Holmes returned to Murray this morning after a short visit with relatives in this city.

Misses Harriet Fight and Euna Towle were among the passengers to the metropolis on No. 7 this afternoon.

Miss Pearl Woodward, who has been visiting with friends in this city, returned yesterday afternoon to her home in Elmwood.

Mrs. Morris O'Rourke, who has been visiting with relatives in this city, returned this morning to her home in McCook, Nebraska.

Miss Lillian Rankin of Havelock, is expected in the city this evening to spend Sunday with friends, the guest of Miss Jessie Robertson.

Henry Horn, one of the substantial farmers of Eight Mile Grove precinct, while in the city today called and renewed for the Old Reliable.

A suit to quiet title to lots 7 and 8, block 41 of Plattsmouth, was filed today in the district clerk's office by J. W. Peters vs Thos. F. Johnson, et al.

A marriage license was issued today to Geo. Philpot and Miss Myrtle Lamert, both of Custer county. The knot was made secure by Judge Archer.

C. A. Gauer, one of the constant readers of the Journal, was in town on business today from his home near Cedar Creek, was a caller at these headquarters for the purpose of renewing for the Old Reliable.

The board of insanity examined Wm. Albin of Union this afternoon in regard to his sanity, and after hearing the evidence of a number of witnesses, the patient was dismissed, it appearing that he was feeble minded and therefore not a subject for the treatment.

In the action against the Cosmopolitan Life Association of Freeport Illinois, to recover judgment on a policy for $1,000, issued by that company to R. S. Wilkinson, his wife, Nettie H. Wilkinson, the beneficiary and plaintiff in the case, was granted a judgment yesterday for the full amount by Judge Travis.

From Monday's Daily.

Ernest Carroll of Murray, was in the county seat today.

Miss Onie Young of Murray was visiting in the city Sunday.

H. L. Oldham of Murray was a business visitor in Plattsmouth today.

H. G. Todd of Murray was looking after business in Plattsmouth today.

Mrs. J. A. McGinnis of South Bend was visiting in the county seat today.

Chas. S. Stone and Jeff Brendell of Murray were Sunday visitors in Plattsmouth.

M. G. Churchill and family of Murray were in the city to spend Sunday with relatives.

County Assessor J. M. Teegarden returned to his home in Weeping Water this afternoon.

Geo. Lohnes, from the vicinity of Cedar Creek, was looking after business in town today.

Carl Neuman returned to Denver, Colorado, this afternoon after a short visit with home folks.

Charlie Patterson came in from Arapahoe this morning for a visit with Plattsmouth people.

Miss Esther Larson spent Sunday at Union with her sister, May, who is teaching school near that village.

James Calder came in from Elmwood yesterday for a few days visit with friends, the guest of Clayton Rosencrans.

Gilbert O'Rourke of Crawford, Neb., was in the city to spend Sunday with relatives, the guest of his sister, Mrs. T. E. Parmele.

W. H. Lohnes was in the city from Eight Mile Grove today, and while here called to renew for the Journal for another year.

Mrs. L. H. Critchfield, who has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. G. M. Porter, returned yesterday to her home in Weeping Water.

Dr. B. F. Brendell was in the city Sunday enroute for his old home in Zionsville, Indiana, to visit the scenes of his childhood. He will be absent about ten days.

An inquiry in regard to the heirs of Hiram Robine, a Plattsmouth boy who died while serving in the army in the Philippines, has been received at the county clerk's office.

Will Coolidge, who for a number of years has been engaged in business in Central City, S. D., but has recently sold out, came in this morning from Tacoma, Wash., where he has been looking over the country.

Robt. D. Taylor and wife, who have been visiting with the family of J. M. Robertson, went to Lincoln this morning, where they will visit for a short time before returning to their home in Franklin, Neb.

From Tuesday's Daily

C. Vosberg of Louisville was a county seat visitor today.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rohrdantz of Manley were in the city today marketing.

A. N. Sullivan was a passenger to the metropolis on business this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. August Krecklow of Manley were Plattsmouth visitors today.

James Stander came in from Louisville this morning to look after some business matters.

Wm. Brown of Hastings is in the city for a visit with his brother, Lloyd, who is employed in the Burlington shops.

Mrs. Ed Ballance, who has been enjoying a visit with relatives in this city, returned this morning to her home in Havelock.

John Lutchens of Murdock, was a business visitor in Plattsmouth today. Mr. Lutchens is administrator of the estate of Fred Osterlag, deceased.

County Clerk W. E. Rosencrans and wife went to Elmwood this afternoon to attend the K. of P. initiatory work that the lodge of that village will conduct this evening.

In police court last evening Andrew Brisse and Wm. Richter were arraigned on a charge of shooting in the city limits. Both plead guilty and were assessed fines of $5 and costs.

Mrs. Eliza Stander, and daughter, Ella, and Mrs. Peter Stander, all of Louisville, came down this morning and will remain several days with Mrs. Stander's son, George and family, west of town.

A warrant for the arrest of a fourteen-year-old boy, Louis Rothman, was issued from police court today. The boy is charged with throwing a stone and injuring the seven-year-old son of Mrs. Jos. Wampler.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Walker and little grandson, Walker Gilmore, were in the city today. While here our old friend and little grandson called on the Journal for a brief time and renewed for the Old Reliable another year.

Col. J. A. Thrasher, A. L. Tidd, Frank Richey and Judge Travis went to Elmwood this afternoon to attend a banquet to be given by the K. of P. of that place. The boys are assured a good time. It is "a good thing" to be one of those fellows.

From Wednesday's Daily

F. M. Young sr. of Murray was in the county seat today on business.

Wm. DellesDernier came in from Elmwood this morning to look after some legal business.

Jno. Donelan came in from Weeping Water this morning to attend the Thygeson-White wedding.

Roy and Elmer Boedeker of Murray, were in the city last evening to attend "The Girl of the Golden West."

Mrs. A. L. Cox of Nebraska City, is here for a visit with her daughter, Miss Hazel, who is attending the High school.

Mrs. Harry Northeutt and daughter came in from Omaha this morning for a visit with her mother, Mrs. R. P. Kennedy.

A suit for divorce was filed today in the district clerk's office by Maude Finton vs. Ed Finton, on the grounds of cruelty and non-support.

Herman Thomas and Boyd Porter were in town from Mynard last evening to witness the "The Girl of the Golden West" at the Parmele.

A warrant deed conveying lot 10 of block 14 of this city, from Alice Deal to F. C. Frink for a consideration of $700, was filed yesterday with the county recorder.

The funeral of the four months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gradville, who died yesterday afternoon after a short illness, occurred this afternoon from the home.

Our old friend, W. J. Laughlin, of Greenwood, we are pleased to learn is enjoying good health, and is now down in Arkansas to spend a few months with one of his sons.

Mrs. M. E. Davis, Mrs. W. H. Frans, Mrs. J. R. Dysart and Miss Pearl Bramblet of Union, were among the out of town people in attendance at "The Girl of the Golden West" at the Parmele last evening.

W. H. Shoemaker, one of the reliable and well-to-do farmers of near Nehawka, was in the city today to pay his taxes and transact other business. While here our old friend called and renewed for the Old Reliable for another year.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Laughlin, of Greenwood, were in the city today on business, and found time to give the Journal a pleasant call, and we were more than pleased to meet Mrs. L. for the first time. While here Mr. Laughlin renewed his allegiance to the Old Reliable.

The county clerk, who has been looking after Fred Nixey, the Scot who had his left foot cut off while trying to catch a freight, had the patient removed from the Perkins house to the county farm in order to cut down the expense. The young man is recovering nicely, and will be able to get around upon crutches before long.

The Nebraska statutes, prohibiting physicians and others specified from making public confidential information, has been upheld by the United States court of appeals at St. Louis. The decision was rendered in the case of Mrs. Ora Thomas against the Union Pacific railroad and involved the testimony of two railroad physicians.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Pritchard

Special Hourly Sales

At E. G. Dovey's Monday, April 21 7 a. m. to 6:30 p. m.

What is a Special Sale?

It is an opportunity given the people to purchase goods at reduced prices, which the merchant has tried to secure for his customers, thus giving them the benefit of his time and labor.

So we have put forth our best efforts and spared neither time nor labor in order to get the best at the least possible price.

Our buyers have searched the markets in the East, West, North and South, resulting in finding some splendid values for spring, and some of these will be on sale on the above date.

The goods advertised will be sold at their regular price as soon as time is up.

From 9 to 10 a. m.	From 10 to 11 a. m.	From 11 to 12 a. m.	From 1 to 2 p. m.
Percales 36 in. wide at... 9c Brockton Madress 27 in. wide in 36 different patterns during this sale at 10c per pard.	Ladies Fine Black Cotton Hose, cheap at 13c 25c, now... No more than two pair to any one customer.	Shirtings Shirtings which will cost you 12c this summer, at this sale per yard... 9c	Matting Matting, latest out, 15 different designs just arrived from Japan, going this sale... 27c
From 2 to 3 p. m.	From 3 to 4 p. m.	From 4 to 5:30 p. m.	From 5:30 to 6:30 p. m.
Table Linens unbleached 72 in. wide 45c Bleached 59 in. wide. Flue de Lis, design per yard... 29c Bleached 72 in. wide, fine value... 99c	Muslin Muslin bleached and unbleached 36 inches wide. Indian Head unbleached. Landsale bleached worth 12½c. No more than 10 yds. to a person, per yard... 9c	Great Embroidery sale in Hamburg and Swiss in any width in 4 lots. Lot 1 per yd. 4½c Lot 2 per yd. 7c Lot 3 per yd. 10c Lot 4 very fine in various designs, worth 35 to 40c this sale... 25c	Huck towels 18x34 fine value, red border... 8½c 20x36 hem stitched, 30c value 25c 20x38, blue border... 15c 20x38, extra quality... 20c No more after 6:30

MONDAY, APRIL 21.

E. G. DOVEY & SON

MONDAY, APRIL 21.

Cut Your Own Fuel On Your Own Farm

No Fuel Famine in Northern Wisconsin

No waiting for the railroad to haul more coal! Acres of fuel on your own land; and right Close in to four splendid cities; railroad, schools, churches, fine soil, good water; land never on the market before; the chance of your life to own your own farm and stop paying rent. We are waiting to tell you all about it. We will build a house for you if you ask us. Land $2.00 to $15.00 per acre. Write today, tomorrow may be too late. Address:

AMERICAN COLONIZATION COMPANY
Chippewa Bldg., Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin
Buy Railroad Ticket to Hayward, Wis.

Plattsmouth, Nebr.,
Thursday, May 2, 1907

CAMPBELL GREAT BROTHERS CONSOLIDATED SHOWS

A GIGANTIC COLLECTION

Remote, barbaric and unpeopled lands, from the frigid zones of the poles to the hot climes of the Equator, forest fastness, impenetrable jungles, burning deserts, mountain crags, and the broad plains have contributed profusely and have yielded their Strange Members of the Animal World in a COMPLETE GIGANTIC COLLECTION that has never before been seen since the historic deluge, when the Patriarch Noah assemble his grand collection in the Ark, to preserve from the phlyvan downpour, the Birds, Beasts and Reptiles of the earth. Object lessons in animated nature brought to your very doors. All earth's treasures, embracing Animals famed for their ferocity, rarity or beauty, which includes the finest specimens alive of the huge blood-swallowing Hippopotami, Stately Giraffe, Monster Elephants, Feroceous Carnivorous Lions, Treacherous Tigers from India, Beautiful Striped Zebras, and all of the strange monsters of the sea, jungle and forest. Strange forms of life from remote lands. Birds of bright, brilliant plumage from the Islands of the South, and thousands of other strange and curious animals!

100 CAGES-DENS-LAIRS ARE NECESSARY TO HOUSE THE

$1,000,000 WORTH OF RARE ANIMALS

THIS SEASON FIVE TIMES LARGER THAN EVER.

NO OTHER SHOW EVER ADDED SO MANY ATTRACTIONS IN ONE SEASON, AS THE CAMPBELL BROTHERS HAVE FOR THIS YEAR! MAKING OUR SHOW

NOW THE LARGEST IN THE ENTIRE WORLD

YOU CAN NEVER AFFORD TO MISS THE GRAND STREET PAGEANT

In the Forenoon. Well worth a Journey of 100 Miles to Inspect.

TWO SHOWS DAILY at 1 and 7 p. m. An Hour given to witness the Animal and Musical Shows before the Commencement of the Circus and Hippodrome Performances.