New Theories

The observing reader of newspapers noticed that a sensation-hunting physician surprised the public with a new theory, how to cure in a modern way some disease. These new theories usually die as quickly as they were born and the old truth remains the same as ever. We certainly welcome every progress of the medical science, but this does not mean that all old-time remedies must be abandoned after they faithfully served us for years. We have Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine the unsurpassed remedy for the digestive system which we always relied on in all derangements of the digestion and of the blood. For those who lost their appetite, their strength, their cheerfulness, their steadiness, there is no better remedy. It is excellent in sudden indisposition. At drug stores. Jos. Triner, 799 So. Ashland ave., Chicago, Illinois.

The 16 to 1 Machiene

Yesterday at Glen Perry's the sixteen to one threshing machine which is being run by Frank Jean and W. T. Smith, and is a machine which is owned by a community of farmers southwest of town was put to a test as to how much it could be made to do. The people who were working, most of whom wished to go to the funeral of Henry Spangler crowded the machine as fast as they could. They began at 7:45 a. m. and at the time when they stopped at 10:05, just two hours and twenty minutes, had threshed twenty acres, making 510 bushels of oats. This is making a good showing when it is taken into consideration that they had hail in that community.

THE APPROACHING PRIMARY ELECTION

Those Who Have Filed as Candidates for Office.

Saturday was the last day for filing candidates for the primaries Saturday, September 3, and from present indications indications it will not be a very exciting election day.

When the hour for filing closed at midnight Saturday, there was no candidate for county judge on the democratic side of the house and neither were there for surveyor. The candidates whose names will appear upon the ballots used at the primary are as follows:

For Treasurer—Frank E. Schlater, democrat; W. T. Adams, republican. Sheriff—A. J. Box, democrat; Carl D. Quinton, republican.

County Clerk—W. E. Rosencrans, democrat; F. A. Bricka, republican. Clerk of the District Court—Chris. E. Metzger, democrat; James M. Robertson and C. H. Taylor, republicans.

County Judge—Wm. Delles Dernier, A. J. Beeson, A. L. Tidd and J. E. Douglass, republicans.

Assessor—H. M. Soennichsen, democrat; H. F. Kroop, republican.

County Superintendent of Schools—Miss Mary E. Foster, democrat; John E. Oppand George L. Farley, republican.

Surveyor—E. E. Hilton, republican. Coroner—E. Ratnour, democrat; J. E. Clements, republican.

Commissioner—Charles R. Jordan, democrat; Allen Walker, John R. Baird and Turner Zink, republican.

The democratic candidates are well known throughout Cass county—especially Frank E. Schlater, candidate for treasurer, and W. E. Rosencrans, candidate for county clerk. Melchior Soennichsen, candidate for assessor, and C. E. Metzger, for clerk of the district court, are also pretty well known. Mr. Schlater is the present efficient deputy in the treasurer's office; Mr. Rosencrans is the present county clerk, and no one in the county has cause to doubt his efficiency. Mr. Soennichsen is one of the most efficient men in the county for the position to which he aspires, and is one of the best men in the world from a social standpoint. Cristie Metzger, for clerk of the district court, belongs to one of the pioneer families of Cass county, and no one is better able to look after the affairs in that office than he is, no matter how long they have served the "dear people." A. J. Box, for sheriff, and Chas. R. Jordan, for commissioner, are two as good men as reside in the county. Mr. Jordan is a prosperous retired farmer, and has made every dollar he possesses by hard work, and is just the kind of a man the farmers of the Third district need to look after their interests. Where will you find an array of candidates that can come up to their standard for manhood, honesty and efficiency?

Miss Mary E. Foster, our candidate for county superintendent of schools, is a lady in every sense of the term, and being a graduate of the state university, her qualifications remain unquestioned. She is an experienced teacher and belongs to one of the best families in Cass county. There are numerous lady county superintendents in Nebraska, and everyone of them are performing the duties of their respective offices to the entire satisfaction of all who are interested in the public schools of their various counties.

THE LAST SAD RITES TO A GOOD MAN

Funeral of Henry Spangler Yesterday Afternoon.

The funeral of the late Henry Spangler was held from Liberty church, just south of the city yesterday, at 2:30 in the afternoon, Rev. Brink, pastor of the United Brethren church at that place, of which the deceased was a member, delivered the address. As illustrative of the peaceful life he had lived and of the many kindly acts which has characterized the life that made him a man among a thousand, was peacefully laid away in the quiet churchyard, where he shall sleep until the trumpet of the awakening angel shall call the ones asleep in the arms of the Savior. His beloved wife and the nine remaining children paid the last sad rites, which their love could bestow, and in eloquent words, Rev. Brink told of deeds of, which had been very conspicuous in the life of this noble man.

While he has made ample provision for the welfare of his beloved wife and children, he could leave no greater legacy, than the example of a life free from the taint of evil and filled with that loveliness of character which is in line of the teachings of the Master while here on earth.

Charged With Gambling

Fred Clark and Samuel Young of Union came up on being served with a warrant charging them with gambling, and gave bonds for their appearance at the first day of the next term of the district court, on the sum of $100.00 each. The case against Clayton Klaus was dismissed. The fourth of the batch which were to be apprehended has not yet been found.

THE DEATH ANGEL CALLS

And the Mother of Rev. J. H. Salsbury, Answers The Summons

This morning Mr. Jacob Downing, the father of Mrs. Rev. Salsbury, received a message that Rev. Salsbury's mother had passed away yesterday afternoon, and that the funeral and interment will be held at Breckenridge, Mo., tomorrow. Mrs. Salsbury, the mother of Rev. Salsbury, has made her home in Caldwell county, Missouri, for the last thirty-five or forty years and as well known by everybody living in that neighborhood. There was no one more highly respected or dearly loved by all who knew her, than was this good woman. As in all cases where the community give homage to a person it was in this case, because the character merited the recognition. While Rev. Salsbury was at Palmer Lake taking his vacation, he was called to his mother's home by a telegram announcing her severe illness, and immediately hastened to her bedside, his wife coming home to Plattsmouth. A short time after, Mrs. Salsbury joined her husband at Breckenridge in his care of his mother. But a short time afterwards, it was deemed imperative by the attending physicians that she be taken to a hospital for treatment. Accordingly about three weeks ago she was taken to St. Luke's hospital, at Kansas City, where she was operated upon for gall stones, and the operation showed the gall cyst ruptured and two ulcers on the liver. Since then varying conditions have been hoped at times and as other conditions occurred, taking that hope away, until at last it was but merely a matter of time when the death angel would come and summon this noble woman to home in heaven.

MARRIED FIFTY YEARS

Former Nebraska Couple Celebrate the Anniversary at Lead S. D.

A special from Lead, S. D., gives the following account of the celebrating of the fiftieth wedding anniversary of a couple well known to many of the pioneer residents of Plattsmouth: "Just fifty years ago Harry P. Coolidge led Miss Theda M. Wheeler, a blushing bride, to the altar. Today they celebrated the golden anniversary of that happy event. The customary family reunion was held, but a peculiar feature of this is the fact that exactly the same members of the family neither additions or decrease, were able to sign today their names in the family album, just as they had done twenty-five years ago at the silver wedding anniversary at Columbus, Neb. There are five sons and fifteen grandchildren and all were present, but only the grown folks attached their names to the Album. Not one death has occurred in the family in thirty years, and Mr. Coolidge's mother is still living in Iowa at the ripe age of ninety-two.

"The Coolidges were married in 1857 at Glenwood, Iowa, and only came to the Hills a few years ago. Mr. Coolidge is seventy-two years old and his wife is six years younger. One son, Joseph W. Coolidge, resides in Omaha and another brother, William E. Coolidge, in Rosalie, Neb., where the rest live here."
