

THE CITY.

PLATTSMOUTH AND VICINITY.

From Friday's Daily.

S. O. Cole from Mynard was a visitor in the city today.

Fred Nolting was a business visitor in the city this morning.

A. C. Carey from near Union was a visitor in the city this morning.

C. H. Lewis and son, John, were visitors in the city this morning from near Nehawka.

A. F. Seybert, of near Cullom, was a visitor in the city this morning, looking after some business.

C. E. Tefft of Weeping Water, was a visitor in the city this morning, looking after some legal business.

Miss Eunice Barker, of Louisville, was a visitor with friends in the city this afternoon.

Wm. Murray from Mynard was a visitor in the city this morning looking after some business matters.

W. H. Warner made a business trip to Cedar Creek this morning, and will also visit with his old friend, George E. Sayles, who is not feeling well.

W. E. Dull of Murray was a business visitor in the city this morning, having some business matters at the county treasurer's office.

S. S. Shafer, of Louisville, was a business visitor in the city this morning, having business to look after at the court house.

L. H. Bown, the horse trainer, departed this morning for Murray where he goes to train a horse for the popular tumbler artist, of that thriving little city, Mr. McGinniss Churching.

Frank McNurlin and family from Mt. Pleasant precinct were in the city today visiting with Mr. and Mrs. John McNurlin and transacting some business matters.

John Hennings, of Cedar Creek, was a visitor in the city this morning, and was looking after some business affairs in the county seat.

C. F. Rheimhart, of Cullom, was a visitor in the city this morning, where he was looking after some business matters.

C. H. Hennings and wife from Louisville were visiting in the city this morning returning home on an afternoon train.

Carl West, of Louisville, who has been in Kansas for some time visiting and looking after some land matters, came in this morning on the Burlington and remained over for the Schuyler, to depart for home.

Miss Mary E. Foster, county superintendent-elect, came in last evening and is visiting with friends in the city and looking after business matters also.

Ferdinand Hennings and wife, from near Cedar Creek, were visitors in the city this morning, looking after some business matters.

We have the word of M. L. Fredrick that his co-worker, L. D. Switzer, having a cold in his head, had read that "Bromo Quinine" was a good thing for it, and that a purchase was made of a box, and that eight of the tablets were taken during the morning, six in the afternoon, and that the genial county commissioner ate the box in the evening, and was feeling much better this morning.

From Saturday's Daily.

A. J. Schafer of Mt. Pleasant precinct was in the city this morning.

C. Bengler, of southwest of Mynard, was a visitor in the city this morning.

Julius Pitz was a visitor in the metropolis this afternoon on the fast mail.

L. B. Brown, of Kenosha, was a business visitor in the city this afternoon.

Jacob Meisinger, of near Cedar Creek, was a business visitor in the city this morning.

Miss Minnie Will was a passenger to Council Bluffs, where will visit with friends for the day.

Ed Graves, of Murray, was in town this morning visiting friends and transacting some business.

M. H. Tyson, a rustling real estate dealer of Elmwood, was looking after business in the county seat today.

Philip Horn, from near Cedar Creek, was a business visitor in the county seat this morning, looking after business.

J. R. Vallery was a visitor in the city this morning from northwest of Murray, and was looking after some business.

W. H. Heil, of near Cedar Creek, was a visitor in the city this morning, looking after some business matters.

Chas. Gradoville and family were passengers to Havelock, where they will visit with relatives over Sunday.

Mr. A. M. Holmes, of Murray, came up this morning to spend a few days with his daughter, Mrs. C. A. Rawis and family.

Mrs. Charles Chrisweisser, accompanied by Miss Ola Buckingham, were visitors in Omaha this morning, going on the early Burlington train.

Oscar Zarr was a visitor in the city this morning looking after some business at the court house, and while in the city made this office a pleasant call.

Mrs. George Rhoden, accompanied by Mrs. Mary Rhoden, her husband's mother, departed this morning for Modale, Iowa, where they will visit for some few days with relatives and friends, guests at the home of Mr. and Clinton Morrow.

Miss Mayola Propst departed for Mitchell, South Dakota, the first of the week, where she has accepted a position as teacher of a school at a salary of $45 a month.

R. L. Propst from Mynard, was in the city this morning, looking after the settling of the estate of Mrs. M. E. Cawkins, deceased, and in conversation with a reporter of this paper said, that while he had out thirty acres more of corn this year than he had last, he would have 3,000 bushels less than he had a year ago.

From Monday's Daily.

George Horn, of Cedar Creek, was a visitor in the metropolis this afternoon.

Henry Rice from Murray was in the city this morning, looking after some business.

J. B. Seabolt and J. W. Stone, of Murray were business visitors in the metropolis this afternoon.

Will Vallery and Ed Rummell were passengers to Council Bluffs this afternoon, looking after some business.

Frank Stander, of Louisville, was a visitor in the county seat this morning, looking after some business matters during the day.

S. O. and R. O. Cole, both of Mynard, were passengers to Omaha this morning, where they are looking after some business matters.

Wyatt Hutchison, near Rock Bluffs, is nursing some very sore fingers, which he got mashed the other day, while hauling some wood.

W. H. Porter and wife, of Nehawka, came in last evening and are visiting for a few days with his brother, George M. Porter and wife in this city.

Eugene Frey came in this morning from Cedar Creek, visiting today with John McNurlin and family, and will depart tomorrow for his home at Almena, Kansas.

Attorney W. H. Pitzer, of Nebraska City, came in last evening over the Missouri Pacific, and visited with friends, and looked after some business matters, departing on the late Burlington train for Lincoln, going by the way of Pacific Junction and Council Bluffs.

From Tuesday's Daily.

C. A. Rawles went to Union today on official business.

Earl C. Westcott was a visitor in Omaha today on business.

Mrs. A. F. Seybert, of Cedar Creek, was a visitor in the city this morning.

V. H. DeBolt and wife, of Murdock, were visitors in the city this morning.

W. C. Murray, of Mynard, was a business visitor in the county seat this morning.

Alf Nickels, of below Murray, was a visitor in the city this morning, looking after some business.

Mrs. Bennett Chrisweisser went to Missouri Valley, Iowa, this morning to visit for a few days.

Wm. C. Cleghon, of Louisville, was a visitor in the city this morning, looking after some business matters.

John Campbell, of near Kanosha, was a visitor in the city this morning, transacting business with our merchants.

C. F. Rheimhart, of Cullom, was a visitor in the city this morning, where he is looking after some business matters.

Frank Grauf was a passenger to Omaha and Council Bluffs this morning where he has some business pertaining to the purchase of a saw mill.

Abe Rupley, of the firm of R. L. Upton of Union was a visitor in the city this morning, departing later for Omaha, where he has some business to look after.

Herman Kleitch of Weeping Water was a visitor in the city today, looking after business matters pertaining to the milling company of which he is one of the principal factors at that point.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Conrad Meisinger, from near Cedar Creek, was a visitor in the city today.

Mrs. Anna McVey of near Murray was a passenger to Peoria, Ill., this afternoon, where she will visit.

Frank Pankonin and Joseph Walbert, of Louisville, were visitors in the city this morning driving down by team.

W. S. Stine and brother, R. D. Stine, of Union were in the city this morning looking after some business matters at the court house.

Col. M. A. Bates, who was confined to his bed with the la grippe yesterday is so far recovered as to be at his desk again, though feeling very poorly.

Mrs. Furray, of Omaha, who has been visiting with her friend, Mrs. T. E. Parmele, in the city for a short time, departed this morning for her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Renner, who have been in the city attending the funeral of Mrs. Renner's brother, John Robbins, departed for their home this morning.

August Gorder is sick at his home in the south part of the city with what promises to be pneumonia. He has been confined to his bed since last Sunday, and is greatly indisposed.

John W. Berge, Mr. Hansen and Jerry Fountain were in from South Bend today as witnesses at the preliminary hearing of the stabbing case at that place a short time ago.

Mrs. B. W. Livingston and daughter, Margaret, were passengers to Omaha this morning, where they will visit with friends during the day and looking after some business matters as well.

J. B. Hostetter, of near Union, was a visitor in the city this afternoon, and has sore hand, caused by a bruise, a few weeks ago, which gathered and broke and appears to be going to do the same again.

Andrew Stahlman and P. O. Esmay, of Louisville, while in the city today on business gave the Journal a pleasant call. Mr. Esmay is in the hardware business, a partner of P. C. Stander. Mr. Stahlman is a member of one of the oldest families in Cass county.

Harry Keyser of Lincoln, Nebraska, is the guest of Attorney W. C. Ramsey, his former college chum, both young gentlemen having graduated from the college of law, University of Nebraska last June and both standing among the highest in their final examinations. The Journal is informed that Mr. Keyser may open a law office in Plattsmouth.

Mrs. Andres Weber and son, Andres, of Avoca, were visitors in the city this morning.

John Baker, from south of the city, was a business visitor in the city this morning.

Wm. Chalfant, from near Union, was a visitor in the city this morning on business matters.

Nick Fredrick was a visitor in Omaha this morning, looking after some business matters.

G. P. Meisinger, from near Cedar Creek, was a visitor in the city this morning, on business.

F. M. Young, of near Murray, was a visitor in the city this morning, looking after business matters.

Ed Brantner and wife have rented the rooms over Wm. Holly's store and moved into them yesterday.

John Brandon and wife were passengers to Glenwood this morning, where they will visit during the day.

J. P. Thacker was a visitor in the city this morning, coming from Union to look after some business matters.

George N. LaRue of Union was a visitor in the city this morning where he is looking after some business at the court house.

Fred Oldenhausen, who has been confined to his home for some time on account of sickness, was down town the first time for a week yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Ruffner were passengers to Omaha this morning, where they will visit with the children for the day, and also visit at Council Bluffs.

M. L. Fredrick and W. E. Rosencrans were passengers to South Omaha this morning, where they will attend the convention of county commissioners, which are in session at that place at present.

For Lung Troubles

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral certainly cures coughs, colds, bronchitis, consumption. And it certainly strengthens weak throats and weak lungs. There can be no mistake about this. You know it is true. And your own doctor will say so.

The best kind of a testimonial—
"Sold for over sixty years."
Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.
Also manufacturers of
Ayer's SARSAPARILLA,
PILLS,
HAIR VIGOR.
We have no secrets! We publish the formulae of all our medicines.
Keep the bowels regular with Ayer's Pills and thus hasten recovery.

WHAT SHALL I GET

FOR XMAS?

This question is for some or most everyone a hard one to decide. There are hundreds of things which can be gotten, but the trouble is that a person tries to think of too many at one time, the result being that you can't fix your mind in any certain line. So to help you out, we are going to offer a few suggestions:

Silk Scarfs
Hand Bags
Kid Gloves
Silk Waist Patters
Furs
Fancy Hose
Fancy Hose Supporters
Fascinators
Shawls
Belts

Laundry Bags
Collar and Cuff Boxes
Fancy Work Bags
Toilet Sets
Picture Frames
Scrap Baskets
Pictures
Mirrors
Jewelry

Post Card Albums
Table Linen Sets
Fancy Dishes
Cut Glass
Fancy Collars
Fancy Turnovers
Belt Buckles
Hair Brushes
Fancy Ribbons

IN OUR CARPET DEPARTMENT!

We are showing the newest and latest patterns in Rugs, Moquettes, Velvets and Brussels, which are not only beautiful Xmas gifts, but useful as well. Just received a few days ago,

9X12 RUGS 9X12

Special Price for Christmas!

Bokanya Rugs, something new $11.50
9 Wire Brussels, absolutely seamless 18.00
Moquettes, beautiful oriental design 23.00

These Must Be Seen to Be Appreciated

E. G. DOVEY & SON

Mrs. W. C. Tippins was a visitor in the metropolis this morning.

Mrs. George Lindsey and little grandson, Herald Winckler, came down from Omaha and are visiting with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Hopkins for the day.

Misses Emma and Christina Peterson of Herman, Nebraska, who have been visiting in the city for some time guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Richardson, departed this morning for their home.

Rev. Father Baudezzone, of York, having charge of the Catholic church at that place, is visiting in the city, the guest of Father Bradley of this place.

Nicholas Halmes departed this morning for Lincoln, where he will visit with his grandson, Johnnie Halmes, who is at a sanatorium at that place, having his leg treated, for an affection of the bone. Uncle Nicholas will also go to Dewitt before returning home for a short visit.

Mrs. D. C. Morgan was a passenger to Omaha this morning to visit her sister, Mrs. Hallam, and will also stop at South Omaha with another sister before returning home.

Chas. Jassen, of Creston, who was in the city for the past few days called here by the death of Gust F. Rhode, departed this afternoon for Omaha, where he will visit for a short time.

VERY BUSY THIS WEEK

In fact to busy to write ads, but not to busy to sell shoes. No matter what we are working at we always stop for a customer and give you our entire attention to show goods.

"QUEEN QUALITY" is in the Lead!

They are wearing better than ever and more people are wearing Queen Quality today than one year ago. And say Mr. Man, you can get your wife a pair of them for Christmas. They make a nice Xmas gift.

E. G. DOVEY & SON