Injured by His Horse

Yesterday evening, while having his horse's feet trimmed at the blacksmith shops of J. Iverson, the horseman, Ed. Snodgrass, received an injury over the eye which required the work of surgeons to mend. Mr. Snodgrass was holding the horse, while the feet were being worked upon, when suddenly the horse reared up and striking with its fore feet, cut a deep gash in the over his right eye. The wound was closed by Dr. J. S. Livingston and it will be some time before the injury is entirely well.

Made a Run for It.

This morning the three Perry boys, living south of this city, had business in the metropolis and had to drive to town for the train. They found the roads rough and were late in getting here. Chas. and Glen, who jumped out of the rig, made the train all right, though out of breath, but Vernon succeeded in getting only as far as the court house to see the train glide away. He took the train in the opposite direction, going by way of Pacific Junction, and got there just the same. W. W. Coates also took a sprint and made good though he started from the Riley hotel after the train had arrived.

Entertained School Board.

Has a Pleasant Room

Chas. Guthmann has his show cases at the Cozy Corner cigar store changed to the other side of the room, and other improvements in the place since it came into his position, among which are a fence or railing which keep the public from the space behind his cigar cases. The room as it is now, is a very pleasant and agreeable place to pass a pleasant hour.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable. Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.
Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Political Unrest.

There is no doubt that the result of political and business unrest is causing many people to break away from their old political moorings. Party lines can no longer be drawn as tightly as in former campaigns, and the independent voter will have to be, more than ever before, appealed to. That great business man and democrat, Hon. William L. Douglas, who showed himself when governor of Massachusetts to be also a statesman, in a recent interview gave his opinion of the trend of public opinion as follows:

"That the methods and tactics of the administration at Washington are doing much to obliterate party lines, I can readily believe; that they will benefit the republican more than the democratic party, is far less certain. The democratic party should, in my opinion, do all possible to abolish special privileges and to give the people a square deal. It should be less spectacular in its methods and more certain in producing substantial results. Above all things, it should take a strong position for immediate tariff reduction on raw materials and foods, and especially for the entire removal of all duties on trust products sold cheaper to foreigners than to Americans. It should also do all in its power toward securing reciprocal trade relations with Canada and all other countries. With such a platform and with candidates that command the confidence of the people, I believe our party will not only gain the support of many honest manufacturers, now republicans, but would win at the polls. I have no fear of the results when the democratic party presents a proper platform and candidates to the voters."

Should a Horse Be Clipped?

The clipping of a horse in the early Spring is now conceded by all leading veterinarians to be as essential to a horse's well being as shoeing him or giving him a comfortable bed to lie on. Some years ago a Buffalo street car company tested the value of clipping in the following manner: They owned 500 horses, and 250 of these were clipped early in the Spring and 250 were not clipped. A careful record was kept of results and it was found that of the 250 horses unclipped horses 153 were afflicted with coughs and pneumonia, while of the 250 clipped not one case of sickness was reported.

REGARDING CATHOLIC MARRIAGES

No Changes in the Rule About Marriage of Catholics to Non-Catholics, Except That a Priest Perform Ceremony

The new Catholic marriage law, which goes into effect Easter, will do much to prevent secret marriages and elopements, priests of the church say. It not only provides that the persons to be married must sign an engagement contract in the presence of witnesses, but that the marriage must be performed by the parish priest where the persons reside or, if another priest is called for any reason, the parish priest must know of the marriage.

Priests May Be Punished for Laxity.
If the persons live in different parishes the priest of the parish to which the bride belongs has the preference. A person must live at least a month in a parish in order to gain a residence there. When persons apply to a priest for marriage it is his duty to ascertain if they have complied with the church law. He is held responsible and may be punished by the bishop if he fails to obey the law.

In case one or both of the persons cannot write the fact is to be stated in the engagement contract. The wedding is to be recorded in the parish register where it takes place and the priest is to send a notification to the parish where the persons were baptized, even if this be in a foreign country, and the marriage is to be recorded there also.

The church will recognize only marriages performed by a priest. Marriages performed by Protestant ministers and magistrates are not recognized.

To Wed Non-Catholics Not Forbidden.
"Marriages must be performed by priests, but marriages between Catholics and non-Catholics are not forbidden," says the Rev. E. S. Kells, secretary to the Rt. Rev. Thomas F. Lillis, bishop of the Leavenworth diocese. "The same form, however, must be followed in cases where one of the contracting parties is not a Catholic."

The decree of Pope Plus X concerning the new law has been received by the bishops in this country and sent to the priests of their dioceses. In speaking of a secret betrothal and marriage it says: "Experience has sufficiently shown the many dangers of such espousals in that they are an incentive to sin and the cause of misleading inexperienced girls, besides involving subsequent dissensions and endless disputes."

In District Court

The case of the state vs Alvin Jones which was before the district court yesterday, the defendant pleaded guilty, and his attorney offered a motion for the arrest of judgement, which is to be disposed of by briefs, to be submitted by the attorneys for either side, thus taking the case to the supreme court for settlement, and a decision on the constitutionality of the law, in question.

In district court this morning the case of the state vs Taylor, was argued to the court, wherein her children had been sentenced to the home for the friendless. It being the object of the action today to show that Miss Taylor, the mother of the children, was able to care for them. The case was taken under advisement.

The jury which has been out for the past three days on the case of Leopold Brandmeir, were called into the jury box this noon and asked if they had arrived at a verdict, reported no. During their deliberation they have taken thirty-seven ballots, thirty-six of which stood 5 for conviction and 7 for acquittal, while the twenty-seven ballots had been 6 to 6. The disagreement was on the question of the strength of the evidence, and after hearing this, Judge God told the jury to return again to the jury room and see if they could not arrive at a verdict.
