

DAILY PERSONAL NEWS

Short Items of Interest, From Tuesday Evening's Daily Journal

George Hall was a business visitor in Omaha this morning.

James Hardroba was a business visitor in the metropolis this morning.

Mrs. Anna Sedlock and son, Joseph, were visitors in Omaha this morning.

County Clerk W. E. Rosencrans was a business visitor in Omaha this morning.

Mrs. Peter Mumm and Mrs. John Wechman were visitors with friends in Omaha this morning.

Emil Patak returned last evening from a trip out on the road in the interest of the cigar factory.

A. A. Brooks departed for Lincoln this morning, after having visited with friends for the past few days.

Miss Amy Wentz, of Glenwood, was a visitor with her friend, Daisy Moore, in the city last evening and today.

Perry Purviance, of Lincoln, was a business visitor in the city this morning, relative to the sale of some fine pianos.

W. W. Tunnison, of Malvern, was over yesterday evening, looking after some business, returning on the evening train.

Richard Monday of Harris, Missouri, came in this morning, and is visiting in the city, a guest of William Burke and other friends.

Supreme Court Commissioner, J. L. Root returned last evening from Lincoln, where he has been working for the past few days.

Ottis Doss of David City came in this morning and is looking for a position of some kind which will offer a promise for a livelihood and a competence.

John Richards and wife and John Jacks and wife departed this morning for Omaha, where they will visit for the day with friends and do some shopping.

George Oldham is reported as improving and is now considerably better than lately, but not so as to be out of the house again, but hopes to be able to be down town in a short time.

Fremont Wheeler, of Norfolk, and nephew, Eddie Wheeler, of Warnerville, after having visited with the family of C. F. Wheeler for the past few days, departed this morning for their homes.

Attorney Wm. Delles Denier, of Elmwood, was a visitor in the city today, coming in last evening on the late Burlington train and looking after some business at the court house this morning.

Henry Boeck has now completed the protecting walls which he is placing around his windows for keeping out the flood waters, and is a "stitch in time," which we are sure will save him nine in the end.

Mrs. Austin Felt, of Galesburg, Illinois, and daughter, Florence, of Omaha, departed for the latter place this morning, after visiting here, the guest at the home of J. G. Hanks and wife, for the past few days.

The Plattsmouth Telephone Company sent out a gang of linemen and laborers and are working near LaPlatte, putting in the good weather getting the new toll line constructed towards Omaha as rapidly as possible.

Mrs. John Bajek was a visitor in Omaha this morning, taking her little daughter to have her eyes treated for the fitting of glasses to correct her vision and cure a prevailing headache, caused by eye strain.

Members and friends of the W. C. T. U. are requested to meet with Mrs. Schildknecht Friday morning, at 9:30. Those not able to attend the meeting, please remember Mrs. L. A. Moore between 9:30 and 10:30 a. m.

W. H. Verner, wife and daughter, De Ella departed for Omaha this morning, where they will visit during the day, and this evening will attend a lecture on Christian Science, to be delivered by Bicknell Young of Chicago.

James Rivitt departed for his home at Lincoln this morning, after having been looking after some business for the Burlington for the past few days, and will immediately make a trip to Denver, where he has some business matters to look after for the company.

Will Fenner departed this afternoon for his home at O'Neill, where he will return to work, while Mrs. Renner will remain and care for little Herold, who is showing a good deal of improvement, a fact very pleasing to the parents as well as the little fellow's friends.

Gentle and Effective.

A well-known Manitoba editor writes: "As an inside worker I find Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets invaluable for the touches of biliousness natural to sedentary life, their action being gentle and effective, clearing the digestive tract and the head." Price, 25 cents. Samples free. F. G. Fricke & Co.

J. P. Falter was a business visitor in Omaha this afternoon.

Ralph Godwin made a brief business trip to Omaha this morning.

Mrs. A. J. Beeson was a visitor with friends in Omaha this afternoon.

T. C. Terhune and little son were visitors in Omaha this afternoon on business.

Gernsey Thomas was a visitor in Omaha this morning, looking after some business.

A. W. White was looking after some business matters in Council Bluffs this afternoon.

Rev. Wachtail of Mynard returned this morning from a visit with friends at Omaha.

Mrs. Westley Bennett returned this afternoon from a visit with friends and relatives at Glenwood.

Mrs. M. A. Dickson was a visitor in Omaha this afternoon, where she goes to have some glasses fitted.

"Bill" Hogabone of LaPlatte was a visitor in the city this morning, and returned home on the noon train.

Joseph Cook from near Murray was a visitor in the city this afternoon, looking after some business matters.

Henry Hempel of Lincoln was a visitor in the city today, looking after some real estate deals which he is negotiating.

A. W. Atwood was a visitor in Omaha this morning, spending the day with friends and looking after some business matters.

Two new chair cars were sent out of the local shops this afternoon, destination Lincoln. They were Nos. 4070 and 4063.

A marriage license was issued today to Alex Patterson, aged 21, and Miss Mary E. Lorenson, aged 21, of Weeping Water.

S. W. Gargus and wife of McPaul, Iowa, came in this afternoon and are visiting with their daughter, Mrs. T. J. Hickson and family.

George Bennett and wife were visitors in the city this morning, from the other side of the river, and were transacting business with our merchants.

C. E. Mayfield, after having been on the sick list for some days past, has so far recovered that he expects to take up his work of barbering in a few days.

Georgeo Sitzman of Cedar Creek was a visitor in the city this morning, looking after some business, and a guest at the home of his brother, Henry, who is sick.

R. S. Harris of Omaha, a civil engineer was in the city this morning relative to the placing of fire escapes on the hotels which are more than two stories high.

William Heiner, Carl Graves and Clifford Forbs were among the crowd who departed today for LaPlatte to work on the telephone constructing work at that place.

August Krecklow, Henry Sass, John Rohrdantz and C. H. Rohrdantz, of Murdock, were visitors in the city this afternoon, and while here made this office a call. They all read the Journal.

Cards are out announcing the coming marriage of Miss Florence White, of this city, and Dr. D. L. Redfern of Auburn, to be celebrated Wednesday, April 22nd, at the St. Luke's church in this city.

Miss Ida Hagle departed this afternoon for her home at Norfolk, after having visited in the city and west of town for some three weeks, a guest while here of her sister, Mrs. J. W. Treitsch.

Bert Van Horn is after water on his place, near Cedar Creek, but so far, without success, as he has gone down some two hundred feet and not yet gotten the desired dampness. Charles Antone is doing the work.

George A. James, who was here with the Parker Carnival Co., two years since, and whose wife was injured by a lion, at some point in Kansas, passed through the city last evening from Omaha to Des Moines, Iowa, where he is playing with a show called the "King of Tramps."

A Twenty year Sentence.

"I have just completed a twenty year health sentence, imposed by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which cured me of bleeding piles just twenty years ago," writes O. S. Woolver, of LeRaysville, N. Y. Bucklen's Arnica Salve heals the worst sores, boils, burns, wounds and cuts in the shortest time. 25c. at F. G. Fricke & Co. drug store.

$5.00 Reward.

I will pay $5.00 reward to the party informing me who defaced the sign of "Brick for Sale" on my premises. JOHN MURRAY.

Henry Kingery visited in Omaha today with his son.

Mrs. John Lutz and son, Henry, were visitors with friends in Omaha this morning.

Mrs. W. H. Mason was a passenger to Omaha this morning, where she will visit wit friends for the day.

Miss Eva VanWinkle and Miss Mina Hoffstetter of Pacific Junction, were visitors in the city this morning, looking after some business and returned on No. 2.

L. G. Larson returned home last evening from Des Moines, and Glidden, Iowa, where he has been to figure upon the building of a school house at the latter place.

Mrs. Jay Severs, of Grant, Perkins county, came in this morning and will visit for some time with relatives and friends, a guest of her mother, Mrs. L. A. Moore.

George Berger, from Murray, returned last evening from the northwest.

John Marsh, of Rock Bluffs was a business visitor in the city this morning.

Miss Margaret Swassing of Council Bluffs departed for her home this morning, after having visited in the city for the past few days with friends, the guest of Miss Verna Heins.

Chas. Martin returned home last evening from Omaha, where he has been with his son, Hilt, who is in the hospital. Charley thinks the little fellow will get along without any operation.

H. M. Soennichsen departed this morning for points in the county, where he will oversee the work of taking assessment which the deputies are now doing. In making this trip, it is the intention of Assessor Soennichsen that the work be done in the proper manner and that justice shall be done to all of the taxpayers.

Robert Ulig, of Holdrege, visited in the city today.

Geo. Hicks, of Cullom, visited in the city this morning.

F. L. Sallee was a business visitor in Omaha this morning.

George Weidman was a visitor in Omaha this afternoon.

Phillip Meisinger was a business visitor in the city this morning.

Horace Rand, of Cedar Creek, visited in the city this morning.

Mrs. John Jess and daughter were visitors in Omaha this afternoon.

Rae Patterson and wife were visitors in the metropolis this afternoon.

Mrs. H. J. Helps and daughter were visitors in Omaha this afternoon.

Perry Marsh was a visitor to the South Omaha market this morning.

Miss Elsie Streetweiser was a visitor with friends in Omaha this afternoon.

Mrs. T. B. Bates was a visitor with friends in the metropolis this morning.

Mrs. T. E. Parmele returned this morning from a visit at Louisville for a few days.

A. W. O'Neal from the other side of the river, was a visitor in the city this morning.

Miss Marie Douglas and Josephine Hall were visitors in Omaha with some friends this afternoon.

H. A. Schneider was a visitor at Fremont on business today, going this afternoon on the Burlington.

S. L. Thomas was a brief business visitor in the metropolis today, going on the early Burlington train.

Miss Celia Matson and Mrs. Thomas South were visitors in the capitol city today, going on the fast mail.

Mrs. J. W. Johnson was a passenger to Council Bluffs this afternoon, where she will visit for a few days.

Chas. White of Omaha was a visitor in the city this morning, having business with the county assessor.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Wescott departed this morning for Omaha, where they will visit with friends for the day.

Adolph Wesch and Henry Koffman were visitors in Omaha this morning, having business matters to look after.

C. E. Mayfield, the barber, returned this morning from Pleasantdale, where he has been visiting with relatives for some days past.

J. C. Marston, of Lincoln, the Burlington signal man, was a visitor in the city today, looking after some business for the company.

Mathew Eastman of Saginaw, Michigan, came in this morning and is visiting with his sister, Mrs. Andrew Howrick and husband.

Guy McMaken is indulging in a new porch for his residence, which is being built by the handiwork of Chas. Matland and J. L. Bates.

Mrs. G. E. Brainard, of Omaha, departed this morning for her home, after having visited in the city, the guest of Mrs. Silas Long, for the past few days.

District Judge H. D. Travis and Court Reporter Earl Travis departed this morning for Nebraska City, where they hold court beginning this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Snodgrass departed this morning for Thurman, Iowa, where they go to visit for a few days with Mr. Snodgrass' mother, Mrs. E. G. Snodgrass.

Chas. E. Martin was a visitor in Omaha this afternoon.

Mrs. Peter Mutz was a visitor with friends in Omaha this afternoon.

H. G. Van Horn was a brief business visitor in the metropolis this afternoon.

C. A. Harvey and wife of near Rock Bluffs were visitors in the city this morning.

J. D. Shrader and Ray Chriswiser from Murray were visitors in the city this morning.

L. L. Patten was a passenger to Omaha, where he will look after some business matters.

L. G. Larson and his gang of first-class men will do your work cheaper and quicker than anybody.

J. Furth and L. Benninghaven of Omaha is in the city this morning, looking after some business matters.

D. A. Young and wife of near Murray were visitors in the city this morning, transacting business with our merchants.

Fremont Wheeler, is gathering and packing a number of trees for shipment to Norfolk, where he will plant them for an orchard.

Mrs. H. H. Davis of Persia, Iowa, departed for her home this afternoon, after having visited here for past week with her sister, Mrs. J. H. Thresher.

Mrs. C. L. Buckley, after having visited in the city for the past few days with her parents, departed for home at Omaha on the Burlington this afternoon.

Captain Isaac Wiles departed for his farm, near Minnare in Scott Bluffs county, this morning on the early Burlington train, where he will remain for sometime, looking after his interests.

J. S. Collins, of Ashland, the telephone electrician for the Burlington, was in the city today installing some more telephones and making some alterations in their lines.

A marriage licence was issued this morning to Henry Kuskie, aged 24, and Miss Ola Swacker, aged 20, both of Murdock. The wedding to be celebrated on the fifteenth-one week from today.

E. B. Snodgrass has in contemplation the purchase of the two pieces of property just south of the residence of Jim Sage, one of which is a church building which he expects to convert into a residence.

Miss Rena Towle departed this morning for Omaha, after having visited in the city with her sister, Miss Una Towle, who teaches here. Miss Rena has been teaching at Louisville, but her home is at Wabash.

The carpenters who are at work on the new residence for Ed. Treitsch on his farm, west of town, are making good progress and will have the roof on today, having the house boxed up, though with no siding on.

J. M. Meisinger departed this morning for Omaha, where he goes to bring home his son, Henry, who has been there in the hospital, where he had been operated upon and treated for appendicitis, and who is now almost well again.

Today marks the passing of the 70th milestone in the journey of life of J. M. Meisinger, and shows him to be an excellent specimen of manhood in the after summer of life—vigorous, robust full of energy, and a very pleasant gentleman, withal.

He Got What He Needed

"Nine years ago it looked as if my time had come," says Mr. C. Farthing, of Mill Creek Ind. Ter. "I was so run down that life hung on a very slender thread. It was then my druggist recommended Electric Bitters. I bought a bottle and got what I needed—strength. I had one foot in the grave, but Electric Bitters put it back on the turf again, and I've been well ever since." Sold under guarantee at F. G. Fricke & Co. drug store. 50c

AN EASTER FESTIVAL IN CARPETS

will aptly describe the superb line of floor covering displayed at Hild's, where an elegant variety of artistic pattern in every kind, from ingrains to Axminsters and wiltons, await the pleasure of those who desire to furnish their rooms economically and beautiful.

M. HILD,
Plattsmouth, Neb.

A Lively Runaway.

Yesterday afternoon, while awaiting for some goods which was to be loaded in at Dovey's store, Major Hall's team became frightened by another team driving up beside it and ran away. At the start they overturned the wagon and started down the alley, but when they turned out of the alley the wagon became righted and ran along smoothly until they reached the Burlington station, where they were caught. The only damage done being the breaking of the spring seat, which was caught when the wagon turned over.

OUR GOVERNMENT BUILDING

Senate Committee Approves Bill for New Structure.

A special from Washington, under date of April 8, says: "The senate committee on public buildings and grounds today approved a bill for a $50,000 building at Plattsmouth, Neb." This will be glad news to every reader of the Journal, and assures us that the construction of the building will be commenced as soon as possible. Now, that the new postoffice building is a positive fact, is this not sufficient encouragement to our business men and property owners to instill in their minds the spirit of enterprise, and assist in doing more for the old town?

Has a New Forge

D. B. Ebersole has just had a concrete forge placed in his shop in place of the iron one which he has had heretofore. Harry Johnson did the work, and the forge looks like it would last for all time to come. It has a patent blower called the "Whirlwind," and is an ideal as far as the forge and blower are concerned.

Ted Clifford Very Sick

A. D. Kegley brought James Clifford over from Weeping Water this morning in his automobile, making the trip in an hour and a half, which, considering the roads, was very good time. Mr. Clifford was called here by the sickness of his brother, Ted Clifford, who is sick with the pneumonia. Mr. Clifford has been sick for some time and is at the present considered very ill.

Dr. Cameron Has Recovered

A special from Nebraska City, under date of April 8, says: "Dr. W. L. Cameron, the Palmyra physician who suffered from hydrophobia, by reason of running a needle in his hand, which had been used on a horse suffering from the rabies, is home from Chicago, where he took treatment for two weeks at the Pasture institute. He is fully recovered."

Injured His Eye

While at work at the Burlington shops this afternoon, P. H. Kinnamon, had the misfortune to have a nail strike him in the eye which had been broken from a piece of timber on which he was working, so injuring it that he was compelled to go to Omaha and have treatment by a specialist.

Eighth Grade Examination

Throughout the county, where they teach as high as the eighth grade, will occur on Friday an eighth grade examination, the papers of which will be sent into the office of the county superintendent for correction. The committee selecting for the reading and correcting of the papers, in conjunction the county superintendent, Miss Mary E. Foster, are M. C. Leffler, of Elmwood, C. A. Rost, of Nehawka, Miss Mayma Mills of Union, Miss Minerva Tool, of Murdock, and Miss Emma Turner, of Murray.

The Whipping Post Idea.

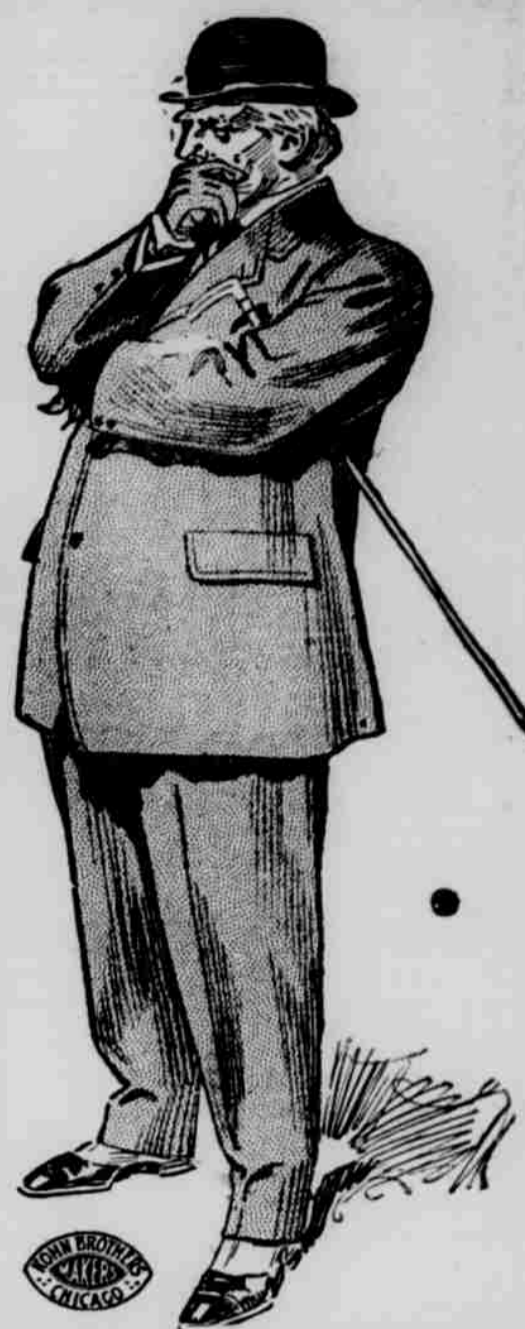

Speaking about the matter of the stealing of the clothes from one of our merchants yesterday, by a gang of hobo, Ward Clark, the barber, says: "The idea of putting them into the city jail to serve out a sentence for petty larceny, is entirely wrong. Some of the hobo fraternity are only too glad to get into the jail to get a week's board, that they may get fat again." "The proper way to do the thing," remarked the barber, "is to restore the whipping post, and give them about twenty or twenty-five lashes, which would go a great deal further to correct the habit than to feed them for a week or two."

Engineer Pushing His Work.

Mr. Merriam, the engineer, who is working on the specifications for the lowering of the streets and for the repaving, is working like a Trojan every day on the drawings at the council chamber and hopes to have them completed by the time of the next council meeting so that the council can at that time know just what the proposition is and what it will look like as well as what should be the maximum cost. The drawings are the work of an artist and shows he knows just what he has been employed to ascertain.

Henry Utterbach departed for the country again this morning, where he will take up his work with Louie Meisinger at the home of Bals Meisinger, after having been layed up for a number of weeks with a sore foot, occasioned by its being cut with an axe.

SPRING

ARRIVALS

I have just received a noby assortment of Easter Neckwear—all the latest patterns.

50c.

Also, a splendid line of Vests from $1.50 Up!

Don't forget me on that Easter Suit.

SAVE YOUR CASH REGISTER RECEIPTS!

M. FANGER

THE HELPFUL HAND

you can most surely depend upon in time of trouble is your bank account. Better start to acquire a big one by depositing what you have in the Bank of Cass County. You'll find the necessity of thinking before paying a great incentive to saving. When trouble comes what you have been prevented from frittering away will make a comfortable balance.

The BANK OF CASS COUNTY, PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA.

Seed Oats For Sale
Good variety of seed oat for sale.
S. O. Cole, Mynard.

ORINO Laxative Fruit Syrup

Pleasant to take
The new laxative. Does not gripe or nauseate. Cures stomach and liver troubles and chronic constipation by restoring the natural action of the stomach, liver and bowels. Refuse substitutes. Price 50c. FOR SALE BY F. G. FRICKE