

Big Auction Sale of The Coates Dry Goods Co.,

is Attended Three Times a Day

by the Largest Crowds Ever Attending a Sale in Plattsmouth. The Sale will Continue Until Every Article is Sold, Including the Fixtures.

Are You Getting Your Share of the Bargains?

Can you afford to miss this opportunity of getting just what you need in

Dry Goods, Blankets, Suit Cases, Clothing, Hats, Shoes and Furnishing Goods

AT YOUR OWN PRICE!

Select just what you want. It will be sold while you wait. The high bidder buys.

COME BEFORE IT IS ALL GONE!

DAILY PERSONAL NEWS

Short Items of Interest, From Saturday Evening's Daily Journal

Misses Jean Morrissey and Gretchen Donnelly were visitors in Omaha this morning.

Ross Mitchell came in yesterday from Havelock and is visiting with friends in the city for a few days.

O. K. Parmele returned this morning from Cedar Creek, where he was looking after some business.

J. Pepperburg departed for Omaha and Lincoln this morning, where he is looking after the sale of cigars.

Mrs. M. A. O'Leary departed this morning for a visit at Hamburg, Ia., and to look after her daughter for some time.

Wanted.—At the Journal office immediately, a boy to learn the printing business. One not "too smart" preferred.

Joshua Andrews departed this morning for a visit at Hamburg, Ia., and to look after some business at that place as well.

Henry Stander of South Bend was a visitor in the city this morning, looking after some business matters at the court house.

Alf Nickels and wife were visitors in Omaha this morning, where they are visiting with friends and looking after some business matters.

John Rough and John Garber, of Nehawka, were visitors in the county seat this morning, having some matters to attend to at the court house.

A. R. Young and wife were visitors in Omaha this morning, from near Murray, driving to Plattsmouth and going via the Burlington from here.

Misses Anna McClelland, Helen Towels and Jessie Kennedy, all of Bellevue, are visiting in the city, the guests of their friend, Miss Bernice Newell.

Joe Messersmith, wife and daughter came in today from Havelock, and are visiting for a few days with W. D. Messersmith and family, in the city.

Wm. and James Kennedy and F. W. Hawkinson returned to their home at Havelock this afternoon, after having visited in the city for the past few days.

Mrs. Wm. Ballance was a visitor in Omaha this morning.

George Mapes was a business visitor in Omaha this morning.

Col. H. C. McMaken was a business visitor in Council Bluffs, Iowa, this morning.

Mrs. Alma Davis departed for Chicago this morning, after having been looking after some legal business in the city.

Pat Eagan and two little girls were passengers to Havelock this morning, where they will visit with friends for a few days.

G. W. Haney, of near Bartlett, Iowa, departed for his home this morning, after having visited in the city, a guest at the home of his brother-in-law, B. Chriswiser.

Henry Kreaeger, of west of Mynard, was a visitor in the city today.

Sam Campbell of near Murray was a visitor in the city this morning.

W. H. Seybert of Cedar Creek was a visitor in the city this morning.

Mrs. C. S. Forbes was a visitor with relatives in Omaha this morning.

E. G. Stockfield of Superior was a business visitor in the city today.

Emanuel Kline, of Cedar Creek, was a visitor with friends in the city this morning.

Fred Geunther, of near Cullom, was a visitor in the city today.

Miss Pattie Mathews was a visitor in Omaha with friends this morning.

L. Reynard was a visitor in the city this morning from near Rock Bluffs.

Valentine Tomalinshy and wife were visitors in Omaha today, going this morning.

Phillip Horn and wife were visitors in the city this morning from near Cedar Creek.

Wm. Becker was a visitor in the city this morning, looking after some business matters.

A. W. Atwood was a visitor in Omaha this afternoon.

Phillip Hild visited in the city today from west of Murray.

Adam Kaffenberger and family were visitors in the city today.

Mrs. John Marquette, of Lincoln was a visitor in the city today.

Margaret Scotton was a visitor in Omaha with friends this afternoon.

Ed. Weaver and wife were visitors in Omaha with friends this afternoon.

Fred Patterson and family, from Rock Bluffs, were visitors in the city today.

E. H. Booth was a visitor for over Sunday in Lincoln, going on the noon train.

Mrs. C. A. Marshall and daughter, Miss Gladys, were Omaha visitors this afternoon.

Cyril Janda was a visitor with friends in Omaha this morning.

Jack Patterson was a visitor in Omaha with friends this morning.

George Halmes, of northwest of the city, was a business visitor in the city this morning.

M. Mauzy was a business visitor in Lincoln this morning, going on the early Burlington train.

Mrs. Frank Brinkman and daughters, Nellie and Max, were visitors in Omaha this morning.

Frank Janda, sr., and wife were passengers to Omaha this morning, where they will visit friends for the day.

W. B. Porter, jr., of Mynard, was a visitor in Omaha this morning, where he was looking after some business matters and visiting with friends.

C. H. Sampson returned to his home in Omaha this morning, after having been looking after some business matters in the city for the Burlington.

John Spence, of near Louisville, was in the city last evening, looking after some business matters.

T. E. Olson and wife were visitors in Omaha this afternoon, where they will spend the day with friends.

J. H. Salsbury was visiting with friends and looking after business matters in Omaha this afternoon.

R. B. Windham departed for Greenwood today, where he will visit with his son, Robert and wife, over Sunday.

Miss Lillian Fitch came in this morning from Omaha and gave her elocution class their lesson, returning on the noon train.

E. H. Wescott is reported as being on the sick list and not able to be out at the present.

Miss Emma Roesner of Louisville was a visitor in the city this morning, with friends for the day.

J. F. Polk, of Lincoln, a mail clerk running between Omaha and Denver, was in the city this morning.

August Raeler and wife departed this morning for Havelock, where they will visit with friends over Sunday.

W. H. Puls, of west of Murray, was a visitor in the city this morning transacting business with our merchants.

E. B. Lincoln from near Cedar Creek was a visitor in the city this morning, having business matters to look after.

"Mine Host" Alex Graves of Murray was a visitor in the county seat this morning and said Murray was getting along nicely.

J. Smith of Nehawka came up this morning, and is visiting with friends in the city and looking after some business matters.

John Kinney was a visitor in the city for a while this morning, going from Ashland, where he has been working for the Bell Telephone company, to his home at Bedford, Ia.

The number of scholars in the county taking the eighth grade examination were 217, and the papers of those which have been examined the average has been very good.

Mrs. J. M. Meisinger and daughter were visitors in the city this morning, doing some trading and visiting with friends, guests at the home of Mrs. George P. Weidman.

Frank E. Schlater, Mrs. H. N. Dovey and son, George, Charles Patterson and George Oldham, departed for Lincoln this morning, where they will join the California excursion this evening.

At the last hour, D. C. Morgan concluded to go to California on the Governor's excursion, and with his wife and daughter departed this afternoon for Lincoln, where they join the excursion.

Mrs. W. M. Thomas and sister, Miss Evelyn Taylor, who are attending the business college at Omaha, came home last evening and will visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor, over Sunday.

On account of the fast mail on the other side of the river, running between Chicago and Council Bluffs, which did not make connection with number five, the west bound passenger, the Schuyler train, had to run into Plattsmouth to get a mail car which was brought from Pacific Junction to this place by the switch engine for Omaha.

Mrs. Nicholas Todd came home from Omaha last evening, where she is attending school, and will visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sol Adamson, over Sunday.

Gone to Plainview.

Miss Ida Weidman departed for Plainview last evening, going to Omaha via Missouri Pacific, where she remained until this morning. She was accompanied as far as the metropolis by Mr. John Bull and Miss Gladys Marshall, who returned on the midnight train. Miss Ida is one of the best girls that ever drew the breath of life, and her many friends in Plattsmouth, where she was born and reared to womanhood, regretted to see her leave. She has accepted a position in that city.

A Printer Becomes a Fisherman.

Last Saturday evening Lee J. Mayfield and three boon companions left the stirring city of Louisville, and with camp equipage, fishing tackle, and other accessories which go to make up a pleasant stay in the woods and by the side of the stream, and as the shades of night were falling they camped by the side of Metzger's lake at Cedar Creek. There they expected to have a pleasant time for a few days, but owing to there being no way of breaking the ice, they were not able to fish yesterday, and it being Sunday they did not dare return, as they could not buy any fish to take home and had to stay until this morning. Verily, the way of the fisherman is hard.

Stricken With Paralysis

We hear that Engene Lewis, residing a few miles northwest of Elmwood, was stricken with paralysis Tuesday afternoon while hauling manure and was found towards evening by his wife in the hog lot in an unconscious condition. He had not regained consciousness at last report and was not resting well. We sincerely hope 'Gene may soon recover from the attack, although at present his condition is extremely critical.—Elmwood Leader-Echo.

W. F. Gillispie and George Snyder are shipping two cars of mixed stuff to Omaha this afternoon from Mynard.

Returns From Texas

Frank Stanley returned from his excursion trip to the Texas Panhandle county Sunday evening, and in forms the Journal that the J. B. Dodson people of Kansas City, whom Mr. Standley represents, sold 26300 acres of land on their recent excursion. Mr. Standley runs excursion every First and Third Tuesday and will be pleased to take with any and everybody who desires to purchase land in the best country and climate on earth. The terms on all purchases are made to suit all buyers.

Sells The Alcazar

Saturday afternoon Frank C. Benfer bought the building in which the Alcazar has been conducted for sometime paying W. W. Coates three thousand dollars for it. Mr. Benfer expects to use the building for the purpose of a saloon.

America's Thermal Wonderland HOT SPRINGS, ARK.

Curative waters, healthful and agreeable climate, restful surroundings—every form of recreation if desired, all completely illustrated and described in our new booklet, also rates at hotels, bath houses, etc.

Missouri Pacific
Iron Mountain
IS THE DIRECT TROUGH ROUTE

Call on your local agent or address
B. H. PAYNE,
General Passenger and Ticket Agent,
ST. LOUIS, MO.

Notice to Cass County Farmers

The secret of curing hams and bacon lies in the use of Wright's Liquid Smoke. It's quicker, safer and gives better results than the old style method of using a wood fire. Sold by

F. G. FRICKE & CO.,
ruggists, Plattsmouth, Neb.