Returned From the South.

Attorney D. O. Dwyer, who accompanied Frank Stanley on the excursion to Friona, Tex., returned Sunday evening via Rock Island to Omaha. He was highly delighted with his trip, and from Kansas City going, he says there was a whole train load of land seekers. He was so well pleased with the Panhandle country that he invested in a section of land. Mr. Dwyer says in many respects the land will compare very favorably with that of Nebraska. He says both wheat and alfalfa are grown there as successfully as these crops are cultivated here. Take it all in all Mr. Dwyer thinks it is the coming country, and that it is undoubtedly the place for the farmer with small means. While gone, he says he took a trip of one hundred miles across the country, and his countenance denotes that it was quite warm when he made this trip. He says those in charge of the excursion out of Kansas City were all nice gentlemen, and when they landed in the Panhandle they were shown every courtesy that could possibly be desired. Mr. G. O. Ford of near Nehawka accompanied Mr. Stanley on this excursion, and he purchased a quarter section. On this trip alone Mr. Stanley sold 200 acres to Cass county people, which demonstrates that the Panhandle country is "going off like hot cakes," and people must go quick if they want to invest.

Got Marriage License.

Today licenses to marry were issued to Charles Janda aged 21 and Miss Marie Toman, ages 22, who will marry tomorrow. Also to W. N. Rohrdanz age 24 of Murdock and Miss Ida D. Heil aged 23 of Cedar Creek.

Walker Released.

James Walker, charged with assaulting his wife, who spent several weeks in the county jail pending the action of the grand jury, was released last Friday, the jury evidently believing he had been sufficiently punished. While he languished in durance vile, his wife had filed application for divorce, and had returned to her former home in Plattsmouth. Walker returned immediately to Emerson, and for some reason, whether it was disappointment in not finding his wife here, or jubilation in his release from jail, he proceeded at once to get a glorious "jag" on, and spent at the depot, dead to the world, and with his joys and sorrows all drowned in the oblivion of inebriation. He is an unfortunate man any way one looks at the matter, and one cannot but pity a man of such powerful physique who is so weak willed as to be a slave to the drink habit.—Emerson (Iowa) Chronicle.

FIRST GAME ON HOME GROUNDS

While Our Boys Were Greatly Out-Classed in Size, They Put Up a Good Game.

In the game of last Saturday, at the local grounds between the Plattsmouth high school team and the South Omaha high school team, the South Omaha team won. This was the first game of the season, and one well played by both teams. The South Omaha reached the goal by a tally of 8, while the local team scored 6, though both played an excellent game.

When one takes into consideration the difference in the size of the Omaha team and that of our own high school boys, it is not to be wondered that they were defeated, while it must be acknowledged that the home boys put up one of the best games that was ever played on the home grounds. As to size, our boys were greatly outclassed, everyone of the South Omaha team being much larger than anyone of the home team, and yet the score denotes that they "played ball" from the word go.

While the crowd was very fair, the Journal regrets to learn that quite a number attempted to sneak in without paying a cent. It is not expected that the boys will make any more than will just barely pay the expense attached to these games, and if a person feels so much interested in ball playing they should be willing to pay the small price of 25 cents to see a game, rather than put some of those interested in our home team to go to them after they have sneaked in and made to pay.

We are pleased to note that Superintendent Gamble and Principal Brooks both take great interest in the high school team, and our citizens should interest themselves also. Many who have witnessed the boys play, say that it is the best team of its inches that ever was organized in Plattsmouth, and people should at least be willing to pay to see a game, and in this way aid the boys, if they cannot afford to "chip in" and help them otherwise.

Next Saturday the Nebraska City high school team will play the home team on the local grounds, and it is to be hoped our people will turn out en masse and thus encourage the boys. By this kind of encouragement we can and will have, before the season ends, one of the best young ball teams in the state. The people of the city cannot help but notice how much smoother the High School Athletic association has been conducted during the past year than for several years previous, and they very readily perceive that the past difficulties were not altogether caused by the high school pupils. The Journal is proud of the harmony that exists between the superintendent, principal and pupils.

A VERY PRETTY MORNING WEDDING

Two Plattsmouth Young People are Married at the Holy Rosary Church.

This morning at nine o'clock, at the Holy Rosary Catholic church occurred the wedding of two of the young people of Plattsmouth, who are highly respected and loved by all who know them. The ceremony was according to the rituals of the church to which these young people belong and was performed by Father Hancek, priest of that parish. The groom, Mr. Charles Janda, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Janda, and a highly respected young man, industrious, a carpenter, being employed in the Burlington coach shops at this place, and has grown to manhood in this city. The bride, Miss Marie Toman, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Antone Toman, is a young lady of many accomplishments and loved by all who know her. She, like her husband, was reared in Plattsmouth, and has many friends here. After the ceremony, which was witnessed by but the immediate relatives and a few close friends, the newly married couple repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where a delightful dinner was served for the wedding party. The young people will make their home here and have a cottage already furnished for housekeeping. The Journal joins with the many friends of both bride and groom in wishing them a pleasant and happy journey through life, with the fulfillment of their fondest desires.

Death Was on His Heels.

Jesse P. Morris, of Skippers, Va., had a close call in the spring of 1906. He says: "An attack of pneumonia left me so weak with such a fearful cough that my friends declared consumption had me, and death was on my heels. Then I was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It helped me immediately, and after taking two and a half bottles I was a well man again. I found out that New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and lung disease in all the world." Sold under guarantee at F. G. Fricke & Co. drug store. 50c and one dollar. Trial bottle free.

The Royal Arcanum.

The twelfth annual session of the grand council Royal Arcanum of Nebraska, in session at Omaha, completed its work at 5 o'clock Tuesday evening with the election of the following officers: Grand regent, B. C. Fox of Lincoln; grand vice regent, H. R. Gering of Plattsmouth; past grand regent, H. H. Compton of Cedar Rapids; grand orator, S. P. Morris of Omaha; grand chaplain, S. A. ### Return to Nebraska

A special from Broken Bow, under date of April 18, says: "Judge Silas A. Holcomb returned to this city today from Seattle, Washington, where he has been for the last two years. On retiring from his position as chief justice of the supreme court the ex-governor went west in the expectation that his health would be better there than it was here, but did not find the climate of Seattle favorable and so has returned to Nebraska. Mr. Holcomb expects to engage in the practice of law here. He is to be the senior member of the firm of Holcomb & Myers. Mr. Myers is a recent graduate of the State university and of the Harvard Law school with the class of 1907."

A Very Artistic Picture.

To the one who is an admirer of beautiful in nature or in art, it will well repay them to take a stroll up south Sixth street, until they have passed the bell tower, and then look back towards the new barn of James Sage, where they can get a glimpse of a work done by J. F. Stephens, which is indeed a work of art, well up towards the top as an imitation of nature. The scene represents a horse—the perfect image of one of Mr. Sage's horses—with a landscape background which out-rials a good photograph, inasmuch as the blending of the colors brings out the landscape and the fine points of the horse which is itself a beauty, as the photographer cannot do. Those who have not viewed the pictures will be well repaid by going up to see it.

Return Thanks.

On April 21, 1908, we had the misfortune to lose nearly everything connected with our house and place of business by fire. And we desire to return our most sincere thanks to those kind friends who came to our aid in the hour of our need, and we can assure them their kindness will remain fresh in our memories for all time to come.
