Sheriff Quinton Has a Brace of Insanity Calls On Hand

From Tuesday's Daily. Sheriff Quinton last evening was called to the home of Geo. Hild, west of the city, by telephone on account of a man who was exhibiting symptoms of insanity. When the sheriff arrived which was about 8 o'clock in the evening, he found the man lying on the steps of the house apparently suffering from a fit of some kind. He took him in charge and brought him to the city, confining him to the county jail. The man has been staying at the Hotel Plattsmouth for some ten days past. He is described as a tall, heavy-set, well made man who has piled several trades in the city and vicinity for the time he has been here. He gives his name as T. V. Bueltoen and claims he has no relatives. A search of his person revealed a certificate of admission to follow the trade of engineering in the state of Minnesota and also a letter with the signature of Louis Bueltoen who seems to be a relative. His hearing will doubtless take place shortly as an effort will be made to locate his relatives before the hearing.

Sheriff Quinton also received a telephone message this morning from the constable at Eagle, informing him that he had an insane man in his custody at that point and asking the sheriff to come out and take charge of him. Owing to the bad condition of the telephone wires the sheriff's report was rather vague and unsatisfactory, about all he was able to get being that the man was not violent and that the constable could bring him to Greenwood where the sheriff could take charge of him. He was unable to learn the unfortunate's name nor the particulars of his malady. Sheriff Quinton departed at noon on the mail train for Greenwood where he will take the man in charge bringing him down this evening and having the arrangements made for an early examination before the insanity commission.
