

THE GREATEST MONEY-SAVING SALE

ever offered to the people of Plattsmouth and Cass County, now going on at
M. Fanger's Big Department Store!

This sale comprises all the great values we have left in our enormous stock of Popular Wooltex Garments. The line is without a single exception, the Finest Ladies' Tailored Garments to be found in any city in this land. The Wooltex Garment needs no introduction to the ladies of Plattsmouth, they are the very best and everybody knows it, and we will during this sale, place them within the reach of all. Read the wonderful reduction price we are making on this beautiful line of goods. They must be sold and we will make the price that will move them.

Bargain No. 1 Children's Coats that sold for $6.00, will go at $2.98 Fancy Trimming—Velvet Cuffs and Collars.	Bargain No. 2 Children's Coats—Fancy Mixtures, all wool, former price, $9.50 TO 12.00, NOW $4.98 to $5.98	Bargain No. 3 Children's Bear Skin Coats, in red, white, blue and brown, FORMER PRICE $3.25 to $5.00, will go at $1.98 and $2.98	Bargain No. 4 One Lot of Beautiful Black and Brown Cheviot Ladies' Coats, handsomely tailored and trimmed, former price $12.50, now go at $6.98	Bargain No. 5 One lot of Ladies' loose black and brown coats, lined all through with Skinner satin and handsomely trimmed, regular price $18.50, now $10.50	Bargain No. 6 Beautiful loose fitting black Wooltex heavy broadcloth, full lined, former price $22.50, now $12.50 This is indeed a very beautiful line.
Bargain No. 7 One Lot of semi-fitting, heavy black Beaver Coat, full lined to the hips, handsomely trimmed, former price $18.00, now goes at $9.98	Bargain No. 8 One Lot of Wooltex, handsome tight fitting, heavy Cheviot Coats, one of the newest director styles—silk braid trimming, former price $19.50, now go at $12.50	Bargain No. 9 One Lot of black and brown, tight fitting coats, one of the very swellest Wooltex garments of the season, imported French broadcloth, former price $35.50, now go at $19.50	Bargain No. 10 Ladies' and Misses' Tailored Suits, in blue and brown, and fancy mixtures, will go at HALF PRICE!	Bargain No. 11 WOOLTEX DRESS SKIRTS at a great reduction. Also, Silk and Heatherblum Underskirts. All new and a Swell Line!	Bargain No. 12 One genuine imported Brown Beaver Ladies Jacket. Former Price $150.00 now $95.00 This garment is a great value.

These prices are far below first cost, and you will never get such an opportunity to buy such a garment at the price again. We are closing out the full line of winter garments, which was never greater than at the present time. Every garment is warranted, and if any lady has ever purchased a Wooltex coat that failed to give satisfaction we have failed to hear of it, although we replace any garment that is not satisfactory.

We are also offering many bargains in other lines, such as Winter Underwear, Heavy Blankets, Comforters, and all winter goods, including the Clothing Department.

M. Fanger's Department Store

Plattsmouth : : : : : Nebraska

DAILY PERSONAL NEWS

Short Items of Interest From Friday Evening's Daily Journal

Miss Mary Daual of Omaha, came down last evening for an over night's visit in the city with friends.

J. S. Rough of Nehawka, was a business visitor in the city being registered at the Hotel Perkins.

Lafe Nelson was among those traveling to Omaha this noon on the mail train, having business to attend to.

Miss Elizabeth Shea was a passenger this morning for her studies in Omaha. She is taking a course at a business college in that city.

Misses Hermia and Rosa Nevotny were passengers this morning for Omaha where they expect to spend the day visiting with friends.

Mrs. J. W. Hickson was a passenger this morning for Omaha where she will spend the day visiting with friends and doing other shopping.

Mrs. P. E. Ruffner was a passenger this morning on the early train for Omaha where she will visit with her daughter Mrs. Dr. Dodge for the day.

Mrs. Harriet Becker departed this morning on the early train for Lincoln where she will make a visit with her aunt Mrs. Cowan for several days.

Miss Catherine Dovey was a passenger this noon on the mail train for Omaha where she will make a visit with friends.

Mrs. Frank Moore and daughter Frances are spending the afternoon in Omaha having been passengers this noon on the mail train for that city.

S. S. Huntley of LaPlatte, was a passenger for home this noon on the mail train after spending several hours in the city this morning doing some trading.

Mrs. Mary Svebla was a passenger on the mail train at noon for Omaha where she will spend the day with friends and also look after some business matters.

Miss Daisy Perry and brothers Jesse and Hallie were passengers on the mail train at noon for Omaha where they go to make a visit with friends and also to attend to business matters.

Judge H. D. Travis is attending to business matters this afternoon in Omaha being a passenger on the noon train for that city.

Matthew Gering was a passenger this noon on the mail train for the north going to Omaha to attend to legal business.

Councilman J. M. Vorndran is spending the afternoon in Omaha being a passenger on the mail train at noon for that city.

Joe Svebla was a passenger this noon on the fast mail for Omaha where he goes to spend the afternoon with friends.

Carl Neuman is attending to business affairs this afternoon in Omaha being a passenger on the mail train for that city at noon.

Supt. Askwith of the Masonic Home was a passenger on the mail train at noon for Omaha where he had business matters to look after.

Mrs. Haller of Omaha, a member of the board of trustees of the Masonic Home was in the city this morning in connection with matters at the home, returning to her home in Omaha on the mail train at noon.

Fred Hedengren, superintendent of bridges and buildings for the Burlington, was a passenger for the west this noon on the mail train after inspecting the underground crossing at the foot of Main street this morning.

The condition of Mrs. Mary Grimes near Union, this afternoon is reported by telephone as very bad and it is not believed she will last but for a very short time. She suffered a very bad hemorrhage today and is in a semi-conscious state.

Mrs. J. N. Wise is reported to be lying at her rooms in the Hotel Riley quite ill. This will be greatly regretted by her many friends who unite in hoping that her illness will be of slight duration and that she will soon be herself again.

Reports from the bedside of Mrs. John Beeson in the hospital at Omaha, are to the effect that she is getting along in fine shape and that her recovery is assured. The stitches from her wound were taken last Wednesday and she has progressed famously ever since. This is mighty pleasant news to her many friends who spent several very anxious days on her account during the last few weeks. She will be brought to her home in this city within a few days it is thought.

Mrs. Dolci Karnes and Mrs. Mary Karnes were passengers this noon on the mail train for Omaha where they go to visit with relatives including Jos. Karnes who is in a hospital at that point.

Mrs. Charles Hipp and son Andrew of Lyons, Neb., who have been visiting in the city with A. Dill and family, departed this morning for their home. Mrs. Hipp is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dill. They had a very delightful time during their stay in the city and greatly regretted having to return to their homes so soon.

J. J. Lohnes came in this morning from his farm ten miles west of the city in time to catch the early train for Omaha, where he will meet his wife and bring her home this evening. Mrs. Lohnes had been staying at Omaha for some time taking medical treatment from a specialist and has shown marked improvement. Her condition had so far advanced that it was decided that she could safely return home, hence Mr. Lohnes' trip.

W. H. Newell was a passenger this morning for Cedar Creek going out to look after matters at his large stone quarries there. The past year has been a prosperous one for the firm of Newell & Atwood they having had their quarries in constant operation turning out large quantities of stone both large and crushed. There is every indication that the coming year will also be a record breaker in their line as they have an abundance of orders on hand to keep them busy.

T. W. Vallery, the lightning rod man of Murray is in the city today looking after business matters. While here he made the Journal a call and registered his wants of the new democratic legislature. Walt doesn't want much. He only demands a bounty on wheat and corn raised in Rock Bluffs precinct as the prices are going down as well as the production. He also wants a law to exterminate all fox and gray squirrels alleging that they are doing immense damage to crops.

Hatt & Osborn's restaurant is open all night, we never sleep.

DAILY PERSONAL NEWS

Short Items of Interest From Saturday Evening's Daily Journal

Glen Cline departed this noon for Omaha where he will make a visit with his mother.

George Thierolf came in this morning from Cedar Creek to attend to business affairs.

L. F. Sallee is in Omaha this afternoon looking after personal matters being a passenger for that city on the mail train.

Grant and Schuyler Hackenberg are looking after business affairs in the city today coming in from their farm in the precinct.

Ex-County Treasurer Wm. D. Wheeler came in this morning from his home in Rock Bluffs precinct, to look after business matters.

Mrs. Frances Leuchtweis departed this noon on the mail train for Omaha where she will make a visit of several days with friends and relatives.

John A. Hennings, one of the well-to-do farmers of Eight Mile Grove precinct, is spending the day in the city looking after business matters.

Jacob Meisinger is one of the good solid, farmers who drove in from his farm this morning to spend the day with the local merchants to look after business affairs.

Col. M. A. Bates, the representative of this float district came in this morning from Lincoln, resplendent in his shining tile and gold headed cane. The Colonel landed the chairmanship of the committee on printing which he went after. He feels fine and predicts that the democratic majority will acquit itself well in the legislature.

Mrs. E. M. Stephens and daughter Olive who have been visiting the city and vicinity for several days visiting with her daughter Mrs. E. M. Dickson, departed this noon on the mail train for LaPlatte where she will visit for several days after which she will visit in Omaha previous to returning to her home at Grenna. Mr. and Mrs. Stephens were united in marriage in this city thirty-one years ago and she has not been here for the last sixteen years.

Geo. Volk from west of the city is attending to business affairs in the city today coming in this morning.

Fred Guenther and his friend John Smith, are spending the day in the city having driven in from his farm this morning.

Mark White is in the city today from his home at Rock Bluffs, driving up this morning. Mrs. White accompanied him.

Col. H. C. Maken departed this noon on the mail train for Omaha where he had business matters to attend during the afternoon.

Henry Volk is one of the Volk boys who are looking after business matters in the city today, driving in during the morning.

Phillip H. Meisinger and son are among those coming in this morning from the Meisinger settlement to look after business matters.

J. A. Fisher of Greenwood, was in the city this morning looking after business matters, returning to his home this noon on the mail train.

Charles Heim, one of the solid, substantial farmers from near Louisville, is spending the day in the city, looking after business matters.

Geo. Wallinger is one of the trusty and able farmers, who are doing business with the local merchants today, coming in from his farm this morning.

Harry Horn is one of the younger men from the country west of the city who are spending the day here, attending to business matters.

John Campbell is in the city this afternoon from Rock Bluffs coming in to do some business with the local merchants.

Geo. P. Meisinger, the sterling farmer of Eight Mile Grove precinct, came in this morning to look after some business matters in the city.

P. E. Becker and wife were passengers this morning on the early train for Omaha where they will spend the day doing some shopping and visiting friends.

Glenn Vallery is spending the day in Omaha having business in the city to look after today. He drove in this morning from his home finding the weather quite an improvement over that of the last few days.

Joe Hutcheson of Fullerton, Neb., came in Thursday morning for a brief visit during the day with his aunt Mrs. C. H. Parmele, making his visit a surprise party. He departed on the Schuyler for his home Thursday afternoon.

J. H. Burnett and wife returned in the city yesterday after making a brief visit with relatives at Knoxville, Ia., and are spending a few days visiting with Jas. Sage and wife. Mr. Burnett was a passenger for Omaha this morning on the early train to look after some business matters.

I. H. Dunn came in last evening from an extended visit at Oklahama City and vicinity. Ike is not overly pleased with the country although he said portions of it were good and some mighty bad. On the whole he considers this country good enough for him. He was a passenger this morning for Omaha where he had some business matters to look after.

It was told us by a Nebraska city lawyer, who was present in the capital city on Monday, that Col. M. A. Bates was the only legislator who wears a silk hat. The Colonel is one of the most distinguished looking members and his silk tie came near launching a boom for him for speaker. The Colonel is very modest, declining anything but the chairmanship of the committee on printing, which he hopes to land.—Nehawka Register.

Mrs. Mae Morgan and little daughter Clara Mae, were passengers this morning for Omaha where they will visit with Grandpa Street at the hospital for the day. Little Miss Morgan carried a large bouquet of flowers for grandpa and is going to cheer him up. It is pleasant to note that Mr. Street is progressing very favorably and that he can soon look forward to being at home once more with his folks.

C. W. Stoehr and wife departed this morning for Lincoln where Mrs. Stoehr will enter upon a course of treatment at the sanitarium there for rheumatism. Mrs. Stoehr several years ago suffered an attack of this complaint and at that time, took treatment at the sanitarium with the result that her ailment was greatly benefited and practically cured. With the return of the disease she has determined to again take up its treatment at the same place.