Murray State Bank

Chas. H. Boedeker made a business trip to the county seat Monday. A. L. Baker and John Stones were Plattsmouth visitors last Saturday. Mrs. Walker and daughter, Mrs. Gilmore, were visitors in Plattsmouth Tuesday.

Miss Carrie Allison and Mrs. W. G. Boedeker were Nebraska City visitors Tuesday. Mrs. Berger is making preparations for an extensive visit with her daughter in Wyoming. Try a pair of our "Guaranteed to Wear One Year" rubber boots. Holmes & Smith.

J. L. Young was a passenger for Omaha Tuesday evening, returning the same night. Ox-blood, patent and Gun Metal Ox-fords for ladies and gents at Holmes & Smith's.

Johnny Klaurens, of Union, was visiting friends in Murray Tuesday night and Wednesday.

Grandpa Mast, who has passed his 79th birthday, has been feeling pretty poorly for the past week.

Mrs. A. G. Long was a passenger for Nebraska City Tuesday morning, returning on the evening train.

Miss Margie Walker was visiting in Plattsmouth last Friday and Saturday, returning home Sunday morning.

Mrs. Chas. Carroll returned home from Plattsmouth, Neb., Friday, where she had been visiting with her son, Ernest Carroll.

The farmers of this part of the county report an excellent stand of wheat. The good prospects should have some bearing on Patton.

J. B. Seybold was a passenger to South Omaha Tuesday morning, going up to be present at the sale of a car load of stock which he shipped up Monday.

Protect your property from fire, lightning and tornado by insuring with W. G. Boedeker. He writes insurance in the very best companies at a very reasonable rate.

Will Smith is building a combination wood house, chicken house, cow shed, and other departments, not necessary to mention, all under one roof. Will proposes to have everything handy about his home.

Word has been received that young Johnnie West received a very serious horsekick Monday, causing a fracture of his upper jaw and a bad gash over one eye. He lives with his mother, seven miles west of Murray. Last reports he was getting along nicely.

Does a good lecture course help our town? To be sure it does. Then let every business man in Murray help boost one for our town for next winter. If you as business men do not help it along it is sure that no one else will. Now let every one of us see that we do our part toward making this one for next winter a great success.

Nick Klaurens is engaged in removing the old store room which stood east of Mr. Edmund's residence, to that gentleman's farm, south of town, where it will be used as an addition to a tenement house on the place. A new fence has been placed around the lot made vacant by this removal, and a decided improvement thereabouts is very profitable.

W. S. Smith was an Omaha visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. A. G. Long spent Tuesday in Nebraska City.

Miss Carrie Allison was visiting in Nebraska City Tuesday.

Mrs. W. G. Boedeker was a Nebraska City visitor Tuesday.

We have a good assortment of rain coats and hats. Holmes & Smith.

Mrs. D. C. Rhoden and Mrs. J. C. Snively spent Monday with Mrs. Rhoden's brother, W. O. Troop, near Nehawka.

Mrs. J. W. Berger expects to depart for Rawlins, Wyoming, next Monday, to visit her daughter, Mrs. E. M. Stiner, formerly Miss Bee Berger.

H. L. Oldham sold 14 of his famous Durock Jersey pigs on Monday, that averaged 212 pounds and only six months old. This is a fine average.

Dr. B. F. Brendel, Don Rhoden and Will Troop went to Omaha Wednesday evening, the latter to visit his wife, who has been in one of the hospitals in Omaha for several weeks.

Mrs. John Lloyd, who has been suffering from an attack of appendicitis for several days, is much better at this writing and hope of her recovery without an operation is entertained.

Will Hamilton and his coprs of carpenters departed Monday for Coon Valley's place, where they will commence the erection of a new residence on the site where the old residence was burned some time ago.

A citizens' lecture course has been organized in Murray, with Lloyd Gagen, president; O. A. Davis, secretary; and Glenn Boedeker, treasurer. The forgoing officers meet at the residence of H. L. Oldham on Thursday evening of last week, and selected the next year's course consisting of two musical and two lectures. These gentlemen are of the hustling kind, and should have the assistance of everyone who has the interests of Murray at heart.

Mrs. W. S. Smith entertained a number of friends Thursday afternoon of last week. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather a goodly number were present and a fine time was enjoyed. An elegant 5 o'clock luncheon was served, which all present enjoyed. Those present were: Mesdames G. H. Gilmore, O. A. Davis, S. O. Pitman, Will Brown, Glenn Boedeker, James Loughridge, J. W. Holmes, Will Sporer, C. H. Spangler, Misses Carrie Allison, Pauline and Fay Oldham, Ida Boedeker and Margerie Walker.

Dr. Gilmore was called to Cedar Creek last Wednesday to see P. A. Barrett, manager of the Platte Gravel Company who was seriously injured in a runaway. He was returning from Cedar Creek with a load of supplies when the team became frightened and unmanageable. He was thrown out over the dash board and kicked into an unconscious condition by the horses. He was discovered by Grandpa Kline and was soon removed to his home. Mr. Barrett was found to have a fractured skull and an arm broken at the shoulder. He recovered consciousness eight hours after the injury.

John Porter's son, Howard, is quite sick, but is better at this writing.

Joe Campbell's five year old son is quite sick, but is improving some.

Mrs. H. L. Oldham and daughter, Fay, were in Omaha Tuesday visiting.

Mrs. A. L. Baker and Mrs. Harmon Beck were Omaha visitors Monday.

Robt. Fitch's little baby two years old is quite ill but some better at present.

Col. Seybold has a new auto and it is a dandy runabout. Hurrah for the Colonel.

Mrs. James Loughridge is on the sick list, but no serious consequences entertained.

Geo. Oldham was down from Plattsmouth Tuesday looking after his farming interests.

Misses Marjorie Walker and Pauline Oldham spent Easter Sunday in Plattsmouth with friends.

Wiley Mead, of near Union, is the happy parent of a bouncing boy baby, born on Tuesday, April 29.

Our new gloves just arrived. Thirty-five kinds. We can please you; 50c to $3.00. Holmes & Smith's.

I. S. White was a Plattsmouth visitor Thursday of this week, going up to look after repairing on his property.

Stylish, up-to-date spring hats, in green, black, brown, and gray for gents, $2.00 and $2.50. At Holmes & Smith's.

Grandma Davis, west of town, is on the sick list, and her extreme old age seems to be against her recovery, although hopes are entertained.

Wm. Rakes has a very sick 12 year old daughter afflicted with pneumonia. At this writing she is getting along as well as can be expected.

Galen and Glen Rhoden were Omaha visitors Thursday, going up to investigate the cattle market with a view of purchasing some stockers.

Dr. Jake Brendel went to Omaha Tuesday, where he accompanied Grandma Hobson, of Weeping Water to consult Dr. Gifford in reference to her eyesight, which has become greatly afflicted, and she can hardly distinguish anything.

Dr. Jake Brendel accompanied Mrs. Tyler Shepherdson to the St. Joseph hospital at Omaha Tuesday last, where she will remain until it has been fully determined her ailment, and whether or not an operation will be necessary.

Quite Seriously Injured.

While Jeff Brendel was coming to Murray from his home near here Tuesday morning, his horse stumbled and fell, rolling over on him. At first Jeff did not think he was much hurt, and came on to town where his injuries were attended to by his father, Dr. B. F. Brendel, and by his brother, R. Jake. Upon examination, it was discovered that his right shoulder and was considerably bruised and the ligaments of the arm considerably torn. His lower right limb was also bruised to some extent. Mr. Brendel suffers considerable pain, and while no serious results are apprehended, it is very unfortunate from the fact that he will be kept from doing much farm work for a while. He is carrying the injured member in a sling.

Almost a Dead Nigger.

Tuesday afternoon the handcar of the Union Section came in bearing what appeared to be the lifeless body of a dead negro. The section foreman received word from one of the engineers passing south that he was to take charge of the body of a dead man in the cut two miles south of Murray. The negro was taken into the depot and every means used to resuscitate him. His clothes were almost entirely torn from his body, and there was a gash back of the left ear. About one hour before the evening train passed going to Omaha he was able to move around, and the good people of Murray fixed up his clothing and bought him a ticket for that city, where he claimed he had friends.

The negro seemed to be "batty" said he was knocked off a train from the rear end of a baggage car, while several citizens contend that he passed through Murray on foot Monday. He had evidently laid on the side of the track all night and part of the day before, as he was almost gone when picked up. No information could be gained from him, and the only place he could mention was Omaha and Gregory, S. D.

Frank Oliver came down from Havelock to spend Sunday with his parents.

Wm. Loughridge, who has been quite poorly for the past six weeks, is improving slowly.

Miss Elizabeth Oliver returned to Peru Monday after a few days visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Will Oliver.

Obituary.

Margaret Ethel Parr, youngest daughter of Jacob and Amanda C. Parr, was born near Big Springs, Boone County, Ind., Feb. 28, 1875. She was united in marriage to Wm. H. Nicholson, November 24, 1893. To this union came three daughters, Helen Waunetti, who died May 27, 1908, at the age of four years, Thelma, aged 3 and baby Margaret Lucile, whose birth preceded the mother's death only one short week.

She died at her home near Sheridan March 31, 1909.

In early womanhood she united with the Methodist church at Big Springs, of which she remained a faithful worker until the end. The loving care of husband, relatives and friends during her brief but intense suffering, tell more forcibly than words of the esteem in which she was held as wife, mother, friend and neighbor.

Her beautiful death was clearly the outcome of a beautiful life and those who stood by the bedside waiting for the change which they knew must soon come, can never forget the scene as she seemed to step from this to the other side and greet in loving embrace the darling Wauneta who waiting to welcome her.

She leaves to mourn her absence, an aged mother, husband, two children, three brothers and five sisters, and many relatives and friends.

William David Parr of Kokomo, Ind., cousin of the deceased, preached the sermon. The pall bearers were her sisters and sister-in-law, Mrs. B. F. Brendel, Mrs. T. L. Johns, Mrs. J. W. Shelby, Mrs. A. L. Baker, Mrs. Ed. Price, Mrs. Lizzie Bishop

Maple Grove.

Laura Puls spent Saturday and Sunday at Plattsmouth, the guest of Miss Rosa Engelkemeler.

John West met with a severe and painful accident last Thursday. A horse kicked him right above the eye. He is improving at this writing.

John Urish made a business trip to Murray Saturday.

R. C. Bailey made a trip to Plattsmouth Saturday, after a load of telephone poles. He will have a phone installed in the near future.

W. H. Puls and family spent Sunday at the home of Alfred Gansmer. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stroher, near Louisville, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Louie Puls.

August Engelkemeler and wife spent Sunday with her folks near Cedar Creek, Mr and Mrs. John Albert.

Quite a number of relatives ate Sunday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Philpot.

Mrs. Colbert, of Elmwood, spent this week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harmon Beck.

Will and Otto Puls made a business trip to Plattsmouth Tuesday. Leo Gregory is shelling corn in this locality.
