

STRANGE DOIN'S IN TOWN.

Police Court Has Visitors—One Man Has Bugs.

Yestere'en was more or less busy for the Toros. First and foremost came our old acquaintance, Irwin Atterberry, or Atterbury, as the case might be.

But Irwin was not all. One C. C. Gentry, whose occupation in life was given as advance agent for one of those at rations which represent life by moving pictures, also filled upon the uow of the fountain of Bacchus and waxed fullern a goat and went his way butting about the highways and the byways and the lanes and the alleys of the city, until the god of slumber touched down his eyelids and he sank into repose beneath a spreading oak near the corner of Sixth and Vine street.

Yet, one more unfortunate was about and upon the highways yestere'en. Who he was and whence he came is not known yet; surely he was what the poet has preached as n-u-t-z. Wending his way down the main thoroughfare of the city he performed sundry and several miracles, one of which well nigh dethroned the reason of a young woman who was leading a small child up the boulevard.

of bugs, possibly superinduced by John Barleycorn. Howsomever, it will remain a mystery.

Council Has Session.

The city council met last night in session, postponed from Monday night, and transacted quite a little business, although much oratory served to prolong the session.

The report of the treasurer showed that there was a little in excess of $9,000 in the treasury, collections for the month being good. The clerk reported having collected $64 while Police Judge Archer reported, as heretofore printed in the Journal, the sum of $6.81 being paid into the treasury.

The finance committee reported in favor of paying the following claims and on motion warrants were ordered drawn in favor of the same: Ed. Long, labor, $14.00; S. Archer, labor, 7.35; George Verhule, labor, 4.03; W. Rishel, sprinkling, 30.00; Nebraska Lgt. Co., light, 1.55; C. G. Fricke, expense, 1.00; W. H. Scott, labor, 18.00; C. Boetal, labor, 7.00; W. Carter, labor, 19.25; J. P. Cook & Co., dog tags, 1.65; James Donnelly, salary, 3.00; Olive Jones, salary, 25.00; Public Library, expense, .50; Nebraska Lgt. Co., light, 3.00; M. Archer, salary, 30.00; Henry Trout, salary, 15.00; Ben Rainey, salary, 50.00; J. Harkins, labor, 14.00.

The finance committee also reported the following claims to the claims committee for investigation: Cass Co., boarding prisoners, $29.40; Cass Co., boarding prisoners, 41.45; Sam Smith, hauling, 1.50; F. M. Richey, lumber, 142.30; Sam Smith, burying dog, .50; Plattsmouth W. Co., water, 15.00; McMaken & Son, sidewalk, 52.80.

The judiciary committee recommended paying the claim of the Plattsmouth Water company for water rent amounting to $4,512, but the recommendation was rejected by a tie vote, Mayor Sattler voting nay.

The ordinances prohibiting the throwing of trash in creeks and prohibiting the distribution of patent medicines about the city were read a first time and laid over to next meeting. The proposition to raise the salary of the chief of police to $60 per month was knocked out on an opinion of the city attorney, who held this would contravene the statutes.

In Monday's issue we gave a brief sketch of the life of our pioneer citizen and friend, Perry Gass—yesterday he was followed to his last long resting place by many who had known and esteemed his life, and who wished to pay this last tribute of friendship and love to the departed.
