

DAILY PERSONAL NEWS

Short Items of Interest From Friday Evening's Daily Journal

Mrs. Byron Clark is spending the day in Omaha.

Mrs. J. E. Brandon is spending the day in Omaha.

Henry Donat was a passenger for Omaha this morning on No. 15.

J. M. Robertson is looking after business matters in the metropolis today.

Joe Absalow, wife and children departed this morning for Ord, this state.

Joe Dickson and Mrs. Dickson went to Gretna this morning to visit till after Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Stringer and son were passengers for Omaha this morning.

Alta Rogers and Bessie Godway were passengers for Louisville yesterday afternoon.

Miss Nolte, who has been visiting in the city, returned to her home in Chicago this morning.

Attorney William Deles Dernier of Elmwood, came in last night to attend a session of district court.

Mrs. Peter Turn went to Omaha today to visit and consult a specialist regarding her eyes.

H. Thierolf returned to Cedar Creek yesterday, after attending to business matters in the city.

Mrs. John Hainker was a passenger for Rosaline, Neb., this morning, where she goes to visit relatives.

H. A. Melsinger and bride returned to their home at Cedar Creek yesterday afternoon, after spending the day in this city.

Mrs. L. Rusterholtz and daughter Miss Maude, from west of Murray, left this morning for Shea, Neb., to visit during the holidays.

Mrs. J. B. Higley departed this morning for Council Bluffs, where she will visit with the family of her son-in-law, Grant Cotner.

Perry Marsh and Mrs. Marsh departed this morning for Afton, Ia., where they will visit during the holidays.

The family of John Brady is entertaining Mr. Brady's daughter, Mrs. J. W. Cox from Greenfield, Ia., during Christmas.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. G. L. Farley. Mrs. Farley will be assisted by Mrs. Hanks.

Mrs. J. E. Douglas and daughters Misses Vesta and Marie, took the train this morning for Maryville, Mo., where they go to visit relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cotner and children left this morning for Blue Hill, Nebraska, where they go to visit Mr. Cotner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Cotner.

Miss Elizabeth Falter, who is teaching in S. W. B. college at Bolivar, Mo., is expected home today to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Falter.

Harry Davis, local manager for the Bell Telephone company, departed on the Missouri Pacific this morning, going to Weeping Water on business.

Mrs. W. S. Britton and sister, Miss Maude Gray, departed this morning for Hamburg, Iowa, where they go to visit their parents during the holidays.

Miss Myrtle Tobey, who has been acting as demonstrator for the Singer Sewing Machine company in this city, departed for Lincoln yesterday afternoon.

The population of Plattsmouth received an addition last night by the arrival of a new girl baby at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Johnson. All their friends will be delighted to hear of this splendid Christmas present.

A full line of rockers and rugs at Jackson's.

Allen Land, from near Mynard, was in the city yesterday evening.

George Sayles was in Cedar Creek yesterday taking in grain for the Duff Grain Co.

Charles Jean, one of the substantial farmers of the precinct, was visiting in the city today.

William J. Wenegarten departed this afternoon for Aurora, Neb., where he will spend Christmas with his parents.

Charles Peterson, of the Burlington shops at Havelock, will arrive in the city tonight to spend Christmas with home folks.

A. B. Fornoff, from near Cullom, was a business visitor in the city today, and while here called at the Journal office and renewed for his paper.

George Lohnes, from near Cedar Creek, was a business visitor in the city today.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Schultz will leave tonight for a visit with relatives in Missouri Valley, Ia.

Mr. and Mrs. John Meier of Havelock, are in the city to spend Christmas with their parents.

Miss Pattle Metzger, of near Cedar Creek, is in the city today visiting with Plattsmouth friends.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Peterson, son Edgar and daughter Mary, left this morning for Allen, Neb., where they go to visit their daughter, Mrs. J. L. Mayfield.

Peter Kell, from the vicinity of Cedar Creek, was calling on our merchants today, coming down on the Schuyler train.

B. A. Rosencrans, now employed in Lincoln, will arrive tonight to spend Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rosencrans.

Adam Fornoff, of near Cullom, was in the city today. Mr. Fornoff is one of the pioneers of the section, and the Plattsmouth people are always glad to see him.

Thomas Salmon and Mrs. Salmon of this city leave tonight for Princeton, Ill., where they will visit with Mr. Salmon's parents during the holidays.

Jake Fornoff, from near Cullom, was in the city today, and while here made the Journal office a brief call, renewing for a copy of the paper that goes to George Miller, in Tuttle, Okla.

George Hill, from near Mynard, was in the city today making a few purchases for old Santa, who is expected to make his annual visit at their home tonight.

Perry Coffman, who has been making his home down near Auburn and Falls City for the past four months, is in Plattsmouth for a holiday visit with friends and relatives.

John Dutton and wife and two children of Lincoln, will arrive in the city today to spend Christmas at the old home, being guests with her parents at the home of Mrs. Dutton's mother, Mrs. McElwain.

Mrs. W. L. Austin went to Lincoln this morning to meet her daughter, Mrs. Edna Cramer, who is coming from her home in Red Cloud to spend the holidays with her parents.

Mrs. F. W. Ebinger, son William and Freddie Weidman, of Plainview, arrived in the city today to spend Christmas with home folks. They of course will be guests under the parental roof at the Weidman home, with mother, sisters and brothers.

Miss Carrie Greenwald departed today for her old home at Falls City, to spend Christmas with her parents. Miss Greenwald has been a very busy lady at her studio on north Sixth street for the past three weeks, and she thinks she is justified in taking a few days recreation.

Mrs. M. J. Tyler went to Omaha on the fast mail.

C. A. Bergren was a passenger for Omaha this afternoon.

Max Adams made a trip to Omaha this afternoon on No. 23.

Charles Reinhart, from near Cullom, was a visitor in the city today.

H. A. Schneider was a passenger for Omaha on the fast mail this afternoon.

Gus Olson, the enterprising photographer, made a brief business trip to Omaha today.

Mrs. J. F. Kohoutek and baby were passengers for Omaha on the afternoon train.

Mrs. Adda VanAuden and Miss Tilly Woolfarth went up to Omaha this afternoon to see Santa Claus.

John Boetel and family of Omaha, came down today for the holiday visit with friends and relatives at the old home.

Miss June Baldwin of Denver, Mo., will spend the holidays in Plattsmouth with her sister, Mrs. E. W. Moreland.

Miss Pearl O'Neill who has been visiting the family of J. E. Newcomer at Waco, Neb., returned home last evening.

Henry Horn, one of the prosperous farmers of Cass county, was in the city today looking after some Christmas goods.

Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Klugey of Clarinda, Ia., came in this afternoon with the former's brother, Fred Klugey, for a brief visit.

Louie Lahoda of Lincoln, cigar maker in the factory of Julius Pepperburg is in the city to spend Christmas with home folks.

Judge H. D. Travis went to Omaha this afternoon to see his brother, Isaac Travis, who has been ill for some time past in that city.

Mrs. R. E. Foster and sister, Miss Esther Larson, will come up from Union this evening to spend Christmas with L. G. Larson and family.

A. W. Karnes and son of Lawrence, Kansas, arrived in the city last evening for a holiday visit with his brother, L. H. Karnes and family.

Mrs. M. W. Thomas and daughter Marguerite, were passengers this afternoon for Council Bluffs, where they will visit Mrs. Thomas' brother, Will Fisher.

The dancing club will enjoy an evening at the German Turner Hall tomorrow night. Music by the M. W. A. orchestra and dancing will be the order of the evening.

George Ballance departed this afternoon for Lincoln where he will spend Christmas. He will also visit Havelock, where his family have been visiting for several days.

A slight accident occurred yesterday in the Burlington boiler shops, one of the pipes exploding and scattering the steam. Richard Maybee was slightly burned and will be off duty for a few days.

Rev. D. A. Youty and family, formerly residents of this city for several years, while Mr. Youty was minister of the Christian church, came in last night on No. 2 to spend the Christmas season with old-time friends.

Fred Croak, who has been making his home in Mills county, near Mplvern, Iowa, for the past four years, is in Plattsmouth today to spend a portion of the holidays with friends and relatives at the old home.

Johnny Fitzpatrick came down from South Omaha this morning to spend Christmas with Plattsmouth friends. Johnny used to be familiar figure around this city, having been on the police force for many years. His friends are legion here.

Jake Lohnes from near Louisville, was in the city today visiting old friends. It will be remembered by many of the older residents that Mr. Lohnes served on the police force here about twenty years ago, and of course, has hosts of friends who are always glad to see him.

Ed. Rynott of Omaha, arrived in the city last evening to visit over Christmas. Mrs. Rynott has been at home for the past few days visiting with her parents. Mr. Rynott says he is well pleased with his new position with the Goodrich Drug company.

Bargains in Real Estate.

I have genuine bargains in real estate located in Brown, Rock and other counties in northern Nebraska which I will sell cheap or trade for income property or merchandise. I can do better for you than you can do yourself, this I guarantee. Parties wanting to take advantage of these bargains can find me at the Frank O'Neill place or phone Plattsmouth, White 207.

R. G. LELAND.

Sells His Wheat Crop.

Louie Horn, one of the best farmers in Cass county, and a staunch friend of the Journal, was in the city today making settlement for 700 bushels of mighty fine wheat that he had just finished delivering to the Duff Grain Co.

WEDDING NEAR WEEPING WATER

Miss Louise Heebner and Mr. Lewis Lorenson United in Wedlock

A very pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Heebner last Wednesday evening, their daughter Louise to Mr. Lewis Lorenson.

Before the entrance of the bride and groom, Miss Audrey Hermon sang very sweetly the solo, "I love you truly."

Then the strains of the Lorehenzin wedding march, rendered very nicely by Miss Mae Bogard, while the bride and groom marched down the stairs and took their places beneath the beautiful arch of smilax, carnations and fern leaves from which a large white wedding bell hung. Rev. J. C. Street of the M. E. church of Weeping Water officiated in the beautiful ceremonies.

After the congratulations a number of the friends sang some very appropriate songs for the occasion while Miss Ellenora Lorenson presided at the punch bowl.

A very beautiful luncheon was served, the color scheme in the dining room was very prettily draped in white and green streamers of crepe paper with white and green bells suspended over the table, a bouquet of carnations and a wreath of smilax completed the decorations.

The bride was beautifully dressed in a handsome gown of white silk and carried a bouquet of white and pink bride's roses. The groom wore the conventional black.—Weeping Water Republican.

First State Convention.

Under the heading of "Bits of Nebraska History," the Lincoln News publishes the following: "The Democratic state convention met at Plattsmouth, September 10, 1870, and nominated the following ticket: For governor, John H. Croxton; secretary of state, Paren England; treasurer, Jacob Vallery, Sr., superintendent of public instruction, A. T. Conkling; prison inspector, Richard Brown; attorney general, W. H. Munger; congressman, G. B. Lake. It declared in favor of a constitutional convention to revise the fundamental law of the state."

Announce Engagement.

From Friday's Daily.

Yesterday's Omaha Bee contains an announcement of the engagement of Miss Norma Stanford, of Nebraska City, to Hugh Robb of Wyoming, Neb. Mr. Robb is a popular and wealthy young farmer, who has hosts of friends over the county, especially in this city where he has been a frequent visitor. The wedding is planned to take place during the approaching holidays.

Has Proved Worthy.

The county commissioners last Tuesday wisely re-appointed Tom Svoboda to the position as janitor of the court house. Tom has proved faithful to the trust reposed in him and truly deserved the place. He is a fine young man and the county officials are highly delighted in his re-appointment.

Wedded at Louisville.

Hans Schroeder and Miss Olga Kell, both of Cedar Creek, were united in marriage at the M. E. church in this city Wednesday evening. Rev. Jones performing the ceremony. The young couple are both well known in the vicinity of Cedar Creek, and their many friends wish them a long and happy married life.—Louisville Courier.

PROBATE NOTICE.

State of Nebraska ) ss. County court, County of Cass )

In the matter of the estate of J. Glen Royal, deceased. To all persons interested:—

You are hereby notified that a petition has been filed in this court praying that letters of administration be issued to Harry Royal upon the estate of J. Glen Royal, deceased, and that a hearing will be had upon said petition on the 11th day of January, A. D. 1910, at 1 o'clock a. m. in my office in the City of Plattsmouth, State of Nebraska, before which hour all objections thereto must be filed.

Witness my hand and official seal this 20th day of December, A. D. 1909.

ALLEN J. BEESON,
County Judge.

WILLIAM C. RAMSEY,
Attorney.

LEGAL NOTICE.

Pursuant to an order of service by publication made by the judge of the district court of Cass county, Nebraska, at chambers of the 14th day of December 1909, Frederick Conn, defendant, will take notice that on the 14th day of September, 1909, Mabel Conn, plaintiff, herein, filed her petition in the district court of Cass county, Nebraska, against said defendant, the object and prayer of which is to obtain a decree of divorce from the defendant upon the ground of cruelty, habitual drunkenness and non-support, and for the custody of two infant children, the issue of said marriage as appears from the petition filed in said cause.

You are required to answer said petition on or before the 7th day of February, 1910. Dated this 16th day of December, 1909.

Mabel Conn, plaintiff, by,
MATTHEW GEBING,
Her Attorney.

41-12-16-09

Nothing exciting about our position to you—it's simply a plain statement of the fact that you'll find in this store good clothes; tailored as they ought to be. They're safe clothes to buy, guaranteed by the maker and this store.

Hart, Schaffner & Marx

The Home of Hart, Schaffner & Marx Clothes Stetson Hats
Manhattan Shirts

Falter & Thierolf
GIVE GIVING CLOTHES

Xmas is Over

New for 1910

DEATH OF OLD RESIDENT

Washington Smith Passes Away at the Home of his Daughter in Central City, Neb.

Died—Smith, Washington, at Central City, Neb., on December 27, 1909. Funeral will be held in this city on Wednesday morning, December 29, 1909, at 10 o'clock. Interment will be made at Oak Hill cemetery.

The announcement is made today of the death of Washington Smith, for many years a resident of this city and one of its best known and most highly respected citizens. He was foreman of the coach building department of the local B & M. shops for many years, having come here in 1870 and made his home here until about a year ago.

The deceased was born in New York city, July 31, 1836, making him 73 years of age at the time of his death. He had been ailing for some time past although it was not supposed by his friends here that his condition was critical. His death comes as a great shock to the many friends who knew him in this city and elsewhere.

A sketch of the life of this worthy and upright man will appear in the Journal tomorrow when the sorrowing relatives will be in the city. The remains will be brought to this city tomorrow evening on the Burlington train due here at 5 o'clock p. m., and the funeral services will be held Wednesday morning. More definite announcements to be made later.

Christmas Ball.

The Christmas ball given by the Turner's Dancing club, at their hall on last Saturday evening, was a very pleasant occasion, and the merry makers present seemed to have one of the most joyous times of the glad holiday season. The music was furnished by the popular M. W. A. orchestra, which was up to the usual high standard of that excellent musical organization. The regular class were all in attendance, and the out-of-town guests were Wayne and Clyde Murphy of Omaha, and Miss Josephine Johnson, of Lincoln.

In Montana to Buy Land.

G. H. Wood and Emmons Richey left the latter part of last week for Montana, where Mr. Richey goes to look at a tract of land with the object of purchasing it if it is found as represented. His brother, C. A. Richey, recently returned from a trip to the northwest and was most favorably impressed with the country, and took an option on the tract his brother now goes to look over before they close the deal. It is located in the Milk river valley.—Louisville Courier.

H. R. Neitzel, of the Bank of Murdock, is looking after business matters in this city today.

Early Winter Excursion Rates

TO CHICAGO:—The National Farm Land Congress and United States Land and Irrigation Exposition, also The Great International Live Stock Exposition—the most wonderful exhibition of farm products ever held in this country. Students of modern farming methods and of improved grades of live stock should attend; rates open to the public.

Tickets sold November 15th, 19th, 28th, 29th, 30th, December 6th and 7th, final limit December 13th.

TO OMAHA:—National Corn Exposition, December 16th to 18th, new Exposition in character and scope. The future benefits of this Exposition should mean increased wealth to every farm.

WINTER TOURIST RATES:—Daily from November 1st, to Southern and Cuban resorts. See the New South and enjoy its winter climate, the hospitality of its people and the luxury of its grand hotels.

TO THE PACIFIC COAST:—The usual winter tourist rates to California with return via Puget Sound.

HOMESEEKERS EXCURSION:—First and third Tuesdays to the south and west during November and December.

W. L. PICKETT, Ticket Agent.
L. W. WAKELEY, G. P. A., Omaha.

Burlington Route

PERKINS HOTEL

GUTHMAN & CORY, Proprietors

Plattsmouth, Nebraska

RATES $1.00 PER DAY

We Solicit the Farmers' Trade and Guarantee Satisfaction.

WHEN IN THE CITY GIVE US A CALL

The Perkins Hotel