

PATRONIZE HOME INDUSTRIES IS TO BUILD UP PLATTSMOUTH

Commercial Club Makes a Good Move by Urging Citizens to Use Plattsmouth Made Goods Whenever Possible.

The meeting of the commercial club last evening at Coates' hall was better attended than usual, there being some fifty members present. The expected meeting with Dr. Todd of Omaha did not take place, he failing to show up although officers of the organization had tried to get in touch with him all day.

The principal business of the session was that of discussing the best method of booming home made cigars, John Nemetz being the leader in advocating this. It was urged that a petition should be circulated asking users of cigars to use Plattsmouth made goods wherever possible and asking the merchants to patronize the local factories.

The discussion developed that everyone present favored this and a committee headed by John Nemetz was selected to handle the matter and secure such action by the local merchants and users as they could. In connection with this John Bajek of the firm of Ptak & Bajek who urged upon the meeting the advantage which it was to Plattsmouth to use local cigars and he expressed the belief that the increased patronage resulted from the more extended use of local cigars would lead employment to at least ten more cigar makers. He also expressed the belief that not more than one half of all the cigars used in the city were home manufacture.

Another important matter up before the club was the improvement of the ferry road. This matter was up last fall and nothing tangible came of it so that there was no trade over the ice from Iowa this winter. It is proposed now to get it in shape for next spring and summer. James Ault was reported as circulating a petition to the county commissioners to improve the road.

A committee which had charge of the coasting carnival reported that they had expended all money in their hands save 7.35, which was turned into the club funds. No statement of how the money was spent accompanied the report for publication.

The club also decided to advertise the resources of the city one year in a magazine which is devoted to town building believing that it would result in good for the town and its people. Messrs. George L. Farley and C. W. Baylor were added to the advertising committee which now consists of A. L. Tidd as chairman with Messrs. E. A. Wurl, Phillip Thierolf, G. L. Farley and C. W. Baylor as members.

It was also decided to have a committee from the club make a visit to the Burlington shops and see the condition of matters there since the accession of the present officials.

The slogan "See Plattsmouth Succeed" was reported to the club from the committee of the directors and enthusiastically received. It was decided to urge the use of the slogan in every conceivable way by the merchants, business men and citizens generally. The suggestions of the Journal in last night's issue were all repeated by members present.

A number of business men agreed to give special prizes for the parties selling the greatest number of slogan buttons, among them being a cash prize of $5 by George Blackston Irving the lecturer to defray the expenses of whose lecture the buttons are being sold. A number of the prizes offered are excellent and well worth striving for. The award will be made by the president, secretary and treasurer of the club.

It was decided to change the night of the club meeting so as not to conflict with the meeting of several large lodges in the city and it was decided to meet hereafter on the third Thursday night in each month. The meetings will commence promptly at eight o'clock even if there is only the president and secretary there.

This constituted the bulk of the business done after which the meeting adjourned. In connection with the club affairs it has been suggested that it would be well to have a statement showing how the money collected by the club had been spent and who received it. It is understood a number of the members and officers of the club favor this idea and it doubtless will be done shortly.

The old directors were re-elected for another year, their names being reported to the club for ratification which was done.

SMOKE ONLY HOME MADE CIGARS

Help Build Up One of the Leading Industries of the City.

In the report of the meeting of the commercial club appears a statement regarding the appointment of a committee to see the cigar users and the merchants who sell them, and try and obtain assurances of support for the local factories. The committee headed by John Nemetz, a hustling merchant, got busy this morning and were on the street early in the interest of Plattsmouth cigars for Plattsmouth people. They report being highly encouraged by the results of their work as far as they had gone and feel confident that everyone in the city who smokes tobacco, will become an enthusiastic advocate of the local cigars.

This is as it should be. The cigar industry in this city is next to the Burlington shops, the largest in town. This is what the Journal believes and it believes the figures would bear out its statement. That it can be made much larger is certain and it is due to everyone for himself to encourage the increase of the factories. They employ the best type of workmen, men who command good wages and who are thrifty and provident to a degree. Every shop in this city is a union shop and their goods all bear the blue label. This is a guarantee of the highest class of goods not alone in workmanship but in stock and no imported cigar exceeds the local in excellence. In fact, go where you will you will find no equal to the Plattsmouth made cigar for the money.

It is to be hoped that Mr. Nemetz and his committee find encouragement in their mission and that we can soon record a large increase in the workmen employed in this industry here. Plattsmouth not alone should smoke Plattsmouth cigars but they should make their excellent qualities acquainted abroad so that they may sell in all parts of the country. The way to make Plattsmouth succeed is to use Plattsmouth made goods and the Journal rises to suggest an emblem for everything made here. "Made in Plattsmouth, Neb." would look good.

THE FUNERAL OF SAMUEL BARKER

The Funeral Sermon Preached by Rev. W. O. Harell and Interment Made at Eight Mile Grove Cemetery.

The funeral of the late Samuel Barker which was to have been held on Tuesday, January 4, 1910, was postponed until the following day on account of the heavy storm which raged on the date originally set.

When Wednesday dawned it was found to be one of the coldest days of the winter and it was decided to hold the funeral from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Wm. Wetenkamp instead of from the Eight Mile Grove church as originally intended.

In the house where he had breathed his last and entered into the long sleep, there was assembled a large number of friends gathered to pay a last tribute to the sterling worth of this most excellent and respected citizen. His large family of children were all present at the obsequies save two who were unable to attend.

The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. W. O. Harell, pastor of the Methodist church at Mynard and Eight Mile Grove who had attended the deceased during the last illness, and it was an eloquent and worthy tribute of praise to his many rare qualities. The testimony of the pastor was that the peace which came to the deceased during his final illness was born of his faith in Christ and that he went to rest secure in his hope of a blessed awakening.

Following the services at the house the body was laid to rest in the Eight Mile Grove cemetery, a large number of sorrowing friends forming a cortege to the grave despite the severe weather.

In their loss of a most kind and loving father the sorrowing children have the sweet consolation of knowing that the sympathy of a wide circle of friends is theirs and that their bereavement is felt as that of each of all who had known this good man in his lifetime.

Emil Palmer, well known in this city and one of Louisville's good citizens, is spending today in the city, having come down this morning from his home at Louisville.

AVOID HARSH DRUGS

Many Cathartics Tend to Cause Injury to the Bowels. If you are subject to constipation, you should avoid strong drugs and cathartics. They only give temporary relief and their reaction is harmful and sometimes more annoying than constipation. They in no way effect a cure and their tendency is to weaken the already weak organs with which they come in contact.

We honestly believe that we have the best constipation treatment ever devised. Our faith in it is so strong that we sell it on the positive guarantee that it shall not cost the user a cent if it does not give entire satisfaction and completely remedy constipation. This preparation is called Rexall Orderlies. These are prompt, soothing and most effective in action. They are made of a recent chemical discovery. Their principal ingredient is odorless, tasteless and colorless. Combined with other well known ingredients, long established for their usefulness in the treatment of constipation, it forms a tablet which is eaten just like candy. They may be taken at any time, either day or night, without fear of their causing any inconvenience whatever. They do not gripe, purge nor cause nausea. They act without looseness of the bowels. They are ideal for children, weak, delicate persons and aged people as well as for the most hearty person.

They come in two size packages, 12 tablets 10 cents, 36 tablets 25 cents. Remember you can obtain them only at our store,—The Rexall Store, F. F. Fricke & Co., Union block.

AFTER THE GRIPPE Vinol Restored This Man's Strength

"Several years ago I was attacked by a severe case of grippe, which left me with a hacking cough, soreness in my chest, and bronchitis. I took nearly every kind of cough syrup sold on the market, besides medicine given me by physicians.

I received no permanent relief until my druggist asked me to try Vinol, and after taking three bottles I was entirely cured.

I believe Vinol to be the greatest blessing ever offered to the public, as it does what is claimed for it." R. E. R. Hicks, Maplesville, Ala.

The reason Vinol cures chronic coughs, colds and pulmonary troubles is because it contains tonic iron and all the healing and body building elements of cod liver oil but no oil.

Vinol is also unexcelled as a strength builder for old people, delicate children, weak and run-down persons, and after sickness.

GERING & CO. Druggist

Wed at Nebraska City. Fred Rubge, aged 26 and Miss Rosa Teide, both of Berlin, came to the city yesterday afternoon and tried to secure a marriage license from John C. Miller, clerk of the county court, assuring Mr. Miller that the father of the girl, Henry Teide had consented to the marriage. Mr. Miller was not satisfied and besides he wanted the consent in writing, so he located the father at a sale in that precinct, via phone, and he would not at first believe that the daughter was away from home. He would not consent. The girl was called to the phone and talked to the father some time, but they reached no agreement. The father asked Mr. Miller to hold the couple until he could come to the city, but was referred to Sheriff Fisher, as Mr. Miller had no license at law, to hold them. While the father was securing the sheriff the couple left the court house and went to the depot saying they were going back home. At the depot they boarded the freight train and it pulled out for Auburn just before Deputy Fisher reached the station. The officers at Auburn were asked to hold the couple which they did. The father went down there last night, secured the daughter and took her home and refused to prosecute the young man. The couple vow they will get married yet and will in some way outwit the girl's father. Both are well known young people of that precinct and have been keeping company for some time.—Nebraska City News.

Well Satisfied. J. P. Marling, connected with the Woods Bros. Live Stock commission company of South Omaha, who has been visiting for a couple of days in the city with Benton Kinkead, departed this morning for his home. It is forty-one years since the two gentlemen met and Mr. Marling came in quite unexpectedly to meet his old friend. Quite to his surprise he found that the long lapse of time had not impaired Mr. Kinkead's excellent memory of names and faces and he was recognized at once. The two had a very pleasant visit over old times and Mr. Marling departed this morning more than satisfied with the result of his trip.

Pleasant Caller. Louis Leiner, one of the most popular farmers living near the city came in yesterday afternoon to look after business matters and to meet with his many good friends. Mr. Leiner recently came in and renewed his subscription to the Journal which is his old standby and without it, he would not feel at home. Louis is hoping for the cold weather to hurry past so that he can get into his fields and plant a new crop for the coming year.

A MOST PLEASANT OCCASION

Friends Assist G. B. Gould and Wife to Celebrate Their Fifth Wedding Anniversary

Yesterday was the fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Gould and their friends to the number of a dozen remembered them on the occasion with a surprise party at their rooms in the Hotel Riley. The party assembled at the Hotel, practically all the members being residents of the hostelry, and descended upon the rooms of Mr. and Mrs. Gould in a body taking these excellent people quite by surprise although they quickly recovered and proceeded to make the guests at home. Tables were provided and the evening was most pleasantly spent in progressive dominoes, a large bouquet of orange blossoms and ferns being provided for the winner of the games. Frank Gobelman proved to be the best player and carried off the emblem of superiority.

Following this refreshments were served in the dining hall of the hotel which had been handsomely decorated for the occasion. The colors chosen were orange and green, the table decorations consisting of orange blossoms and ferns making a strikingly beautiful effect. The table was handsome in hand-painted china and cut glass galore from which the refreshments were served. It was a late hour before the pleasant gathering came to an end and the happy guests retired to their rooms. The assemblage presented Mrs. Gould with a handsome chair of Mission style oak, a present emblematic of the wooden wedding and something much appreciated.

The guests included Misses Pearl Nichols, Genevieve Howard, Mae Patterson, Genevieve Shafer of David City, Neb., Blanche Horning, Mrs. L. E. Schaulis, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gobelman, Messrs. Robert, Hayes, George B. Mann, and Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Gould.

Park Chriswisser from near Murray, came in this morning to attend to some business matters and visit with his parents. He reports that the sale which Charles Chriswisser held last Monday was a very good one and that he is pleased with the result. The things sold all brought good prices and the people who purchased them, especially those who invested in the stock and horses were well pleased with the high grade animals they secured.
