Don't fail to read the big ad of Holmes & Smith in this issue of the Journal. Note the great reduction they are making to close out the goods at the great clearance sale, You will save money by purchasing during this sale, many articles you need, and may not have the opportunity to purchase for some time.

A little excitement was created Tuesday by D. C. Rhoden's dray team taking a little spin from the depot to the elevator. The team was left standing, when they took a notion to stand no longer. A slightly disfigured dray, some broken harness, the knocking down of a telephone pole and the stringing of a few wires was all the damage done. Don takes the misfortune good-naturately.

The Larkin's club was entertained by Mrs. Heebner near Weeping Water on Thursday afternoon, and a bobsled load from Murray attended. Mrs. A. L.
