ORA E. COPES the Druggist

In Honor of Mrs. Barker.

The pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Leyda was the scene of a most delightful occasion yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Leyda entertained a few of her lady friends in honor of Mrs. Ed. Barker of Plainview, Neb., who is visiting relatives and friends in the city. For the occasion the charming rooms of the Leyda home had been attractively decorated in green and white and every effort made to insure the guests of a fine time.

The afternoon was most pleasantly spent in social conversation, music, various amusements and the like, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. At an appropriate hour the guests were invited to the dining room where a delicious two course luncheon was served. This luncheon was one which the hostess only knows how to prepare and one which the guests could not help but do ample justice. The dining room was also handsomely decorated in green and white, the decorations consisting of ferns and shamrocks. The hostess was assisted in serving by her daughter, Miss Ethel.

Those who enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Leyda on yesterday afternoon were Mesdames C. H. Smith, W. C. Tippens, Wm. Schmidtman, J. M. Johns, Jack Schulhof, Deffenbaugh.

Catarrh of the Stomach.

This is one of the most common diseases and should be called inflammation of the mucous membrane of the stomach. It is usually caused by excesses in eating or drinking. In many cases people call it just indigestion and try to cure it by eating highly spiced or sour food and by rinking strong alcoholic liquors. This will do more damage to the poor stomach than they know. The only correct remedy is Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine, because it will at the same time stimulate and strengthen the stomach and make it able to accept nutritious food. Whatever the cause of the catarrh of the stomach, Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine will bring swift relief. Use it as soon as you notice a change in your appetite or bodily strength. Try it in maladies of the stomach, the bowels, the nerves and the blood. At drug stores. Jos. Triner, 1333-1339 So. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Will Not Run.

The Journal is authorized to announce positively that John Lutz, nominated for councilman on the "Citizens" ticket from the Fifth ward positively declines to accept the nomination or to make the race. Mr. Lutz states that he had declined the Democratic nomination and he certainly would not accept the "Citizens" nomination. He has notified the managers of the "Citizens" campaign of this fact.

A Bon-Fire of Fine Winter Hats!

IN FRONT OF

FANGER'S STORE!

Saturday Night, March 19th,

BETWEEN 8 AND 9 O'CLOCK

In order to get rid of every Winter hat in our store so as to make room for our Spring Millinery, I have decided to take this drastic means to dispose of the above mentioned stock. Previous to this "Conflagration Sale" I will inaugurate a Graduation Sale, and it will be conducted in the following manner: Commencing at one o'clock Saturday afternoon, I will place on sale every Winter trimmed hat in my store at 98c. Every hour the price will drop 10 cents. Here is how it will be done:

1 TO 2 O'CLOCK	2 TO 3 O'CLOCK	3 TO 4 O'CLOCK	4 TO 5 O'CLOCK
98c	88c	78c	68c
5 TO 6 O'CLOCK	6 TO 7 O'CLOCK	7 TO 8 O'CLOCK
58c	48c	38c

This sale is commenced at one o'clock in order to give the ladies from the country a chance to participate in the Greatest Closing Out Sale of Millinery ever conducted by a store in the State of Nebraska. I want to impress upon the minds of the ladies the well known fact that the feathers, flowers or other trimmings on these hats are worth three or four times as much as is charged for the entire hat at the hour when the sale opens. I positively will not carry over one of these hats and do as is done by some dealers, push them off on the public a year from now as new creations in millinery. They will be burned in plain view of the public that all who see may know.

Remember the Big Bon-Fire Sale of Millinery Saturday Night, Between Eight and Nine O'Clock!

M. FANGER'S DEPARTMENT STORE

WEeping WATER BURGlarS CAPTURED

Last Monday night the clothing store of Boone & Davis at Weeping Water was broken into and some goods taken. Yesterday the marshal at Louisville landed two men who he believed to be the men who did the deed, and placed them in the city calaboose. They were later turned over to Sheriff Quinton by the marshal who had captured them, and brought down to the county jail. They gave the names of James Lynch and Robert Harrison. They will probably be arraigned tomorrow if County Attorney Ramsey is consulted in matter. He knew nothing of the arrests at four p. m. on Thursday, the sheriff having neglected to notify him of his arrests.

"Wearing Out the Green."

Miss Frances Weidman, one of Register of Deeds Snyder's charming assistants created a sensation this afternoon by appearing on the street with a very handsome green silk sash or scarf, the occasion being the birthday of St. Patrick. It must be owned that Miss Weidman certainly had a remarkably handsome scarf with its brilliant green.

J. C. Meisinger of Cedar Creek was in the city Saturday looking after business and while here called at the Journal office and renewed his subscription to the paper. Mr. Meisinger is one of Cass county's finest men and the Journal is proud to number him among its readers.

Mrs. Thomas South is a visitor with friends in Omaha today, going to that city on the early Burlington train.

James Smith and son this afternoon are engaged in unloading their household and farming goods from their car which arrived here this morning from Emerson, Ia., and are hauling the same out to their farm, the Senator Thomas place, west of the city. The Messrs. Smith some time ago purchased this farm through Harry Smith, the land man, and secured a remarkably good bargain in so doing. They are good people and are welcomed to old Cass county.

The four Miller brothers of Fort Crook are in the city today in attendance on the birthday of Mrs. Kate Oliver and paid the Journal office a pleasant call.

A marriage license was issued this morning out of the county judge's office to John Alfred Johnson, aged 42, of South Bend, Neb., and Mrs. Sarah Estella Stockham, aged 35, of River-ton, Ia.

FENCING!

Fencing is the question you are about to consider. Whether it be Field, Poultry or Garden it is necessary that you get just what is best adapted for your purpose and to give the best results. If you think of getting poultry fence, let us show you poultry fence that is about three times as heavy as the ordinary Diamond Mesh fence and at very little additional cost. This fence is heavy enough to turn stock if necessary, and will turn smaller chickens than the Diamond Mesh. New car of fence will be here in a few days, so in order to be sure to have what you want at the time you want it, let us set it around your yard.
