

Murray Department.

PREPARED IN THE INTERESTS OF THE PEOPLE OF MURRAY AND VICINITY ESPECIALLY FOR THE JOURNAL READERS.

[If any of the readers of the Journal know of a social event or an item of interest in this vicinity and will mail same to this office it will appear under this heading. We want all items of interest.—Editor Journal.]

The -Bank Account-

Is the first step toward success and fortune.

Protects your family in emergencies.
Educates your children.
Makes you independent.
Gives you standing in the community.
It is a valuable aid in any enterprise undertaken anywhere by anybody under any condition.

If you do not have a bank account, let us suggest that you start one with us immediately.

Murray State Bank

MURRAY, NEBRASKA

Geo. Cook, Murray for fine buggies Mrs. Rex Young is on the sick list. Everything good to eat at the "Harvest Home" dinner and supper. Be sure to come to the "Harvest Home" dinner Friday, September 30. Guy Stokes and Frank Reed were Plattsmouth visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Adda Stokes and Mrs. O. A. Davis were Omaha visitors Thursday.

You want a new buggy? If you want the best for the least money call on George Cook.

Rev. Lamp will preach at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and evening.

Grandma Furlong who has been very sick for some time, is improving at this writing.

Alex Campbell who had a finger so badly torn by a corn sheller is getting along fairly well.

Mrs. Warren Wiley left Monday for her home at Plainview after a two weeks visit with parents and friends.

The Larkins' gave a picnic in Copenhaven's grove Thursday. Needless to say they had a good time.

D. A. Young and wife and Rex Young and wife attended the log rolling at Weeping Water Saturday.

The finest line of Buggies in Cass county at George Cook's. Call and examine our buggies and see how low we are selling them.

Dr. T. V. Davis and family came down from Lincoln and visited Saturday and Sunday with relatives in and around Murray.

N. Klaurance has bought the Jas. Chalfant farm and will move his family out in a few weeks. Murray people will hate to lose so good citizens.

You want to be at the "Harvest Home" supper Friday, September 30. It will be a nice evening to drive over and eat supper. Bring the family with you.

Dave West and Mr. Long, editor of the Nehawka News, were in town Wednesday afternoon a few moments advertising the sporting contest to be held in Nehawka Friday and Saturday, September 23 and 24.

Harve Gregg came up from Nehawka Saturday evening where he has been at work on the Charles Christwieser new resident, to spend Sunday in Murray.

Word has been received that Lena Young was sick at Cedar Creek, where she is engaged teaching that school. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Young, left Monday for that place.

Word has been received from Jas. Loughridge and his mother that they are having a grand time. They have taken a trip on the Hudson, visited Coney Island, and all the places of interest. Jimmy is expected home soon, but Mrs. Loughridge will remain several weeks to visit friends.

Mrs. Lloyd Gappen entertained some fifty friends Saturday afternoon for her sisters, Mrs. T. J. White of California and Mrs. Warren Wiley of Plainview. During the afternoon cards were distributed and the guests asked to write the names of as many authors as they could think of. Margie Walker won the prize, an illustrated book of the Swance river. A two course luncheon was served. The afternoon with Mrs. Gappen will be long remembered.

Mrs. Ray Dill has been very sick for the past few days, but is now improving.

Charles Reed's two little daughters have been on the sick list, but nothing serious.

Miss Isabella Young was a Plattsmouth visitor Wednesday morning between trains.

William Sporer and wife and Mrs. Alva Long took in the big show at Omaha Monday.

Dr. B. F. Brendel was called to Avoca Wednesday morning, returning in the evening.

Mrs. Charles Beveridge has been on the sick list for several days but is now on the improve.

Dr. Gilmore, wife and son, Walker, autoed to Plattsmouth Tuesday night to see "The Squaw Man."

Dr. G. H. Gilmore was called to Union Wednesday in consultation with one of the local doctors.

Mrs. Harmond Beck who has been on the sick list the past two weeks, is improving and will soon recover.

Dr. J. F. Brendel and wife attended the Cook-Davis wedding at Weeping Water on Wednesday of last week.

Merchants and business men generally are complaining of dull business. Farmers seem to be the only ones that are busy.

A bouncing baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Matt Sigman September 17. He is the greatest boy on earth, according to Matt's evidence.

Mr. Perviance of the Crancer piano house of Lincoln, was in town this week and placed a piano in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carroll.

Mrs. Steve Barker who was thrown from a buggy several days since and thought to be dangerously injured, is improving and will soon be well again.

Mrs. Albert Lilly is very ill with appendicitis and it is very probable that she will have to submit to an operation before many days for relief.

J. W. Edmunds who has been ailing for some time is able to be about the streets and josh with the boys. They are all glad to know that he is able to do so.

Grandma Rhoden who recently returned from a three months visit with her son, T. J. Rhoden and family, in Kansas, is now quite sick at the home of her son, D. C. Rhoden.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. McDonald of Murdock are visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. Myra McDonald. Oscar is a rural route carrier out of Murdock and is enjoying a vacation.

Charles H. Boedeker and daughter Miss Ida, departed Monday night for New Mexico, where Mr. Boedeker goes to look at the country, and Miss Ida to see that her father did not get lonesome.

Mrs. Henry Thelle, eight miles south of Murray, was taken to Omaha Wednesday evening where she will be operated upon for appendicitis. She was accompanied by Mrs. Henry Shoemaker, of near Nehawka, and her husband, Mr. Thelle.

Frank Oliver who has been at home the past three months on account of serious illness of his sister, Mrs. Charles Contryman, left Tuesday for Sedalia, Mo. Mrs. Contryman, who has been suffering with empyema, is now able to be up and around once more.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Walker were Plattsmouth visitors Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Perry's little daughter, Helen, is sick.

Miss Lester of Lincoln is the guest of Mrs. James Loughridge this week. Miss Mary Moore departed Wednesday morning for Peru where she will attend the normal this winter.

Will Smith went to Plattsmouth Tuesday to interview the dentist and have some work done.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carroll entertained Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Young and daughter, Isabella, Mrs. White and son, of California, and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Brendel at dinner Sunday.

If you wish something good to eat attend the "Harvest Home" dinner and supper at the Presbyterian church Friday, September 30. The ladies will dedicate the new kitchen at that time.

John Campbell and James Gruber of Lincoln who has been a guest at the Campbell home for a few days, drove to Plattsmouth Tuesday. Mr. Gruber departed for his home Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Oscar Gopen and daughter, Mattie, returned home Wednesday morning from South Haven, Mich., where they had been visiting Mrs. Gopen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Dean, for the past three weeks.

Mrs. W. J. Crosser who has been visiting relatives in this vicinity for two weeks, departed for her home at Wausau, Neb., Tuesday morning. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Etta Nickels, as far as Omaha.

The members of the band are requested to meet next Tuesday night to take into consideration the matter of hiring a teacher, and to attend to such other matters as may come before them. Let every member be present.

The Missionary society met Friday at Mrs. Gilmore's. They finished a great amount of work for the county fair they expect to hold in the near future. Dinner was served at Mrs. Brown's and the most surprising part was how anyone was able to work after dinner.

Too Late For Last Week.

Miss Emma Graves gave a party one evening last week in honor of her cousin, Miss Nellie Anthony of Malvern, Ia. The house had been beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and butterflies for the occasion while the lawn was prettily lighted with Japanese lanterns. The evening was most enjoyably spent in social conversation and games. Two prizes were awarded during the evening. Miss Pearl Lewis and Harry Baxter were the winning couple in the question contest, the prize being a stick of candy. The second prize was a large watermelon to the most thoughtful person, Pearl Lewis being the fortunate one. Some excellent instrumental music was furnished by Pearl Lewis which was greatly enjoyed by all. At the usual hour a sumptuous luncheon was served to which all did ample justice.

Those present to enjoy Miss Graves' hospitality were: Misses Minnie Gunson, Mae Lewis, Loretta Carroll, Pearl Lewis, Treasa Stokes, Villa Gopen, Edith Lerhau, Isabella Young, Nellie Anthony, Emma Graves; Mrs. Harry Baxter; Messrs. Lee Kniss, Ed. Vallery, Charley Vallery, Harry Creamer, Joe Wheeler, Lloyd Lewis, Roy Gregg and Harry Baxter.

Stock and Grain Farm for Sale.

222 acres 1 1/2 miles east of Murray and 7 miles south of Plattsmouth. Good five room house with excellent stone cellar. Good $1,000 barn, and other out buildings. Three good, living springs, one right at the house, and everything comfortably situated. Will be sold for $110 per acre, one-half down, and balance to suit purchasers at 6 per cent. Call or address me at Murray, Neb.

F. M. Young.

Dr. Newell, Dentist.

Murray every Tuesday from 8 a. m., to 5 p. m. All kinds of first class dental work. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Pigs For Sale.

I have a number of spring male Duroc Jersey pigs for sale.

N. Klaurer.

For Sale!

One Duroc Jersey male hog with pedigree.

D. A. Young.

A Social at Wetenkamp Home.

A general supper and musical program will be given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Wetenkamp on Friday evening, September 23. Everybody invited.

MYNARD.

(Sept. 16, 1916.)

W. F. Gillispie was a business visitor in Omaha Thursday.

Miss Eva Porter spent Sunday at the Will Hutchison home near Rock Bluffs.

Mrs. A. A. Wetenkamp and sons returned Sunday from visiting relatives in Omaha.

Gillispie & Snyder shipped a car of stock to the South Omaha market Wednesday.

Mrs. Ida Cole visited with W. B. Porter and family Sunday.

Arthur Vilas of Omaha was a visitor in Mynard Sunday.

Mrs. Will Fight and children returned Tuesday evening from a visit with S. Draper and wife at Kansas City.

Miss Jennie Reynolds of Plattsmouth was visiting Sunday with Miss Leta Lair.

Sam Banta of Lincoln who has been visiting at the R. L. Propst home returned Monday to his home.

George W. Snyder, W. F. Gillispie, and Charles Johnson of Omaha were indebted to Jake Bengen for a joy ride in his fine auto Sunday. They pronounce Jake's auto a dandy.

Joseph Tubbs was a visitor in Plattsmouth Thursday.

George Gradoville returned Tuesday from Auburn with a fine load of apples.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Vallery attended the Cook-Davis wedding at Weeping Water, Wednesday evening.

MYNARD.

Mrs. George W. Snyder and Bryan and Misses Anna and Mildred Snyder and Pearl Henton, attended "The Squaw Man," at the Parmelee in Plattsmouth Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Goodman returned Wednesday evening from a visit with her daughter at Syracuse, Neb.

Jake Bengen made a flying trip to Plattsmouth Wednesday in his auto.

Jasper Young is now again carrying the United States mail, after a two week's vacation.

W. B. Porter and wife were visitors in Plattsmouth Wednesday evening.

Eddie Venner of Omaha visited A. A. Wetenkamp and family Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Marler entertained the Ladies Aid society Wednesday.

Mont Robb and Wayne Propst went to Plattsmouth Wednesday evening.

Miss Robin Richardson spent Sunday with Miss Nora Rosencrans at Plattsmouth.

Misses Edna and Mayola Propst and Wayne Propst spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Davis at Julian, Neb.

Word was received from Ralston, Neb., Wednesday that Mr. and Mrs. Thayer Propst were the proud parents of a baby girl, born September 20, 1916.

Rev. Harroll and wife attended conference at York, Neb., this week.

UNION.

(Ledger.)

The four months old child of Mr. and Mrs. Will Rakes died Wednesday noon. Funeral services were held yesterday forenoon at the home by Rev. W. A. Taylor.

Mrs. Nora Harris of Ordway, Col., arrived last Saturday morning to make a few weeks visit with her sister, Mrs. Jesse Dysart, and other relatives and friends.

Frank Albin and wife of Wausau, came down last week to visit William Nickels and family east of Murray, and also called on other relatives and friends in this part of the county.

C. R. Frans and family packed their household goods last week, and on Friday moved to Plattsmouth to make their future home. Their old friends wish them success and contentment in their new home.

John McClafflin and wife came in Monday evening from Coleridge and made a short visit with relatives and friends, going to Lincoln Wednesday morning to have their little child treated in a hospital.

Mrs. E. J. Mougey and Miss Iva, were in Omaha last Sunday to visit Miss Blanche Mougey, who is taking treatment in the Clarkson hospital. We are glad to note that Miss Mougey is getting along very nicely.

A deal was made this week where C. W. Clark became owner of the G. P. Barton barber shop and immediately took possession. Wes was formerly a "welder of the razor," so the business is by no means new to him.

John Klepser of Junction City, Oregon, arrived Thursday night of last week to make a visit with his mother, Mrs. Abbie Klepser, and GATHERING A CROWD!

Children are gregarious creatures, as are older folks, and they like to get together for social events. Not many years ago it would have been quite an effort to gather a crowd, but the Bell Telephone has revolutionized social as well as business life.

Agitation against legitimate telephone business—the kind that has become almost as national in its scope as the mail service—must disappear with a realization of the necessity of universal service.

Nebraska Telephone Co.

Every Bell Telephone is a Long Distance Station.

other relatives and friends. It has been some time since John has been back here and he finds many changes. He expects to leave for his home about next Tuesday and will be accompanied by his mother.

WEeping WATER.

(Republican.)

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rome on Saturday, September 10, a boy.

The academy enrollment is forty-four. This is a small gain which will be increased another term.

The enrollment at the public school is 330. This is about the same number that attended last year. Of this number eighty-five are in the high school room.

George Halmes who has been working on a farm near Plattsmouth the past summer returned home the latter part of last week and says he is going to attend the state university.

Louis Puls and family and his father-in-law Mr. Hild, were in town Tuesday morning in Mr. Puls' touring car on their way for a 300 mile drive to the western part of the state.

Miss Edith Jones returned home last Wednesday evening from Detroit, Mich., where she spent the past year with an aunt. Miss Jones when she left here was in quite poor health, but comes home in the best of health.

P. S. Barnes has sold his residence property on the south side to Albert Johnson, the consideration being $3,500. E. B. Taylor, son-in-law of Mr. Johnson, will occupy the place for a few months at least, but we hear that Mr. and Mrs. Johnson expect to live here later.

Mrs. Hans Johnson met with a painful accident last Sunday. Her son was running a sausage mill and Mrs. Johnson was feeding meat in for hamburger steak. The middle finger of her left hand got into the grinder and was so badly injured that Dr. Welch says he fears she may lose it.

J. R. Chandler and family returned home last Saturday from Colorado. Mr. Chandler says he has taken a homestead near Sterling, Col., and will move out as soon as he can sell out and settle up his business affairs here. He speaks flatteringly of the country out there and soil and crops.

LOUISVILLE.

(Courier.)

Born on Tuesday, September 13, to Mr. and Mrs. John Kuhn, a boy.

Miss Anna Thierolf visited her uncle at Walton last week, returning home Thursday.

Mike Tritsch will represent Louisville lodge in the Odd Fellows grand lodge meeting at Lincoln next month.

Born, September 1, to Mr. and Mrs. Reinhart Schaal, a fine boy. Grandfather Fred Wegner is "setting 'em up."

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fetzer will leave next Tuesday for a few days visit at Stanton with old time Cass county friends, and also attend the Stanton county fair.

Alvin Ball and family left Thursday for Aurora, Oregon, where they will make their future home. Mrs. E. Palmer accompanied them and will spend the winter on the Pacific coast.

Mrs. L. D. Dutton of Pueblo, Col., visited this week at the home of C. A. Richey. Mrs. Dutton was on her way home after an extended visit with relatives in Pennsylvania.

While some children were at play Tuesday, evening the little son of G. E. Steele was struck on the head by an empty beer bottle thrown up by one of his playmates. It was necessary to call a physician to dress the wound.

Harry Pettit and Harry Spence, both formerly of this place, were convicted of burglarizing a store in Oshkosh, Neb., and sentenced to two years and four months in the state penitentiary. Pettit escaped from jail by overpowering the jailor but was later captured, having become lost in the sand hills.

Another $20,000 Land Deal.

Pulled off this week by C. F. Harris, whereby James Sage of Plattsmouth, becomes the owner of the J. W. Edmunds quarter section of land one mile south of Murray known as the old James Root farm. It is a fine piece of land and those who know the farm say it is well worth the price. Mr. Harris is fast becoming one of the wide awake land men of these "diggers," as he has sold three farms within the past few days.

Fall Opening

We have on display our

Pattern Hats

and the most popular shapes in

Large and Small Hats

Please call and see them.

MISS MYERS