

BIG ATTRACTION AT THE PARMELE THEATER TOMORROW NIGHT

"The Third Degree" One of the Greatest Plays Ever Presented in a Plattsburgh Theater.

Tomorrow (Tuesday) night Henry B. Harris and an exceptional cast will present "The Third Degree," one of the greatest plays ever presented to a Plattsburgh audience. Most every story reader has heard of this great play, and have perhaps read it. The play has been rendered in all the leading cities, and has created considerable favorable comment. For many nights it had the run at the McVicker theatre in Chicago, and also at several theatres in New York City, where it ran continuously for over six months. The same cast will be here as the company appeared in all the leading cities, and the company should receive a warm welcome at the Parmele tomorrow night.

Every play presented at the Parmele this season has been right up-to-date and the performances have been first-class in every particular. Manager Dunbar long since made up his mind to book no other kind, and we all know he has kept his word. "The Third Degree" is a play that will compare with any production that has been here this season, and those who have seen it say that it is a far better play than has been in Plattsburgh in many years. The play had a big run at Brandeis for several nights, and many of our citizens who witnessed its production there are unanimous in saying that it is a remarkable play, as well as one of the best they ever saw. No one should fail to see "The Third Degree." The author of the play is Mr. Charles Klein, who is also author of "The Lion and the Mouse," and this fact is an assurance of the great character of the production. The productions that have already appeared at the Parmele this season have been well patronized, and Mr. Dunbar is proud of this fact, and which upholds him in seeking none but the very best that can be obtained for his patrons. The Journal believes that "The Third Degree" will be the best play that has been in Plattsburgh in a long time and has no hesitancy in recommending it to its friends. At the Parmele tomorrow (Tuesday) night, remember.

Death of Twin Girl.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Fravel are mourning the loss of their 22-month-old twin daughter, Lulu, who died last Tuesday. The family moved here last week from near Nehawka and located in the John Swindle house. On last Thursday Mrs. Fravel was washing and a tub filled with hot water contained a stopper which the little girl pulled out. The water scalded her arms and lower limbs. The burns were treated and doing nicely when the child's condition changed and she died. It developed that the immediate cause of her death was scarlatina, and previously one of the children had the disease. Precautions are being taken to prevent the spread of the disease. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon.—Weeping Water Republican.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks to the many kind neighbors and friends for their kindly assistance and words of comfort during the illness and death of our beloved son and brother, Richard. Especially do we wish to extend our most sincere thanks to the manager of the Red Sox base ball team, the members of the Red Sox base ball team, the Freshman class, the members of the Sunday school class of the M. E. church, of which Richard was a member, the M. E. Sunday school and the Boy Scouts for the beautiful floral tributes sent us on this very sad occasion. Their kind remembrance and assistance shall never be forgotten.

George Poissal and Family.

Departs for Bloomfield.

George Hild and wife, who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. L. A. Melinger, for several days, departed this morning for Bloomfield, Nebraska, where they will make their future home. Mr. and Mrs. Hild have been residing near Mineo, Oklahoma, for the past three years, but on account of the drouth very little crops were raised the past two years, and they decided to make a change of location, coming back to Nebraska.

Vote for the Jail Proposition.

Every voter in Plattsburgh should cast their votes for the jail proposition. If the people of this city do not vote solidly for a new jail, the Journal will always think they ought to. The old hull has been an eyesore to Plattsburgh and Cass county for fifty years, and it is crumbling to earth just as fast as it possibly could from old age. It is unsafe for prisoners, and is liable to fall down at any moment. Go to the polls tomorrow and vote and work for a new jail.

READY TO GREET THE W. C. T. U.

Baltimore Prepared to Entertain Annual Convention.

IS EXPECTING 1,500 GUESTS.

Proceedings to Open Next Saturday and Continue Sunday, with Temperance Talks in Pulpits—Union Organized in Cleveland in 1874.

Baltimore, Nov. 7.—The Woman's Christian Temperance union of the United States will hold its thirty-seventh annual convention here, beginning Saturday.

With the greater interest which is being manifested in the work of the union from year to year, and with the attractions which Baltimore holds out in the way of monuments and places of historic interest, a record breaking attendance is expected, and it is thought that the number of delegates will be well up toward 1,500. In addition the large number of visitors which the convention will draw will swell this to a total of 1,500.

Saturday night welcome services will be held at the Lyric Theater, Sunday afternoon Mrs. Deborah Knox Livingston of Rhode Island will deliver the convention sermon. Following the sermon Mrs. Katherine Lente Stevenson of Massachusetts, who recently returned from a trip around the world in the interest of the organization, will deliver an address. At 9 o'clock in the evening a mass meeting will be held, at which Captain Richmond Pearson Hobson will be the principal speaker.

Organized at Cleveland.

The Woman's Christian Temperance union was organized in Cleveland in 1874 and is now regularly organized in every state of the union. Local unions have sprung up to the number of 10,000, and the members of the e, including the children's societies, total three-quarters of a million. Forty distinct departments of work are actively carried on by the union and are presided over by as many experts in the national society and in every state.

The vigorous propaganda which the organization has carried on has caused all the states to pass laws requiring the study of scientific temperance in all the schools. In many of the states there are laws forbidding the sale of liquor and tobacco to minors. These as well as the regulations providing for police matrons and industrial homes for girls were secured in a large measure through the agency of the union.

SUFFRAGETTES AGAIN BUSY

Passage of Conciliation Bill Their Immediate Object.

London, Nov. 7.—The suffragettes have been busy during the week mediating to secure the passage, during the autumn session, of the conciliation bill, bestowing the parliamentary vote on those women who at present have a vote at municipal elections. This bill passed through the initial stages during the spring session.

The women have been busy in recent by-elections and have been carrying on a general campaign against the government throughout the country. As a climax a suffrage demonstration week, beginning today, has been arranged for London, with a view to trying to convince the government and members of parliament of the earnestness of all suffragettes in their determination that the bill shall be allowed to go through its further stages.

CZAR AND EMPEROR TO MEET

English and Russian Diplomats Are Commenting on What Result May Be.

London, Nov. 7.—The meeting of the czar and German emperor at Potsdam is causing perturbation in English and Russian diplomatic circles, for the emperors are capable of coming to an agreement, leaving England out in the cold.

The Berlin newspapers insist that Germany, and not England, is Russia's friend. The Russian reactionary newspapers, which always have been patronized by the czar, say the same thing.

RICH MAN LEADS DRY PARADE

Line of March in Kansas City Several Miles Long.

Kansas City, Nov. 7.—Led by R. A. Long, a millionaire lumberman, a parade of prohibition advocates several miles in length marched through the streets of this city to the music of a dozen bands and under hundreds of flags and banners. Grand Marshal Long wore a flowing white-silk sash, the gift of the W. C. T. U., and was mounted on a white horse, while Judge William Wallace, president of the State Amendment association, walked.

Sight of Death Kills Toller.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Nov. 7.—Nerveless from having seen a man ground to death under the wheels of a locomotive, Calvin Zoll lost his balance and fell into one of the grinding machines of the asphalt plant in which he was employed. His body came from the outlet as a part of the "mixture."

FUNERAL OF RICHARD POISAL

Large Number of Sorrowing Friends Present.

The funeral of Richard Poissal, which occurred at the Methodist church yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, was attended by a large concourse of sympathizing neighbors and friends, the church and lecture room both being filled. The service was conducted by the pastor of the church and was the most impressive one held in the church for a long time. The service was in charge of Mr. Don York's Sunday school class, of which Richard was a member. His class furnished the pall bearers, who with several patrols of the Boy Scouts, acted as an escort as the casket containing all that was mortal of Richard was wheeled to the church altar. The military tread of the scouts as they passed to the seats reserved for them was noticeable, and they bore a United States flag folded in arms.

The music was furnished by the Sunday school choir of girls, one solo being sung by Richard's teacher, Mr. Don York. The songs were from the books used in the Sunday school and were those which Richard liked most. The songs were, "Will There Be Any Stars in My Crown," and "When the Roll is Called Up Yonder." Mr. York sang, "Face to Face."

About the pulpit yellow and white chrysanthemums were placed in great profusion, and white chrysanthemums festooned with ferns were banked on the casket.

Rev. Austin, for the obituary statement, read a clipping from the Journal, and then pronounced a remarkable eulogy on the life and character of the deceased. After this he took as a text the 28th verse of the 2d chapter of Joel, the last clause of which the speaker used as a foundation of his discourse, which read, "And your young men shall see visions."

For an hour Rev. Austin discoursed, drawing lessons for young and old, and many times during the service, when the pastor affectionately alluded to Richard, there were many moist eyes in the audience.

The casket was followed to the cemetery by the Boy Scouts and a long procession of vehicles containing relatives and companions of the deceased.

The pall bearers were Glen Edwards, Floyd McDaniel, Will Fox, Chester Tacy, Claude Mason and William Kell.

Interment was made in Oak Hill cemetery.

Box Social at Rock Bluffs.

Miss Bess Edwards, who is teaching at the school at Rock Bluffs this year, and her pupils are arranging for a box social to be given at the school house on Saturday evening, November 19th. The proceeds from the sale of the boxes will be used for the benefit of the school. Everybody cordially invited. 11-7-41w2td.

Miss Frances Weldman spent Sunday with friends near Mynard.

THE POE VICTORY.

Selection of His Name For Hall of Fame Ends Long Fight.

The selection recently of the name of Edgar Allan Poe for the Hall of Fame recalls the long fight made to bring this about. At the first Hall of Fame election Poe received only thirty-eight votes, which brought cries of "shame" from many parts of the country. In 1905 he got forty-two votes, but since then there has been so much talk about the matter that this year sixty-nine of the hundred electors favored him, making eighteen more votes than are necessary to secure a tablet in the building. Probably no American man of letters needed the honor less, for he has been in the hall of fame of the people of this country for more than threescore years. But his friends—many more friends, sadly enough, than he had when he died—demanded for him not the honor, but his just due.

The complete list of the eleven new names just selected for the Hall of Fame is as follows: Harriet Beecher Stowe, 74 votes; Oliver Wendell Holmes, 69; Edgar Allan Poe, 69; Roger Williams, 64; James Fenimore Cooper, 62; Phillips Brooks, 60; William Cullen Bryant, 55; Frances E. Willard, 50; Andrew Jackson, 50; George Bancroft, 53; John Lathrop Motley, 51. Eleven bronze tablets for these names will be designed, with an appropriate quotation from the works of each.

IN NEW ROLES.

Plans of Bernhardt and Terry For Their Tours of America.

With every steamer bringing famous composers, playwrights, song birds, actors and actresses to these shores, this promises indeed to be the most enjoyable and talked of year in the history of the stage. And what will add greatly to the brilliancy and success of the season will be the appearance of Sarah Bernhardt and Ellen Terry, who have just reached America and are ready to begin their much talked of tours of the country. On this occasion both actresses will appear in new roles.

Miss Terry's entertainments this time will take the form of "acted discourses" upon the characters of Shakespeare's heroines. She told her American managers when they proposed this tour that she could never, never "lecture" an audience, but she might "just talk." So the title of "acted "discourses" was finally chosen for the former Shakespeare star's appearance in a new role.

The "divine Sarah" in addition to her regular repertory, will produce in America "La Befana," "La Samaritaine," "Prose de Jeanne d'Arc," "Le Bouffon," "La Femme X," "Le Pops Sacre" and last, but not least, a really remarkable play by an American author, John De Kay. It is entitled "Julius" and deals in an entirely original way with one of the greatest dramas ever enacted on the actual stage of life. The piece will be magnificently staged.

In "Le Pops Sacre" Mme. Bernhardt, by way of change, will transform herself into a comedienne, the piece being an amusing motoring skit. "Le Pops Sacre" is acted entirely in pantomime, no words being spoken by the actors.

This is the last appearance of Sarah Bernhardt in America. When she has played her parts she will go back to France—this time, alas, forever.

TRAINS GUNS ON REBEL HOME

General Princeton is Cleared For Action.

CHAOS REIGNS IN HONDURAS.

Commander Hayes Sends Word to Valladares That if Foreigners Are Molested He Will Shoot Governor's Palace Full of Holes.

New Orleans, Nov. 5.—The United States gunboat Princeton, at anchor off Amoy, Honduras, is cleared for action and its guns are trained upon the governor's residence, now occupied by General Jose Valladares, leader of the revolt against the Davila government, according to a special cable from San Salvador. The dispatch states that Valladares insulted the American consular agent at Amapala, George Schmueck, and threatened to shoot up his residence.

Immediately upon being notified of this, Commander Hayes of the Princeton has cleared his ship for action and sent word to the revolutionist that if foreigners were molested he would shoot the governor's palace full of holes.

The dispatch adds that chaos reigns throughout the western portion of Honduras and that inflammatory manifestos are circulated by Valladares and his followers.

Even in the event of an attack on foreigners at Amapala, it is not anticipated that the Princeton will find it necessary to shell the town, but instead Commander Hayes probably will send marines ashore to take Valladares into custody, which act, it is believed, would end the revolution. The gunboat Yorktown is due at Amapala today to relieve the Princeton.

ROSENHEIMER ACQUITTED

Jury Frees Wealthy Man Charged With Running Down Grace Hough.

New York, Nov. 5.—After only thirty minutes of deliberation a jury acquitted Edward T. Rosenheimer of criminal negligence in causing the death of Miss Grace Hough by running down in his automobile the buggy in which she was riding. The case has been followed with close attention because of the wealth of the defendant and the attempt of the people to convict for murder.

Insane Butcher Kills Son.

Cedarburg, Wis., Nov. 5.—Louis Hoffman, a butcher, while laboring under an attack of insanity, shot and killed his twelve-year-old son, Carl; wounded his wife, his brother, Ernest, and Ernest's son, Walter. Hoffman was arrested.

REFUSE REHEARING IN PINE RATE CASE

Interstate Commission Refuses to Reopen Des Moines Case.

Des Moines, Nov. 5.—Lucius Wilson, secretary of the Greater Des Moines committee, received notice of the decision of the interstate commerce commission overruling the application of the railroad companies for a rehearing in the yellow pine rate case, which was decided in favor of the Des Moines manufacturers three months ago. As a result of the suit the rates on yellow pine from southern points to this city were reduced from 27½ cents to 25 cents per thousand. This resulted in a saving to Des Moines manufacturers of $29,000 a year. In the petition against the old rate the allegation was made that Des Moines was being discriminated against in favor of Omaha.

In overruling the application for a rehearing the commission states that all evidence bearing on the case was given full consideration before the decision reducing the rate was made.

Photograph at Funeral.

Mason City, Ia., Nov. 5.—A photograph at a funeral service is certainly a novelty, and yet, in carrying out the wishes of Oliver Andrews, whose funeral was held here, a photograph was used, and, according to his request, "Work for the Night Is Coming," a male quartet, was played. And it was so beautifully rendered that there was no criticism offered by anyone. Mr. Andrews was the man who ordered his coffin and the style of trimming and everything in connection with his funeral three weeks in advance of his death. He was a highly respected citizen and a member of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Raid Store and Postoffice.

Council Bluffs, Ia., Nov. 5.—Burglars visited the postoffice at Stennett and secured $80 in cash and stamps. Walter E. Draper, postmaster, who operates a general store, also had his private till tapped for an additional $25. There is no clue.
