

THE BASE BALL LOVERS MEET AND ORGANIZE AN ASSOCIATION FOR 1911

Tom Walling, President, H. N. Dovey, Treasurer, R. M. Schlaes, Secretary, and M. E. Brantner, Manager, Making Strong Head for the Association.

In response to several calls made for the meeting of those interested in baseball, quite a number of the lovers of the great national game gathered at the Cozy Corner last evening and proceeded to organize what will in the future be known as the Plattsmouth Baseball Association. Only a limited amount of business pertaining to the permanent organization was transacted, simply initiative steps, which it is hoped will lead up to the strongest organization of the kind ever launched in Plattsmouth. The meeting was called to order and R. A. Bates chosen as chairman and Johnnie Hatt as temporary secretary, and immediately following permanent officers were selected as follows: President, Thomas Walling; treasurer, H. N. Dovey; secretary, R. M. Schlaes, and M. E. Brantner was unanimously chosen as manager. It was decided to also appoint a board of directors, to be composed of the secretary and treasurer and three members of the ball team, Clarence Beal, Ed Kelly and B. Bardwell, as the members from the team. Fred McCauley was chosen as temporary captain.

While the meeting last evening was not as largely attended as expected, those present were filled with enthusiasm, and were very desirous of seeing the new organization one of the most successful in the history of the city, and were willing to lend all possible aid to that end. The playing members of the coming team seem to think there is better material in this city this year than ever before, and with the proper training will make the strongest team that we have ever had.

There is one thing that all must remember in towns of this class, and that is it takes some ready cash to organize a baseball team and prepare for the season, and to look after this end of the business a soliciting committee was placed in the field, composed of the following members: R. M. Schlaes, M. E. Brantner, R. A. Bates, George Palsall, John Cory, Johnnie Hatt and William Henrichsen. The figure of financial aid has been placed at $500, which is certainly small enough. So, when the solicitors call on you to help them along, give what you think is your share, and then add another dollar or two to it and they will get along swimmingly.

Let us all boost from now on for the success of the Plattsmouth Baseball Association; give it a helping hand whenever possible, and we venture the assertion that under the able management of M. E. Brantner we will have one of the strongest teams ever seen in Plattsmouth. The meeting adjourned to meet at the council chamber on next Monday evening. Let there be a large representation of the business men of the city present at the next meeting. Give the officers and team the proper encouragement and financial aid and they will do the rest. Commence now, and play ball all the time from now until the close of the season. At the next meeting the organization must be thoroughly perfected and launched along the road to success, so let there be a large attendance.

LOUISVILLE COUPLE MARRIED AT THE COURT HOUSE

Mr. Walter Scott McGrew of Louisville and Miss Grace Marian Kenison of the same village appeared before Judge Beeson this morning shortly after the arrival of No. 4 in the city and made the proper affidavit and statements necessary to the procurement of a marriage license. After the issuance of the permit, his honor, Judge Beeson, was requested by the groom to officiate in performing the ceremony. The court house "ring" was soon produced, and when all had assembled and the contracting parties had answered satisfactorily the usual interrogatories propounded by the court on such like occasions, and no one present objecting to the ceremony proceeding, the judge, in his most solemn manner, pronounced the twin one. The happy couple received the congratulations of the judge and the attending witnesses.

Mr. McGrew has a good position as engineer at the Murphy quarry and the happy couple will at once begin housekeeping at Louisville in a residence already arranged. The young people were accompanied to Plattsmouth by Bert Clifford and Mrs. James Gaab, who witnessed the ceremony.

Warning to Railroad Men.

Look out for severe and even dangerous kidney and bladder trouble resulting from years of railroadin'. George E. Bell, 639 Third St., Fort Wayne, Ind., was many years a conductor on the Nickel Plate. He says: "Twenty years of railroadin' left my kidneys in terrible condition. There was a continual pain across my back and hips and my kidneys gave me much distress, and the action of my bladder was frequent and most painful. I got a supply of Foley Kidney Pills and the first bottle made a wonderful improvement and four bottles cured me completely. Since being cured I have recommended Foley Kidney Pills to many of my railroad friends." For sale by Fricke & Co.

Mrs. C. L. Creamer returned to St. Joseph's hospital this morning to spend the day with her son, Joseph, who was becoming quite restless yesterday afternoon when his mother left his bedside.

The Carpenter Telephones

"I'll send a man right up.

"It will take a only take a day or two. I'll telephone and get the stuff as soon as I get the measurements."

Carpenters get most of their order over the telephone.

If a storm window is wanted, the roof leaks, or any other hurried repairs are needed, a long distance telephone call will bring quick and satisfactory results.

No up-to-date carpenter can afford to be without local and long distance Bell Telephone Service.

VISIT HERE TO FIND THE GRAVES OF PARENTS

Mr. J. H. Newlin, editor of the Harrison Sun, and wife and daughters, Misses Jessie E. and Bessie M., arrived last evening from Sioux county, Nebraska, to look up old-time friends of Mrs. Newlin. This is Editor Newlin's first visit to Plattsmouth, but Mrs. Newlin, nee Miss Ella Conner, was born in Cass county. Her father was Mr. W. W. Conner, who operated the transfer across the Platte at Old Concord, near where Cullom is now located, years ago. Mrs. Newlin was yet quite a young girl when she left Cass county in 1879, and has lost track of many of the family's old-time friends, and she will spend a few days here looking them up. She is here also to look up the graves of her parents, who were interred in the old Elkembury cemetery. Mr. Newlin made the Journal office a friendly call and we found him to be a fine gentleman and it gave us much pleasure to make his acquaintance. In company with Mr. John McNurlin, Mr. and Mrs. Newlin visited the cemetery this morning and also visited several families who were friends of the Conner family in early days.

YOUNG FOLKS ASSIST IN BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

A most delightful social affair was that held at the cozy home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Steinhaur last evening, when they entertained a number of young people in a charming manner in honor of the birthday anniversary of their son, Edgar. The boys had come prepared to have a genuine good time, and we have it very confidential that they sure did have it. Games, contests and merrymaking were participated in, interspersed with social conversation and music, both vocal and instrumental. Fun and frolic filled the whole evening. There was a contest, in which a huge bowl filled with peanuts was placed on the floor and the boys were given miniature fishing tackle and told to fish the peanuts out of the bowl, and the one fishing out the most and the least was to be awarded a prize. This delightful contest took up the greater portion of the time and aroused considerable merriment and the boys entered into this sport in a very enthusiastic manner and became very much interested in it. Floyd McDaniel captured the first prize, a jumping jack, and Ralph Larson carried off the booby prize, a roly-poly. Following this contest a most delectable luncheon, consisting of pickles, sandwiches, cake and coffee, were provided, which was not the least appreciated by the boys of the many delightful things provided for their entertainment. Ed received many handsome gifts, which will assist him in remembering the happy event.

Upon leaving all expressed their enjoyment of the evening and wished for many more like occasions with themselves as the fortunate guests.

Those who enjoyed this occasion were: Leland Briggs, Lester and Carl Dalton, David Wallingren, Floyd McDaniel, Elmer Halstrom, Paul Lutz, Eddie Lutz, Ralph Larson, Everett Ward, Glen Edwards, Carl Roessler, Mr. and Mrs. Steinhaur and daughter, Gladys.

MRS. J. C. PETERSON CELEBRATES

Quite a Number of Lady Friends Called to Show Her How to Do It.

Yesterday was the birthday anniversary of Mrs. J. C. Petersen, and a number of her lady friends, knowing she was celebrating it in a very unbecoming manner, that of housecleaning and improving the looks of her cozy rooms over the Johnson meat market, by giving the woodwork a new coat of paint, decided they would invade her home and show her how, as well as assist her in commemorating the event in the proper way.

They planned a surprise party, fixed up the necessary articles for a fine luncheon and went to her home yesterday afternoon and caught her plying the paint brush very industriously, or, at least, getting ready to do so, as she was fixing the paint when they came in on her. Mrs. Petersen was so surprised that it took her some time to recover from the effects, after which she entertained them in a royal manner.

The afternoon was devoted to various games, music, social conversation and the like, which made the few hours just simply fly. As a memento of the auspicious occasion there was a handsome present, in the shape of a dozen cut glass glasses, left with Mrs. Petersen, who could not feel other than highly pleased at the kind remembrance of her friends. An elegant luncheon was served during the course of the afternoon's entertainment, a luncheon which the guests brought and which was both dainty and delicious and to which all could not fail to do ample justice.

It was a late hour in the evening when the guests took their departure, after having expressed their warmest congratulations and wishes for many more happy birthday anniversaries.

Mr. John Fight and wife and daughter, Miss Hattie, were Omaha passengers on the morning train today, where they looked after business matters for a few hours.
