On February 15, 1862, he was married to Miss Sarah Margaret Waltz, who was born September 9, 1844 in Ohio. Their first child, a daughter, Denilah E., was born in Ohio September 29, 1863, and died October 4, 1863. Then came Emarella L., born in Ohio March 3, 1865, and is now Mrs. James DeVore, living at Fort Morgan, Colorado. Elizabeth Oneida, born in Ohio, September 26, 1866. She became Mrs. George Ryan and lived for some time at Dundee, Oregon, where she died December 9, 1906, at the age of 40. She left her husband and five children to mourn her loss. They reside at present on the home place in Oregon. An infant sister was born, who only remained a short time. Jacob S. was born in Illinois on January 28, 1869, and resides at Wood River, Nebraska. Daniel W. was born in Illinois March 13, 1870, and resides at Wood River, Nebraska. William H. was born in Illinois December 15, 1871, and died January 6, 1872. Barbara Margaret was born in Nebraska July 27, 1873, and is now Mrs. Ingwerson, living at Minnare, Neb. Walter A. was born in Nebraska October 11, 1875. Jesse L. was born in Nebraska July 8, 1878, and Samuel C. was born in Nebraska April 12, 1881. The last three children reside on farms near Alvo, Neb.

While living in Ohio Mr. Hardnock was drafted into the army in Company K of the Twenty-ninth Ohio infantry, and was with Sherman in his famous "march to the sea." He was mustered out at the close of the war, after 18 months' service. In 1869 he moved to Polo, Ogle county, Illinois, and resided there until 1872, when he moved to Cass county, Nebraska, where he spent the remainder of his life. He lived north of town for a short time, then moved onto the homestead one and one-quarter miles west of Alvo, where his wife died April 13, 1898. On December 14, 1894, his mother died at his home, his father having died when the family was yet in Ohio. On October 5, 1900, he was married to Mrs. Elizabeth Coon at Lincoln, Neb., and moved from his farm to Alvo, where he died May 14, 1911, at the home of his niece, Mrs. Lavina Hardnock-Coon. He had come to take dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Eli Coon and had been in the house about twenty-five minutes when he suddenly gasped for breath and in a very few minutes had passed away. He had not complained of feeling badly that day at all, though he had for about five years been sick part of the time. He had two severe sick spells in the last few months and his son, Jesse, gave up farming and came to town to slay with him and take care of him. His wife is an invalid and was taken this spring to a hospital in Toledo, Ohio, where she is at present. She was unable to attend her husband's funeral.

Mr. Alex Iiams of New Virginia, Iowa; Sam Cashner of University Place, Nebraska; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Powers of Beaver, Iowa; and Sam Iiams of Lincoln attended the funeral. The bereaved children have the sympathy of many friends.

GREAT IMPROVEMENTS AT SIXTH AND PEARL

The Patterson Building Bought by Modern Woodmen and the City of Plattsmouth.

In the report of the council proceedings, published in Tuesday's issue of the Evening Journal, an error occurs. The statement published was that the city contemplated purchasing the east half of the Patterson block on the corner of Sixth and Pearl streets for a city hall and other purposes, and the M. W. A. the west half. It should have been vice versa. The Woodmen have bought the corner frame and the city the brick livery barn, which will be renovated for city purposes, while the corner frame will be greatly improved by raising it up and converting the entire upper part into a lodge room. The improvement of both these buildings will be a great help to the appearance of the corner. The improvements contemplated by both the city and Woodmen simply demonstrate that people have more confidence in the future of Plattsmouth than at any time for years. Let the good work go on.

Take Picnic Supper.

A jolly party of young people enjoyed a picnic supper near the stand pipe last evening. At 5 o'clock the crowd left the hot and dusty city and sought the cool shade and carpet of green grass which abounds in that vicinity. Games were played for amusement, a huge bonfire was built and the wienies were toasted to a brown, and a fine picnic supper prepared by the wispome lassies. After the supper was disposed of toasted marshmallows were in order and served hot from the stick. Those participating in the outing were: Misses Anderson, Friday, Jessie Robertson and Helen Travis, and Messrs. Fritz Frickie, Earl Travis, Will Robertson and Cal Taylor.

Is there anything in all this world that is of more importance to you than good digestion? Food must be eaten to sustain life and must be digested and converted into blood. When the digestion fails the whole body suffers. Chamberlain's Tablets are a rational and reliable cure for indigestion. They increase the flow of bile, purify the blood, strengthen the stomach, and tone up the whole digestive apparatus to a natural and healthy action. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

COLLISION BARELY AVERTED ON THE BURLINGTON

Passenger Going West, Freight Coming East, Come Within a Few Feet of Colliding.

The passengers on No. 23 yesterday had a narrow escape from a severe shaking up, and came so near a smash-up as to make the hair stand on the head of one passenger, who poked his head out of the window to see why the air was turned on so suddenly.

It appears that No. 23 had orders to pass the east bound freight at Bellevue, but this order was afterward annulled, and the train was going at its usual pace toward Omaha on the curve between Gibson and Bellevue when a heavily laden east bound freight, the crew of which had become balled up on its orders, came thundering to meet No. 23 on the same track.

As soon as the engineers spied the other's train the air was thrown on and the best efforts of the crews of the two trains were exerted in stopping the trains. The engines were within a few feet of each other when they came to a halt. No one was injured, but some were as white as they will ever be.

WILL ENFORCE THE PURE FOOD LAWS

Deputy Food Commissioner W. R. Jackson After Those Who Sell Stale Eggs.

Deputy Food Commissioner W. R. Jackson has issued warning in the form of a bulletin that he will prosecute any person who sells bad eggs and to this he adds that dealers who desire to avoid the penalty must candle all eggs purchased. The penalty is a fine of from $50 to $500. The bulletin is the beginning of a campaign which Food Commissioner Jackson intends to wage against bad eggs and people who sell them or offer them for sale. He asserts that it is unlawful for the farmer, merchant or other dealer to sell or offer for sale bad eggs. His bulletin is headed "Bad Eggs. Warning." It is as follows:

Section 9824, part sixth, defines food as adulterated, "if it consist in whole or in part of a filthy, decomposed or putrid animal or vegetable substance. It is unlawful for the farmer, merchant, or other dealer to sell or offer for sale bad eggs."

It is unlawful for the merchant to sell bad eggs to his patrons or to egg dealers. The sale of eggs "case count" concedes the sale of rotten eggs, and is a violation of the law.

Warning is hereby given that any person found selling bad eggs will be prosecuted by this department.

The state inspectors of the food commission are instructed to enforce the provision of the law.

Section 9848. "Any person violating any provision of this act shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in a sum of not less than $50 nor more than $500 at the discretion of the court, and shall pay the costs of prosecution and stand committed to the county jail until said fine and costs are paid." (as amended 1911.)

To avoid penalties under the above law, dealers are required to candle all eggs purchased.

M. E. Smith Girls Serenade.

The young ladies of the M. E. Smith factory armed themselves with all sorts of musical instruments, including a bass horn and snare drums, harps and pans, and when the shades of night had fallen stole stealthily to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mullis, near Miss Lushinsky, and when everything was still and kiddles in the neighborhood were sleeping, broke forth in the most distressing musical sounds ever heard in those parts since the Lewis and Clark expedition. The dogs in the vicinity added their musical yelps to the horn and drum and songs of the maidens until sleep in the vicinity was a thing not to be had for gold. The sheriff could not be found, as his wife said he had a hurry call to the west side of town, where he was to keep order at a party. Constable Denson refused to go, because he was not called first, so the poor neighbors had to sit up and take note of the serenade. The concert finally died down and peace and quiet reigned again.

ANOTHER ENJOYABLE RIVER PARTY YESTERDAY

Nine Couple Enjoy Trip on the River and Winds Up With Supper.

A very pleasant steak party was given last evening on the bank of the Old Muddy near the Burlington bridge. The function was given by Miss Clee Applegate, Miss Hazel Dovey and Miss Bell, who were assisted in the broiling by Mr. Bruce Livingston of Omaha and other gentlemen.

There were nine couple in all, and a launch was chartered and an excursion to Nebraska City and intermediate points was made, the trip being a gloriously cool one on the water after a hot day on the land. On the return to shore the steak, which had been furnished by the gentlemen of the party, was by them soon broiled, and with the other little delicacies furnished by the ladies, the party soon found themselves in camp attitude, surrounding a piping hot picnic supper. A few vocal selections were rendered and some classical readings, interspersed with foot-racing and high vaulting, served to break the monotony of the camp life. After the repast was cared for and there was nothing in sight with which further the appease Mr. Bruce Livingston's appetite, from Omaha, the joyful company broke camp and began their cheerful march toward the city. At the juncture of Toad Hollow with the Missouri river the company paused for some time to listen to the frogs sing, and on the conclusion of the concert the party marched in double-quick time to the viaduct, arriving just in time to join with the senior class parade. As soon as their cautious chaperon observed the sheriff loitering in the shadows of the buildings she advised a hike up Sixth street, and succeeded in getting every member of the party home without one of them being "pinched." Last night was a busy time for the sheriff.

Those at the steak fry were: Misses Helen Chapman, Florence Dovey, Ruth Johnson, Ida Weidman, Francis Weidman, Verna Cole, Hazel Dovey, Blanche Bell and Clee Applegate; Messrs. Governor Dovey, Bruce Livingston of Omaha, George Dovey, Lynn Miner, Paul Morgan, Nelson Jean, Fred Mann, John Chapman and Clarence Staats.

Little Girl Died at Noon.

At the noon hour today the bell of the Holy Rosary Catholic church rang forth the sad tidings that Beatrice Janda, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Janda, had passed away. She was aged 7 years, 6 months and 9 days, and was sick but one short week. Beatrice first fell sick with measles, which last Friday resulted in a serious case of pneumonia. All that skilled medical aid could do was done, but the ravages of the disease could not be stayed, and the little sufferer grew worse from day to day until death ended her sufferings at noon today. Besides her fond parents she leaves two brothers and one sister to mourn her untimely death. The funeral will occur Friday, but the hour has not yet been arranged. The sympathy of the entire community is due Mr. and Mrs. Janda in their sore grief.
