Ice cream, fruit sundaes and cones at A. L. Baker's.

Frank Gobelman, painter and paper hanger, Plattsmouth.

Mr. J. A. Walker and daughter, Margie, spent Monday in Plattsmouth.

Be sure to attend the ice cream social at the Lloyd Gopen home on Friday evening, August 4.

Enoch Moreland, who stuck an ax in his foot two weeks ago, suffers considerably yet with the injured member.

Dr. Gilmore is having built a concrete garage, which will be equipped up-to-date for the care and repair of his car.

Don't forget the date, Friday night, August 4th, and the place, Lloyd Gopen's, and who is giving it, the Loyal Boreans of the Christian church.

Dr. Newell, the dentist, from Union, was here at his office Tuesday. The doctor is fully equipped with a new outfit to replace the instruments lost by fire some time ago, and is in line to do any kind of dental work.

Services will be held regularly at the United Presbyterian church, morning and evening. Rev. L. W. Williamson from Topeka, Kansas, has been engaged for the summer. Rev. Williamson, who has been in the evangelistic work for the past few years, comes highly recommended.

Mrs. G. D. Connaly has been seriously sick for the past week.

Albert Schaffer and wife spent Sunday with S. O. Pitman and wife.

Charles Cole came in from Weeping Water Monday for a few days' visit with old friends.

Pearl Shrader and wife are here from Elmwood visiting with his mother.

Miss Mae Loughridge left Saturday for Waverly, Nebraska, where she will spend the week with friends.

Miss Minnie Biers took the Sunday evening train for Omaha, where she spent the first part of the week with friends.

A. Phillips, grand deputy master workman for the A. O. U. W., held a meeting at the Loughridge hall last Wednesday.

Mr. Granville McDaniels and wife and an old veteran of the civil war, arrived here Wednesday evening from St. Louis for a short visit with his old comrade, William Brown.

J. W. Holmes and family motored to Omaha last week, returning Monday evening. Mrs. Allwyne of Omaha, a niece of Mrs. Holmes, accompanied them on their return trip.

The teachers for the ensuing year have been elected. Miss Maude Rusterholtz as principle and Miss Gunther will have charge of the primary department. Both were employed last year and gave excellent satisfaction.

Fred Lutz was a county seat visitor last Saturday.

Carl Engelkemeir was a county seat visitor last Saturday.

D. A. Young was a Plattsmouth visitor Wednesday of this week.

Carl Fricke was visiting his political friends here Wednesday.

Kelly Fox was in Murray Tuesday, seeing after political affairs.

William Rice was a Plattsmouth visitor Tuesday of this week.

William Puls and daughter, Laura, were county seat visitors last Saturday.

Adam Schaffer was in Plattsmouth last Saturday looking after some business matters.

Alfred Gansemer was looking after some business matters in the county seat last Saturday.

Mrs. Ray Davis was quite sick for several days this week, but is reported some better at this time.

Mrs. William Sutton, who has been confined to her bed since the first of May, is able to be up and about now.

Young Steinbauer of the Journal force passed through here Sunday on his Indian motorcycle—burning the air as he went.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Barker, near Mynard, on July 28, a bright-eyed baby boy. Both mother and little one are doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Byers of Rock Bluffs are rejoicing this week over the arrival of a baby girl at their home. The mother and little one are getting along nicely.

The ladies of the K. N. N. will give a program and social at the Kenosha church on Saturday evening. You are invited to attend and the guarantee goes with the invitation that you will have a good time.

O. V. Bailey, from near Nehawka, was in the city last Saturday, coming in for the transaction of some business matters, among which was a real estate deal, in which his mother-in-law purchased a piece of city property.

Arthur Amick was quite seriously kicked by a horse one day this week. He was struck in the face and a large gash cut in his upper lip and also in his cheek. The accident was quite painful, but he is doing nicely.

Bert Jameson is now the possessor of a brand new Overland automobile. It is a five-passenger and is equipped with everything but a smoking parlor. Bert says if there is a better car in the country for the price he would like to take a look at it.

Philip Keil was a county seat visitor last Saturday, having some business matters to look after. He was nursing a very much injured hand that he had caught in the weigher of a threshing machine. He is getting along nicely, but has suffered with the injury a great deal.

Nelson Berger, from Nehawka, had a runaway Sunday evening, tearing up his rig and bruising himself pretty badly. The clip of a singletree came off, letting the tongue down just as he was leaving town, and the team became unmanageable. He found his team at John Porter's the next morning.

Steve Beckner, who lives on Glen Perry's place, four miles northeast of town, received a serious injury to his back by falling from a load of wheat last Saturday. He was hauling wheat for Mr. Perry, when by some unknown means the spring seat turned, throwing him upon one of the wheels.

Mrs. Frank Oliver of Salida, Colo., who has been visiting friends and relatives in Omaha and Murray for the past month, returned to her home Sunday. She was accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Oliver, who will visit at the home of her brother, Frank Oliver, in Salida, for several weeks.

Mrs. Seeley Lawton and little son, from Okaton, South Dakota, arrived in Murray Tuesday for an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Young, and other relatives and friends. They expect to remain for several weeks while Mr. Lawton and Rex Young are making an automobile touring trip of North Dakota and Montana and the west, looking at the country with a view of selecting a new location.

Kelly Rhoden received what might have been a fatal injury last Thursday. He was pitching bundles for Will Seybolt, and a pitchfork laying on the rack caught in a wheel and the fork was thrown at Kelly like a harpoon. One tine struck the side of the nose and plowed to the bone and slightly injured the eyeball. The concussion was sufficient to cause him to faint, and it was feared by bystanders that a tine had penetrated the skull.

Pleasant Day at Rock Bluffs.

There was a very pleasant time and entertainment given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Fitchhorn at Rock Bluffs last Sunday. A big dinner was served at noon and in the afternoon ice cream and cake was served. The children were amused at games and enjoyed a fine time. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Kinnamon and family, Stella, Charles and Joe, of Plattsmouth; Mrs. Lee and family, Bertha, Blanche, Beulah and John, of Pacific Junction; Mr. and Mrs. George Bates and family, Myrtle, Ira and Frances, of Murray; Virgil Suddeth of Murray, Adam Meisinger of Mynard, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Fitchhorn and family, Jessie, Wilbur, Virgie, Katie, Glen, Ira and Elmer. Everybody enjoyed a pleasant time.

BIG FREIGHT WRECK DELAYS PASSENGER

Two Big Freights Come Together at Auburn at High Speed, Scattering Cars.

The Misosuri Pacific north-bound passenger was five hours late last night owing to a big freight wreck near Auburn. The train is due here at 5 o'clock, but did not arrive until after 10. H. A. Wilson, a government employe, who is investigating the naturalization records here today, described the wreck to a Journal reporter. He said about 400 freight cars were piled up in great confusion and that both engines were demolished. The engineers stayed with their engines, but were not injured.

Both trains were heavily loaded and they came together at fast speed, as the air brakes on one of the trains would not work. Much coal and grain were dumped from the cars in the accident.

TOO LATE FOR THIS WEEK.
We received quite a lot of news from Murray Thursday evening, but owing to the lateness of the M. P. train, it arrived too late for this issue and will appear Monday.

Woman loves a clear, rosy complexion. Burdock Blood Bitters purifies the blood, clears the skin, restores ruddy, sound health.

Fine Hog for Sale.
We are informed that Julius Pitz has an extra fine male hog that he wants to sell. Our good friend, William Gilmour, is willing to vouch for the value of the animal, and "Billy" is sure a good judge of hogs.

ANOTHER PIONEER PASSES AWAY

George B. Mattison, Who Has Lived in This County Since 1865.

George B. Mattison, another Cass county pioneer, died at his home in South Bend, Neb., this morning at 8 o'clock. The deceased had been suffering for some time with kidney troubles.

George B. Mattison was born in Hampton, Washington county, New York, in 1828, on January 16, being 83 years of age. Mr. Mattison was married in 1859 to Miss Laura Glabe, and in 1865 emigrated to Nebraska, settling near South Bend. The deceased was the father of three children, two daughters, who survive him, one residing in Missouri, at Lock Springs, and the other, Mrs. Lon Loop, at Stratton, Neb. One son died at the age of 19 years.

The funeral will be held tomorrow (Friday) at the German Methodist church, and interment in the cemetery near the church. During the many years that Mr. Mattison has resided in Cass county he has made many friends, who will be grieved to learn of his death.

Were Married Here.

William N. Logan of Skidmore, Mo., and Miss Pearl Allison of Hastings, Neb., were married here yesterday by the Rev. W. L. Austin of the Methodist church. Mr. and Mrs. Logan left for Skidmore on the 5 o'clock train yesterday afternoon.

Getting Along Nicely.

Mrs. G. Roman and children, Ruth and Frances, who have been visiting the former's son, Giles, at Lead, S. D., for the past week or so, returned home last evening. Mrs. Roman reports that her son, Giles, who had two bones of the instep of his right foot broken some four weeks ago, by having a large stone fall on it while at work in the mine, is getting along as well as could be expected and that, with the aid of crutches, he is able to get about. Giles' many friends will be pleased to know that he is getting along slowly but surely.

The Wells-Fargo Now.

Tuesday, August 4, the Wells-Fargo Express company began its contract of looking after the express business on the Missouri Pacific, Iron Mountain and Wash systems, and the express office here, long known as the Pacific Express company, is now the Wells-Fargo. The latter company underbid the Pacific for the express privileges on the Gould lines. With the loss of these contracts the Pacific Express company goes out of business.

Cut the Weeds in No. 27.

Notice is hereby given to all land owners in Road District No. 27 that the weeds must be cut by the 15th of the present month or the same will be done by the road overseer and taxed against the property. The law says the weeds must be cut, so let us see that the same is done at once.
M. L. Furlong,
Road Overseer.
