

HOW IS THIS FOR "FURRY" WEATHER?

We have nothing but the Annis Furs in stock, and you can bank on it, that any Fur you get, that is made by them is worth every dollar you pay for them. We an exceptionally large stock to select from and we stand back of each and every garment we sell.

SETS FROM
$5 to $35

SEE
 OUR
 WEST WINDOW!

E. G. DOVEY & SON

George Steehr, in husking corn. Clark Sherve is thinking of moving down near Francis, Tex. But he is from Missouri and will want to investigate a little first.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Williams of aFibury, Neb., are spending a few days with Elmwood relatives and friends, being guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Ohley.

Roy Rhoden has moved back from Kansas, arriving with his family Thursday of last week. He will try to rent a farm here and be one of us again. We gladly welcome him back.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Bedson, A. H. Weichel and daughter, Pearle; Mrs. Harnsberger and daughter, Hazel, and Mrs. R. W. Green attended the Walker-Shore wedding at University Place Tuesday evening. The groom, John Walker, is a brother to Mr. Bedson, and a promising young gentleman. The bride, if we can judge by what her husband is worthy of, is one of the best in University Place.

UNION.
 Ledger.

Jack Patterson, who is employed in the Bank of Union, spent Sunday with his parents and other relatives in Plattsmouth.

Mrs. Margaret Applegate departed Saturday morning for Villisca, Iowa, where she expects to spend the winter with relatives.

Mike Kime and John Wunderlich, a pair of democratic boosters in and for Nehawka precinct, were here before breakfast last Saturday morning, going on the early train to Plattsmouth.

Herman Thomas and wife of Fort Crook changed cars at this station Wednesday evening, on the way from from the Pacific coast, where they spent several weeks visiting the principal cities.

Hallie Delaney returned Sunday night to St. Louis, where the hospital surgeons will make a further examination of his wounded arm and probably give him his final "walking papers" from that institution of pain and misery.

William Garrens was able to be out against Tuesday, after a few days' illness that caused great alarm for several hours. He suffered some internal injury a number of years ago, and a severe cold last week struck the sore spot and got him down.

George F. Whitlow, who has been Missouri Pacific agent here for three years, has resigned and will leave soon to accept a position with the Northwestern railroad, but he does not yet know at what point. His family will remain here until he gets permanently located.

Tom and Ralph Sherwood, the painters, moved their families to Plattsmouth this week, but the "painter boys" will remain here to do the work already contracted and as much more as is desired by those who want first-class painting. The work on G. W. Cheney's residence is a very artistic job, and shows the kind they always do.

J. C. Knight, residing southeast of town, is having a serious time on account of what was at first a very trivial injury. Last Friday a splinter punctured the fleshy part of his right hand, and from this slight wound blood poison followed and it became serious. He will be very fortunate if he does not lose a portion of the hand.

W. S. Waters was in southeastern Kansas last week looking after some land.

Willie Steehr, son of Coon Steehr, arrived Wednesday from Oklahoma to assist his uncle,

WEEPING WATER.
 Republican.

Miss Louise Gorder of Plattsmouth and Mrs. A. F. Ploetz of Davidson, S. D., visited from Saturday until Monday with Mayor Gorder and family.

Orders arrived this week from the postoffice department at Washington to open a postal savings bank in Weeping Water November 24. Come in early and avoid the rush.

Sammy Smith, who was so seriously injured while riding a horse a few weeks ago, has almost recovered, but the injury to his head will prevent him attending school this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Ray Smith of Plattsmouth come over, accompanied by Hogan Rauth, a relative of Mrs. Jacob Domingo, and visited over Sunday. Mr. Rauth is assistant in a bank at Randolph.

It is expected that the electric light plant will be in readiness for a tryout by November 15th. A large number have delayed wiring and there are now four different electricians capable of doing good work and willing to get busy any time the order comes.

On Tuesday, October 31, 1911, at the noon hour, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Carter, Rev.

If you don't know what kind of an Overcoat to buy, come here; we have every kind, it will be easy for you to decide. We have the greatest stock of Overcoats in Plattsmouth, at $10 to $30. Especially fine values at $15, $16.50 and $22.50

Falter & Thieroff
 VALUE GIVING CLOTHIERS

Stetson Hats

Manhattan Shirts

NEHAWKA.
 News.

Mrs. D. J. Pittman and daughter, Mrs. O. A. Davis, of Murray, visited Saturday with Andrew Pittman and family.

E. M. Pollard motored to Omaha Tuesday afternoon with his two little boys, who will stay with their grandparents for a few weeks.

William Ingraham was down from Omaha over Sunday visiting his son and making arrangements to ship his winter apples up there.

Bruce Stone took the early morning train Tuesday for York, where he expects to buy some additions to his herd of Poland China hogs. Bruce is sparing no expense in raising the standard of his thoroughbreds.

Miss Maude Flock and Miss Elsie Brown were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Sheldon from Saturday until Sunday afternoon. The ladies are students at the state university and former fellow students of Mrs. Sheldon.

Hon. E. M. Pollard carefully explained Tuesday morning that the cigars he was distributing had no political significance, but were simply a testimonial to the joy he felt over the arrival at his house the night before of a baby girl.

Mrs. D. C. West entertained at a 1 o'clock luncheon Saturday for Mrs. Charles Stone from Yama, Colorado. The guests, friends of Mrs. Stone, from Murray, arrived on the 11:15 train. At 1 the curtains were drawn in the dining and living rooms and Jack-o-lanterns and black cats flickered everywhere serving as lights. The tables, where a three-course lunch was served, were tastefully decorated with autumn leaves and miniature pumpkins. Red and white carnations were used as favors for the ladies. Following the lunch Mrs. Stone, Miss Gilmarten and Miss Conn gave several musical numbers. The ladies left on the 4 o'clock train.

EAGLE.
 Beacon.

Mrs. William Sack was taken suddenly ill last Sunday evening, but is now slowly improving.

Art Trumble and wife moved into Mrs. T. R. Adams' house last week. The house has been repainted and otherwise improved.

Mrs. G. L. Myares departed Tuesday night for Oskaloosa, Kansas, where she will make a few weeks' visit with relatives and friends.

Jack Lyell arrived home last Saturday from Minneapolis, where he had spent a month looking after some important business matters.

The H. H. club held another enjoyable meeting at the home of Miss Dorothy Wachter last Friday evening. Music and refreshments were features of the evening.

A. L. McDonald, the real estate man, departed Tuesday for Goodland, Kas., where he had some business to attend to, after which he went to Denver on a land deal.

Jake Frohlich, one of our prosperous farmers, living east of town, had the misfortune to lose a valuable mule Tuesday afternoon while husking corn, the animal dropping dead in the field.

Dr. Munger has been busy this week moving into the property he recently purchased. His new office building is also nearing completion and will soon be ready for occupancy. He says he will be glad when he gets through moving.

ELMWOOD.
 Leader-Echo.

Harry Tolhurst spent Sunday with Donald Davis at Milford, Nebraska.

John Weber has recovered his health sufficiently to be about again.

L. A. Tyson went to Verdon Sunday to see his grand-daughter, Jane Robb.

W. S. Waters was in southeastern Kansas last week looking after some land.

Willie Steehr, son of Coon Steehr, arrived Wednesday from Oklahoma to assist his uncle,

Our New Overcoats Signalize Winter!

It will only be a matter of a few days now until Jack Frost will nip at your ears and the cold wind whistle about your body. Why not warm up in a "Miller-Made" Ulster, one of those great, loose coats with a belted back and a collar that fits up snug and protecting to the ears.

Our assortment of these coats contains many of the new brownish and greenish shades, also oxford grays and some of the most subdued, dark effects.

Prices range from $15 to $30, and any coat that you may choose will contain satisfying value.

Sweater Coats—just "the dope" for cold weather, and prices are very reasonable.

-WM. HOLLY-

