"ALWAYS, THE HOME OF SATISFACTION"

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH SCENE OF EPOCH-MARKING EVENT SUNDAY

Forty Adult Persons Received Into the Church at the Morning Service, Making Largest Number Ever Received at One Time
Rev. L. W. Gade Preaches Eloquent Sermon.

The morning service at the Presbyterian church yesterday was one of the most important in the history of the local organization. In its more than years of usefulness in this community this church has not witnessed an event so full of encouragement to its future as the epoch-marking event of yesterday.

The pastor, Rev. Gade, preached a strong sermon, basing his remarks on the 20th verse of the last chapter of Revelations. The special music consisted of an anthem by the choir, in which the solo part was taken by Clarence Staats.

After the discourse by Rev. Gade the largest accession of membership ever taken into the church in this city was received.

Forty members, all adults, and all heads of households but five, came by letter and on confession of faith. They represent some of the most prominent and influential people of this city and community. Of the number, nineteen were men; twenty-seven came by letter from the German Presbyterian church; four by letter from other churches, and nine on confession of faith.

OMAHA TO REMEMBER MANCHESTER MARTYRS

Rev. M. A. Shine, the Speaker, Intimate Friend of Organizer of Fenian Movement.

The following is taken from the Sunday World-Herald, and refers to Father A. M. Shine of this city, in connection with the anniversary to be observed. The World-Herald also prints with the article a very fine half-tone of our eminent fellow citizen:

On Thursday evening, November 23, the forty-fourth anniversary of the death of the Manchester martyrs, Allen, Larkin and O'Brien, will be observed in appropriate form at the Creighton university auditorium. The speaker of the evening will be Rev. M. A. Shine.

Father Shine is the son of one of the friends and intimate associates of James Stephens, the originator of the Fenian movement. The Fenian society was first established in Ireland in 1858, and the movement was taken up by the Irish in America in 1866.

In addition to the address, there will be several musical numbers on the program. As there are no charges for admission, it is expected that the attendance will be large.

Mrs. Kate Oliver and sister, Mrs. Miller, of Fort Crook, will leave for Kansas City, Mo., tomorrow morning, where they will visit with the former's two daughters, Mrs. George Law and Mrs. D. P. Aylesworth. Mrs. Oliver is planning on eating her Thanksgiving turkey with her daughters and their families and is anticipating a very nice time.

FAILED IN ATTEMPT TO CASH FRAUDULENT CHECK

Stranger, Claiming to Be J. C. Johnson, Jr., Leaves Check After Attempt to Cash It.

Saturday evening a neatly dressed gentleman, claiming to be J. C. Johnson, Jr., of Omaha, and in the automobile business, dropped in at William Holly's clothing store. The same party had been in Wednesday and loafed a short time, stating at the time that he and companions were hunting below the city and he was simply waiting for his friends.

Saturday evening he presented a check for $15, drawn on the United States National bank of Omaha, and requested Mr. Holly to advance the cash on it. On one pretext and another, the wily clothier got around the cash proposition, until finally Mr. Johnson offered to take $2.50 on the check, which would tide him over until Sunday morning, when his companions would return from Omaha, as they intended to continue their hunt. But William needed all the change he had about the store and the automobile dealer left the check in his possession with the statement he would return later and take some cash on it. Ben Rainey was called in and informed of the attempt to raise money on the check, and started out to look for Mr. Johnson, but the last seen of him he was on his way up Sixth street, and probably got on the first train out of town. Mr. Holly still has the check.

Plattsmouth, 61; Union, 2.

The basketball game Saturday night resulted in an overwhelming victory for the Plattsmouth High school. The Union team was decidedly outclassed, the team work of the local boys being much too complicated for them. Union succeeded in making only 2 points during the entire game, and these points were secured from free throws and not from field goals. At the end of the first half the score stood 31 to 1, and the end of the game, 61 to 2. The Plattsmouth boys had the advantage of more practice and more young men from whom to choose, but, nevertheless, surprised their most ardent admirers and "rooters." Our boys displayed good team work, fine physical condition and manly conduct. The Union boys played a vigorous game against great odds, and, with more practice, must be reckoned with later in the season. The Plattsmouth team is arranging to play several strong High school teams later in the season. The line-up:

P. H. S.	Position.	U. H. S.
D. Arries	(capt.)	Forward
E. Frans	Forward	Albin
Larson	Forward	Barrett
Dalton	Center	Swan (Capt.)
M. Arries	Center	Harris
Schlatter	Guard	Cline
R. Frans	Guard	Roddy
Noble	Guard

Referee—Principal Stockdale of Union.
Umpire—C. O. Larson.

Not Getting Along as Well.

John Collins, uncle of Ed Collins, who was injured in the Missouri Pacific wreck October 15, was in the city yesterday to visit his mother, Mrs. C. A. Collins, and reported that his nephew is not getting along as well as expected. According to Mr. Collins' statement, the cast had to be changed recently and the fracture was much worse than at first reported. The settlement Ed made with the railway company seems to have not been satisfactory, and it is claimed that he did not sign a waiver of his rights to continue the suit first instituted. Mr. Collins departed for Grand Island Sunday afternoon, accompanied by his son, Boyd, Miss Maude Irwin and Mrs. Tom Joyce, where they were called to attend the funeral of Mrs. W. E. Jones, a sister of Mr. Collins. Mrs. Jones was formerly a resident of Plattsmouth, but has resided away from this city for many years.

Arrives From Oklahoma.

Edwin Duffie arrived from Spearmore, Okla., this afternoon, where he has been engaged in farming. Mr. Duffie says that he is located in the northeast part of the state in the broom corn district and that the crop there this season was good and that farmers realized good money for their crop. He will be in this vicinity for some weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Long of near Murray drove up today and spent the day in the county seat.

Meets With Unfortunate Accident.

Saturday night George Lamphere met with an unfortunate accident after having attended a party at the home of Charles Peterson. As he was leaving Mr. Peterson's home, just outside the door Mr. Lamphere slipped on the snow and fell in such a manner as to fracture the bone of his left arm. Dr. Cook was called and dressed the injured arm and made Mr. Lamphere as comfortable as possible.

FINELY TRIMMED HATS AT LESS THAN COST

Don't fail to read the large ad of Fanger's Department Store in this issue of the Journal. It tells you of the continuation of their great Slaughter Sale on Millinery. It will sure prove a saving to you if you are contemplating the purchase of a new hat, or can make use of another one this fall and winter. Many of the ladies of the city took advantage of the extremely low prices during the sale last Saturday and are wearing a new hat at less than half price today. Just speak to some of them in regard to the bargain that they received and in each and every case you will find them greatly pleased.

The short notice given in the announcement for Saturday did not give many of the lady patrons of the store an opportunity to take advantage of the offering, so Mr. Zucker has decided to continue the sale. They have fully decided not to carry a single hat over for the spring season, and consideration of first cost has been forgotten during this sale, and you can now have your choice of an extra large line of new fall hats at almost your own price. Read the ad and attend the sale.

Legal Advertising.

The following section of a law regarding the disposition or placing of legal advertising in newspapers was passed by the Nebraska legislature of 1909, and we desire the friends of the Journal to make a note of its provisions and govern themselves accordingly:

"That from and after the passage and approval of this act it shall be the lawful right of any plaintiff or petitioner in any suit, action or proceeding, pending or prosecuted in any of the district courts of this state, in which it is necessary to publish in a newspaper any notice or copy of an order, growing out of, or connected with such action or proceeding either by himself or his attorney of record, to designate in what newspaper such notice or copy of order shall be published. And it shall be the right of the widow, widower, or a majority of the heirs-at-law of legal age, of the estate of any deceased intestate or the widow, widower, or a majority of the legatees or devisees of lawful age, of the estate of deceased testate to designate the newspaper in which the notices pertaining to the settlement of the estates of such deceased persons shall be published. And it shall be the duty of the Judges of the district court, county judges or any other officer charged with the duty of ordering, directing or superintending the publication of any of such notices, or copies of orders, to strictly comply with such designations, when made in accordance with the provisions of this act."

Returns From Southern Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Sheldon returned Tuesday evening from their three weeks' visit in the south. They spent the most of their time visiting at the big plantation of the ex-governor's near Wayside, Miss., and say his farming operations are pretty extensive. He has over 3,000 acres of land and forty colored tenant families. They raise cotton, corn, oats and other staple crops, and the land is very rich and productive. Frank, however, has a poor opinion of the tenants down there and says he could take white families and farm two or three times as much land and do it better. The ex-governor rents about twenty acres of land to each family, furnishes them a mule and then gets a share of the crop. When Frank left they were sowing oats and expected to keep the drill going until December. This year his oats went fifty bushels to the acre.—Nehawka News.

Miss Pearl Smith of Havelock, who has been visiting her uncle, W. T. Smith and family, returned to her home this morning. Mr. Smith accompanied his niece to Havelock and will look after business matters at Lincoln for a couple of days.

ZUCKWEILER & LUTZ

A Big Boost.

Plattsmouth was the scene of a great celebration last Wednesday, the completion of a great wagon bridge across the Platte river near that city. The purpose of the bridge is to aid traffic north and south and the construction of a great highway between Omaha and Kansas City. It is a big boost to the good roads movement that is now occupying so much public attention all over the west. Large crowds from Omaha and Nebraska City were in attendance at the celebration and the day was a festive one, indeed. The Good Roads minstrels of Nebraska City gave a professional performance at the Parmele theater in the evening. The entertainment was right up in the class with the famous Honey Boy show now on the road, was liberally patronized and the proceeds were donated to the good roads movement now so well under way by the Commercial clubs of the two old river cities. Plattsmouth sustained her old and well known reputation for royal entertainment of visitors and the guests all went home with a good taste in their mouth and a good word for old Platts.—Lincoln Herald.

In From Cedar Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. John Busche and son were in from their home near Cedar Creek last Saturday looking after some business matters and doing some trading. While here we enjoyed a few moments' chat with Mr. Busche in regard to the recent election, in which he made a mighty strong race for road overseer, being beaten by just seven votes in a three-way fight. John says he done the best he could.

Mrs. R. B. Hayes was a passenger for the metropolis in the fast mail this afternoon.

Pennant for the High School.

Prior to the basketball game at Coates' hall Saturday evening, E. H. Wescott gave a few remarks, at which time he held a beautiful P. H. S. pennant and said that when the P. H. S. team had succeeded in winning three games this pennant would be presented to the High school; not to any particular class, but to the High school as a whole, and that it would be placed on the walls of the assembly room. Whenever a game was lost, this pennant would be taken down and not be put up again until the boys had succeeded in winning a game. The students and members of the High school faculty are very much indebted to this enterprising firm for their interest in High school athletics, and the boys say they will win the pennant, and not only win it, but will keep it up on the wall.

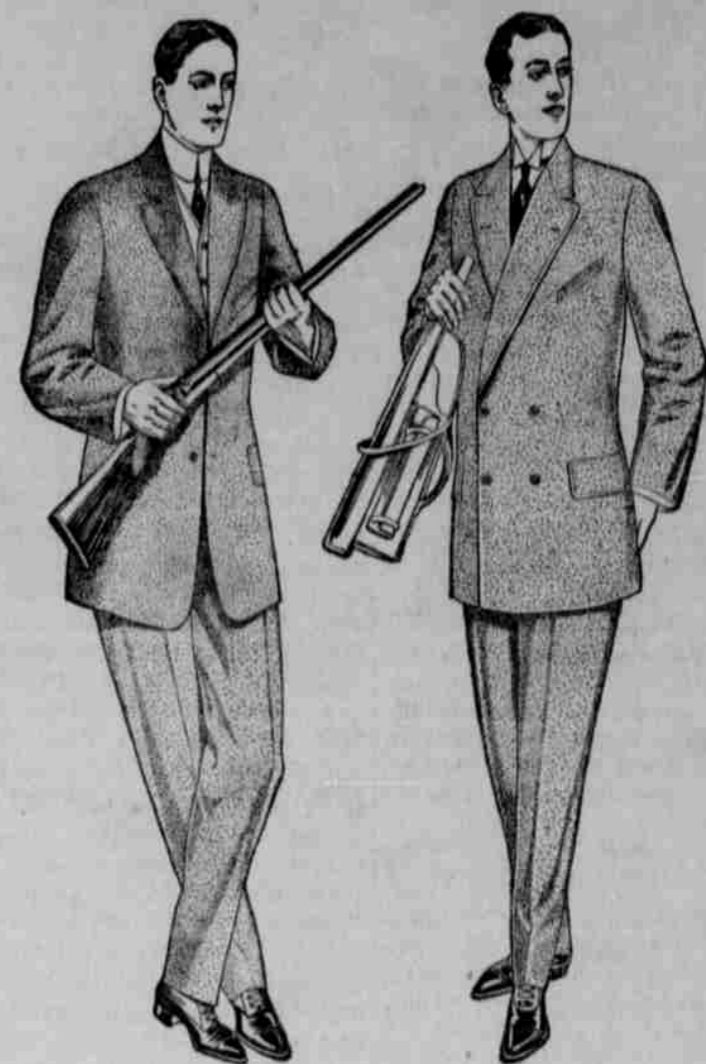

Ready for Plasterer.

The carpenter work on the toll bungalow at the Pollock-Duff bridge, which is being done by H. Teikotter, will be ready for the plasterer today. The building has been pushed right along and will be ready for occupancy by the end of the week, or as soon after as the plastering will dry. Mr. Teikotter is also pushing the Ancheuser-Busch cold storage building, which is going up near the Burlington station. This building will soon be enclosed.

Ex-Mayor Brown Here.

The socialist ex-mayor of Kenosha, Lig B. Brown, was in the city today looking after important business matters. Mr. Brown was accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Nix, and their niece, Miss Della Tucker, of Portland, Ore.

Frank Beeson of Omaha arrived Sunday evening to visit relatives for a short time.
