

GOV. ALDRICH PARDONS INDIAN

Louis Priest Sentenced to Two Years for Treating Friend.

UNABLE TO SPEAK ENGLISH.

Board of Pardons Took View That Indian Could Not Comprehend Laws of State and Merely Copied White Men's Acts.

Lincoln, Nov. 27.—Louis Priest, an Indian of the Winnebago Indian reservation in Thurston county, who was sentenced to two years in the state penitentiary on the charge of treating another Indian to liquor, was pardoned by Governor Aldrich.

The pardon was issued on recommendation of Judge G. T. Graves, the trial judge, and E. G. Maggi of the board of pardons.

Information was given the governor indicating that Priest was unable to speak or write English and that he was unable to comprehend the laws of the state. He saw white men treating each other to intoxicants and he saw no wrong in his doing the same with his Indian friends.

Priest was convicted under the law forbidding the sale or gift of liquors to Indians. He was not prosecuted under the general anti-treating law, which applies also to his white brothers. Priest was sentenced May 4, 1910, and would have been released next January.

To Test Trading Stamp Act.

The anti-trading stamp act passed by the last legislature will probably be tested soon by quo warranto proceedings to be instituted by County Attorney Strode. Mr. Strode has been in consultation with Deputy Attorney General Ayres and E. J. Clements, the lawyer employed by a number of Lincoln retailers who oppose giving trading stamps.

The matter was brought to the attention of the district court on the demurrer of the defendant of the information in the case of the state against J. R. Burleigh. The latter was charged with having sold a package of tapioca in which was a library slip, good in part payments for books or magazines. The giving of this slip was alleged to be in violation of the trading stamp law.

KHARAS MUST GO TO PRISON

Sentence of Former Omaha Stock Operator is Confirmed.

Omaha, Nov. 27.—Attorney Howell received notification from the clerk of the federal circuit court of appeals at St. Louis that the ruling made by Judge W. H. Munger several years ago in the case of the United States against Theodore Kharas, in which Kharas was on trial on the charge of using the mails to defraud, was upheld. United States Marshal Warner has been instructed to take Kharas into custody and he will at once begin to serve the four months' sentence in the Leavenworth penitentiary imposed upon him, and will be required to pay the $500 fine in addition.

Several years ago Kharas came into prominence by claiming to be the inventor of a device to revolve the signs in street cars and other places.

LORD CAMOYS.

Peer Whose Marriage To Mildred Sherman Is Hastened by Sickness.

MILDRED SHERMAN WEDS LORD CAMOYS

Ceremony is Performed by Roman Catholic Priest.

New York, Nov. 27.—Miss Mildred Sherman, who wed Lord Camoys in the sick room of her father, William Watts Sherman, at 838 Fifth avenue, did not renounce her Protestant Episcopal faith and become a Roman Catholic, as was stated in the published announcement of the marriage plans.

The following formal statement in denial of the rumor was made by Lawrence L. Gillespie, husband of a sister of Miss Sherman: "The Sherman family authorizes Mr. Lawrence L. Gillespie to deny that Miss Sherman has given up her faith and entered the Roman Catholic church, or is even contemplating such a step."

The marriage ceremony, Mr. Gillespie explained, was performed by a priest in the Roman Catholic ritual for the reason that Lord Camoys is a Catholic and had received a special dispensation to marry Miss Sherman.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father William Neenan, rector of St. Mary's church, at Newport, and a personal friend of the bride's father, although Mr. Sherman is not of the same faith. Mrs. Sherman, who is a daughter of the late John Carter Brown, founder of Brown university and fifty times a millionaire, is an Episcopalian.

The illness of Mr. Sherman, his strong desire to witness the wedding of his daughter and the fear that he may not live another week were responsible for the change of plans.

END OF LABOR FEDERATION

Rochester Selected as Place for Holding Next Convention.

Atlanta, Nov. 27.—After selecting Rochester, N. Y., as the place for holding the annual convention in 1912, re-electing for next year all of its officers and adopting without amendment the reports of several committees the thirty-first annual convention of the American Federation of Labor adjourned.

No fight developed on the re-election of President Samuel Gompers, and all of the old officers were re-elected without opposition.

By far the most serious of the factional differences taken up was the contest between the United Brotherhood of Carpenters, with 200,000 members, and the Sheet Metal Workers, as a result of which the carpenters had withdrawn from the federation. The carpenters have agreed to re-enter the building trades department and to abide by that body's decisions in the matter of its contest with the sheet metal workers, and so were reinstated.

ANTI-AFFINITY LEAGUE BUSY

Detroit Women Have League to Keep Husbands From Straying.

Detroit, Nov. 27.—Sufrage associations and leagues for the uplifting of the drama may be good in their way, but Detroit women believe that reform, like charity, should begin at home. They have formed an anti-affinity league.

No matter what part of the city a married man may live in or conduct his quiet tete-a-tetes, no matter in what quiet flat he meets his affinity, the A. A. L. will find him. Its ramifications are as widespread as the most secret Italian secret society.

ERECT STATUE TO LIVING MAN

Dakotans Do Not Wait Till Death Takes Gen. Beadle.

SAVED STATE SCHOOL LANDS.

Walked Over Country in Early Days Arousing People Against Proposed Plan of Land Speculators—Teachers Are Flocking to Pierre.

Pierre, S. D., Nov. 27.—Trains have been bringing large delegations of teachers and school officers to this city for the annual meeting of the State Educational association. The meeting began this morning and will continue to Wednesday. One of the features of the meeting was the unveiling today of the statue of General W. H. H. Beadle, which has been placed in the state capitol as a tribute to his efforts in regard to the state school fund. General Beadle and his daughter, Mrs. Frick of Eugene, Ore., were present at the ceremony.

Through his foresight it is assured that the permanent school fund of the state will ultimately amount to between $150,000,000 and $200,000,000. The interest on the permanent school fund goes to the support of the public schools of the state.

When South Dakota adopted its constitution land speculators sought to have a clause inserted in the state constitution fixing the value of the school lands at $5 an acre. General Beadle made the fight for the school lands.

He traveled all over the Dakotas on foot and on horseback, addressing audiences here and there and impressing upon the people the importance of carefully safeguarding the school lands. After a bitter fight, General Beadle and those he had enlisted in the fight succeeded in getting the school and endowment land section inserted in the state constitution.

This fixed the minimum value of all these lands at $10 per acre. Not more than twenty years had elapsed when a part of these lands sold readily at $43 an acre.

STEPHENSON INQUIRY

Committee to Find No Instances Where Votes Were Bought.

Washington, Nov. 27.—With the declaration that no instances of vote buying were discovered, but with words of censure for the use of large sums of money in his campaign, the senate committee which investigated the election of United States Senator Isaac Stephenson is expected to report shortly after the opening of congress.

Senator Stephenson, according to a well founded report here, will be declared fully entitled to his seat.

The use of money in the Stephenson campaign was the result of the Wisconsin primary system, it was claimed in the hearings, and a condemnation of that system, either in the committee's report or by members of the committee on the floor of the senate, is now looked for.

The committee's report is now being written, its submission to all the senators who heard the testimony is only a matter of a few days, and it is predicted that it will be disposed of by the senate before the Lorimer case.

SLAYS WIFE AND COUSIN

Husband Beheads Couple When He Finds Them Together.

Kenosha, Wis., Nov. 27.—Tortured by the mental picture of his headless wife and her paramour, whom he slew during the night, Pasquale Marchesi, a merchant, went to a priest and confessed the double crime, which therefore had not been discovered. The young avenger was turned over to the police, who are guarding him for fear of mob violence. According to Marchesi he went home and found his wife, Rosaria, and his cousin and namesake occupying Mrs. Marchesi's bed chamber. The younger Marchesi, who was not of age, had been a favorite of the husband, and the scene drove him mad, he said. Without allowing his presence to be known, Marchesi went to a wood shed, procured a hand ax, crept to the bed room and chopped off the heads of the two lovers.

St. Joseph, Mo., Nov. 27.—Judge W. K. Amick threw out of the circuit court on a demurrer the case of Jacob Closs of Mound City, Mo., against Christ Beutner and Gotfried Marti, accused of having broken up his love affair. All the parties to the suit live at Mound City, Mo., and the case was brought here on a change of venue. Closs alleged that he was engaged to Nettie Beutner. He demanded $30,000 damages. Judge Amick ruled that Closs' cause of action, if there be any, is against the young woman herself.

The blaze is still burning this morning, with more than 200 acres of smoldering tree trunks in its wake.

BODY OF BEATTIE BURIED IN SECRET

Only Family and Eight Boyhood Friends Attend Funeral.

TIME OF BURIAL NEAR SUNRISE

Mound of Earth Completely Covered With Chrysanthemums and Immortelles—Best Man One of the Pall Bearers.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 27.—By the grave of the wife whom he murdered July 18, the body of Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., was buried in Maury cemetery shortly after sunrise. There was a brief service at the residence, attended only by members of the family and eight friends, who served as pall bearers, and then the procession moved through the silent streets of South Richmond. Rev. John J. Fix, who prayed with Beattie just before he was led into the death chamber at the penitentiary Friday morning, read the service of the Presbyterian church.

To guard against possible annoyance, the exact hour of the funeral was kept secret until midnight and consequently there were no crowds around the Beattie home or cemetery. Police were on duty, but the hearse and seven carriages had reached the grave before the city was astir. When the burial was concluded H. C. Beattie, Sr., left with Douglas, his son, and Hazel, his daughter, and two aunts of the murderer. The aged father's grief was intense.

The pall bearers, boyhood friends of Beattie, were asked by him to serve. Several of them had testified in his defense at the trial and one was his best man when he and Louise Wellford Owen were married, exactly one year from the date he pleaded not guilty of her murder in court. A florist's wagon, completely filled with flowers, entered the cemetery gates just after daylight and the mound of earth was hidden beneath chrysanthemums and immortelles.

After it became known that the funeral had already been held a tremendous crowd visited the cemetery. Double ropes were stretched around the Beattie section and two mounted policemen in addition to officers stood kept the crowds back. There was no disorder, however, and no attempt to take away the flowers.

MAKES STARTLING REPORT

All Records Broken in Production of Alcoholic Drinks.

Washington, Nov. 27.—The annual report of Royal E. Cabell, commissioner of internal revenue, given out here, makes several startling declarations. All records were broken in the last fiscal year in the production of alcoholic liquors. The smoking of opium is a widespread vice in this country and opium "joints" exist in every city of considerable size.

The double system of taxing oleomargarine is corrupting grocers and gross frauds are being perpetrated on the butter buying public.

The internal receipts last year were $322,526,299, the greatest in the history of the government.

The year's production of distilled spirits amounted to 175,452,395 gallons, nearly 7,000,000 gallons more than in the previous banner year, 1907. The production of beer, ale, etc., amounted to 63,216,851 barrels, nearly 4,000,000 barrels more than in the previous record year, 1910.

The amount of liquor held in bonded warehouses for ripening now reaches the enormous total of 249,379,346 gallons.

To remedy the oleomargarine situation, Mr. Cabell suggests that fraud would be wiped out if a single standard of taxation for the colored and uncolored product be established, and if the manufacturers be required to put their product in small sealed packages instead of selling it in bulk.

BOMB FOR A GOVERNOR

Tener of Pennsylvania Suspected an Infernal Machine.

Pittsburgh, Nov. 27.—What is believed to have been an attempt to injure Governor John K. Tener, or if not that, a practical joke that might have been serious, was discovered at Charleroi, Pa., the home of the governor.

An ingeniously contrived device, containing powder, a match, piece of steel, a bullet shaped piece of lead and a small sheet of paper inscribed, "Drive the Republican bosses out," is in the hands of the United States postal authorities. A rigid investigation is under way.

TWO DIE IN CAVE-IN

Little Girl Rescues Two Companions, but Others Perish.

Kansas City, Nov. 27.—When their sand cave on the bank of the Kaw river in Kansas City, Kan., collapsed, two little girls, Flossie and Ethel Hutchinson, aged fourteen and eleven years, respectively, were killed, their sister, Lydia, sixteen years old, was almost suffocated and Harold Hutchins, a neighbor boy, was badly injured.

That the latter two children did not meet the fate of the others was due to the heroic efforts of Lizzie Sparks, an eleven-year-old girl, who dug the sand away with her hands.

A Correction.

In justice to all parties concerned the Journal has been requested to publish the following facts in regard to misstatements made in the issue of November 25 containing an account of the fire which destroyed Manspeaker's livery barn: The manager of the light company did not request us to cut electric wires at the pole nor were they cut by the manager himself. The electric meter in the Manspeaker barn was removed by J. F. Wurga after the manager of the light company had made a futile attempt to do so. The gas meter in the Schildknecht house was also removed by J. F. Wurga after the gas had been turned off by him. After the fire was under control the 1,100-volt lines were put back on the poles by H. I. Cecil. The pole at which the connection had been made was badly charred and was thus weakened and had to be braced by means of pike poles in order that the work could be carried on with some degree of safety.

We believe that the proper credit should go to the men that do the work and we wish to state that we are always ready to do our part to aid and assist the manager of the light company, even though we are not regular employees of his company.

Wurga & Cecil.

New Cigar Factory.

Robert Richter has purchased the W. C. Hamilton cigar factory and has removed the same to his residence, where the business will be carried on. In reality it is not a new factory, but an established business under a new management and ownership, and the same brands of cigars will be manufactured in the future by Mr. Richter. Mr. Hamilton has established a good business for the line of goods he has been making, and in turning it over to Mr. Richter we believe it will continue to grow. Mr. Richter has had several years' experience in the cigar business and understands it thoroughly, knowing full well just what the trade of this city and community demand, and he will exert every effort to meet it. For the present his factory will be located at his residence, but as soon as suitable rooms can be found he will move down town.
