FRIENDS SURPRISE FRANK SITZMAN

Held Last Saturday Evening, and Which Proved a Most Delightful Affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sivey planned a surprise party for Mr. Frank Sitzman, which was held on last Saturday evening, March 9, and which proved a most delightful affair. The company of invaders assembled at the Sivey home about 7:45, and about 8 o'clock were taken to the Sitzman home in wagons and sleighs. When they made their invasion into the Sitzman home Mr. Sitzman was more than surprised. He had heard that there was to be something doing, but had concluded that the roads were so bad that they would be unable to get there.

The evening hours were very pleasantly passed in various amusements, such as games, dancing and social conversation, the music being furnished by Messrs. Beck and Frank and Paul Sitzman. The ladies had brought plenty of eatables, and at the hour of 1:30 a most excellent luncheon was served.

Those in attendance were: Messrs. and Mesdames John Kopp, Ray Beaver, Henry Steinhauer, Will Gravitt, Frank Sivey, Frank Sitzman; Mrs. Della Hyde; Misses Almeda Jones, Meda Kopp, Laura Gravitt, Gladys Steinhauer, Meta Jennings; Messrs. Frank Amick, Adam Meisinger, Jimmy Jones, Paul Sitzman, Henry Klingner and Mr. Beck.

Reaches 87th Mile Stone.

Grandma Hinton celebrated her 87th birthday last Saturday and enjoyed a postal card shower, congratulating her on her vigorous health. Mrs. Hinton makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. William Gillispie, and receives frequent visits from her other two daughters, Mrs. Joseph Adams and Mrs. Judge J. W. Johnson. Mrs. Hinton is very active for her years and enjoys the best of health, and spends a great deal of her time reading.

G. P. Meisinger of Cedar Creek was a Plattsmouth visitor today, coming down on No. 4.

Funeral of John Cloidt, Sr.

The funeral of John Cloidt, sr., occurred last Saturday morning from St. John's Catholic church at 10 o'clock and was attended by a large number of friends and neighbors and acquaintances of the deceased, who came to pay a last tribute of respect to one who while in active life had won the highest esteem and regard of those with whom he was associated. The funeral was conducted by Father Shine and consisted of the solemn ritual of the Roman Catholic church. Miss Opal Fitzgerald sang a solo and the rest of the music was furnished by the chorus choir. The floral tributes were numerous and most beautiful. Interment was made in the Holy Sepulcher cemetery by the side of his wife. The pall-bearers were: Con Gillispie, Joseph Droege, Charles McEntee, Baxter Smith, Mike Bajack and C. C. Neff.

Card of Thanks.

To the kind neighbors and friends who so thoughtfully aided us in laying to rest our dear father we tender our most sincere thanks, and especially do we feel grateful to those who sent floral tokens for his casket. May a kind heavenly Father reward you.

Mrs. John Bajack.
Mrs. Emil Ptak.

Wedding at Elmwood.

Miss Mary Jahn and Mr. Frank Warner, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Warner of Cheyenne, Wyo., but until recently of Seward, Neb., were married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride in this city. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by Rev. J. W. Davis of the M. E. church in the presence of a small congregation of friends of the contracting parties. Mrs. Warner has grown to womanhood in our midst, and there are many with whom the Leader-Echo is pleased to join in wishing her a long and happy wedded life. We are not as yet informed as to where the new bride and groom will locate to make their permanent home.—Elmwood Leader-Echo.

Attorney Charles L. Graves of Union was an over night visitor in the city, having come to the county seat to look after some business matters.

COL. SWEZEY VISITS IN TOWN SHORT TIME

He Gives the Journal Reporter a Story of His Visit in Kansas City.

Colonel Swezey was in the city Thursday and had himself measured for a suit at C. E. Westcott's Sons clothing emporium and visited with friends between trains, and in a conversation stated that he did not like Kansas City a little bit. The Colonel got a distaste for that metropolis of the west the first or second time he visited it, and it happened in this wise:

He was selling almanacs for the New York Sun or some other such concern. He first went to the Star office, but could place no order; then to the Journal, where he met with like results; the Colonel then walked up to the Times office, situated at the corner of Ninth and Delaware streets, where he sold 20,000 copies. There was an entrance from either street, and not noticing which exit he was taking, he stepped out on Ninth, which is on an incline somewhat more abrupt than the Plattsmouth High school hill. This was in November and it had been sleeting and the street was a glare of ice.

Before the Colonel realized it he was making a slide for Main street, a block away. He made the first half of the block on his feet in a half-bent sort of letter "S" position, with his cane projected in front, but his speed increased and he could not keep up with his feet, so he made the last half of the distance in a sitting posture. When he brought up in the center of Main street he was the maddest man that ever went to Kansas City, and he then vowed, as he made his way to join his wife at the Savoy hotel, that he would never live in Kansas City.

Big Stationery Bargain.

For the past few years the Journal has held the reputation of carrying the largest and most complete line of all kinds of stationery in the city. By carrying such a large line there are always a few odds and ends left over in making selections for new goods. We are in no way contrary to the usual methods of business, and have a large number of these boxes on hand that we want to convert into cash, even at a great sacrifice. The boxes are slightly soiled, but the paper and envelopes are as good as ever. Many of them have sold for 60c and 35c, and we have placed them all in one lot and are going to sell them as long as they last for the small sum of 15c each. This will be the stationery bargain of the year and it will pay you to buy several boxes for future use. This price is about one-half first cost.

Car of Coal Capsized.

Asbury Jacks returned last week from a few days' visit with his daughter at Sidney, Iowa, and while waiting at a small station in that vicinity on a branch of the "Q," he witnessed a fete in rail-roading he had never seen done before. A train of freight cars, with two engines drawing it, had a car of coal strike a frog, go off the rails and bump along on the frozen ground for a long distance. It finally turned completely over, dumping the coal in the snowbank beside the track. Several cars went off at the same time, tying up traffic on the branch for a long time.

The Journal office carries all kinds of typewriter supplies.

Food and Sleep.

These are the two best medicines in the world. Without food or sleep there is no life. The most important of the two is food, because, if enough of nutritious food is accepted by the body and thoroughly digested, a natural, refreshing sleep will be enjoyed. This shows the necessity of a healthy appetite and of a good digestion. As soon as any disturbance in the usual appetite or in the digestion appears, you should at once use Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine. It is composed of red wine and selected herbs and contains no injurious ingredients. It gently stimulates and greatly strengthens the digestive organs, increases the appetite, aids digestion and secures a restful sleep. It will quickly relieve constipation and its sequelae, diseases of the stomach and the intestines. At drug stores. Jos. Triner, 1333-1359 So. Ashland Avenue, Chicago, Ill.

New Produce Firm.

Plattsmouth has a new produce firm in the person of Paul Handley, and he will buy all kinds of farm produce, such as chickens, ducks and geese, butter and eggs, and at all times pay the highest market price in cash. He is also representative for the Fairmont Creamery Co., and wants a chance to buy what cream you have to sell. He is located in the old Hall building at the corner of Sixth and Pearl streets. Mr. Handley is an excellent young man, and with his mother will make Plattsmouth his future home. He is desirous of making friends with everybody, but especially among the farmers who have produce to sell. He invites them all to call and see him.

FREE HOMESEEKERS' EXCURSION.

I have arranged to get a rate of $30.00 round trip to Detroit, Arkansas, on the second day of May, where we have 15,000 acres of fine farm lands for sale. Those buying land while there will have their railroad fare returned. For further particulars apply to or write,

T. L. Amick, Mynard, Neb.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to take this method of expressing our most sincere thanks to the many neighbors and friends who so kindly assisted us during the illness and death of our beloved wife and mother. We also wish to thank you for the many beautiful floral offerings.

Mr. Grovenor Knapp.
Mrs. W. K. Fox.

A SURPRISE!

We are surprised about the sales of our ready-made dresses for ladies and children. Also the aprons and petticoats, but not any more so than the ladies who see them and how cheap they are priced. Come in the next time you are down town and look them over, slip into one of them, put it right on over your street dress. If you don't say they are better made, better fitting, better material and cheaper than you ever dreamed of we miss our guess a mile.

Every one that has done so is enthusiastic about them. Some have taken two and three, and why not? You can get two for the price of one if you have them made or get them elsewhere.
