Snow is a white substance covering the earth from three to fifteen feet, lasting for nine months in the year. Statisticians estimate that there is enough of this white, wet substance to cover all the candidates in the coming campaign from the presidential down to the aspirant for chief custodian of corkscrews.

Harold Morton Kramer, the novelist, delivered a lecture in the Christian church Tuesday evening. His subject was "Here or Nowhere." His philosophy of life is good. The destiny of man is determined by his will to do, not "smokin' and spittin'" and "don't get blue, but hustle." He does not talk among the clouds, but comes down on a dead level and gives you something for everyday use.

A Journal representative was unable to visit Murray this week, fearing that the high water and stormy weather would prevent the train from returning that evening. You may imagine our surprise when we heard the old M. P. train pull into the county seat right on time that evening. Some difference over the week previous, five hours late, thank you. Should you find the news items a trifle more interesting this week it will be no fault of ours. Some of our good Murray friends did it.

Mexican Party.

While Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Pitman were traveling in the south and Mexico this winter they were not forgetful of their friends at home, which was plainly shown Monday evening of this week, when they invited a few of their friends in to spend the evening. Cards were the amusement until about 11 o'clock, when lunch was served. Peach of wine was passed first, that was made in Mexico, and as the label of the bottle was in Mexican print the guests were requested to guess what they were tasting. The second course was sherbert and cake, and the third consisted of candy and cigarettes, also of Mexican manufacture. The cigarettes were rolled in corn husks, and the wafers were made was quite a curiosity. Pauline Oldham won the king prize, which was a handmade Mexican piece of pottery, and the consolation prize was also a piece of pottery. Vance Pitman winning this number. Their large circle of friends are certainly glad to have Mr. and Mrs. Pitman home with them again, and will long remember this one evening spent with them. The guests present were: Messrs. and Mesdames J. W. Bolmes, T. J. Brendel, W. C. Brown, James Loughridge, O. A. Davis, Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Gilmore, Messrs. Pauline and Phyll Oldham, Messrs. Albert Young and Vance Pitman.

THE SHOOTING OF BLUNT CONDEMNED

Neighbors of Roy Blunt Are Very Indignant Over His Death.

While the capture of the escaped convicts and killing of two of them was a desired sequel to the man hunt of Monday, the killing of Roy Blunt, an innocent farmer boy, who was forced by them to drive them in trying to make their escape, is strongly condemned by every law-abiding citizen. And while many condemn the passes and officials who were in at the killing, the neighbors of the young man and those in nearest proximity to the territory through which the convicts made their way, are strongest in their denunciation of the hasty dispatch of the outlaws, when a small amount of delay and watching of opportunity the same result could have been accomplished by shooting a horse in the team and the life of young Blunt would have been spared.

Sheriff Qundon, in speaking of the matter, remarked that he was an officer and not on the ground and would not say, under the circumstances, just what he would have done, though it had been his plan to kill one of the horses to stop the race for liberty, but the desperate character of the outlaws ought to be taken into consideration by the people before too strongly condemning the officers for what had happened.

The convicts had intended to take both Blunt and his wife with them as hostages, and after she left the house and started to her father's, a mile and a half away, the convicts took Blunt and followed his wife for half a mile; then turned back to his home and forced him to hitch up his team and take them on their way to Albright. The young woman would also have been in the wagon had she not, under the ruse of going to the hen-house for eggs, made her escape to her father's home. The men were of such a desperate character that they would have exposed a defenseless woman to the bullets of the pursuing citizens and officers in order to gain their coveted liberty.

DOUBLY PROVEN

Plattsmouth Readers Can No Longer Doubt the Evidence.

This grateful citizen testified long ago:
Toll of quick relief—of lasting benefit.
The facts are now confirmed. Such testimony is complete—the evidence conclusive. It forms convincing proof of merit.

Mrs. S. J. Gaynor, 1209 Arbor St., Omaha, Neb., says: "My kidneys were badly disordered, as was shown by the unnatural condition of the kidney secretions. I tried various remedies, but did not notice any improvement until I commenced the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Since taking them I have felt better in every way and I have thus been convinced that they are a preparation of merit."

The above statement was given April 15, 1906, and on February 2, 1909, Mrs. Gaynor added: "My faith in Doan's Kidney Pills remains unbroken. I have no inclination to retract one word from the statement I gave in 1906 regarding my experience with this remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Always the Home of Satisfaction

CHILDREN INJURED

Ordinary Cathartics and Pills and Harsh Physic Cause Distressing Complaints.

You cannot be over-careful in the selection of medicine for children. Only the very gentlest bowel medicine should ever be given, except in emergency cases. Ordinary pills, cathartics and purgatives are apt to do more harm than good. They may cause griping nausea and other distressing after-effects that are frequently health-destroying.

We personally recommend and guarantee Rexall Orderlies as the safest and most dependable remedy, which we know, for constipation and associate bowel disorders. We have such absolute faith in the virtues of this remedy that we sell it on our guarantee of money back in every instance where it fails to give entire satisfaction, and we urge all in need of such medicine to try it at our risk.

Rexall Orderlies are eaten just like candy, are particularly prompt and agreeable in action, may be taken at any time, day or night; do not cause diarrhoea, nausea, griping; excessive looseness, or other undesirable effects. They have a very mild but positive action upon the organs with which they come in contact, apparently acting as a regenerative tonic upon the relaxed muscular coat of the bowel, thus overcoming weakness, and aiding to restore the bowels to more vigorous and healthy activity.

Rexall Orderlies commonly completely relieve constipation, except of course when of a surgical character. They also tend to overcome the necessity of constantly taking laxatives to keep the bowels in normal condition. Three sizes of packages, 10 cents, 25 cents and 50 cents. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Plattsmouth only at our store—The Rexall Store, F. G. Fricke & Co., Union Block.

Operated on Today.

Grover Dovey was attacked last evening at 6 o'clock with a dangerous form of appendicitis and was hurried to an Omaha hospital on the early M. P. train this morning and operated upon at once. Dr. T. P. Livingston accompanied him to the hospital, and it was his opinion that without an operation the patient would not live twenty-four hours. As soon as the operation was performed Dr. Livingston phoned to Mr. Dovey that Grover had come through it all right, and while not at that time (10:30) yet recovered from the effects of the anesthetic, yet he felt sure he would come out all right.

BACKACHE ALMOST UNBEARABLE

Is an almost certain result of kidney trouble. D. Toomey, 803 E. Olive St., Bloomington, Ill., says: "I suffered with backache and pains in my kidneys which were almost unbearable. I gave Foley's Kidney Pills a good trial, and they done wonders for me. Today I can do a hard day's work and not feel the effects." For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Changed at Cullom.

The Burlington train serving via La Platte and Bellevue to Omaha was resumed today, No. 15 making its usual run, but being over an hour late. A lone passenger, returning from the wrestling match, got off of the Schuyler at Cullom this morning about 9:45, expecting to change cars for Plattsmouth, but not finding a train waiting after the Schuyler pulled out for Omaha phoned in to know when he could get the next train down, and was informed that the next train down would be No. 30 about 8 o'clock this evening.
