THE EIGHTH GRADE STUDENTS GRADUATE

Meeting to Be Held at Weeping Water Next Saturday, May 25.

Saturday, May 25, at Weeping Water, County Superintendent Miss Mary Foster, will hold the second annual promotion exercises for Eighth grade graduates of Cass county. The class is much larger than last year and will number more than 150 graduates. A fine program and picnic dinner on the Weeping Water school campus has been arranged, and the good people of that vicinity will enjoy a gala day.

The graduates and their parents and friends will be entertained from 11:30 to 12:30 at the High school assembly room with ciphering and spelling matches. At 12:30 all will enjoy a picnic dinner on the school grounds. At 2 p. m. the class address will be delivered at the Congregational church by Dr. J. A. Beatie of Colner university, subject, "Why Americans Need Education." The diplomas will be presented by Miss Foster. The music will be furnished by the members of the class.

There will be a special car run from Plattsmouth over the Missouri Pacific on the 25th for the accommodation of those wishing to go from Plattsmouth and vicinity and along the route via Union to Weeping Water and return. Following is a list of the graduates:

THE REDMAN DAMAGE SUIT NOW ON TRIAL

Case Brought in Omaha Against Former Mayor H. R. Gering Now on Trial.

From Wednesday's Daily. The $50,000 damage suit, which was brought by Benjamin Redman, a former Plattsmouth Burlington brakeman, against H. R. Gering, former mayor of this city, for the alienation of Mrs. Redman's affections, was on trial in the law division of the Douglas county district court before Judge Estelle yesterday and the day before. The plaintiff is represented in the case by J. A. McKenzie, of the firm of McKenzie, Howard & Cox, and the defendant by Matthew Gering of this city. The plaintiff's attorney, in his opening statement to the jury, said that Gering first met Mrs. Redman when he lived in Plattsmouth, and Mrs. Redman was visiting her parents, George Griffin and wife, during the time Mr. Griffin was superintendent of the Masonic Home. The interception of a note, alleged to have been written by Henry R. Gering to Mrs. Benjamin Redman convinced Mr. Redman that his wife was untrue and that Gering was the person responsible. The note, said Mr. McKenzie, was sent from a hotel in Omaha and addressed Mrs. Redman as "My darling sweetheart" and asked her to meet him at a certain place between 11 and 2. The messenger boy, by mistake, delivered the note to Mr. Redman's mother, who called a private detective to work on the case. George F. Stryker, the detective, was the star witness for the plaintiff Monday. On Tuesday Joseph Fitzgerald, former chief of police of Plattsmouth, was the principal witness for the plaintiff, and testified to delivering a note to Mrs. Redman for Gering in 1908. On cross-examination it was sought to show that the note was a prescription, and that it was delivered in 1907 instead of 1908. The witness could not be made to change the date, but stated that he did not know the contents of the note.

Mr. Gering's attorney contends that the case is trumped up for the purpose of obtaining money from the defendant, and that defendant never kept company with Mrs. Redman until after she obtained a divorce from her husband.

The Demons of the Swamp are mosquitos. As they sting they put deadly malaria germs in the blood. Then follow the icy chills and the fires of fever. The appetite flies and the strength fails; also malaria often paves the way for deadly typhoid. But Electric Bitters kill and cast out the malaria germs from the blood; give you a fine appetite and renew your strength. "After long suffering," wrote Wm. Fretwell, of Lucama, N. C., "three bottles drove all the malaria from my system, and I've had good health ever since." Best for all stomach, liver and kidney ills. 50 cents at F. G. Fricke & Co.'s.

A. S. Will on Sick List. Ex-Councilman A. S. Will has been confined to his home with sickness most of the time for the past two months. Mr. Will was out this morning for the first time for several days, and left for Akron, Colorado, where he had urgent business to attend to. Mr. Will has not been in good health since exposing himself to the cold on one of the coldest days last winter, having been out with his stock all day, when he was thoroughly chilled.

For Sale. R. I. Red eggs for sale, 50 cents per setting, or $3.00 per hundred. Mrs. C. E. Schwab, Phone 3-H, Murray, Neb.

Prominent Elmwood Attorney.

From Tuesday's Daily. Hon. William DellesDernier of Elmwood was in the city over night, looking after some important legal matters, returning home this forenoon. Mr. DellesDernier never comes over unless he has legal business of great importance, and he has no time for merely business. The people of Cass county, and in fact, other counties also, have great faith in Mr. DellesDernier's legal ability, and they have long since learned when legal business is placed in his hands it receives prompt attention and without any noise or bluster. He is reliable in all kinds of business matters, and a genuine good fellow to boot. The Journal is always glad to meet him.

Funeral of C. A. Hagerstrom.

From Tuesday's Daily. The funeral of C. A. Hagerstrom occurred this morning at 11 o'clock from the Swedish Mission church in this city and was conducted by Rev. Anderson, pastor of the Bethlehem Swedish Mission church at Cresco, Neb. The church was filled with the old-time neighbors and friends of the deceased, who knew Mr. and Mrs. Hagerstrom well when they were in life and resided in this city. Interment was made at Oak Hill cemetery by the side of the remains of his wife, who died several years ago. The pall-bearers were: L. G. Larson, Charles Ryberg, A. Peistrup, Gust Johnson, William Fablesen and Albe Nelson.

What Texans Admire

is hearty, vigorous life, according to Hugh Tallman, of San Antonio. "We find," he writes, "that Dr. King's New Life Pills surely put new life and energy into a person. Wife and I believe they are the best made." Excellent for stomach, liver or kidney troubles. 25 cents at F. G. Fricke & Co.

Has Fine New Incubator.

Oscar Wilson has just received a fine new up-to-date incubator which has many improvements over any that has yet appeared on the market. This device for hatching chicks is not large, yet holds 163 eggs. The heat is self-regulating, the thermometer always visible to show the temperature of the eggs and the incubator neat and clean and could be placed in the parlor and make an ornamental piece of furniture.

Helps a Judge in Bad Fix.

Justice Eli Cherry, of Gillis Mills, Tenn., was plainly worried. A bad sore on his leg had baffled several doctors and long resisted all remedies. "I thought it was a cancer," he wrote. "At last I used Bucklen's Anica Salve, and was completely cured." Cures burns, boils, ulcers, cuts, bruises and piles. 25 cents at F. G. Fricke & Co.

Automobile for Sale.

Five-passenger Velie Touring Car, with full equipment and in good condition. Just repainted and thoroughly overhauled. Car can be seen at the Frank Gobelman paint shop. Has been run only about 6,000 miles, and will be sold for $750.00. For further particulars see R. A. Troop.

THERE'S a good reason why the young men ought to be particular about style—and about getting quality with their style in clothes. We don't need to tell you young fellows what the season is, but we know, and that is why we specialize young men's clothes so carefully. Smart, nifty, breezy styles in suits; with the quality of fabrics and thoroughness of tailoring that makes 'em stay stylish.
