

WEeping WATER.
Republican.

Mrs. A. E. Tierney returned home Monday from Custer county, fully recovered from her long sickness.

Dr. Welch returned home from Haigler Tuesday. Mrs. Welch remained for a more extended visit with her son and daughter at Wray.

George Corley came in from Chicago Monday, where he is employed in the office of the Cudahy Packing company. He will take his vacation in Weeping Water.

Mr. and Mrs. Seren Serensen and two children of Omaha, returned home Monday, after a visit at the home of Messrs. Nels Sorgard, Hans Johnson and Lars Nelson.

Mrs. Charles Hansen and daughter left Friday for Wausa, Neb., for an extended stay with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Beckner. Mrs. Hansen's health is poor, and for that reason she goes to stay with her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Davis are enjoying a visit from Mrs. Davis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Stevens, and Dr. A. B. Twadell, wife and two children. Mrs. Twadell is a sister of Mrs. Davis. They autoed from their home in Iola, Kansas.

Nick Halmes autoed to Plattsmouth Friday to attend to business at the court house Saturday regarding the settlement of his father's estate, which he is administrator of. This is a very important position, as the estate is probably worth $90,000.

Material is being hauled from here for a new steel and concrete bridge across the Weeping Water, two miles west of town, also for two bridges at the four corners, two miles south and three miles west at the A. Mitchell farm. These three bridges were all needed and the county commissioners showed their good judgment when they ordered them for these places.

Frank Dudley left for Galveston, Texas, last Friday to open the theatrical season, going as far as Kansas City in his auto, from where he shipped the car and took the train the rest of the way to his destination. Dr. and Mrs. Shannon and Miss Mable Dudley accompanied him as far as Kansas City, and the ideal day, the good roads and the beautiful fall scenery made it a trip not to be forgotten. Most of the journey was through the apple district of Nebraska and Kansas, and the thousands of bushels of fruit that they saw made quite a sight.

NEHAWKA.
News.

Frank Robb left Wednesday for Red Oak, Iowa, where he will visit for a short time with his mother.

Fred L. Nutzman returned on Monday from Wallace, Nebraska, where he purchased a carload of young mules.

George Sheldon and Mrs. Sheldon took Mr. and Mrs. Wolph to Crete Sunday to visit their daughters, who are in school there.

Henry Ost got tangled up in a corn binder recently and will take life easy until a broken bone in h's hand heals. The accident happened Saturday.

Mrs. B. B. Stone went to Hickman Tuesday morning, where she attended a wedding that evening of a cousin. She returned home Wednesday evening.

Miss Edith Flock of Regina, Canada, who is visiting friends in Nebraska, was here the first of the week, a guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Sheldon.

Frank Allen, who has been conducting a blacksmith shop in Manley for several years, sold out and will work for his brother-in-law, T. E. Fulton.

Farmers are busy filling their silos with corn fodder and a number of machines in this vicinity are busy shredding it. Farmers are beginning to realize that a valuable part of their corn crop in the past has been wasted.

Ern Young, J. E. Banning and Charley Cunningham returned last Thursday afternoon from a two weeks' hunt in northwest Nebraska. The boys say they had a big time and lots of game. They came home with the limit at least; this is what they say, but they did not furnish any affidavits to this statement nor any evidence in the way of chickens.

Henry Steffens, the 16-year-old nephew of Dick Steffens, arrived last Friday morning direct from Hanover, Germany. The young man, who will make his home with his uncle, left Bremen on the steamer George Washington and arrived in New York on September 30, and here on the 4th day of October. He is certainly a green Dutch boy now, but if he possesses the indomitable will to succeed that marks the most of his fellow countrymen that comes over here, it will not be many years until he has a business of his own, and a stray farm or two.

LOUISVILLE.
Courier.

Paul Jacobson left Thursday for Lincoln, where he will attend the State Agricultural college.

Will Dugan has accepted a position in a general merchandise store at Elgin, Neb., and left Tuesday to enter upon his new duties.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Burns of Whiting, Iowa, came down Saturday for an over-Sunday visit at the home of James Terryberry.

Miss Katherine Hyde of Nodaway, Iowa, has accepted a position as saleslady at Diers Bros' store in the dry goods department.

John Eller shipped a car of cement stays to Gothenburg, Neb., this week for the construction of a silo. The stays were manufactured in Louisville.

We regret to learn of the serious illness of Mrs. Frank Ivers, formerly Miss Eva Ferguson, at her home in Colorado. Little hope is entertained for her recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Keiser have returned to Louisville from Portland, Oregon, and are visiting at the home of Jacob Keiser. They will move to the Pettis farm as soon as the present tenant, J. W. Harris, vacates.

A letter received by E. C. Twiss from California announces the serious illness of Dr. J. A. Hasemeier. The doctor's many friends in Cass county will join with the Courier in wishing him a speedy return to health.

The little 4-year-old girl of Alfred Alexen fell off a box last Monday afternoon and broke her arm above the elbow. A physician was called and set the arm and the little girl is getting along as well as could be expected.

Mrs. S. B. McLeran arrived in town last week from Vermont, where she went to visit her mother. While there they celebrated the latter's 88th birthday. Mrs. McLeran has also spent the last two years with her daughter, Mrs. T. C. Hollister, in Idaho Falls, Idaho.

W. F. Krecklow returned last Saturday from a three weeks' trip to Wibaux, Montana, where he went to look at the country and visit with old friends. He reports all of the former Louisville people who are located there, getting along nicely and says that they are all well and happy.

SUDDEN DEATH OF
W. H. POOL AT
WEeping WATER

Many Friends in Cass County Will
Regret the Sudden Demise
of This Good Man.

William H. Pool, one of the prominent citizens of Cass county, died very suddenly at Weeping Water Saturday. Mr. Pool had gone to the railroad station to meet his son, Prof. Raymond J. Pool, who, with a party of students, were about to depart on a botanical expedition. He had just greeted his son and turned around, starting to fall, when his son caught him in his arms, but Mr. Pool passed away before medical aid could reach him. The cause of his death is ascribed to heart failure.

Mr. Pool was a retired real estate dealer, and was quite well-to-do. He held the office of register of deeds of this county for several terms, retiring to engage in the real estate business, in which he was very successful. About two years ago he moved to Lincoln, where he resided for a short time, returning to Weeping Water, where he has resided since.

While the deceased was a staunch republican, he never let his politics interfere in social relations. The Journal has enjoyed Mr. Pool's acquaintance ever since it has been under its present management, and we have always found him to be an honorable, upright business man and citizen.

Dan Rice Returns From Omaha.

Dan Rice returned Saturday afternoon from Omaha, where he has been in Immanuel hospital for several days. Mr. Rice went to Omaha Wednesday to visit his daughter, Mrs. Edwards, at the hospital, and while there was taken with what the doctors first supposed was a paralytic stroke, but he recovered sufficiently to return home, but is still in a very weak condition, due to worry over the condition of his daughter.

HERMAN DIERS
DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR
Lieutenant Governor of Nebraska

The motto of Herman Diers is: "Less Politics and More Business in State Affairs."

Mr. Diers is a brother of W. F. Diers of Louisville and one of the successful business men of the state. He solicits the votes of the people of Cass county.

If elected he promises to give as careful attention to state affairs as he gives to his own business affairs. He promises to safeguard the interests of the people in every particular.

His record as representative of York county, and as state senator from York and Fillmore counties is a matter of public record and as such is open for inspection.

Profitable Farming.

Irrigated land which produces more than its cost in a single year. Near railroad, which is now being double-tracked in order to handle the constantly increasing farm business. Agreeable, healthful climate. Buy now while prices are reasonable for they will surely increase four-fold in the next five years. Local agents wanted. For further information call on, telephone or write C. L. Hochstetler, Nebraska City, Neb.

UNION.
Ledger.

James Roddy and wife, residing a few miles east of town, rejoice on account of a new addition to the family circle, a daughter born on Tuesday morning, October 8.

Mrs. L. J. Hall and Miss Florence Davis went over to Hickman on Tuesday to attend a wedding in which Mr. Hall's cousin, Miss Minnie Jones, was the bride.

Mrs. Tillie Hargus arrived home on the Wednesday evening train from Kansas City, where she had been enjoying about two weeks' visit with some of her friends.

Samuel Arn, who spent several days arrived home Tuesday night from their trip to Montana, but George Stiles, who went with them, remained there for a longer visit.

Will L. Taylor and wife are the happy parents of a fine new son that registered at their home on Thursday morning, October 3, just a few hours too late to get his arrival recorded in this paper last week.

Samuel Arn, who spent several months here assisting his son, V. T. Arn, in the meat market, departed Sunday night for his former home at Clarington, O., and the Ledger will carry the local news to him every week.

W. L. and John F. Hobaek arrived home Wednesday from Sioux City, Iowa, where they had been called by the death of their sister, Mrs. Mary A. Gilson, wife of John Gilson. Her death occurred Sunday, and the funeral services were held on Tuesday.

F. G. Kendall received a letter a few days ago informing him of the death of Samuel Cannon, which occurred September 30 at his home in Custer county. The deceased was a resident of this vicinity a number of years ago and was well known by old settlers now living here.

Tom M. Patterson, the Plattsmouth banker, was here Wednesday, and had intended going back on the evening train—but didn't. He made a good run for it (which looked like base ball days 25 years ago), but he lost his race by a very close margin, beaten—and that by a Missouri Pacific train.

A. R. Eikenberry arrived Monday from Brush, Colo., having made the journey to attend the funeral of Charles Swan, which

NO MEAT
—DELIVERED AFTER NOVEMBER 1st—

This is notice to the people of Plattsmouth, customers of Kunsman & Range:

We have come to the conclusion and completely convinced that on account of the high prices of meats, we can make it an object for you and everyone to come for your product. We have fully decided to quit delivering meat to anyone after November 2nd. We are satisfied you will be more pleased to select your meats and save yourself from 3 to 5c per pound on most of the cuts. The high price of stock and meat and the expense of delivering has compelled us to discontinue the delivery business after Nov. 2.

was held on Sunday. Mr. Eikenberry was unfortunately delayed by an accident to his train, resulting in him missing connection and he did not arrive in time for the funeral.

Mrs. C. A. Gauer and two daughters drove in this morning from the farm near Cedar Creek and departed on No. 15 for Omaha.

Glenn, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. George Edmisten, residing southeast of town, had the misfortune to fall last Sunday evening while playing with other children, and the little fellow suffered a dislocation of the left elbow. It was a painful injury and required all of Master Glenn's "grit" to help him through while Dr. Walker was dressing the damaged arm.

J. M. Craig of Burwell, Neb., arrived Saturday and is visiting relatives and friends in the old town. Mr. Craig and wife have been traveling quite extensively this summer, but Mrs. Craig remained at home to rest on this trip. Mr. Craig leaves tomorrow for Texas to look after some land interests, after which he will return here for a longer visit.
