G. A. R. POST
ENJOY FINE TIME
SATURDAY NIGHT

Large Audience Present and the Ladies' Relief Corps Furnished a Most Delicious Lunch.

Saturday evening McConihie Post of the Grand Army of the Republic gave one of their campfires, which was one of the most largely attended of the year and a splendid time was enjoyed by the large crowd present. The committee in charge of the campfire had sent out invitations to all the old soldiers in this vicinity and all but five responded to the invitation, six of the old comrades coming up from Union to be present at the gathering.

A fine program was given consisting of addresses by Comrades T. W. Glenn, R. B. Windham and T. M. Carter, which were very interesting to the auditors. Don C. York favored the campfire with one of his beautiful bass solos, which was one of the most delightful features of the evening. Misses Leona Brady and Bertha Jackson also sang a very charming duet in their usual pleasing manner, that made a very deep impression on the auditors and it is to be regretted that the public has not been enabled to hear more of these ladies' beautiful voices. Misses Marie Douglass and Ellen Windham gave two very interesting readings, and as these young ladies are finished artists in this line their numbers were highly appreciated.

During the course of the evening the ladies of the Women's Relief Corps served a most delicious lunch, which proved a rare treat to the members of the G. A. R. and their friends and came as a fitting finish to the evening's enjoyment. The ladies also presented a beautiful gold badge to Mrs. Edwin Bates, one of their most faithful members, who is soon to remove with her husband to Washington, where they expect to make their future home, and in the presentation told of the sorrow with which they parted with this estimable couple, who have been very prominent in Grand Army circles. Mr. Bates being the present commander of McConihie post. The whole evening was one of great enjoyment to all present and renewed the ties that had been formed when they were battling for the life of the country. The members of the post and the Relief Corps also furnished several patriotic songs during the evening that served as reminders of the great conflict in which they participated.

A Happy Grandpa.

John Haynie, who resides south of this city, is wearing a broad smile today for he has become a grandpa, a fine son having been born last evening to his daughter, Mrs. F. D. Steinhaus, of Gordon, Neb., who has been visiting with them for several weeks. The mother and little son will return in a short time to their home in Gordon.

Entertain for Family.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Ruffner entertained a family party yesterday at dinner at their handsome home on North Eighth street. Their son, Sperry, and Dr. and Mrs. Roy Dodge had motored down from Omaha to visit the old home over Sunday, and it is needless to say that the occasion was very enjoyable to all concerned. Horace Ruffner, who came down Saturday evening for a short visit, was a guest at the Metzger home near Cedar Creek over Sunday.

MERCHANTS' HOLIDAY OPENING

It Will Aid the Holiday Patrons to See in Advance What Is in Store for Them.

Now that the season for holiday shopping is at hand it would be a mighty fine thing for the merchants of the city if they would co-operate in holding a grand opening of their holiday stocks of goods. This would greatly aid all of the merchants and not be of great expense to them. The date can be advertised and the stores prepared to receive the shoppers invited to visit the different stores and inspect the stocks of goods that are offered.

In Fremont the Ad club of that city will make the occasion more interesting by the holding of an industrial exposition, where the various articles manufactured in the city can be inspected and the proper appreciation given to the city manufactures. This is a splendid display of energy on the part of the Fremont citizens and will undoubtedly result in great good to their city.

Let the merchants of Plattsmouth get together and arrange for a grand showing of their holiday goods and have the event advertised throughout the country, so that all may attend and take advantage of the opportunity given to purchase their Christmas gifts without having to wait for the last minute. The Commercial club here could take the matter up and undoubtedly make this one of the biggest events in the history of the city. Get busy on the proposition and let us have the grand opening in the first week of December so that all can have ample opportunity to purchase their Christmas gifts.

FORTHCOMING MARRIAGE OF MISS FRANCES RYS

The many friends of Miss Frances Rys of Havelock, formerly of this city, will be greatly surprised to learn of her forthcoming marriage, which is to occur Thanksgiving day at the home of her parents, Joseph Rys and wife, in Havelock. The fortunate young man is Mr. Charles Cook of Portland, Oregon, and he is certainly to be congratulated on securing such a charming bride as Miss Rys, who was quite popular among the young people while a resident of this city. The young couple will leave for Portland after the wedding ceremony, where they expect to make their future home.

The Journal for Calling Cards.

NAMED IN HONOR OF LATE SAMMIE G. NEILL

Kate Dorman, U. D. C. at Port Arthur, Becomes Sammie Gertrude Neill Chapter.

The following special from Port Arthur, Texas, under date of November 19, refers to a lady who was pretty well known in Plattsmouth, having visited her mother, Mrs. L. A. Moore, on several occasions, but who died recently at Port Arthur. It will be seen that Mrs. Neill was highly esteemed by the order, as well as by all who knew her:

"At a meeting of the local chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, held here today, the name of the chapter was changed to that of Sammie Gertrude Neill in commemoration of the organizer and first president, who died here recently.

"Mrs. Neill, who came here from Galveston, was a leading spirit in religious and fraternal work and was one of the most popular women in this section. She died recently, following an operation for appendicitis. The tribute paid to her memory in the changing of the name of the chapter she organized in August was adopted by unanimous vote.

"Since Mrs. Neill's death Mrs. W. J. Adams, vice president of the chapter, has been acting president. As it was decided to confine this meeting solely to the object stated the election of a new president was postponed until the next meeting, which will be held December 17.

"Following the meeting today steps were at once taken to secure endorsement of the proceedings from the state president of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, Mrs. Harold W. Greer, living in Beaumont. Besides a new name the local chapter will also be assigned a new number. The question of securing the endorsement of the president is simply a formality."

CHANGE OF VENUE IN FAMOUS BRIDGE CASE

District Judge Travis has just granted a change of venue in the famous bridge case of Cass vs. Sarpy county, the case being taken to Otoe county for trial. This case has been in litigation for the last twelve years, having started in 1900, when Cass county brought suit to recover $2,644.93, one-half of the repairs of the Louisville wagon bridge. The case has been before the supreme court of the state five times. The last trial was held in March, 1910, when a verdict for the defendant was rendered. It was again reversed in the supreme court and remanded for trial this year. Since the time the case was started the bridge has been washed out several times and been repaired and at the present time the bridge at Louisville is a toll bridge owned by private parties.

WILL UNITE IN THANKSGIVING DAY SERVICES

The churches of the city will unite in a Thanksgiving day service to be held next Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the First Methodist church. This service will be held along the lines of the Thanksgiving services held by the forefathers and will render the thanks of those present for the goodness and bounty that has been showered upon them during the past year. Rev. M. W. Lorimer of the Presbyterian church will conduct the services. A very cordial invitation is extended to the citizens of Plattsmouth to attend and participate in these services.

Entertains for Friends.

Saturday evening the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Todd, west of this city, was the scene of one of the most enjoyable social events of the season, when they entertained about one hundred and four guests, who enjoyed the evening at various amusements, and it was a late hour when the guests bid their host and hostess farewell and departed for their homes.

Very Pleasing Dance.

The Cosmopolitan club gave another very pleasant dance at Coates' hall Saturday evening, which drew a very large crowd and the dancers had one of the best times of the season. A great many were present from the neighboring towns. The music was furnished by the M. W. A. orchestra in their usual pleasing manner.

NEWS-HERALD NOW UNDER THE DAISIES

The Plattsmouth News-Herald is no more. After battling against the waves for forty-eight years, sometimes at the very pinnacle of success and again almost submerged by adversity, it has battled on and on, with a frequent change of pilots until at last poor old George Holton took charge and on the 15th of this month the old hull went down like a rotten potato in a bucket of swill—kinder pulling the hole in after it. It is the best thing that ever happened to the republican party in Cass county in years—a sort of relief to the office-holders and politicians who have been called on again and again to tide it over. It has passed into the hands of the publisher of the Plattsmouth Journal, who although democratic almost to the extent of smelling of the "solid south," yet they are not paupers and don't ask for something for nothing. County seat republican merchants are said to believe in advertising to some extent, but look upon it as a business investment and have patronized the paper across the way more than they have the deceased publication. And why not? Merchants no longer advertise just to help the publisher out, but because they realize that it pays them and the paper that the people read is the logical one to plant their ads in.

It perhaps will not be many moons before some dampful will feel that he must save the country by establishing a republican paper in Plattsmouth. He will give away a tin piano to the most popular rube in the county in order to get a circulation and then the county officials of the republican faith who dares to think that Cass county's boundry extends beyond the city limits of Plattsmouth when county patronage is to be placed will be called a traitor to the party.

It seems almost pathetic that the old Plattsmouth Herald is no more, yet none can but feel that it outlived its usefulness.—Louisville Courier.

ALBERT D. WILTON, GREENWOOD BANKER, ACQUITTED

Albert D. Wilton, the Greenwood banker, was acquitted Saturday in Lincoln on an indictment of twelve counts by the jury in the federal court, which disagreed on the six remaining counts. The case has been on trial for three weeks, United States District Attorney Frank Howell of Omaha, with Assistant Lane of Lincoln, prosecuting. Wilton had an imposing array of lawyers and a delegation of many citizens and relatives from Greenwood were in attendance at the trial to express their sympathy for the defendant. The federal attorneys have not indicated what will be done about the six counts on which the jury disagreed.

B. A. McELWAIN SECURES MARRIAGE LICENSE

There was extensive excitement around the court house this morning when B. A. McElwain, the handsome young jeweler, was seen to enter the office of County Judge Beeson and make a request for a marriage license, and a large number of his friends gathered at once to try and persuade him to hesitate before it was too late, but the alarm proved to be without any grounds, as he was procuring the license for some friends at Greenwood, who are to be married Wednesday. The report spread rapidly and created a great deal of excitement until the truth was known.

DR. T. W. FARWELL DELIVERS TWO INTERESTING SERMONS

There were two large audiences present yesterday afternoon and evening at the G. A. R. hall to hear the lecture delivered by Dr. C. W. Farwell, who is appearing as lecturer for the International Bible Student movement. Dr. Farwell is a very pleasing lecturer and presented some very strong facts and arguments in support of the cause he is representing and made a strong impression with his audience. This bible students' movement is teaching the views on the scripture that have been presented so forcibly by Pastor Russell of Brooklyn and has many followers throughout the country.

WORDS FROM HOME!

Statements That May Be Investigated. Testimony of Plattsmouth Citizens.

When a Plattsmouth citizen comes to the front, telling his friends and neighbors of his experience, you can rely on his sincerity. The statements of people residing in far away places do not command your confidence. Home endorsement is the kind that backs Doan's Kidney Pills. Such testimony is convincing. Investigation proves it true. Below is a statement of a Plattsmouth resident. No stronger proof of merit can be had.

Louis Kroehler, proprietor hardware store, Elm street, Plattsmouth, Neb., says: "I know that Doan's Kidney Pills are thoroughly reliable. I took them about a year ago for pain in my back. I was so lame that I couldn't stoop and my kidneys were weak. I had a tired, languid feeling all the time and headaches were common. I got Doan's Kidney Pills from Rynott's Drug Store and they soon relieved my troubles. I am pleased to recommend them."
