Boy Wanted!

Our son, Archie, aged 13 years, departed from his home in Plattsmouth on Tuesday morning, November 26, without any provocation, and we would like to hear of his whereabouts. When he left he had on blue overalls and light coat. Archie is rather slim, blue eyes, dark hair and light complexion, and was last seen at the Burlington station, where he jumped a freight train going south. Information that will lead to his whereabouts will be thankfully received by his parents. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wampler. (Exchanges please copy and aid the distressed parents in finding their boy.)

OVATION TO GOVERNOR MOREHEAD AND FAMILY

The Citizens of Falls City, Irrespective of Party, Take Part in the Event.

Governor-elect John H. Morehead was given a reception, non-partisan, by the good people of Falls City and Richardson county at the National hotel at Falls City last evening. It was a most elaborate affair. The house was tastefully decorated and those having charge of the affair certainly knew how to handle such a function and pulled off one of the biggest social affairs ever known to the people of that city or county.

Mr. Morehead and family held an informal reception in one of the parlors, where they met hundreds of their friends and the good people of that portion of the state. They then repaired to the large dining hall, where Mayor Leyda presided, and a number of prominent speakers, all local men, eulogized the newly elected governor and the family. The speakers paid some high compliments to Mr. Morehead and family. Sheriff Billy Fenton, one of the most popular men of that section of the state, was aid to Mayor Leyda, and they handled things to perfection.

The love feast lasted until after the midnight hour and all left feeling it was one of the most enjoyable "neighborly" affairs they ever attended. The people down in that part of the state, without regard to their political or religious beliefs, seem to be personal friends and admirers of Mr. Morehead and family.—Nebraska City News.
