PAY TRIBUTE TO THE DECEASED MEMBERS

Cass County Bar Holds Memorial Session in Honor of D. K. Barr and J. H. Haldeman.

From Saturday's Daily. Yesterday the district court held a memorial session to pay the respects of the members of the Cass county bar to their deceased members, D. K. Barr and J. H. Haldeman. There was a large attendance of the members of the bar present and brief tributes were paid to the memory of the departed members. Attorneys R. B. Windham, D. O. Dwyer, A. L. Tidd, J. E. Douglass, A. J. Beeson, M. Archer and C. A. Rawls spoke very feelingly of the association they had had with the departed members and of the sterling qualities of these gentlemen.

At the conclusion of the remarks of the attorneys Judge Travis called Mr. Windham to the chair to preside and spoke very eloquently of the life and character of Mr. Barr and Mr. Haldeman, and in addition spoke in general terms of the beauty and obligation of the legal profession and the members of the bar, not only to their clients, but to one another and to the effect of their acts upon the community in which they live. It is stated by those present who heard the remarks of the judge that it was one of the most forceful and impressive addresses that has ever been delivered on an occasion of this kind in a Plattsmouth club room.

The committees appointed to draft resolutions of respect to the two departed members of the Bar association presented the following resolutions, which were adopted and spread upon the records of the district court:

Resolution of Respect.

Your committee, appointed on the suggestion of the death of J. H. Haldeman, in conformity with the court's order, beg leave to submit the following report upon the death of our late brother and former associate:

Mr. J. H. Haldeman was a member of the Cass county bar for more than twenty-five years and actively engaged in the practice of his profession until within the past eight years; his health failing made it necessary for him to retire from active profession. In his relations with the members of the bar he was always courteous and considerate, but his unusual personality sometimes made it difficult to understand him, but when once understood you realized that he was true to principles as he viewed them and had high ideals as to what a member of the profession should be. Mr. Haldeman in his personal relations with other lawyers was universally courteous and considerate and in his profession helpful and upright.

Therefore, Be it resolved that in the death of Mr. J. H. Haldeman we have lost a worthy member from the Cass county bar and shall ever cherish his memory.

Resolved, That we freely express our heartfelt sympathy with his most worthy widow in her great bereavement, and that the clerk of the court be instructed to transmit to Mrs. J. H. Haldeman a certified copy of these resolutions and that they be spread at large on the court journal. Respectfully submitted,

R. B. Windham,
A. L. Tidd,
C. A. Rawls,
D. O. Dwyer,
C. E. Teffl,
Committee.

Resolution of Sympathy.

Whereas, The Almighty, in His infinite wisdom, has removed from mortal life D. K. Barr, esq., and

Whereas, In his death the Cass county bar has lost a conscientious, practical and forcible member; therefore,

Be It Resolved, That the members of said Cass county bar extend to the relatives of said deceased their heartfelt sympathy in their great sorrow and bereavement.

Be It Further Resolved, That these resolutions be entered at length upon the court records and that a copy be sent to relatives of said deceased.

D. O. Dwyer,
W. A. Robertson,
C. A. Rawls,
M. Archer,
Committee.

SEVERAL ACCIDENTS IN AND NEAR UNION

Young Lady Burns Hand, Blair Porter Injures Foot and Everett Hunt Seriously Hurt.

From Saturday's Daily. Miss Verna Chilcott, who has been visiting at Charles Woodward's, south of town, has a very severely burned hand, the result of spilling a pan of hot grease upon it. The wound was very painful and the services of a physician were required.

And now comes one D. Blair Porter, residing west of town, and shows evidence of rough treatment, wearing a pair of life-size crutches to aid him in getting about. Blair was unloading some logs at Judge Upton's hardware store Tuesday forenoon, and one of the logs had the impudence to land on the very spot occupied by Blair's little (?) left foot, the result being a broken bone in the aforesaid foot. The patient has no trouble in getting about, but he does not appear to enjoy the experience of wearing crutches.

Everett Hunt, residing near Avoca, was the victim of the most serious of the week's accidents, his misfortune occurring Tuesday afternoon, about seven miles west of here on the road to Avoca. He had met his father-in-law, Charles F. Morton, at the "half-way" point to exchange horses, and was on his way home, riding in a spring wagon with Addison Johnson and leading a team behind. Suddenly the team he was leading jerked him out of the side of the wagon and under the wheels, the wagon and a horse assing over him. He was rendered unconscious, and Mr. Johnson took him to Avoca as soon as possible, where the local physicians were hastily summoned and Dr. Walker of this village was also called in consultation. It was found that Mr. Hunt was severely bruised about the stomach and bowels, and for awhile his condition was regarded as very serious, but at last report he was getting along nicely and no serious results are expected. — Union Ledger.

Gets $2 and Costs.

From Saturday's Daily. Thanksgiving day Charles Morning indulged too freely of the products of the corn juice, and as a result found himself in the hands of the law that evening and was taken to the lockup, where he remained until brought before his honor, Judge M. Archer, who assessed upon him the sum of $2 and costs, amounting to $5, which Charles paid and left the court in a very mourning condition.

Foils a Foul Plot.

When a shameful plot exists between liver and bowels to cause distress by refusing to act, take Dr. King's New Life Pills, and end such abuse of your system. They gently compel right action of stomach, liver and bowels, and restore your health and all good feelings. 25c at F. G. Fricke & Co.

GREENWOOD PARTIES INJURED IN LINCOLN FRIDAY

From Friday's Daily.

J. W. Stewart, aged 70 years, of near Greenwood, was severely injured about 2:30 yesterday afternoon, when an automobile which he was driving collided with a Vine street car near Thirty-second street. He was taken to a hospital and an examination showed that he had suffered a "knocked-down" shoulder, the bones of the shoulder being torn apart and the ligaments torn, though none of the bones were fractured. He also suffered bruises about one ear. In the car with Mr. Stewart were his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Albert Stewart, and her little daughter, Margaret. The little girl was bruised slightly on the face, but was not otherwise hurt. Mrs. Stewart suffered a severely sprained ankle. The auto party had just started to return to Greenwood. The car struck the auto squarely in the front part, and only the prompt action of the motorman in applying the brakes prevented a more serious accident, as some of the injured persons were on the track in front of the car when it came to a stop. The street car men brought the Stewarts to the city and Mr. Stewart was taken to a hospital, where it will be necessary for him to remain for several days. — Lincoln Journal.

APPLICANTS FOR THE LOUISVILLE POSTOFFICE

From Saturday's Daily.

Fred H. Ossenkop has a petition out asking that he be appointed postmaster when Postmaster Dorsey's term of office expires. He has a strong following and his petition has been signed by about all the business men of the town, as well as the majority of the patrons of the office. Postmaster Dorsey has given universal satisfaction during his term of office, but the change of administration will most assuredly mean a change in the management of the postoffice and the Courier knows of no democrat who would better fill the bill than Fred Ossenkop. His experience in the railway mail service will be of material assistance to him in handling the mails expeditiously.

The Courier has also heard the name of C. M. Seybert, another staunch democrat, mentioned in connection with the position, and there may yet be more to follow. — Louisville Courier.

A COUPLE OF EVIL DOERS ANSWER IN POLICE COURT

From Saturday's Daily.

Yesterday afternoon Alex McQuary was arraigned in Judge Archer's court, charged with having created a disturbance at a dance in the north part of the city Wednesday night. It seems that Alex did not conduct himself in a manner that pleased the parties giving the dance, and he was removed after considerable difficulty, but later in the evening he returned to the dance and proceeded to become involved, with the result that he faced a charge of disturbing the peace. Alex stated that two witnesses highly material to his side of the case were out of the city and the case was continued until next Saturday morning at 9 o'clock.

This morning the police judge was called upon to pronounce sentence upon Clarence Giles who was picked up by Chief Rainey for being in a state of beastly intoxication and placed in the lockup. The judge decided that $2 and costs would be necessary to satisfy the law, and in default of the sum Clarence will languish in the county jail.

From Near Weeping Water.

From Saturday's Daily. Henry Kehne, from near Weeping Water, one of the Journal's warm friends, of Center precinct, came over today for the transaction of some county seat business matters, and, of course, did not fail to make this office a brief call. He says all the farmers in his locality are nearly through corn husking and the yield is pretty fair. Mr. Kehne will go out to the home of his brother, Fred, west of Plattsmouth, where he will spend Sunday, returning home Monday.

Matthew Herold was a passenger this morning for Omaha to look after business connected with his store.

CHANGES IN TEACHERS IN THE HIGH SCHOOL

From Saturday's Daily.

Miss Lenora Wolfanger, who has been one of our most efficient high school teachers, has been compelled to resign on account of sickness in her family, and her place will be filled by Miss Estelle Baird, who will be succeeded by Miss Pearl Staats, and Miss Rose Anderson of Ashland will be employed to teach the room formerly taught by Miss Staats. In view of her promotion a number of the teachers of the schools decided to give Miss Baird a surprise, so Wednesday at the noon hour they proceeded to her room with well filled baskets and enjoyed a very sumptuous spread, and it came as a complete surprise to Miss Baird, who did not dream that such an affair was contemplated, but was greatly touched with the demonstration of her friends.

Has Hand Lacerated.

From Friday's Daily. Wednesday afternoon T. M. Scarbrough, who is employed in the Burlington planing mill, had the misfortune to have two of the fingers on his right hand badly lacerated by one of the saws. The wounds were dressed at once and Teddy will be compelled to stay on the retired list for several weeks, as the cuts were quite severe.

Depart for New Home.

From Saturday's Daily.

L. A. Moore, wife and father, Curtis Moore, departed this morning for Florida, where they expect to make their future home. The Moore family are among the oldest residents of the city, and it is with great regret that their friends see them leave our city, but the best wishes of everyone goes with them that they may find happiness and prosperity in their new home in the southland.

ELKS ENJOY FINE TREAT AT THEIR CLUB ROOMS

From Saturday's Daily.

The members of the Elks' lodge last evening had one of the finest "feeds" at their club rooms that has been held in the city for some time. The feast was held after the regular session of the lodge and consisted of roast turkey, with all the trimmings, and was a most enjoyable treat to the membership present. The committee in charge of the arrangements spared no pains to make the occasion a success and the result speaks for itself. This lodge has the reputation of never doing anything by halves and last evening's entertainment was one of the best they have held.

FITFORM

The public, no doubt, sees the humor in some recent "made to order" excuses for "sales" used by a great number of the Omaha clothiers the past two weeks. One has a "Re-Organization Sale," another an "Anniversary Sale," or "Mid-Season Sale" or an "Overstocked Sale" or any old sale, none of which has anything to do with actual merchandise values.

This store does not run sales for the purpose of sensational merchandising. The man who thinks he is getting something for nothing is usually the fellow who never gets his money's worth.

Just now we are showing a line of high grade Suits and Overcoats at $15, $16.50, $18, $20, $22.50 and $25.00.
