Murray State Bank

Quite a good many attended the play at Union last Saturday evening.

Lorene Chambers, who has been so ill the past few weeks, is improving.

Mrs. Sam Gopen of Wyoming visited with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gopen Sunday.

Charles Ratcliffe came up from Union Tuesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. George Shrader Wednesday.

Louie Rice, who has been so ill for the past few months, is still confined to his home. He is able to be up and around the house, and while he is improving, it is very slowly.

Mrs. W. E. Dull has been planning for a visit with her sisters in Youngstown, Ohio, and Grove City, Pa., intending to make the trip this week, but will wait until the high water season in that locality is over.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lyman arrived home last Saturday evening from a trip through the south, also visiting Washington, Mount Vernon, numerous places in Ohio and a short stay in Chicago. The trip was a delightful one, and the trip to Mount Vernon especially impressed them.

If you need anything in the line of Fire, Lightning, Wind Storm, Tornado Insurance, why not take out a policy with A. L. Baker, who represents a company that has been in business for 119 years and paid out in losses money equal to 270 tons of gold coin. Come in and let us talk it over.

Mrs. Lucile Benedict of Denver, Colorado, arrived home last Friday evening to spend a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Rice, west of Murray. She returned to Denver Tuesday of this week. While here Mrs. Benedict sold her fine driving horse to her father, William Rice.

Miss Addie Dill and Oscar Shrader were married in Nebraska City Tuesday of last week. Miss Dill is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Dill, residing near Murray, where she has resided all her life, and where she is most highly respected by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. The groom is the youngest son of Robert Shrader, an excellent young man, steady and industrious and commands the respect of all who know him. The Journal joins in extending congratulations. The happy couple will make their home on a farm near Union.

DENTAL WORK.

Dr. Thomsen, Dentist, of Plattsmouth, will be in Murray on Thursday's, Nebraska on Friday's, and Union on Saturday's of each week, where he will be pleased to meet all parties desiring dental work done.

Mrs. Sarah Young is numbered with the sick this week.

The Study club will meet Tuesday, April 1, at the library.

Lloyd Gopen was a Plattsmouth visitor Monday afternoon.

The church services have been quite well attended the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Shrader were the guests of Charles Tucker Sunday.

Mrs. J. F. Brendel went to Weeping Water Wednesday for a visit with her parents.

Torrence Fleming of near Weeping Water has been reported quite sick for the past few days.

George Cook of Alvo spent Sunday in Murray, a guest at the home of Joseph Cook and W. D. Wheeler.

Mr. and Mrs. James Loughridge were in Omaha Monday, Mrs. Loughridge remaining for a few days' visit.

Nick Friedrich was a Nebraska City visitor Wednesday. It is supposed that he went down to buy some clover seed.

M. C. Baker of Nodaway, Mich., arrived in Murray Tuesday evening for a short visit with his son, A. L. Baker and family. He was returning to his home from a visit with his daughter, Mrs. Burton, at Clay Center.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spangler were visiting relatives in Plattsmouth last Sunday, and just got home before the storm of Easter day broke out, which did a great deal of damage to the outbuildings and trees about their place.

Numerous friends here have been receiving Easter cards from Mrs. Mary Virgin at Wausa, stating that they were well pleased with that locality, but were still like us, in the grip of winter, and the Good Friday potato day has long passed and no potatoes yet started.

Mrs. J. E. Fleming, a former resident of Murray, died at the hospital in Lincoln this week and the funeral will be held in Weeping Water Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Fleming have been living at Superior, Neb., where Mrs. Fleming was taken ill and went to Lincoln for an operation which resulted in her death.

Clarence Flanny and Glen Couple were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Minford and D. A. Young last Sunday. Mr. Flanny's home is in Berlin, and on his return found his home destroyed by the tornado of Sunday evening. Mr. Minford's sister, Mrs. Irin, and family, live at Berlin, and their house was badly wrecked and their horse and barn entirely destroyed.

A jolly good time and the best of music will be the features at the Cosmopolitan club dance Saturday evening at Coates' hall. Admission: Gents, 50c; ladies, free.

Plants for Sale.

Tomato, cabbage and sweet potatoe plants for early planting. W. A. Scott, Murray.

Starts West Today.

W. K. Shepherdson was in the city Monday, and while here paid the Journal office a brief call. "K." tells us that he will start west on Thursday of this week. He goes to York, where he will make a short visit with relatives; from there to Denver, and on to Wortland, Wyoming, where he will make his home. It is Mr. Shepherdson's intention to engage in the cattle business pretty extensively, and he may have occasion at market time to visit his old Cass county friends quite frequently.

BLOOD POISONED THROUGH GIVING MEDICINE TO HORSES

Fred, Otto and Philip Schafer have been suffering for the past two weeks with a blood infection, caused from administering medicines in the mouth of one of their horses that has been sick. The sickness of the animal caused it to have a very sore mouth, and the three brothers seemed to have small scratches on their hands, and from the slight injuries sufficient poisoning was taken from the animal's mouth to inflict quite a serious infection of the blood. Fred has been suffering the greatest, and the infection started on his right thumb and the pain has extended to the shoulder. It is feared that he may be compelled to have a portion of the thumb removed. He was taken to Omaha, and this was the advice of the specialist, but Fred does not like to part with that member unless necessary and will await further developments.

The Storm Near Murray.

In addition to the very disastrous work of the Sunday's storm already given in the Journal, we find a few additional notes, some very bad and some slight, which are given in the following notes:

Dee Shrader and wife met with quite an experience in the storm. As stated before, their children had been with their grandparents, and Mr. and Mrs. Shrader had started after them just as the storm passed. They endeavored to get out of its path, but came near being right in the thickest of it. Their buggy was picked up by the wind and completely demolished. Dee was carried into a tree and had two ribs fractured, while Mrs. Shrader was uninjured.

Jack Mead's home was one of the worst stricken places in the lot.

The barn on Alex Rhoden's place was blown down. The horses in the barn were uninjured.

About one-fourth of D. A. Young's fine orchard was destroyed, and the storm blew down shade trees at the home. They were badly frightened and at one time feared their home was in the path of destruction.

The outbuildings and farm implements of Henry Creamer were entirely destroyed.

Clara Copenhaver and Charles Swan met with an experience that they will not soon forget. They were out taking a buggy ride, and were in the path of the storm before they knew it. Jumping from the buggy they lay flat on the ground, holding tight to some wire fence posts. The tornado passed over, but the force of it blew them around considerably, but they were uninjured.

Dave Murray's house was another that was in the path of the storm and was completely torn up.

The barn and all outbuildings on the Slagle farm were destroyed.

Glen Campbell's was another place that was completely destroyed, and all the family had a very narrow escape from death by getting to the cave.

Remember the market day next Saturday at the library.

A LARGE NUMBER OF SYMPATHETIC FRIENDS ATTEND FUNERAL

The funeral of Mrs. George Shrader, who was killed at her home, east of Murray, in the cyclone Sunday evening, was held from the Lewiston church yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. Taylor of Union and the remains laid to their last resting place in the Lewiston cemetery. Even though the day was cold and disagreeable, there were many loving friends, neighbors and relatives who attended the services at the church. The funeral cortege was fully one-half mile in length. Mrs. Shrader was a lady that was loved by all who knew her, and during all the years that she has resided in Cass county each one has witnessed an increase in her large circle of friends, who deeply feel and regret her loss and extend heartfelt sympathy to the husband and loving children left to mourn her death. Of the family of eight—Mr. and Mrs. Shrader, three daughters and three sons—the mother is the first to be called from their midst. She was 69 years and 5 months of age. The pall-bearers were: D. J. Pittman, William Gilmore, James Loughridge, W. B. Banning, William Wolf and D. C. Rhoden.

Suffering Very Much.

Otto Puls, who has been suffering for some time with an inflammation of the knee joint, accompanied Dr. Gilmore to Omaha Tuesday, where the injured member was examined by a specialist with an X-ray. The photograph was taken, but up to this time no diagnosis of the case has been made.

Mother's Experience.

All members of a family always look to the mother for help in trouble and sickness, knowing that every mother has a great experience and that she is always ready to forget her own pains and assist the sufferer. Mrs. Elizabeth Bederka of Grant Wood, N. J., had the following experience: "I can say that Trimer's American Elixir of Bitter Wine is the best remedy for the stomach. I do not spend my money on doctors any longer, but use this remedy in my family whenever a sickness appears, especially a sickness from the stomach." Experience taught Mrs. Bederka how and when to use Trimer's American Elixir of Bitter Wine. This same experience have many other mothers had, which explains the rapid sale of that preparation. It is recommended in diseases of the stomach and the intestines. At drug stores. Jos. Trimer, 1333-1339 S. Ashland Ave., Chicago. In swellings and sprains use Trimer's Liniment.

ALBERT SCHAFER BUYS A FINE LARGE JACK

Albert and Adam Schafer, two of the five farmers from Mount Pleasant precinct, were county seat visitors Tuesday of this week, spending a few hours with friends and looking after business matters. While here Albert called at the Journal to order some horse bills for his fine Percheron horse, also for the new jack that he has just received from Missouri. Mr. Schaffer's new acquisition in the stock line, San Salvador, 2d, is one of the finest jacks ever brought to Nebraska, his sire being imported from Spain, the noted San Salvador. He was formerly owned by Frank Busch of Villa Ridge, Mo. He is a large animal, weighing 1,200 pounds, and stands 15 1/2 hands high. He is a dark mouse color with wealy points.

Farewell Reception.

A farewell reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Vallery last Saturday afternoon, at which time a large number of relatives and friends gathered in to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Shepherdson, in whose honor the affair was given. The occasion was a surprise to both Mr. and Mrs. Shepherdson, who were busy preparing themselves for their western journey. The guests began to gather about 1:30 o'clock, and about 4 all were in readiness for the excellent three-course luncheon. The afternoon was a most pleasant one for all, especially Mr. and Mrs. Shepherdson, who will depart this week for Wortland, Wyoming, where they will make their future home. At the hour of home departure all regretted to say good-bye to these excellent young people, but at the same time wished them much happiness and success in their new home. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames George Snyder, Albert Wetenkamp, Edgar Barker, George Krager, Ed Vallery, G. J. Meisinger, G. Meisinger, P. P. Meisinger, Guy Keiser, Rev. Gould, V. E. Perry, Steve Barker, Will Rummel, W. T. Richardson, H. G. Meisinger, Louie Meisinger, Albert Satchell, James Hill, Roy Howard, Mrs. Bently Livingston, Mrs. John Vallery, Mrs. William Wetenkamp, Jessie Long, Elmer, Arthur and Glen Wetenkamp, Andy Snyder, Archie Shepherdson, Masters Noble Kiser, Charles Howard, Paul Long, Hamilton Meisinger, Howard Barker, and Misses Mary Wetenkamp, Martha Barker, Glenna Barker, Gladys Meisinger, Hazel Barker, Edith Perry, Mabel Howard, Louise Rummel and little Elinora Meisinger.

Tornado Insurance.

Wouldn't it be better to receive a check from an insurance company after a tornado or cyclone takes away your home than to be compelled to use your own hard cash to rebuild? I represent Standard Old Line Companies, and can write your insurance at a low rate. Better look up your policies and if you have no tornado insurance call at the bank and let me fix you out.

Oak Posts for Sale.

About 400 bur oak posts for sale. Apply to Joseph Mrasek, on the Dull farm.

Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. John Farris celebrated their tenth wedding anniversary last Saturday afternoon. The affair was planned by Mrs. A. L. Baker and Miss May St. John, and was a complete surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Farris. Owing to the very stormy weather many of the invited guests were kept at home, but the affair was a most pleasant one to those who did attend. Many baskets with good things to eat were taken by the visitors, and Mrs. A. L. Baker prepared the bride's cake, upon which were ten candles to denote the number of years of the anniversary. At luncheon time these candles were lighted.

Hedge Posts for Sale.

1,200 good hedge posts for sale; 600 are 7-foot and 600 are 8-foot. Call on Guy Stokes, 1 mile east and 3/4 miles north of Murray, or address Plattsmouth, R. F. D. No. 1. Tel. 5-H Murray.

Adam Stoehr came in this morning from his home near Cedar Creek and was a passenger on the early Burlington train for Omaha to look after some matters of business.
