

You Know Us

We are in business right here where you live. You are an acquaintance, neighbor or a friend of ours. This money-back-if-not-satisfied offer should prove the sincerity of our claims.

When we say we believe we have the best laxative and back up our statement with our unqualified promise to return without question or formally the money paid us for it, if it does not prove entirely satisfactory to you, we believe we are entitled to your confidence.

Our business success and prestige depend upon your confidence in us. We know we must secure and hold your confidence in order to get and keep your patronage. Therefore, we would not dare make this offer if we were not positively certain that we can prove our claims for

ReXall Orderlies

Our experience with them and the many reports we have received from those who have used them testify that they are really the most pleasing and satisfactory bowel remedy we know of.

ReXall Orderlies taste like candy. They are soothing and easy in action. They don't cause griping, nausea, purging or excessive looseness, as do the usual physic or laxative. ReXall Orderlies seem to act as a tonic-strengthening upon the nerves and muscles of the bowels. They promptly relieve constipation. They act to overcome the cause of constipation. They tend to eliminate the cause of sick headache, biliousness, bad breath, nervousness and other ills attendant upon inactive bowels.

Make Us Prove This

We want you to come to our store and get a package of ReXall Orderlies. Use a few or use up the entire box. Then, if you are not entirely satisfied, come back and tell us and we will promptly return the money you paid us for them.

You promise nothing—you sign nothing—you obligate yourself to us in no way whatever. We accept your mere word.

Don't you now believe that ReXall Orderlies are worthy of a trial? Could any offer be more fair?

Try Them at Our Risk

We particularly recommend ReXall Orderlies for children, aged persons and for delicate people.

ReXall Orderlies come in vest pocket tin boxes. 12 tablets, 10c; 36 tablets, 25c; 80 tablets, 50c. Usual dose one tablet.

CAUTION: Please bear in mind that ReXall Orderlies are not sold by all drug-gists. You can buy ReXall Orderlies only at The ReXall Stores.

CONTENTS OF WAGON SCATTERED AROUND VERY PROMISCUOUSLY

From Tuesday's Daily. This morning white Tom McKinney was driving a hayrack loaded with household goods out of the subway onto the approach on the river bottom road one of the wheels of the wagon sank to the hub in the mud and the contents of the wagon were scattered around and it was necessary to unload the hayrack before the wagon could be gotten out of the mud. The road at this particular place, at the east entrance of the subway, is in miserable shape and a regular mudhole has been formed there and the city should take steps at once to see that the road is placed in proper condition for travel, as a great many automobiles come into this city from Iowa points, and this mudhole is a disgrace to the city and causes a very poor opinion of conditions here among the visitors.

MRS. J. W. JOHNSON ENTERTAINS THE WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS

From Wednesday's Daily. The members of the Woman's Relief Corps and their friends were entertained most pleasantly yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. W. Johnson, in the north part of the city, and the meeting was attended by a large number and the occasion was one of great pleasure, as well as profit, to the guests and members. The afternoon was spent in social conversation and a very delightful time was enjoyed until an appropriate hour, when the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. John W. Chapman, served a most delicious and tempting luncheon, after which the ladies departed for their homes, feeling that it was a rare treat to be a guest at the Johnson home.

BERT HINER WILL BE OPERATED UPON FOR DROPSY

From Wednesday's Daily. Yesterday afternoon Bert Hiner was taken to Omaha on the Missouri Pacific, where he was taken to St. Joseph's hospital to be operated on for dropsy, from which ailment he has been a sufferer for some time. His brother, William Hiner, departed for the metropolis this afternoon to be present when the operation is performed. The serious condition of Mr. Hiner will be the source of much regret to the many friends in this city and their best wishes for his restoration to health will be extended to him. It is not known just when the operation will be performed, as the doctors have not fully decided the matter, but the outcome will be awaited anxiously by Mr. Hiner's friends.

BURLINGTON OFFICIAL SEES SPENDID CROP PROSPECTS

From Wednesday's Daily. Assistant General Freight Agent W. W. Johnson of the Burlington is quoted as saying: "During my thirty or more years' residence in Nebraska there never has been a spring when prospects looked so bright for a wheat crop as now. The acreage is unusually large and the fields begin to take on a bright green color. Everywhere the farmers are busy. They have not commenced plowing for corn, but all of them through this state and Kansas are right in the midst of sowing oats and barley and it looks as though the area of cultivated land would be larger than ever before. In many localities farmers have commenced breaking their uncultivated land, which later on they will sow to flax or plant to sod corn. With present prices maintaining it looks as if this was going to be a banner year for the western farmers."

A SECRET DETECTIVE IN PLAIN CLOTHES IN CITY

From Wednesday's Daily. For the past week there has been reports that the city was harboring a gentleman who had been brought here for the purpose of ferreting out violators of the law. This gentleman, it seems, has been able to worm himself into the confidence of some of our citizens before his mission was discovered, and was able to secure some facts that were greatly to his advantage, but it is not known just what use will be made of them. These detectives are very smooth in their work and are able to put one over on the unsuspecting in a good many cases, and it would stand the people in general to keep their eyes open for the strangers that blow into town and at once get interested in matters that might involve the parties into trouble. Some of the parties that claim to have met the gentleman report him as a most pleasant and genial fellow and one who at once is willing to enter into anything that is proposed, and it would be well for the public to be on the lookout for this smooth, plain-clothes man, if they desire to keep out of trouble and see that their feet do not stray from the straight and narrow path.
