

FUNERAL OF MRS.

HENRY EIKENBARY

Services Conducted by Rev. Allan G. Wilson and Attended by Many Relatives and Friends.

Yesterday afternoon the funeral of the late Mrs. Henry Eikenbary was held at her late home, southwest of this city, and were attended by a large number of friends, who had known this worthy lady so well during her lifetime. The Rev. Allan G. Wilson of St. Luke's church of this city conducted the services at the home, using the beautiful Episcopal service for the dead, and the relatives derived much comfort from the words of hope given by the minister.

The floral tributes were lavish and silently attested the high regard held by the community for this worthy pioneer lady, whose life had been spent so largely in this locality. A choir from St. Luke's church furnished the music, being selections that had been favorites of the departed lady. The body was laid to its last rest in the Eikenbary cemetery, south of this city, being gently laid away by old neighbors and friends residing near the home.

While the death of Mrs. Eikenbary came as a great shock and sorrow to the relatives and friends, they will be able to carry with them the remembrance of her gentle kindly life and it will live with the husband and children in the future years as a blessed memory of a life well spent. There were a large number of relatives and friends from out of town present at the funeral to pay their last tributes to their departed friend.

WILL THE PEOPLE OF PLATTSMOUTH STAND THE RAISE?

Editor Journal:

Can the telephone company give any good reason why the people of our city should be compelled to pay $3,000 a year more for the use of the phones? When they asked permission to buy and consolidate the phones they claimed that they could give us better service, and do it cheaper. It is easier to keep up one line than two; cheaper to run one office than two; could do the work with less help. Now they come to your home, put up another phone, don't ask your permission, and now say you must pay $1.50, charging you 50 cents a month more. They say they have spent $12,000 on new improvements, but we doubt it very much. If they have interest at 10 per cent, it would be $2,400. The book I have numbers up to 500 phones; at 50 cents increase that would make $3,000 a year increase. We don't believe it is justice, and hope the railway commission will see that we get justice. The people are not in favor of monopolies, and if we must have them let them be controlled. Our taxes are high, and the cry is, "Everything should be cheaper." Then why not cheaper phone service in place of trying to burden our people with more? Give us justice and there will be no fault found; but we can do without the phones, and I for one will try, sooner than let a few men monopolize a business and then rob the people.

Justice.

You will look a good while before you find a better medicine for coughs and colds than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only gives relief—it cures. Try it when you have a cough or cold, and you are certain to be pleased with that prompt cure which it will effect. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

THE MULLIS HOME DESTROYED BY FIRE

Saturday afternoon about 4 o'clock the fire alarm was sounded for a bad fire that had broken out at the home of Virgil Mullis, in the west portion of the city, and the department at once responded, but the fire being almost two miles from the hose house, the flames had gained great headway and by the time the fire boys reached the scene of the fire the whole upper portion of the structure was in flames and entirely beyond control. The place is located several blocks out of the fire limits, and the hose was not sufficient to reach the fire, which slowly but surely gained headway against the efforts of the firemen and neighbors. The flames for a time threatened the adjoining residence of Jacob Stenner, but by the heroic efforts of the firemen it was saved from the spreading fire, although for a few minutes it seemed that both houses were doomed to destruction. The home of Mr. Mullis was completely destroyed and they only saved part of their household goods from the lower floor of the house. The fire is supposed to have started from sparks on the roof, and with the lack of water had soon complete sweep of the whole second story. The loss is partly covered by insurance.

Tornado Insurance.

Wouldn't it be better to receive a check from an insurance company after a tornado or cyclone takes away your home than to be compelled to use your own hard cash to rebuild? I represent Standard Old Line Companies, and can write your insurance at a low rate. Better look up your policies and if you have no tornado insurance call at the bank and let me fix you out.

LARGE CROWDS VISITED SOENNICHSEN'S STORE

The formal opening of the big daylight store of H. M. Soennichsen was held Saturday, and from early morning until late at night the store was crowded by hosts of customers and the day's business was most gratifying to the proprietor and the clerks. This store is without doubt one of the finest in the county, and the stock carried on hand is something enormous. Mr. Soennichsen has always maintained a most up-to-date grocery stock, and has been able to supply the demand for any article in that line, and since the removing into the new building he has put in a stock of dry goods which is rapidly meeting with favor from the public.

Saturday Mr. Soennichsen presented every lady calling with a handsome cut glass pickle dish, and a person can judge of the crowd that visited the store when it is known that 1,200 of these dishes were given away. They were very handsome in appearance and will make a fine addition to the china closet of any person. Mr. Soennichsen is strictly progressive in his store and the force of clerks are among the most obliging and polite in the city.

LOCAL T. J. SOKOLS ARRANGING FOR BIG TIME

Yesterday Joseph Mik of Omaha, one of the most prominent Bohemian citizens in this part of the west, was in the city visiting with his friends and making arrangements to bring a large number of his countrymen down from Omaha to assist in the celebration of the twentieth anniversary of the erection of the hall of the T. J. Sokol society in this city. The arrangements are being made to make this event, on May 18, one of the largest of its kind that has ever been held here, and there will be many visitors present from all parts of the state, and Omaha will send several hundred to take part. Mr. Mik will bring with him a Bohemian dramatic club, which will present one of their plays at the hall if arrangements can be completed in time. The local committee in charge of the event is preparing a very extensive program that will be very pleasing to all attending and mark an epoch in the history of the Bohemians in this city.

BABY ELEPHANTS FOR THE YANKEE ROBINSON CIRCUS

Two baby elephants were unloaded in Glenwood one day last week and hauled to Lancaster to W. P. Hall's circus headquarters. These little fellows came direct from their native haunts in the old country, being on ship and rail about four weeks. Mr. Hall has a large demand for circus stuff this spring and has shipped about twelve carloads of circus horses alone during the past week to different points. The two baby elephants, together with two camels, two lions, one bear, a parrot, and other circus paraphernalia, were loaded at Glenwood last Thursday morning and consigned to the Yankee Robinson circus at Des Moines.—Memphis (Mo.) ## HE IS PERFECTLY SAFE AS LONG AS HE BEHAVES HIMSELF

Plattsmouth is to have a Fourth of July celebration this year. That Plattsmouth Commercial club is not content with having us build them a new jail, but now want us to come down so they can put us in the darn thing. One newspaper feller they can figure on will not be there—the editor of the Weeping Water Republican—and we don't blame him either. And as for us we would much prefer to be out looking in than to be in looking out.—Louisville Courier.

RE-DECORATING THE INTERIOR OF ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

The interior of St. John's Roman Catholic church in this city is being fixed up in splendid shape by the church board, and when the work is completed it will be one of the handsomest churches in the city. The workmen are just completing the work of placing the new steel ceiling in the building, and in a few days the painters and decorators will begin the task of beautifying the church. The work of decorating the church will be in charge of John M. Vondran, and with his long experience he will be able to give the parishoners a work of art.

"My little son had a very severe cold. I was recommended to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and before a small bottle was finished he was as well as ever," writes Mrs. H. Silks, 29 Dowling Street, Sydney, Australia. This remedy is for sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.
