

In the District Court in and for Cass County, Nebraska.

William L. Nickels, assignee of Gertrude M. Wiley, and William Rainey, Plaintiff, vs. Charles Edward Wiley, Defendant.

Notice to the Defendant, Charles Edward Wiley:

You will take notice that on the 30th day of April, A. D. 1913, William L. Nickels, Plaintiff herein, filed his petition and affidavit in the District Court of Cass County, Nebraska, against you, the object and prayer of which is to revive a certain judgment obtained against you by Gertrude M. Wiley and William Rainey on November 16, A. D. 1901, for the sum of $528.00 with interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum from date and costs of suit taxed in the sum of $24.89, which said judgment on November 14, 1911, became dormant. That no part of said judgment has ever been paid, and alleging that during all of said period of time you have been insolvent, and praying that an order be entered reviving said judgment, and awarding plaintiff execution thereon in the sum of $528.00 with interest at seven per cent per annum from November 16, 1901, and all accrued costs.

You are required to answer said petition and affidavit and show cause, if any, on or before the 16th day of June, A. D. 1913, why an order of the District Court of Cass County, Nebraska, should not be entered reviving said judgment in said sum, and awarding plaintiff execution thereon.

If you fail to answer, appear or show cause before said date, your default will be duly entered therein, and said order of revivor will be issued, of all of which you will take due notice.

Dated this 3rd day of May, A. D. 1913. WILLIAM L. NICKELS, Assignee of Gertrude M. Wiley, and William Rainey, Plaintiff. RAWLS & ROBERTSON, Attorneys.
